WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 21st June 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time on the 21st June 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of September next:—

A Bill to comprise in one Act the provisions necessary for the assessment and collection of municipal rates and taxes in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by special Acts for the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, certain rates and taxes are imposed for raising funds for municipal purposes; and whereas it is expedient to comprise in one Act the provisions necessary for the assessment and collection of such rates and taxes: It is enacted as follows:—

Application of Act.

I. The provisions of this Act, save so far as they may be expressly varied or excepted by the special Act for any of the said Towns or for the said Settlement, shall apply to the assessment and collection of the rates and taxes imposed by such special Act, and to the Commissioners appointed thereby for the conservancy and improvement of such Town or of any station of the said Settlement; and such special Act and this Act shall be construed together as forming one Act.

Appointment of officers.

II. The Commissioners may from time to time appoint such assessors, collectors, and other officers as they shall think necessary and proper to assist in the execution of this and the special Act, and may from time to time remove any of such officers, and may pay such salaries and allowances to the said officers respectively as the Commissioners shall think reasonable, subject to the approval of the Local Government.

Assessment upon annual value of property.

III. The rate or rates imposed upon houses and lands in any of the said Towns or in the said Settlement by the special Act shall be assessed upon an estimate of the annual value of the property liable thereto.

Ascertaining annual value.

IV. The annual value of the houses and lands liable to the rate shall be computed and ascertained upon an estimate of the gross annual rent at which the same might reasonably be expected to let from year to year. The value of a house so estimated shall not include the value of any machinery contained therein.

Machinery.

Valuation to be made and entered in a book.

V. For the purpose of such assessment as aforesaid, the Commissioners shall from year to year cause a valuation to be made of all houses and lands liable to the rate. Such valuation, estimated as is hereinbefore provided, shall be entered in a book to be kept at the office of the Commissioners, wherein shall also be written in distinct columns the name of the owner of the property; or, if the occupier, and not the owner, is the person liable to pay the rate, the name of the occupier; a designation of the property either by name or number sufficient to identify the same, together with the name of the street or district in which such property is situate, and the amount of the rate assessed thereon.

Description of owner or occupier if name unknown.

VI. When the name of the owner or occupier is not known, it shall be sufficient to designate him in the said book, and also in any notice or other proceeding under this Act, as "the owner" or "the occupier" of the property on which the rate is assessed, without further description.

Returns, &c. may be required for purpose of valuation.

VII. In order to enable the Commissioners to arrive at a fair valuation of any houses or lands liable to the rate, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to require the owner or occupier of such houses or lands to furnish them with returns of the rent or annual value thereof; and for the like purpose it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or any person or persons appointed by them for that purpose, at any time to enter on and inspect such houses or lands after having given twenty-four hours' previous notice of such their intention to the occupier thereof; and whoever refuses or to fails furnish any such return for the space of one week from the day on which he shall have been required so to do, or knowingly makes a false or incorrect return; and whoever hinders, obstructs, or prevents any one of the Commissioners or any person appointed by them as aforesaid from entering upon or inspecting any such houses or lands, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a penalty not exceeding 200 Rupees.

Public notice of valuation to be given.

VIII. When the valuation has been completed, the Commissioners shall give public notice thereof, and of the place where the said book containing the valuation and the rate assessed, or a copy of the said book, may be inspected in the Government Gazette (if any), and by advertisement in some newspaper circulating within the town or station, and also by placards posted up in conspicuous places throughout the same; and the person in whose custody such book may be shall permit every person claiming to be the owner or occupier of property included in the assessment, or the agent of such owner or occupier to inspect the book and to make extracts therefrom without payment of any fee; and any such person who wilfully neglects or refuses to permit the same, shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a penalty of fifty rupees.

Public notice of time of revising assessment.

IX. The Commissioners shall, at the time and in the manner in the preceding Section mentioned, give public notice of a day not less than fifteen days from the publication of such notice, when they will meet at their office for the purpose of receiving complaints against the said valuation and assessment and of revising the same; and all complaints so made shall be enquired into by the Commissioners, and such amendment shall thereupon be made in the said book as to the Commissioners shall appear just and proper.

If no objection, assessment contained in book to be final.

X. In every case in which no valid objection is made to the valuation and assessment within the said period of fifteen days after such notice and publication, (if no appeal shall be preferred as hereinafter provided,) the entries in the said book contained shall, until the valuation and assessment is altered or amended, be taken as sufficient proof of the due valuation of the property therein described or referred to, and of the rate to be levied in respect thereof.

After revision, assessment book to be signed.

XI. After the revision of the valuation and assessment has been completed, the amendments made in the said book shall be authenticated by the signature of two of the Commissioners, who shall at the same time certify under their signature that no valid objection has been made to the valuation and assessment in the said book entered, except in the cases in which amendments have been made as shown therein; and thereupon, and subject to such alterations and amendments as may thereafter be duly made, the rate so assessed shall be deemed to be the rate for the whole year in and for which the assessment is made, and such year shall commence on the 1st day of January.

Rate assessed to be deemed the rate for the whole year.

Alteration or amendment of assessment.

XII. Provided always that the Commissioners, upon the representation of parties or other information, may at any time amend the said book by inserting therein the name of any person whose name ought to be so inserted, or any property liable to the rate; or by striking out the name of any person or any property not liable to the rate, or by raising or reducing the amount of the rate, or by making any other alteration which will make the assessment conform to the provisions of this and the special Act: and in all cases in which any property is inserted as liable to the rate, or in which the amount of any rate is raised by such amendment, the same shall be considered to have been made at the time when the person interested first received notice thereof.

Taxes upon vehicles and animals.

XIII. The taxes imposed upon vehicles and animals in any of the said Towns or in the said Settlement by the special Act, shall be assessed in the manner hereinafter provided.

List of horses and carriages, &c. liable to the tax to be prepared and entered in a book.

XIV. The Commissioners shall from time to time cause to be prepared and entered in distinct columns in a book to be kept at the Office of the Commissioners, and to be open to the inspection of any person interested therein, a list of the persons liable to the payment of such taxes, a description of the vehicles and animals in respect of which they are liable, and the amount of the taxes assessed thereon.

Returns may be required for purpose of making list.

XV. In order to enable the Commissioners to make such list, the Commissioners or any officer authorized by them may send to all persons supposed to be liable to the payment of such taxes a schedule to be filled up with such information respecting the vehicles and animals kept by them as the Commissioners may judge necessary for the assessment of the taxes. The schedule shall be filled up in writing, and signed, and dated, and returned to the office of the Commissioners by every person to whom it is sent, whether or not liable to the payment of such taxes; and whoever refuses, neglects, or omits, duly to fill up and return such schedule within one week from the receipt thereof, or knowingly gives therein any incorrect or false return, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding 200 Rupees.

Power to summon persons liable to the payment of the taxes.

XVI. The Commissioners may summon any person supposed to be liable to the payment of such taxes or any servant of such person, and may examine such person or his servant at a meeting of the Commissioners as to the number and description of the horses and carriages in respect of which such person is liable to be assessed. If the person summoned shall refuse, or, without lawful excuse, neglect to appear in pursuance of the summons, or shall refuse to answer any lawful question of the Commissioners, or knowingly give an incorrect answer, he shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding 200 Rupees.

Complaint against rate, &c. to be determined by two Magistrates.

XVII. Appeals against any rate or tax settled by the Commissioners, under the provisions of this or the special Act, shall be heard and determined by two Magistrates, except in the Town of Bombay; and, in the Town of Bombay, by the Court of Petty Sessions. If there be only one Magistrate acting for any town or station, the appeal may be heard and determined by a Magistrate and a Justice of the Peace. But no appeal against a rate settled by the Commissioners under Section XI shall be heard, unless complaint has been previously made to the Commissioners. The mode of proceeding in such appeal shall be the same as that prescribed for the determination of matters referred to two Magistrates, and at Bombay to the said Court, by Act XIV of 1856. Provided that such Magistrates, or such Magistrate and Justice, and such Court, may, if they shall think fit, state a case for the opinion of the Supreme Court or (in the said Settlement) of Her Majesty's Court of Judicature.

Time of appeal.

XVIII. Every such appeal shall be commenced within ten days after the accrual of the cause of complaint; which shall in respect of any rate be deemed to accrue on the date of the certificate of the Commissioners in the said book; or, in case of any subsequent amendment of the said book, under the provisions of Section XII, upon the receipt by the person aggrieved of notice of such amendment; and in respect of any tax the cause of complaint shall be deemed to accrue upon the receipt by the person aggrieved of a bill for the sum claimed from him.

If no complaint, rate, &c. to be final.

XIX. The settlement by the Commissioners of any rate or tax, when no appeal therefrom is made as hereinbefore provided, and the adjudication of any appeal under Section XVII, shall be final and conclusive.

Assessment bill to be delivered.

XX. When any rate or tax is due, the Commissioners shall cause to be sent to the person liable to the payment thereof a bill for the sum due, which shall also contain a statement of the period and a description of the property or thing for which the rate or tax is charged. If the bill be for any tax, it shall also contain a notice of the time within which an appeal against such tax may be preferred.

Notice of demand.

XXI. If the Bill is not paid by the person liable to pay the same within five days from the delivery thereof, the Commissioners may cause to be served upon such person a notice of demand in the form (A) contained in the Schedule to this Act, or to the like effect; and if he shall not, within five days from the service of such notice of demand, pay the sum due, and if no appeal shall have been preferred, such sum with all costs may be recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the defaulter under a warrant in the form (B) in the Schedule, or to the like effect, to be issued for that purpose by the Commissioners.

Distress.

Inventory — notice of distress.

XXII. The officer charged with the execution of the warrant of distress shall make an inventory of the goods and chattels seized under any such warrant, and shall give a notice in writing, in the form (C) contained in the Schedule annexed to this Act, to the person in possession thereof at the time of the seizure, that the said goods and chattels will be sold as therein mentioned.

Sale.

XXIII. If the warrant is not in the meantime discharged or suspended by the Commissioners, the goods and chattels seized shall be sold under the orders of the Commissioners who shall apply the proceeds, or such part thereof as may be necessary, in discharge of the said arrears and costs; and the surplus, if any, shall be returned on demand to the person in possession of the goods and chattels at the time of the seizure. The fees payable upon distraints under this Act shall be such as are set forth in the table of fees in the said Schedule.

Fees.

Owner's goods wherever found may be distrained.

XXIV. The goods and chattels of any person from whom any rate or tax is due may be distrained wherever the same may be found for default in the payment of the money due from such person.

Rate due from owner may be recovered from occupier and deducted by him from his rent.

XXV. If the sum due on account of any rate has accrued due from the owner of any house or land within the period of one year, and remains unpaid, after notice of demand served upon the owner, the Commissioners may demand the amount from the occupier for the time being of such house or land, and on non-payment thereof, may recover the same by distress and sale of any goods and chattels found on the premises. And in such case the occupier may deduct from the next and following payments of his rent the amount which may be so paid by or recovered from him.

Distress not unlawful for want of form.

XXVI. No distress levied by virtue of this or the special Act shall be deemed unlawful, nor shall any party making the same be deemed a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the notice, schedule, summons, notice of demand, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceedings relating thereto, nor shall such party be deemed a trespasser ab initio on account of any irregularity afterwards committed by him; but all persons aggrieved by such irregularity may recover full satisfaction for the special damage in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Commissioners may sue instead of on failure of distress.

XXVII. Instead of proceeding by distress and sale, or in case of failure to realize by distress the whole or any part of the sum due in respect of any rate or tax, the Commissioners may sue the person liable to pay the same in any Court of competent jurisdiction.

Service of bills, notices, &c.

XXVIII. Every notice, schedule, summons, bill, or notice of demand regarding any assessment, rate, or tax, or any money due in respect of the same, may be served personally upon the person to whom the same is addressed, or be left at his usual place of abode with some adult male member or servant of his family, or, if it cannot be so served, may be put up on some conspicuous part of such place of abode, and shall thereby be deemed to be duly served.

XXIX. No assessment and no charge or demand of rate or tax, made under the authority of this or the special Act, shall be impeached or affected by reason of any mistake in the name of any person liable to pay the rate or tax or in the description of any property or thing liable to rate or tax or any mistake in the amount of assessment, provided the directions of this Act and of the special Act be in substance and effect complied with; and no proceedings under this or the special Act shall be quashed or set aside for want of form in any Court of Justice.

Assessment, &c. not to be impeached for want of form.

XXX. Whoever wilfully obstructs or molests the Commissioners, or any one of them, or any of their officers or servants, in the performance of their respective duties under this Act, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees.

Obstructing Commissioners or their servants.

XXXI. Every officer employed by the Commissioners to assist in the execution of this and the special Act, who accepts, or obtains, or attempts to obtain any fee or gratuity whatsoever, other than his authorized salary or allowances, for doing or forbearing to do any official act, or who shall be in any wise concerned or interested in any bargain or contract made by the Commissioners, shall be removed from his office, and shall be incapable of being afterwards employed by the Commissioners, and shall be liable on conviction before a Magistrate to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

Penalty on officer taking fees or being interested in contracts.

XXXII. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners, or any of their officers, or any person acting under the direction of the Commissioners, for any thing done or intended to be done under the powers of this or the special Act, until the expiration of one month next after notice in writing shall have been delivered or left at the office of the Commissioners or at the place of abode of such person, explicitly stating the cause of action, and the name and place of abode of the intended plaintiff, and of his attorney or agent in the cause; and upon the trial of any such action, the plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into evidence of any cause of action, except such as is stated in the notice so delivered; and unless such notice be proved, the Court shall find for the defendant; and every such action shall be commenced within three months next after the accrual of the cause of action, and not afterwards, and if any person to whom any such notice is given shall, before action brought, tender sufficient amends to the plaintiff, such plaintiff shall not recover in any such action when brought; and if no such tender shall have been made, it shall be lawful for the defendant in such action, by leave of the Court where such action shall be pending, at any time before issue joined, to pay into Court such sum of money as he shall think fit, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as in other cases where defendants are allowed to pay money into Court.

No writ or process to be issued against Commissioners or their officers until after one month's notice of cause of action, &c.

XXXIII. The Commissioners shall, as soon after the 1st day of January in every year as may be practicable, prepare a detailed statement showing the nature and amount of the receipts and disbursements on account of the Municipal Fund for the past year, and also a report of their proceedings during that year; and such statement and report shall be printed and published for general information. The accounts of the said funds may, at the request of not less than rate-payers, be audited by such person as the Local Government shall appoint.

Commissioners to publish annual statements.

Audit of Accounts.

XXXIV. For better enabling the Commissioners to ascertain the amount of fines and penalties payable to them on account of the Municipal Fund under the provisions of Act XIV of 1856, or of the special Act, or of any other law, there shall, in every month, be furnished to them by the authority adjudicating the same a summary of all convictions under the said Acts, or under any such other law, during the preceding month.

Summary of convictions to be laid before the Commissioners.

XXXV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the sanction of the Local Government, to borrow and take up at interest, on the credit of the rates and taxes imposed and levied on account of the Municipal Fund, under the special Act, or any other Act passed in that behalf, or of a portion of them, any sum of money necessary for defraying any expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the execution of any such Act or of Act XIV of 1856; and for the purpose of securing the re-payment of any sums so borrowed, together with such interest as aforesaid, the Commissioners may mortgage and assign over, to the person by or on behalf of whom such sums shall be advanced, the rates and taxes or the portion of them upon the credit of which such sums shall be borrowed. Provided always that the money borrowed under the authority of this Act shall be borrowed only for works of a permanent nature, and shall not at any time exceed in the whole ten times the average annual sum received and collected in respect of such rates and taxes.

Mortgage of rates.

XXXVI. The following words and expressions in this and the special Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction:—

Interpretation.

The word "Magistrate" shall mean any Magistrate of Police acting for the place where the matter requiring the cognizance of a Magistrate arises.

The word "Town" shall include all places within the local limits of the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay.

The word "Station" shall mean any one of the Stations of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, and the dependencies thereof.

The word "Owner" shall mean the person for the time being receiving the rent of the land or premises in connexion with which the word is used, whether on his own account or as agent or trustee for any other person, or who would so receive the same if such land or premises were let to a tenant.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number; and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

The word "person" shall include a corporation.—

Legislative Council.

The 21st June 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time on the 21st June 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of September next:—

A Bill for appointing Municipal Commissioners, and for levying rates and taxes, in the Town of Madras.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the provisions contained in Statute 33 Geo. III Chapter 52 Section 158, and Act XXII of 1841 of the Government of India, for making and levying an assessment on houses, buildings and grounds in the Town of Madras, and for disposing of the money thereby raised for certain Municipal purposes, are defective and insufficient, and it is expedient to provide more ample funds for the conservancy and improvement of the said Town, and to constitute Commissioners for raising and administering such funds: It is enacted as follows:—

Acts repealed.

I. The 158th Section of the Act of Parliament 33 Geo. III Chapter 52, and Act XXII of 1841 of the Government of India, are repealed, except so far as they repeal any other Act, and except as to any assessment which shall be unpaid, and as to any proceeding for the recovery of the same which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Present assessment to remain in force until revised.

II. The assessment on houses, buildings, and grounds, payable under the Statute 33 Geo. III Chapter 52 Section 158, and Act XXII. 1841, shall, until revised and altered under the provisions of this Act, remain in full force and effect, and shall be levied and recovered as a rate payable under this Act.

Act of 1856 incorporated.

III. Act of 1856, entitled "An Act to comprise in one Act the provisions necessary for the assessment and collection of Municipal Rates and Taxes in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca," is incorporated with this Act; and in construing the said Act as incorporated with this Act, the expression "the special Act" shall mean this Act, the expression "the Commissioners" shall mean the Municipal Commissioners constituted by this Act, and the expression "the Local Government" shall mean the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Construction.

Number, appointment, and removal of Commissioners.

IV. There shall be three Commissioners for the purposes of this Act, and for the conservancy and improvement of the Town of Madras under Act XIV of 1856, who shall be appointed by the Governor in Council and shall be removable at his pleasure.

Who to be Commissioners.

V. One of the Commissioners shall be an Officer of Government. The other two Commissioners shall be persons not holding office under Government, and shall receive such salaries, to be paid out of the funds to be raised under this Act, as the Governor in Council shall from time to time appoint. The Government Commissioner shall be the President of the Commissioners.

Designation, &c. of Commissioners.

VI. The Commissioners appointed under this Act shall be styled "The Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Madras," and shall by such name be a body corporate and have perpetual succession and a common seal, and by that name shall sue and be sued, and shall have power and authority to take, purchase, and hold lands and other property, whether moveable and immoveable, for the purposes of this Act, and of Act XIV of 1856.

Meetings of Commissioners.

VII. The Municipal Commissioners shall meet once in every week at least. Two Commissioners shall be necessary to constitute a meeting. At a meeting of two Commissioners, on questions on which they are divided in opinion, if the President be one of them, his voice shall decide; otherwise the question shall be reserved for the decision of the three Commissioners.

Duties of Commissioners.

VIII. The stipendiary Commissioners shall attend at the office of the Commissioners daily, and shall direct and superintend the execution of the orders passed at meetings of the Commissioners, and conduct the current business according to such rules in that behalf, not inconsistent with this Act, or the incorporated Act, or with Act XIV of 1856, as may be made, from time to time, at a meeting of all the Commissioners. The President shall attend statedly only at meetings of the Commissioners.

Assessment on houses and lands.

IX. Houses and lands in the said Town shall be liable to an annual rate, to be fixed, from time to time, by the Governor in Council, not exceeding 7½ per cent of the annual value of the houses and lands subject to the rate. The rate fixed by the Governor in Council shall be published, from time to time, in the Government Gazette.

Mode of assessing, &c.

X. The said rate shall be assessed prospectively for the year for which it is made, and shall be due and payable by the owners of the said houses and lands from and after the end of the first quarter of such year.

Exemption of places of public worship.

XI. Houses used as places of public worship, and not as dwelling-houses, shall not be liable to the rate.

Power to exempt small holdings

XII. The Commissioners may exempt from assessment any house or land, the annual value whereof is less than 14 Rupees, if the same be the sole rateable property of the owner.

Vacant houses.

XIII. When any house shall have been vacant for not less than sixty consecutive days during any year, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the rate for that year as may be proportionate to the number of days the said house may have remained unoccupied, provided that the owner of such house, or his agent, shall have given notice in writing of the vacancy thereof, to the Commissioners, and that the amount of rate to be remitted shall be calculated from the date of the delivery of such notice.

Tax on vehicles and animals.

XIV. A tax shall be imposed upon all carriages, carts, and hackeries, and all horses, ponies, and mules, kept within the said Town, and upon all carriages, carts, and hackeries, and all horses, ponies, and mules, used upon the roads of the said Town and kept at any place not more than three miles distant from the limits thereof, at the rates specified in the annexed Schedule; and shall be payable quarterly by the owners or persons in charge of the same.

Exemption of certain vehicles and animals.

XV. Provided that the several vehicles and animals hereinafter mentioned shall be exempt from the tax, namely,

Gun carriages, and Ordnance carts and waggons.

Cavalry horses, and horses of the mounted Police.

Conservancy-carts, horses, and ponies belonging to the Commissioners.

Vehicles and animals kept for sale and not used for any other purpose, if kept by bonâ-fide dealers in such vehicles and animals.

Horses or other animals which by reason of old age are unfit for use, and are not used.

What will constitute liability to the tax for a whole quarter.

XVI. Every person, who may have owned or had charge of any vehicle or animal kept within the said Town for a period exceeding thirty days in any quarter, shall be liable to the whole tax for that quarter. If the period do not exceed thirty days, no tax shall be chargeable for that quarter.

Carriages under repair.

XVII. When a carriage shall have been under repair at a carriage-maker's for more than thirty days in any quarter, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the tax for that quarter, as may be proportionate to the number of days the said carriage may have been under repair.

XVIII. The Commissioners, at their discretion, may compound with livery stable keepers and other persons keeping carriages and horses for hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the carriages and horses so kept by such persons, in lieu of the taxes specified in the Schedule.

Commissioners may compound.

XIX. Every carriage of the description rated in the Schedule at Rupees six, kept and let out for hire within the said Town, and every cart and hackery, kept and used within the said Town, and every such carriage let out for hire, and used within the said Town, and every cart and hackery used within the said Town, if such carriage, cart or hackery be kept at any place within three miles from the limits thereof, shall be registered in the office of the Commissioners, and shall bear, in such manner as to be distinctly legible, the number of such registration. The registration shall be made and the numbers assigned annually upon such day in each year as the Commissioners shall appoint, and a fee of 4 annas shall be paid for each registration. Any person becoming possessed of any such carriage, cart, or hackery, after the day appointed for registration, may obtain registration on application to the Commissioners at their office and payment of the prescribed fee.

Registry and numbering of hired carriages.

XX. Whoever keeps any such carriage, cart, or hackery required to be numbered by the provisions of the last preceding Section, without being so numbered, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees, and the Commissioners, or any Collector, Assessor, or other officer, duly authorized by them, may seize, or cause to be seized, any such carriage, cart, or hackery (provided the same be not employed at the time of seizure in the conveyance of any passengers or goods,) together with the horses, bullocks, or other animals drawing the same, and may deliver them over to the Police; and all Police officers are hereby required, on the application of the Commissioners, or their officer as aforesaid, to seize and detain the same. If the carriage or other vehicle as aforesaid be not claimed and the fine paid within ten days, such carriage or vehicle, together with the animals seized with it, may be sold by auction, by order of the Magistrate, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the fine, and all costs and charges incurred on account of the detention or sale; and the overplus (if any), if not claimed by the owner within a further period of twenty days, shall be paid to the Municipal Commissioners.

Penalty for not numbering.

XXI. If any person to whom a Schedule shall have been sent under Section XV of the Incorporated Act, shall bring, or cause to be brought upon the roads of the said Town, any carriage, cart, or hackery, or any horse, pony, or mule, kept at any place not more than three miles distant from the limits of the said Town, without having entered the same in the said Schedule, such person shall be liable to the penalty provided in the said Section.

Penalty for using upon town-roads carriage, &c. not entered in Schedule.

XXII. Any person keeping beyond the limits of the said Town any carriage not required to be registered by the provisions of this Act, if he can satisfy the Commissioners that such carriage has not been used on the roads of the Town more than fifteen days in any quarter, shall be entitled to a remission of the tax for that quarter. Provided that, if such person have more than one such carriage, and his carriages, one with another, have been used on the town-roads more than fifteen days in the quarter, though no one of them has been used more than days, he shall be entitled to the remission for only one such carriage.

Remission of tax if private carriage is not used.

XXIII. Bills and notices of demand may be served on persons keeping carriages beyond the limits of the Town, either in the manner provided in the Incorporated Act, or by delivery of the same to the driver of the carriage, when such carriage is found within the limits of the Town.

Service of notices, &c.

XXIV. Nothing contained in this Act shall be so construed as to render liable to the said tax, any person residing and keeping any carriage, cart, or hackery, or any horse, pony, or mule, at a distance of more than three miles from the limits of the said Town, on account of the same being brought for a temporary purpose upon the roads of the said Town; or to require that any hack, carriage, cart, or hackery, belonging to any such person, and kept as aforesaid, when brought upon the roads of the said Town for a temporary purpose, should be numbered.

Persons residing beyond 3 miles not liable for temporary use of town-roads.

XXV. All monies received by the Commissioners by virtue of this Act, or of Act XIV of 1856, or of any other Act, and all monies which may be assigned by Government for purposes of conservancy and improvement in the said Town, shall constitute a fund, which shall be called "the Municipal Fund of Madras," and shall be under the direction, management, and control of the Municipal Commissioners, and shall be applied to the purposes of this Act and of the Incorporated Act and of Act XIV of 1856.

Constitution of the Municipal Fund of Madras.

XXVI. All fines and penalties levied under this Act or the Incorporated Act shall be paid to the Municipal Fund.

Certain fines to be paid to the Municipal Fund.

XXVII. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st of November 1856.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 21st June 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time on the 21st June 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the the 25th of September next :—

A Bill for appointing Municipal Commissioners, and for levying rates and taxes, in the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the appointment of Commissioners for the conservancy and improvement of the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, and for assessing and levying rates and taxes for certain Municipal purposes in the said stations : It is enacted as follows :—

Act repealed.

I. Act IX of 1848 is hereby repealed, except so far as it repeals any other Act, and except as to any assessment or tax which shall be unpaid, and as to any proceeding for the recovery of the same which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Present Committees and assessment continued.

II. The Municipal Committees and other persons heretofore appointed or acting under Act IX of 1848, shall carry this Act into execution until other persons shall be appointed or elected under the provisions herein contained; and the assessment and taxes payable under the said Act shall, until duly altered, respectively remain in full force and effect, and shall be levied and recovered as rates and taxes payable under this Act.

Act of 1850 incorporated with this Act.

III. Act of 1856, entitled "An Act to comprise in one Act the provisions necessary for the assessment and collection of Municipal rates and taxes in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca," is incorporated with this Act; and, in construing the said Act as incorporated with this Act, the expression "the special Act" shall mean this Act, the expression "the Commissioners" shall mean the Municipal Commissioners constituted by this Act, and the expression "the Local Government" shall mean the Governor of the said Settlement.

Construction.

Municipal Commissioners incorporated.

IV. At each of the stations of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, there shall be a Committee of not more than five persons, who shall be called respectively "The Municipal Commissioners of Prince of Wales' Island," "The Municipal Commissioners of Singapore," and "The Municipal Commissioners of Malacca," and who shall respectively by such name be a body corporate and have perpetual succession and a common seal, and sue and be sued and have power and authority to take, purchase, and hold lands and other property, whether moveable or immoveable as trustees for the purposes of this Act and of Act XIV of 1856.

Official and elected Commissioners.

V. At each of the said stations the Resident Councillor shall be one of the Municipal Commissioners, one shall be appointed by the Governor of the Settlement, and three of them shall be elected by the rate-payers in the manner hereinafter provided. The Resident Councillor shall be the President.

Qualification for election.

VI. Every rate-payer, whose annual payment of rates under this Act shall amount to Company's Rupees 40, and upwards, shall be qualified for election as a Municipal Commissioner for the station at which he resides and where the property for which the rates are paid is situate.

Qualification to vote.

VII. Every rate-payer whose annual payment of rates under this Act shall amount to the sum of Company's Rupees 25, and upwards, shall be entitled to vote in the election of the three elective Commissioners of the station where the property for which the rates are paid is situate.

List of voters.

VIII. The Municipal Commissioners of each station shall, previously to an election under this Act, cause to be prepared correct lists of the persons qualified to be elected and qualified to vote for the election of Commissioners; and these lists shall be published and shall be open to public inspection at the office of the Commissioners between the hours of 10 in the morning and 3 in the afternoon on every day, Sundays excepted, between the 31st of October and the day of election, when the said lists shall be taken to the place of election for the use of the Sheriff or his Deputy.

Revision.

The said lists may be revised or amended by the Court of Judicature of the station on the application of any person qualified to vote at any such election, provided that such application be made at least ten days before the day of election.

Election of Commissioners.

IX. Elections under this Act shall be made on one of the first seven days of December under the superintendence of the Sheriff of the Settlement or of one of his deputies, who shall appoint the day and place of election within each station, and shall give public notice of the same fifteen days at least before the day appointed.

When polling to begin and end.

X. The voting shall begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and shall end at 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the appointed day.

Voting-tickets.

XI. At the time and place appointed for the election, the Sheriff or his Deputy shall attend with a closed box with an opening for the reception of voting-tickets. Every voting-ticket shall bear the signature of the voter and the names of the persons for whom he wishes to vote.

Voting.

XII. Every voter having written on his voting-ticket the names of the persons for whom he wishes to vote, and having signed the same, shall personally attend at the place of election and shall deliver his voting-ticket to the Sheriff or his Deputy, who, on being satisfied of the identity of the person tendering the voting-ticket with the person whose signature it bears, and that the name of such person is registered in the list of persons qualified to vote, shall deposit such voting-ticket in the closed box.

Sheriff, &c. to declare result of voting.

XIII. As soon as the election is completed, the Sheriff or his Deputy, in the presence of the voters or such of them as shall be present, shall ascertain the number of votes given for each person, and the Sheriff, or his Deputy, shall thereupon publicly declare the names of the three persons for whom the greatest number of votes has been given, and shall declare such persons to be duly elected Municipal Commissioners of the station.

Refusal to serve.

XIV. In case any one of the persons so elected shall refuse to serve as a Municipal Commissioner, the Sheriff or his Deputy shall, immediately after such refusal, declare the name of the person for whom the next greater number of votes has been given, and shall declare such last-mentioned person to be duly elected a Municipal Commissioner in the place of the person first elected. Provided always, that no person shall be competent to be elected a Municipal Commissioner of either of the said stations, unless the number of votes given in his favor shall exceed ten.

Minimum of votes requisite for election.

Casting vote.

XV. In case there shall be an equal number of votes for any two or more persons at any such election, the Governor of the said Settlement, or, in his abence from the station at which such election is being made, the Resident Councillor, shall give a casting vote for one or more of such persons having an equal number of votes.

Appointment in default of election.

XVI. In case it shall be found impracticable to obtain by election three Municipal Commissioners at any of the said stations, from refusal to act, failure of election, or otherwise, or if a vacancy, from any cause whatever, shall happen before the time of a new election, it shall be lawful for the Governor of the said Settlement, if present at the station at which the vacancy occurs, or, if not, for the Resident Councillor, to appoint some person, being a qualified rate-payer, to be a Municipal Commissioner; and such appointment shall be as valid and effectual as if the person so appointed had been elected in manner hereinbefore provided for.

Publication of the Commissioners' names.

XVII. The names of the persons elected at every election shall be certified by the Sheriff or his Deputy to the Governor of the said Settlement, who shall cause notice thereof, together with the names of the official and appointed Commissioners, to be published in such manner as he shall think fit.

Tenure of Office by Commissioners.

XVIII. The Commissioners at each of the said stations shall enter upon their office on the first day of January after their election and appointment, and shall hold their office for three years. Appointments to fill up vacancies shall have effect only for the remaining portion of the period of three years within which they are made.

Meetings of Commissioners.

XIX. The Commissioners shall hold their first meeting at such time and place as shall be fixed by their President, and their subsequent meetings at such times and places as they shall themselves appoint, and at every such meeting all questions shall be decided by a majority of votes. Three Commissioners shall constitute a quorum, and the President, or, in his absence, the Chairman, who shall be chosen by the Commissioners present, shall have a second or casting vote on all questions on which the Commissioners are equally divided in opinion.

Rate imposed upon houses and lands.

XX. An annual rate of 10 per centum of the annual value shall be imposed upon all houses and lands within the limits of the town of each station, and of 5 per centum of the annual value upon all houses and lands without the limits of the town of each station, such limits to be from time to time specially defined by the Commissioners with the sanction of the Governor, and shall be payable by the owners thereof by quarterly instalments.

Property exempt from rate.

XXI. Houses used exclusively as places of public worship or for charitable purposes, barracks and lines for soldiers, Courts of Justice, and Police offices and stations, jails and convict lines, shall not be liable to the rate.

Property under a certain valuation may be exempted.

XXII. The Commissioners may exempt from assessment any house or land, the annual value whereof is less than 12 Rupees, if the same be the sole rateable property of the owner, or any house or hut which shall be occupied rent-free by any laborers employed at a plantation.

Vacant houses.

XXIII. When any house shall have been vacant for thirty consecutive days during any quarter, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the rate for that quarter as may be proportionate to the number of days the said house may have remained unoccupied, provided that the owner of such house, or his agent, shall have given notice in writing of the vacancy thereof to the Commissioners, and that the amount of rate to be remitted shall be calculated from the date of the delivery of such notice.

Tax upon vehicles and animals.

XXIV. A tax shall be imposed upon all carriages, waggons, carts, and all horses, ponies, mules, asses, draft bullocks, draft buffaloes, and elephants kept in each of the said stations, and shall be payable quarterly in advance by the owners or persons having charge of the same at the following rates per annum, namely,

	Rs.
For every four-wheeled Carriage on springs	28
For every two-wheeled Carriage on springs	14
For every Waggon drawn by man or beast	16

For every Cart drawn by man - - -	8
For every horse, pony, mule, ass, draft bullock, or draft buffalo - - - - - -	4
For every elephant - - - - - -	20

Exemptions.

Provided that the several vehicles and animals hereinafter mentioned shall be exempt from the said tax, namely,

1. All vehicles and animals kept for sale, and not used for any other purpose, provided the same be in the hands of bonâ-fide dealers in such vehicles or animals.

2. Conservancy carts and cattle belonging to the Commissioners.

3. Waggons and carts kept within estates or plantations, and not used upon the public roads, having the name of the owner painted upon some conspicuous part thereof in letters not less than two inches in length and registered at the office of the Commissioners.

4. All animals kept within estates or plantations and not used upon the public roads.

XXV. Every carriage kept and let out for hire, and every waggon and cart kept and used within any of the said stations, shall be registered in the office of the Commissioners and shall bear the number of such registration on some conspicuous part thereof; the registration shall be made and the numbers assigned annually upon such day in each year as the Commissioners shall appoint, and a fee of 4 annas shall be paid for each registration. Any person becoming possessed of any such carriage, waggon, or cart, after the day appointed for registration, may obtain registration on application to the Commissioners at their office, and payment of the prescribed fee.

Carriages, &c. to be registered and numbered on payment of prescribed fee.

XXVI. Whoever keeps within any of the said stations, any such carriage, waggon, or cart, required to be numbered by the provisions of the last preceding Section, without being so numbered, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees; and the Commissioners, or any Collector, Assessor, or other officer duly authorized by them, may seize or cause to be seized any such carriage, waggon, or cart (provided the same be not employed at the time of seizure in the conveyance of any passengers or goods) together with the horses, bullocks, or other animals drawing the same, and may deliver them over to the Police; and all police officers are hereby required, on the application of the Commissioners or their officer as aforesaid, to seize and detain the same. If the driver abscond, and the carriage or other vehicle as aforesaid be not claimed and the fine paid within ten days, such carriage or vehicle, together with the animals seized with it, may be sold by order of the Magistrate, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the fine, and all costs and charges incurred on account of the detention or sale; and the surplus (if any), if not claimed by the owner within a further period of twenty days, shall be paid to the Municipal Commissioners.

Penalty for not numbering carriage, &c.

XXVII. All monies received by the Commissioners by virtue of this Act, or of Act XIV of 1856, or of any other Act, at each of the said stations, shall form a fund which shall be called the "Municipal Fund" of the station at which the same shall have been so received; the Municipal Fund of each station shall be under the direction, management, and control of the Municipal Commissioners of such station, and shall be applied to the following purposes, namely, to the payment and maintenance of an efficient Police, to the payment of the office establishments of the Magistrate and of the Commissioner of Police (but not including the salary of any such Magistrate or Commissioner), and to all the purposes of this Act and the incorporated Act, and of Act XIV of 1856.

Municipal Fund.

XXVIII. All fines and penalties imposed, and all fees and poundage levied, by the Court of Quarter Sessions, or by any Magistrate, and all tolls received at any public Ferry, shall be paid by the officer receiving the same to the Commissioners of the station at which the same shall have been imposed, levied, or received, to be carried to the credit of the Municipal Fund of such station.

Fines, &c. to form part of Municipal Fund.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 21st June 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time on the 21st June 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 25th of September next:—

A Bill to amend the Law relating to affidavits, affirmations and solemn declarations.

WHEREAS it is expedient to enable persons making affidavit or solemn affirmation intended to be used in Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, to swear or solemnly affirm to the truth of the same before any Judge, Magistrate, or Covenanted Officer in Civil employ in the service of the said Company, or before the several persons or officers hereinafter enumerated, and to give greater facilities for the taking and receiving of affidavits and affirmations within the said territories, and to authorize the taking of solemn declarations in certain cases: It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. From and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for any Judge, Magistrate, or Covenanted Officer in Civil employ in the Honorable East India Company's Service, in any place within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, whether within the local limits of his jurisdiction or not, whenever he shall be thereto required, or whenever he shall think it necessary to administer any oath, or to take any affidavit or affirmation from any person whomsoever, for the purpose of or in relation to any action, cause, matter, or proceeding, civil or criminal, pending or about to be brought in or before any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature aforesaid; provided that, in every such affidavit or affirmation, there shall be expressed the name of the party making the same and the place of his abode.

Any Government Officer in Civil employ may administer oaths and take affidavits in relation to matters pending in or about to be brought before Supreme Courts.

II. The affidavit, when the party making the same shall swear to the truth thereof upon oath, and the jurat thereof, may be in the form first set forth in the Schedule hereto annexed; and the affirmation, when the party making the same shall not swear but shall affirm to the truth thereof, may be in the form secondly set forth in the said Schedule; and such forms, when used, shall, in all cases and in all Courts within the territories aforesaid, be deemed sufficient. Provided that it shall not be deemed necessary to make use of either of the said forms, and that no affidavit or affirmation which would be otherwise sufficient shall be deemed insufficient by reason of the same not having been made in either of the said forms.

Forms of affidavits, &c.

III. Every affidavit and affirmation taken under this Act shall and may be received, read, and made use of in and before any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature aforesaid, and in and before any of the Judges and officers thereof, in or in relation to any action, suit, cause, matter, or proceeding, civil or criminal, in like manner, and shall be of the same force and effect as an affidavit or affirm-

Affidavits taken under this Act to be of the same force as affidavits taken in Court or by a person duly authorized.

ation taken in or before such Court or by any person duly commissioned or authorized by such Court to take such affidavit or affirmation, and shall be filed and dealt with accordingly.

Affidavit, &c. purporting to have been sworn before any Court or any Ambassador or person authorized to administer an oath in the British dominions or in any foreign country may be received and read.

IV. In all suits or matters now pending or hereafter to be brought in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Judicature, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive, in the manner and for the purpose hereinafter mentioned, any affidavit or affirmation purporting to have been sworn or made before any Court, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, or Notary Public, or before any Ambassador, Consul, or Resident, or before any officer who now is, or hereafter may be, by law authorized to administer an oath or take an affirmation at any place in Great Britain or Ireland, or any part of Her Majesty's dominions, or in any Foreign Kingdom, State, or Country; and such affidavit or affirmation shall and may be received, read, and made use of in and before any of the said Courts of Judicature, or before any Judge or officer thereof, in like manner, and shall be of the same force and effect as an affidavit or affirmation taken in or before such Court.

Officer in Civil employ or authorized to administer an oath in India, may take affidavits of persons voluntarily making the same.

V. And whereas it may be necessary and proper, in many cases not herein specified, to require confirmation of statements or allegations, or of written instruments, or proof of debts, or of the execution of wills, deeds, or other matters, it is therefore enacted that it shall be lawful for any Court, Judge, Magistrate, or Covenanted Officer in Civil employ, or officer who now is, or who hereafter may be, by law authorized to administer an oath, or to receive a solemn affirmation within the territories aforesaid, to take and receive the affidavit, affirmation, or solemn declaration of any person voluntarily making the same before him, in the first, second, or third form in the Schedule hereto annexed; or in some other form expressing that the said affidavit, affirmation, or solemn declaration sworn is made in pursuance of or by virtue of this Act.

A document purporting to be an affidavit, &c. duly sworn, admissible without further proof.

VI. Any document purporting to be an affidavit, affirmation, or solemn declaration, and to have been sworn, affirmed, or made before any Court, Judge, Magistrate, officer, or other person hereby authorized to take or receive the same, may be admitted and used without proof of any seal or signature thereto, or of the official character of any person.

Forged documents.

VII. If any person shall, within the said territories, forge any seal or signature to any such document as aforesaid, or shall use, or tender in evidence as genuine, any such document as aforesaid with a false or counterfeit seal or signature thereto, or to the jurat thereof, or to any statement made therein, for the purpose of authenticating any such document, knowing the same to be false or counterfeit, he shall, on conviction, be liable to penal servitude for a term of four years, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three years; and whenever any document has been tendered or produced in evidence under this Act, the Court, Judge, or officer before whom the same has been tendered or produced in evidence, may direct that the same shall be impounded and kept in the custody of some officer or other proper person for such period and subject to such conditions as to such Court, Judge, or officer shall seem meet.

Wilful false statement in affidavit in any material particular, to be deemed perjury.

VIII. Any person who shall, within the territories aforesaid, wilfully make before any Judge or other officer, or person, hereby authorized to take the same, any oath, affidavit, affirmation, or solemn declaration, knowing such oath, affidavit, affirmation, or solemn declaration to be false in any material particular, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and any person, who, within the said territories, shall wilfully use, or tender in evidence, or in confirmation of any allegation or statement, any such affidavit, affirmation, or solemn declaration, whether sworn or made within the territories aforesaid, or without the said territories, knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to the same punishment as if he had committed perjury.

Jurisdiction over offences under this Act.

IX. Every person charged with committing any offence under this Act may, at the option of the Government or, if the Government shall not interfere, at the option of the prosecutor, be dealt with, indicted, or tried by any Court having jurisdiction over him for the commission of the offence in the place in which it was committed, or be indicted, tried, and dealt with in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in the place in which he may be apprehended and be in custody.

Trial of accessaries.

X. Every accessary before the fact to any offence under this Act, may be indicted, tried, and dealt with by any Court having jurisdiction over him for the commission of his offence in the place in which it was committed, or may be indicted, tried, and dealt with in the same manner as if his offence had been committed in the place in which he may be apprehended and be in custody, or in the place in which the principal offender may be tried, and shall, if convicted, be liable to the same punishment as the principal offender.

Interpretation.

XI. The following words in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say)—

1. The words "Her Majesty's Court of Judicature" or "Supreme Court" shall include the Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William, Fort St. George, and Bombay respectively, and the Recorder's Court at the Straits' Settlement, or any division thereof, and any other Court of Judicature that may hereafter be substituted for the said several Courts respectively.

Legislative Council.

The 28th June 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 28th June 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 2nd of September next :—

A Bill for appointing Municipal Commissioners, and for levying Rates and Taxes, in the Town of Calcutta.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the appointment of Commissioners for the Conservancy and improvement of the Town of Calcutta, and for assessing and levying Rates and Taxes for Municipal purposes in the said Town ; and whereas it is also expedient to provide additional funds for improving the drainage and lighting of the said Town : It is enacted as follows :—

Acts repealed. I. Act X of 1852, Section L Act XII of 1852, and Act XXVIII of 1854, are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal any other Act, and except as to any assessment which shall be unpaid, and as to any proceeding for the recovery of the same which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Present assessment to remain in force until revised. II. The assessment on houses, buildings, and grounds, at the rate of 6¼ per cent. of the gross monthly rental thereof, made under Act X of 1852 for the quarter immediately preceding the passing of this Act, shall remain in force until revised and altered under the provisions of this Act, and shall be deemed to be a rate payable under the same, and shall be levied and recovered accordingly.

Act of 1856 incorporated. III. Act of 1856, entitled "An Act to comprise in one Act the provisions necessary for the assessment and collection of Municipal Rates and Taxes in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca," is incorporated with this Act ; and in construing the said Act as incorporated with this Act, the expression "the special Act" shall mean this Act, the expression "the Commissioners" shall mean the Municipal Commissioners constituted by this Act, and the expression "the Local Government" shall mean the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

Appointment of Commissioners. IV. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall, from time to time, appoint such number of persons, inhabitants of the Town of Calcutta, as he shall think proper, not being less than six nor more than twelve, to be Commissioners for the purposes of this Act and for the conservancy and improvement of the said Town under Act XIV of 1856.

Tenure of Office—Vacancies. V. The Commissioners shall be appointed for a period of three years, and any vacancies which may occur within that period may be filled up by appointments made as aforesaid. Appointments to fill up vacancies shall have effect only for the remaining portion of the period of three years within which they are made.

VI. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall also appoint a President of the Board of Commissioners, who shall be an Officer of Government, and shall be removeable at the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor.

President.

VII. The Commissioners so appointed shall be styled the Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Calcutta, and shall by such name be a body corporate and have perpetual succession and a common seal, and by that name shall sue and be sued, and shall have power and authority to take, purchase, and hold lands, and other property, moveable and immoveable, for the purposes of this Act, and of Act XIV of 1856.

Commissioners to be a body corporate.

VIII. The Municipal Commissioners shall select two of their number who, with the President, shall form an Executive Committee, and shall conduct all the ordinary and current business of the conservancy according to such rules, not inconsistent with this Act or the incorporated Act or with Act XIV of 1856, as may from time to time be made at a General Meeting of the Commissioners, and be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and shall direct and superintend the execution of all works which may be ordered at any General Meeting of the Commissioners. The Executive Commissioners so selected, and the President, may receive such allowances out of the funds to be raised under this Act as shall be, from time to time, fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Executive Committee.

IX. Every Meeting of the Executive Committee, held in accordance with such rules as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be a Meeting of the Commissioners; and every act of the Executive Committee done in accordance with such rules shall be deemed to be the act of the Commissioners.

Acts of Executive Committee to be deemed acts of Commissioners.

X. General Meetings of the Commissioners shall be held not less frequently than twice in every month, on certain fixed days to be agreed on by the Commissioners, for passing accounts, for considering and determining on plans of improvement in any branch of conservancy, and for disposing of all business which, under the rules to be made as aforesaid, cannot be disposed of by the Executive Committee. All General Meetings of the Commissioners shall be attended by the President and the other Executive Commissioners, unless prevented by illness or other sufficient cause; and the attendance of not less than five Commissioners, of whom the President may be one, shall be necessary to form a quorum. At every such Meeting, the President, if present, shall take the chair; if he be absent, the Commissioners present shall choose a Chairman. Whenever, at any such Meeting, the votes for and against any question may be equal, the President, if present, shall have a second or casting vote; if he be absent, the question shall be reserved for the determination of another Meeting. Special General Meetings may be called in cases of emergency by the President or by any three Commissioners, and in all such cases twenty-four hours' notice of the intended Meeting, and of the cause of summoning it, shall be given to each Commissioner.

Meetings of Commissioners.

XI. An annual rate of 7½ per cent. of the annual value shall be imposed upon houses and lands in the said Town, and shall be payable by the owners thereof by quarterly instalments. The said rate shall have effect from the 1st day of January 1857.

Rate on houses.

XII. Houses used as places of public worship, and not as dwelling-houses, shall not be liable to the rate.

Exemption of places of public worship.

XIII. The Commissioners may exempt from assessment any house or land the annual value whereof is less than 12 Rupees, if the same be the sole rateable property of the owner.

Power to exempt small holdings.

XIV. When any house shall have been vacant for thirty consecutive days during any quarter, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the rate for that quarter, as may be proportionate to the number of days the said house may have remained unoccupied; provided that the owner of such house, or his agent, shall have given notice in writing of the vacancy thereof to the Commissioners, and that the amount of rate to be remitted shall be calculated from the date of the delivery of such notice.

Vacant Houses.

XV. A Tax shall be imposed upon all Carriages, Karanchees, Carts, and Hackeries, and all Horses, Ponies, and Mules, kept within the said Town, and upon all Carriages, Karanchees, Carts, and Hackeries, and all Horses, Ponies, and Mules, used upon the roads of the said Town and kept at any place not more than three miles distant from the limits thereof, at the rates specified in the annexed Schedule; and shall be payable quarterly by the owners or persons having charge of the same. The said tax shall have effect from the 1st day of January 1857.

Tax on Carriages and Horses

XVI. Provided that the several vehicles and animals hereinafter mentioned shall be exempt from the Tax, namely:—

Exemption of certain vehicles and animals specified.

Gun Carriages, and Ordnance Carts and Waggons.

Cavalry Horses, and Horses of the Mounted Police.

Conservancy Carts, Horses, and Ponies belonging to the Commissioners.

Vehicles and Animals kept for sale and not used for any other purpose, if kept by bonâ fide dealers in such Vehicles and Animals.

Horses or other Animals which by reason of old age are unfit for use and are not used.

XVII. Every person, who may have owned or had charge of any Vehicle or Animal kept within the said Town for a period exceeding thirty days in any quarter, shall be liable to the whole Tax for that quarter. If the period do not exceed thirty days, no Tax shall be chargeable for that quarter.

What will constitute liability to the Tax for a whole quarter.

XVIII. When a Carriage shall have been under repair at a Carriage-maker's for more than thirty days in any quarter, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the Tax for that quarter as may be proportionate to the number of days the said Carriage may have been under repair.

Remission of tax on Carriages under repair.

Commissioners may compound with Livery Stable-Keepers.

XIX. The Commissioners, at their discretion, may compound with Livery Stable-keepers, and other persons keeping Carriages and Horses for hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the Carriages and Horses so kept by such persons, in lieu of the Taxes specified in the Schedule.

Registry and numbering of hired Carriages, &c.

XX. Every Carriage of the description rated in the Schedule at Rupees six, kept and let out for hire within the said Town; and every Karanchee, Cart, and Hackery kept and used within the said Town; and every such Carriage let out for hire and used within the said Town, and every Karanchee, Cart, and Hackery used within the said Town, if such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery be kept at any place within three miles from the limits thereof; shall be registered in the Office of the Commissioners, and shall bear, in such manner as to be distinctly legible, the number of such registration. The registration shall be made and the numbers assigned annually, upon such day in each year as the Commissioners shall appoint, and a fee of 4 annas shall be paid for each registration. Any person becoming possessed of any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, after the day appointed for registration, may obtain registration on application to the Commissioners at their Office and payment of the prescribed fee.

Penalty for not numbering.

XXI. Whoever keeps any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery required to be numbered by the provisions of the last preceding Section, without being so numbered, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees, and the Commissioners, or any Collector, Assessor, or other officer duly authorized by them, may seize or cause to be seized any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery (provided the same be not employed at the time of seizure in the conveyance of any passengers or goods) together with the Horses, Bullocks, or other Animals drawing the same, and may deliver them over to the Police; and all Police officers are hereby required, on the application of the Commissioners or their officer as aforesaid, to seize and detain the same. If the Carriage or other Vehicle as aforesaid be not claimed, and the fine be not paid within ten days, such Carriage or Vehicle, together with the animals seized with it, may be sold by auction by order of the Magistrate, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the fine, and all costs and charges incurred on account of the detention or sale; and the surplus (if any), if not claimed by the owner within a further period of twenty days, shall be paid to the Municipal Commissioners.

Penalty for using upon Town road Carriages, &c., not entered in Schedule.

XXII. If any person to whom a Schedule shall have been sent under Section XV. of the Incorporated Act, shall bring or cause to be brought upon the roads of the said Town, any Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, or any Horse, Pony, or Mule, kept at any place not more than three miles distant from the limits of the said Town, without having entered the same in the said Schedule, such person shall be liable to the penalty provided in the said Section.

Remission of Tax if private Carriage is not used.

XXIII. Any person keeping, beyond the limits of the said Town, any Carriage not required to be registered by the provisions of this Act, if he can satisfy the Commissioners that such Carriage has not been used on the roads of the Town more than fifteen days in any quarter, shall be entitled to a remission of the tax for that quarter. Provided that, if such person have more than one such Carriage, and his Carriages, one with another, have been used on the Town roads more than fifteen days in the quarter, though no one of them has been used more than fifteen days, he shall be entitled to the remission for only one such Carriage.

Service of notices, &c.

XXIV. Bills and notices of demand may be served on persons keeping Carriages beyond the limits of the Town, either in the manner provided in the Incorporated Act, or by delivery of the same to the driver of the Carriage, when such Carriage is found within the limits of the Town.

Persons residing beyond three miles not liable for temporary use of Town roads.

XXV. Nothing contained in this Act shall be so construed as to render liable to the said Tax any person residing and keeping any Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, or any Horse, Pony, or Mule, at a distance of more than three miles from the limits of the said Town, on account of the same being brought for a temporary purpose upon the roads of the said Town; or to require that any Hack-Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, belonging to any such person, and kept as aforesaid, when brought upon the Roads of the said Town for a temporary purpose, should be numbered.

Gas Contracts.

XXVI. The Commissioners, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, may contract with the owners of any Gas-works for lighting with Gas such of the public streets of the said Town as the Commissioners, with the like sanction, shall from time to time determine.

Lighting Rate.

XXVII. Whenever any streets shall be lighted with Gas, a lighting rate, not exceeding 2 per cent. of the annual value, may be imposed upon all houses and lands in such streets, and such rate shall be payable quarterly by the occupiers of such houses and lands; and the Commissioners may, in aid of the lighting rate, expend, out of the funds at their disposal, such further sum, not exceeding one-half of the amount of the net proceeds of the said rate, as may be necessary for the efficient lighting of such streets.

Occupier liable only for time of occupation.

XXVIII. Every occupier shall be liable to the lighting rate for the whole time of his occupation, and for such time only; and no such rate shall be chargeable to any person on account of any unoccupied house for the time during which it may remain unoccupied.

Owner when liable.

XXIX. When the gross monthly rent of any house or land is less than 10 Rupees, or when any house is let by the owner in apartments or portions, the owner shall be liable to pay the lighting rate instead of the occupier or occupiers.

Occupier sub-letting.

XXX. When any person, who rents from the owner any house or building, sub-lets the same in apartments or portions, such person, for the purposes of the lighting-rate, shall be held to be the occupier.

Drainage.

XXXI. The Commissioners, under the direction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, shall organize and carry out, with as little delay as possible, a complete system of sewerage and drainage within the said Town; and shall, so long as may be necessary, apply to that purpose, out of the proceeds of the rate provided by Section XI of this Act, such annual sum, not being less than Rupees 1,50,000, as the Lieutenant-Governor shall direct. The said annual sum may be expended by the Commissioners either in the execution of such work of sewerage and drainage, or in the re-payment of any sum of money borrowed for the execution of the said work in the manner provided in the Incorporated Act.

Drainage Rate on houses beyond limits of Town.

XXXII. For the purpose of effectually carrying out a system of sewerage and drainage for the said Town and the Environs thereof, a rate not exceeding 2½ per cent of the annual value may be imposed upon houses and lands situated within such boundaries beyond the limits of the Town, as shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and notified in the Calcutta Gazette; and the provisions of the Incorporated Act shall have effect in respect of such rate.

Certain provisions of Conservancy Act extended.

XXXIII. Sections XLV to LX, both inclusive, of Act XIV of 1856, entitled "An Act for the Conservancy and Improvement of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca," shall have effect within the boundaries to be fixed under the last preceding Section, and all penalties, expenses, and compensation which, under the said Sections and by the provisions of the said Act, may be adjudged and determined by a Magistrate or by two Magistrates acting in and for the Town of Calcutta, may be adjudged and determined within such boundaries by the Magistrate having jurisdiction therein.

Municipal Fund.

XXXIV. All monies received by the Commissioners by virtue of this Act, or of Act XIV of 1856, or of any other Act, and all monies which may be assigned by Government for purposes of Conservancy and Improvement in the said Town, shall constitute a Fund, which shall be called the Municipal Fund of Calcutta, and shall be under the direction, management, and control of the Municipal Commissioners, and shall be applied to the purposes of this Act and of the Incorporated Act and of Act XIV of 1856.

Certain fines to be paid to the Municipal Fund.

XXXV. All fines and penalties levied under this Act or the Incorporated Act shall be paid to the Municipal Fund.

Commencement of Act.

XXXVI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st of November 1856.

Military Department, No. 75 of 1856.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Having considered the proper mode of bringing this Rule into operation in the Company's Service, we have decided that, on becoming Senior Regimental Majors in the Arms of the Service to which they respectively belong at each Presidency, or when their Seniors as such have been promoted to the rank of Colonel, Regimental Majors being Brevet Lieutenant-Colonels shall be allowed to count the time passed in Regimental Command, as specified in the Regulation towards the three years required to qualify a Lieutenant-Colonel for promotion to the rank of Colonel.

Reply to letter dated 21st December 1855, No. 283.

With reference to the instructions which provide that the time of service during any period exceeding one month passed in Command of Regiments by Senior Majors, who are also Brevet Lieutenant-Colonels, may count towards the three years required to qualify a Lieutenant-Colonel to be promoted to the rank of Colonel, Government observe that this Rule is the same as in H. M.'s Service, but that as the constitution of all the Company's Regiments, excepting the European Infantry Corps, differs from that of H. M.'s Infantry Regiments in having only one Major, they request early instructions as to the precise meaning to be attached to the term Senior Major.

We are, &c.,

Notice.

REQUIRED for the Office of the Chittagong Commissioner of Revenue and Circuit a Sheristadar, salary 100 Rupees. Candidates are recommended to make early application, and to forward, written in their own hand, an account of their qualifications and the nature and extent of their education, &c. &c., verified by such Certificates and Testimonials as they are desirous of having inspected. Candidates should bear in mind, that an inferior knowledge of Bengalee will not be considered as compensated for by an English education however superior, and that a less amount of the knowledge acquired at School and out of Books, provided the Candidate has some acquaintance with the mode of conducting business in a Revenue Office, will be preferred to higher attainments unaccompanied with experience. It should also not be lost sight of by Candidates for the appointment, that living at Chittagong is expensive, the climate is bad, and the means of getting away from the Station are only available for a few months in the year.

C. STEER,
Commissioner of Revenue and Circuit, 16th Division.

SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 28th June 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 28th June 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 2nd of September next:—

A Bill for appointing Municipal Commissioners, and for levying Rates and Taxes, in the Town of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the appointment of Commissioners for the Conservancy and improvement of the Town of Calcutta, and for assessing and levying Rates and Taxes for Municipal purposes in the said Town; and whereas it is also expedient to provide additional funds for improving the drainage and lighting of the said Town: It is enacted as follows:—

Acts repealed.

I. Act X of 1852, Section L Act XII of 1852, and Act XXVIII of 1854, are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal any other Act, and except as to any assessment which shall be unpaid, and as to any proceeding for the recovery of the same which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Present assessment to remain in force until revised.

II. The assessment on houses, buildings, and grounds, at the rate of 6¼ per cent. of the gross monthly rental thereof, made under Act X of 1852 for the quarter immediately preceding the passing of this Act, shall remain in force until revised and altered under the provisions of this Act, and shall be deemed to be a rate payable under the same, and shall be levied and recovered accordingly.

Act of 1856 incorporated.

III. Act of 1856, entitled "An Act to comprise in one Act the provisions necessary for the assessment and collection of Municipal Rates and Taxes in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca," is incorporated with this Act; and in construing the said Act as incorporated with this Act, the expression "the special Act" shall mean this Act, the expression "the Commissioners" shall mean the Municipal Commissioners constituted by this Act, and the expression "the Local Government" shall mean the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

Appointment of Commissioners.

IV. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall, from time to time, appoint such number of persons, inhabitants of the Town of Calcutta, as he shall think proper, not being less than six nor more than twelve, to be Commissioners for the purposes of this Act and for the conservancy and improvement of the said Town under Act XIV of 1856.

Tenure of Office—Vacancies.

V. The Commissioners shall be appointed for a period of three years, and any vacancies which may occur within that period may be filled up by appointments made as aforesaid. Appointments to fill up vacancies shall have effect only for the remaining portion of the period of three years within which they are made.

President.

VI. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall also appoint a President of the Board of Commissioners, who shall be an Officer of Government, and shall be removeable at the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor.

Commissioners to be a body corporate.

VII. The Commissioners so appointed shall be styled the Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Calcutta, and shall by such name be a body corporate and have perpetual succession and a common seal, and by that name shall sue and be sued, and shall have power and authority to take, purchase, and hold lands, and other property, moveable and immoveable, for the purposes of this Act, and of Act XIV of 1856.

Executive Committee.

VIII. The Municipal Commissioners shall select two of their number who, with the President, shall form an Executive Committee, and shall conduct all the ordinary and current business of the conservancy according to such rules, not inconsistent with this Act or the incorporated Act or with Act XIV of 1856, as may from time to time be made at a General Meeting of the Commissioners, and be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and shall direct and superintend the execution of all works which may be ordered at any General Meeting of the Commissioners. The Executive Commissioners so selected, and the President, may receive such allowances out of the funds to be raised under this Act as shall be, from time to time, fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Acts of Executive Committee to be deemed acts of Commissioners.

IX. Every Meeting of the Executive Committee, held in accordance with such rules as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be a Meeting of the Commissioners; and every act of the Executive Committee done in accordance with such rules shall be deemed to be the act of the Commissioners.

Meetings of Commissioners.

X. General Meetings of the Commissioners shall be held not less frequently than twice in every month, on certain fixed days to be agreed on by the Commissioners, for passing accounts, for considering and determining on plans of improvement in any branch of conservancy, and for disposing of all business which, under the rules to be made as aforesaid, cannot be disposed of by the Executive Committee. All General Meetings of the Commissioners shall be attended by the President and the other Executive Commissioners, unless prevented by illness or other sufficient cause; and the attendance of not less than five Commissioners, of whom the President may be one, shall be necessary to form a quorum. At every such Meeting, the President, if present, shall take the chair; if he be absent, the Commissioners present shall choose a Chairman. Whenever, at any such Meeting, the votes for and against any question may be equal, the President, if present, shall have a second or casting vote; if he be absent, the question shall be reserved for the determination of another Meeting. Special General Meetings may be called in cases of emergency by the President or by any three Commissioners, and in all such cases twenty-four hours' notice of the intended Meeting, and of the cause of summoning it, shall be given to each Commissioner.

Rate on houses.

XI. An annual rate of 7½ per cent. of the annual value shall be imposed upon houses and lands in the said Town, and shall be payable by the owners thereof by quarterly instalments. The said rate shall have effect from the 1st day of January 1857.

Exemption of places of public worship.

XII. Houses used as places of public worship, and not as dwelling-houses, shall not be liable to the rate.

Power to exempt small holdings.

XIII. The Commissioners may exempt from assessment any house or land the annual value whereof is less than 12 Rupees, if the same be the sole rateable property of the owner.

Vacant Houses.

XIV. When any house shall have been vacant for thirty consecutive days during any quarter, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the rate for that quarter, as may be proportionate to the number of days the said house may have remained unoccupied; provided that the owner of such house, or his agent, shall have given notice in writing of the vacancy thereof to the Commissioners, and that the amount of rate to be remitted shall be calculated from the date of the delivery of such notice.

Tax on Carriages and Horses

XV. A Tax shall be imposed upon all Carriages, Karanchees, Carts, and Hackeries, and all Horses, Ponies, and Mules, kept within the said Town, and upon all Carriages, Karanchees, Carts, and Hackeries, and all Horses, Ponies, and Mules, used upon the roads of the said Town and kept at any place not more than three miles distant from the limits thereof, at the rates specified in the annexed Schedule; and shall be payable quarterly by the owners or persons having charge of the same. The said tax shall have effect from the 1st day of January 1857.

Exemption of certain vehicles and animals specified.

XVI. Provided that the several vehicles and animals hereinafter mentioned shall be exempt from the Tax, namely:—

Gun Carriages, and Ordnance Carts and Waggons.

Cavalry Horses, and Horses of the Mounted Police.

Conservancy Carts, Horses, and Ponies belonging to the Commissioners.

Vehicles and Animals kept for sale and not used for any other purpose, if kept by bonâ fide dealers in such Vehicles and Animals.

Horses or other Animals which by reason of old age are unfit for use and are not used.

What will constitute liability to the Tax for a whole quarter.

XVII. Every person, who may have owned or had charge of any Vehicle or Animal kept within the said Town for a period exceeding thirty days in any quarter, shall be liable to the whole Tax for that quarter. If the period do not exceed thirty days, no Tax shall be chargeable for that quarter.

Remission of tax on Carriages under repair.

XVIII. When a Carriage shall have been under repair at a Carriage-maker's for more than thirty days in any quarter, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the Tax for that quarter as may be proportionate to the number of days the said Carriage may have been under repair.

Commissioners may compound with Livery Stable-Keepers.

XIX. The Commissioners, at their discretion, may compound with Livery Stable-keepers, and other persons keeping Carriages and Horses for hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the Carriages and Horses so kept by such persons, in lieu of the Taxes specified in the Schedule.

Registry and numbering of hired Carriages, &c.

XX. Every Carriage of the description rated in the Schedule at Rupees six, kept and let out for hire within the said Town; and every Karanchee, Cart, and Hackery kept and used within the said Town; and every such Carriage let out for hire and used within the said Town, and every Karanchee, Cart, and Hackery used within the said Town, if such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery be kept at any place within three miles from the limits thereof; shall be registered in the Office of the Commissioners, and shall bear, in such manner as to be distinctly legible, the number of such registration. The registration shall be made and the numbers assigned annually, upon such day in each year as the Commissioners shall appoint, and a fee of 4 annas shall be paid for each registration. Any person becoming possessed of any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, after the day appointed for registration, may obtain registration on application to the Commissioners at their Office and payment of the prescribed fee.

Penalty for not numbering.

XXI. Whoever keeps any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery required to be numbered by the provisions of the last preceding Section, without being so numbered, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees, and the Commissioners, or any Collector, Assessor, or other officer duly authorized by them, may seize or cause to be seized any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery (provided the same be not employed at the time of seizure in the conveyance of any passengers or goods) together with the Horses, Bullocks, or other Animals drawing the same, and may deliver them over to the Police; and all Police officers are hereby required, on the application of the Commissioners or their officer as aforesaid, to seize and detain the same. If the Carriage or other Vehicle as aforesaid be not claimed, and the fine be not paid within ten days, such Carriage or Vehicle, together with the animals seized with it, may be sold by auction by order of the Magistrate, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the fine, and all costs and charges incurred on account of the detention or sale; and the surplus (if any), if not claimed by the owner within a further period of twenty days, shall be paid to the Municipal Commissioners.

Penalty for using upon Town road Carriages, &c., not entered in Schedule.

XXII. If any person to whom a Schedule shall have been sent under Section XV. of the Incorporated Act, shall bring or cause to be brought upon the roads of the said Town, any Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, or any Horse, Pony, or Mule, kept at any place not more than three miles distant from the limits of the said Town, without having entered the same in the said Schedule, such person shall be liable to the penalty provided in the said Section.

Remission of Tax if private Carriage is not used.

XXIII. Any person keeping, beyond the limits of the said Town, any Carriage not required to be registered by the provisions of this Act, if he can satisfy the Commissioners that such Carriage has not been used on the roads of the Town more than fifteen days in any quarter, shall be entitled to a remission of the tax for that quarter. Provided that, if such person have more than one such Carriage, and his Carriages, one with another, have been used on the Town roads more than fifteen days in the quarter, though no one of them has been used more than fifteen days, he shall be entitled to the remission for only one such Carriage.

Service of notices, &c.

XXIV. Bills and notices of demand may be served on persons keeping Carriages beyond the limits of the Town, either in the manner provided in the Incorporated Act, or by delivery of the same to the driver of the Carriage, when such Carriage is found within the limits of the Town.

Persons residing beyond three miles not liable for temporary use of Town roads.

XXV. Nothing contained in this Act shall be so construed as to render liable to the said Tax any person residing and keeping any Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, or any Horse, Pony, or Mule, at a distance of more than three miles from the limits of the said Town, on account of the same being brought for a temporary purpose upon the roads of the said Town; or to require that any Hack-Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, belonging to any such person, and kept as aforesaid, when brought upon the Roads of the said Town for a temporary purpose, should be numbered.

Gas Contracts.

XXVI. The Commissioners, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, may contract with the owners of any Gas-works for lighting with Gas such of the public streets of the said Town as the Commissioners, with the like sanction, shall from time to time determine.

Lighting Rate.

XXVII. Whenever any streets shall be lighted with Gas, a lighting rate, not exceeding 2 per cent. of the annual value, may be imposed upon all houses and lands in such streets, and such rate shall be payable quarterly by the occupiers of such houses and lands; and the Commissioners may, in aid of the lighting rate, expend, out of the funds at their disposal, such further sum, not exceeding one-half of the amount of the net proceeds of the said rate, as may be necessary for the efficient lighting of such streets.

Occupier liable only for time of occupation.

XXVIII. Every occupier shall be liable to the lighting rate for the whole time of his occupation, and for such time only; and no such rate shall be chargeable to any person on account of any unoccupied house for the time during which it may remain unoccupied.

Owner when liable.

XXIX. When the gross monthly rent of any house or land is less than 10 Rupees, or when any house is let by the owner in apartments or portions, the owner shall be liable to pay the lighting rate instead of the occupier or occupiers.

Occupier sub-letting.

XXX. When any person, who rents from the owner any house or building, sub-lets the same in apartments or portions, such person, for the purposes of the lighting-rate, shall be held to be the occupier.

Drainage.

XXXI. The Commissioners, under the direction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, shall organize and carry out, with as little delay as possible, a complete system of sewerage and drainage within the said Town; and shall, so long as may be necessary, apply to that purpose, out of the proceeds of the rate provided by Section XI of this Act, such annual sum, not being less than Rupees 1,50,000, as the Lieutenant-Governor shall direct. The said annual sum may be expended by the Commissioners either in the execution of such work of sewerage and drainage, or in the re-payment of any sum of money borrowed for the execution of the said work in the manner provided in the Incorporated Act.

Drainage Rate on houses beyond limits of Town.

XXXII. For the purpose of effectually carrying out a system of sewerage and drainage for the said Town and the Environs thereof, a rate not exceeding 2½ per cent of the annual value may be imposed upon houses and lands situated within such boundaries beyond the limits of the Town, as shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and notified in the Calcutta Gazette; and the provisions of the Incorporated Act shall have effect in respect of such rate.

Certain provisions of Conservancy Act extended.

XXXIII. Sections XLV to LX, both inclusive, of Act XIV of 1856, entitled "An Act for the Conservancy and Improvement of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca," shall have effect within the boundaries to be fixed under the last preceding Section, and all penalties, expenses, and compensation which, under the said Sections and by the provisions of the said Act, may be adjudged and determined by a Magistrate or by two Magistrates acting in and for the Town of Calcutta, may be adjudged and determined within such boundaries by the Magistrate having jurisdiction therein.

Municipal Fund.

XXXIV. All monies received by the Commissioners by virtue of this Act, or of Act XIV of 1856, or of any other Act, and all monies which may be assigned by Government for purposes of Conservancy and Improvement in the said Town, shall constitute a Fund. which shall be called the Municipal Fund of Calcutta, and shall be under the direction, management, and control of the Municipal Commissioners, and shall be applied to the purposes of this Act and of the Incorporated Act and of Act XIV of 1856.

Certain fines to be paid to the Municipal Fund.

XXXV. All fines and penalties levied under this Act or the Incorporated Act shall be paid to the Municipal Fund.

Commencement of Act.

XXXVI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st of November 1856.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 9, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 28th June 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 28th June 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 2nd of September next :—

A Bill for appointing Municipal Commissioners, and for levying Rates and Taxes, in the Town of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the appointment of Commissioners for the Conservancy and improvement of the Town of Calcutta, and for assessing and levying Rates and Taxes for Municipal purposes in the said Town ; and whereas it is also expedient to provide additional funds for improving the drainage and lighting of the said Town ; It is enacted as follows :—

Acts repealed.

I. Act X of 1852, Section I Act XII of 1852, and Act XXVIII of 1854, are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal any other Act, and except as to any assessment which shall be unpaid, and as to any proceeding for the recovery of the same which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Present assessment to remain in force until revised.

II. The assessment on houses, buildings, and grounds, at the rate of 6¼ per cent. of the gross monthly rental thereof, made under Act X of 1852 for the quarter immediately preceding the passing of this Act, shall remain in force until revised and altered under the provisions of this Act, and shall be deemed to be a rate payable under the same, and shall be levied and recovered accordingly.

Act of 1856 incorporated.

III. Act of 1856, entitled "An Act to comprise in one Act the provisions necessary for the assessment and collection of Municipal Rates and Taxes in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca," is incorporated with this Act ; and in construing the said Act as incorporated with this Act, the expression "the special Act" shall mean this Act, the expression "the Commissioners" shall mean the Municipal Commissioners constituted by this Act, and the expression "the Local Government" shall mean the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal.

Appointment of Commissioners.

IV. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall, from time to time, appoint such number of persons, inhabitants of the Town of Calcutta, as he shall think proper, not being less than six nor more than twelve, to be Commissioners for the purposes of this Act and for the conservancy and improvement of the said Town under Act XIV of 1856.

Tenure of Office—Vacancies.

V. The Commissioners shall be appointed for a period of three years, and any vacancies which may occur within that period may be filled up by appointments made as aforesaid. Appointments to fill up vacancies shall have effect only for the remaining portion of the period of three years within which they are made.

President.

VI. The Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall also appoint a President of the Board of Commissioners, who shall be an Officer of Government, and shall be removeable at the pleasure of the Lieutenant-Governor.

Commissioners to be a body corporate.

VII. The Commissioners so appointed shall be styled the Municipal Commissioners for the Town of Calcutta, and shall by such name be a body corporate and have perpetual succession and a common seal, and by that name shall sue and be sued, and shall have power and authority to take, purchase, and hold lands, and other property, moveable and immoveable, for the purposes of this Act, and of Act XIV of 1856.

Executive Committee.

VIII. The Municipal Commissioners shall select two of their number who, with the President, shall form an Executive Committee, and shall conduct all the ordinary and current business of the conservancy according to such rules, not inconsistent with this Act or the incorporated Act or with Act XIV of 1856, as may from time to time be made at a General Meeting of the Commissioners, and be sanctioned by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and shall direct and superintend the execution of all works which may be ordered at any General Meeting of the Commissioners. The Executive Commissioners so selected, and the President, may receive such allowances out of the funds to be raised under this Act as shall be, from time to time, fixed by the Lieutenant-Governor.

Acts of Executive Committee to be deemed acts of Commissioners.

IX. Every Meeting of the Executive Committee, held in accordance with such rules as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be a Meeting of the Commissioners; and every act of the Executive Committee done in accordance with such rules shall be deemed to be the act of the Commissioners.

Meetings of Commissioners.

X. General Meetings of the Commissioners shall be held not less frequently than twice in every month, on certain fixed days to be agreed on by the Commissioners, for passing accounts, for considering and determining on plans of improvement in any branch of conservancy, and for disposing of all business which, under the rules to be made as aforesaid, cannot be disposed of by the Executive Committee. All General Meetings of the Commissioners shall be attended by the President and the other Executive Commissioners, unless prevented by illness or other sufficient cause; and the attendance of not less than five Commissioners, of whom the President may be one, shall be necessary to form a quorum. At every such Meeting, the President, if present, shall take the chair; if he be absent, the Commissioners present shall choose a Chairman. Whenever, at any such Meeting, the votes for and against any question may be equal, the President, if present, shall have a second or casting vote; if he be absent, the question shall be reserved for the determination of another Meeting. Special General Meetings may be called in cases of emergency by the President or by any three Commissioners, and in all such cases twenty-four hours' notice of the intended Meeting, and of the cause of summoning it, shall be given to each Commissioner.

Rate on houses.

XI. An annual rate of 7½ per cent. of the annual value shall be imposed upon houses and lands in the said Town, and shall be payable by the owners thereof by quarterly instalments. The said rate shall have effect from the 1st day of January 1857.

Exemption of places of public worship.

XII. Houses used as places of public worship, and not as dwelling-houses, shall not be liable to the rate.

Power to exempt small holdings.

XIII. The Commissioners may exempt from assessment any house or land the annual value whereof is less than 12 Rupees, if the same be the sole rateable property of the owner.

Vacant Houses.

XIV. When any house shall have been vacant for thirty consecutive days during any quarter, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the rate for that quarter, as may be proportionate to the number of days the said house may have remained unoccupied; provided that the owner of such house, or his agent, shall have given notice in writing of the vacancy thereof to the Commissioners, and that the amount of rate to be remitted shall be calculated from the date of the delivery of such notice.

Tax on Carriages and Horses

XV. A Tax shall be imposed upon all Carriages, Karanchees, Carts, and Hackeries, and all Horses, Ponies, and Mules, kept within the said Town, and upon all Carriages, Karanchees, Carts, and Hackeries, and all Horses, Ponies, and Mules, used upon the roads of the said Town and kept at any place not more than three miles distant from the limits thereof, at the rates specified in the annexed Schedule; and shall be payable quarterly by the owners or persons having charge of the same. The said tax shall have effect from the 1st day of January 1857.

Exemption of certain vehicles and animals specified.

XVI. Provided that the several vehicles and animals hereinafter mentioned shall be exempt from the Tax, namely:—

Gun Carriages, and Ordnance Carts and Waggons.

Cavalry Horses, and Horses of the Mounted Police.

Conservancy Carts, Horses, and Ponies belonging to the Commissioners.

Vehicles and Animals kept for sale and not used for any other purpose, if kept by bonâ fide dealers in such Vehicles and Animals.

Horses or other Animals which by reason of old age are unfit for use and are not used.

What will constitute liability to the Tax for a whole quarter.

XVII. Every person, who may have owned or had charge of any Vehicle or Animal kept within the said Town for a period exceeding thirty days in any quarter, shall be liable to the whole Tax for that quarter. If the period do not exceed thirty days, no Tax shall be chargeable for that quarter.

Remission of tax on Carriages under repair.

XVIII. When a Carriage shall have been under repair at a Carriage-maker's for more than thirty days in any quarter, the Commissioners shall remit so much of the Tax for that quarter as may be proportionate to the number of days the said Carriage may have been under repair.

Commissioners may compound with Livery Stable-Keepers.

XIX. The Commissioners, at their discretion, may compound with Livery Stable-keepers, and other persons keeping Carriages and Horses for hire, for a certain sum to be paid for the Carriages and Horses so kept by such persons, in lieu of the Taxes specified in the Schedule.

Registry and numbering of hired Carriages, &c.

XX. Every Carriage of the description rated in the Schedule at Rupees six, kept and let out for hire within the said Town; and every Karanchee, Cart, and Hackery kept and used within the said Town; and every such Carriage let out for hire and used within the said Town, and every Karanchee, Cart, and Hackery used within the said Town, if such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery be kept at any place within three miles from the limits thereof; shall be registered in the Office of the Commissioners, and shall bear, in such manner as to be distinctly legible, the number of such registration. The registration shall be made and the numbers assigned annually, upon such day in each year as the Commissioners shall appoint, and a fee of 4 annas shall be paid for each registration. Any person becoming possessed of any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, after the day appointed for registration, may obtain registration on application to the Commissioners at their Office and payment of the prescribed fee.

Penalty for not numbering.

XXI. Whoever keeps any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery required to be numbered by the provisions of the last preceding Section, without being so numbered, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees, and the Commissioners, or any Collector, Assessor, or other officer duly authorized by them, may seize or cause to be seized any such Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery (provided the same be not employed at the time of seizure in the conveyance of any passengers or goods) together with the Horses, Bullocks, or other Animals drawing the same, and may deliver them over to the Police; and all Police officers are hereby required, on the application of the Commissioners or their officer as aforesaid, to seize and detain the same. If the Carriage or other Vehicle as aforesaid be not claimed, and the fine be not paid within ten days, such Carriage or Vehicle, together with the animals seized with it, may be sold by auction by order of the Magistrate, and the proceeds applied to the payment of the fine, and all costs and charges incurred on account of the detention or sale; and the surplus (if any), if not claimed by the owner within a further period of twenty days, shall be paid to the Municipal Commissioners.

Penalty for using upon Town road Carriages, &c., not entered in Schedule.

XXII. If any person to whom a Schedule shall have been sent under Section XV. of the Incorporated Act, shall bring or cause to be brought upon the roads of the said Town, any Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, or any Horse, Pony, or Mule, kept at any place not more than three miles distant from the limits of the said Town, without having entered the same in the said Schedule, such person shall be liable to the penalty provided in the said Section.

Remission of Tax if private Carriage is not used.

XXIII. Any person keeping, beyond the limits of the said Town, any Carriage not required to be registered by the provisions of this Act, if he can satisfy the Commissioners that such Carriage has not been used on the roads of the Town more than fifteen days in any quarter, shall be entitled to a remission of the tax for that quarter. Provided that, if such person have more than one such Carriage, and his Carriages, one with another, have been used on the Town roads more than fifteen days in the quarter, though no one of them has been used more than fifteen days, he shall be entitled to the remission for only one such Carriage.

Service of notices, &c.

XXIV. Bills and notices of demand may be served on persons keeping Carriages beyond the limits of the Town, either in the manner provided in the Incorporated Act, or by delivery of the same to the driver of the Carriage, when such Carriage is found within the limits of the Town.

Persons residing beyond three miles not liable for temporary use of Town roads.

XXV. Nothing contained in this Act shall be so construed as to render liable to the said Tax any person residing and keeping any Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, or any Horse, Pony, or Mule, at a distance of more than three miles from the limits of the said Town, on account of the same being brought for a temporary purpose upon the roads of the said Town; or to require that any Hack-Carriage, Karanchee, Cart, or Hackery, belonging to any such person, and kept as aforesaid, when brought upon the Roads of the said Town for a temporary purpose, should be numbered.

Gas Contracts.

XXVI. The Commissioners, with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, may contract with the owners of any Gas-works for lighting with Gas such of the public streets of the said Town as the Commissioners, with the like sanction, shall from time to time determine.

Lighting Rate.

XXVII. Whenever any streets shall be lighted with Gas, a lighting rate, not exceeding 2 per cent. of the annual value, may be imposed upon all houses and lands in such streets, and such rate shall be payable quarterly by the occupiers of such houses and lands; and the Commissioners may, in aid of the lighting rate, expend, out of the funds at their disposal, such further sum, not exceeding one-half of the amount of the net proceeds of the said rate, as may be necessary for the efficient lighting of such streets.

Occupier liable only for time of occupation.

XXVIII. Every occupier shall be liable to the lighting rate for the whole time of his occupation, and for such time only; and no such rate shall be chargeable to any person on account of any unoccupied house for the time during which it may remain unoccupied.

Owner when liable.

XXIX. When the gross monthly rent of any house or land is less than 10 Rupees, or when any house is let by the owner in apartments or portions, the owner shall be liable to pay the lighting rate instead of the occupier or occupiers.

Occupier sub-letting.

XXX. When any person, who rents from the owner any house or building, sub-lets the same in apartments or portions, such person, for the purposes of the lighting-rate, shall be held to be the occupier.

Drainage.

XXXI. The Commissioners, under the direction of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, shall organize and carry out, with as little delay as possible, a complete system of sewerage and drainage within the said Town; and shall, so long as may be necessary, apply to that purpose, out of the proceeds of the rate provided by Section XI of this Act, such annual sum, not being less than Rupees 1,50,000, as the Lieutenant-Governor shall direct. The said annual sum may be expended by the Commissioners either in the execution of such work of sewerage and drainage, or in the re-payment of any sum of money borrowed for the execution of the said work in the manner provided in the Incorporated Act.

Drainage Rate on houses beyond limits of Town.

XXXII. For the purpose of effectually carrying out a system of sewerage and drainage for the said Town and the Environs thereof, a rate not exceeding 2½ per cent of the annual value may be imposed upon houses and lands situated within such boundaries beyond the limits of the Town, as shall be determined by the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and notified in the Calcutta Gazette; and the provisions of the Incorporated Act shall have effect in respect of such rate.

Certain provisions of Conservancy Act extended.

XXXIII. Sections XLV to LX, both inclusive, of Act XIV of 1856, entitled "An Act for the Conservancy and Improvement of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca," shall have effect within the boundaries to be fixed under the last preceding Section, and all penalties, expenses, and compensation which, under the said Sections and by the provisions of the said Act, may be adjudged and determined by a Magistrate or by two Magistrates acting in and for the Town of Calcutta, may be adjudged and determined within such boundaries by the Magistrate having jurisdiction therein.

Municipal Fund.

XXXIV. All monies received by the Commissioners by virtue of this Act, or of Act XIV of 1856, or of any other Act, and all monies which may be assigned by Government for purposes of Conservancy and Improvement in the said Town, shall constitute a Fund, which shall be called the Municipal Fund of Calcutta, and shall be under the direction, management, and control of the Municipal Commissioners, and shall be applied to the purposes of this Act and of the Incorporated Act and of Act XIV of 1856.

Certain fines to be paid to the Municipal Fund.

XXXV. All fines and penalties levied under this Act or the Incorporated Act shall be paid to the Municipal Fund.

Commencement of Act.

XXXVI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the 1st of November 1856.

No. 28.

Fort William, Financial Department,

The 4th July 1856.

Notification.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to issue the following Rules for the protection of Government in cases of application for gratuities to the families of Lascars, Coolies and other workmen in the service of Government, who may happen to be killed or to die in consequence of wounds or accidents sustained in the execution of their public duties:—

RULES.

1. No application for a gratuity shall be received from the family of a deceased workman, unless he died within 6 months from the date on which the wound, or the accident which is supposed to have caused his death, was received.

2. Applications shall be confined to cases in which the deceased may have left a widow, son, daughter, father, or mother, dependent upon him for support.

3. All claims shall be subjected to a regular enquiry by the Officer at the head of the Department in which the deceased was employed.

4. The claimants shall appear personally before the said Officer, and witnesses (unconnected with the claimants if possible) shall invariably be examined in attestation of the validity of the claim. When the evidence of relatives or connections is taken, a note to that effect shall be entered upon the proceedings, and in all cases the witnesses shall be warned to confine their evidence to circumstances within their own knowledge, and be made to understand that they will be liable to trial and punishment in the event of their evidence proving to be false.

5. The proceedings shall be drawn up in the form annexed, and shall contain a concise but full record of the evidence by which every claim is supported; the designation and duties of the deceased; the nature of the accident or injury which caused his death, and the precise degree of relationship and condition of the person or persons claiming the bounty of Government in consequence.

6. In cases where two or more survivors within the degrees of relationship specified in Clause 2 may be entitled to a gratuity under these Rules, the claims of each shall be fully investigated, and the preference accorded in the following order:

1. Son (legitimate.)
2. Widow.
3. Daughter (legitimate.)
4. Father.
5. Mother.

7. The gratuity admissible under these Rules shall in no case exceed the maximum limit of six months' pay of the deceased, nor be invariably assigned at that amount, but be regulated according to the duties of the deceased, the circumstances attending his death, and the condition and prospects of his surviving relative or relatives.

8. The above Rules, although specially intended to provide for the adjudication of claims to gratuities on the part of the families of men killed in the execution of their duties, who are not entitled to pensions under the Rules and practice of this Presidency, shall also be held applicable in the investigation of claims to pension on the part of the families of persons employed in the Gun Powder Manufactory, the Khedda Establishments, and others engaged in duties involving unusual hazard, and of claims to pension preferred under Clause 6 of the Uncovenanted Pension Rules of January 1831.

9. The Government by no means binds itself to issue gratuities in all cases, nor in cases of pension to grant them for life.

Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Effects of MR. Louis Barjon, an Assistant Indigo Planter at Dhoореapar, Zillah Goruckpore, are under the Seal of this Court, and will be delivered to any person duly authorized to receive the same.

W. ROBERTS,
Judge.

The 3rd July 1856.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

R. C. BIRCH, Lieut.,
Offg. Sen. Asst. Commr.

Sen. Asst. Commr.'s Office;
Sumbulpore,
The 7th May 1856.

Notice.

REQUIRED for the Office of the Chittagong Commissioner of Revenue and Circuit a Sheristadar, salary 100 Rupees. Candidates are recommended to make early application, and to forward, written in their own hand, an account of their qualifications and the nature and extent of their education, &c. &c.. verified by such Certificates and Testimonials as they are desirous of having inspected. Candidates should bear in mind, that an inferior knowledge of Bengalee will not be considered as compensated for by an English education however superior, and that a less amount of the knowledge acquired at School and out of Books, provided the Candidate has some acquaintance with the mode of conducting business in a Revenue Office, will be preferred to higher attainments unaccompanied with experience. It should also not be lost sight of by Candidates for the appointment, that living at Chittagong is expensive, the climate is bad, and the means of getting away from the Station are only available for a few months in the year.

C. STEER,
Commissioner of Revenue and Circuit, 16th Division.

COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE;
Chittagong,
The 20th June 1856.

Notice.

THE following Engraved and Lithographed Maps of the Survey of India are available to the Public, and may be had at the following reduced prices, at Messrs. Thacker and Co., St. Andrew's Library; Messrs. Lepage and Co., British Library; Messrs. Newman and Co., Messrs. Hay and Co., and Messrs. D'Rozario and Co., Calcutta.

Official Authorities who may be entitled to receive Maps on the Public Service will be supplied as usual from the Surveyor General's Office; but no Maps will be sold, except at the Libraries above mentioned; all applications for purchase should therefore be made to the several Libraries accordingly.

These Maps are likewise procurable from the Curator of Government Books at Agra, either on Service or on purchase; and Maps connected with the Punjaub are available on application to the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner at Lahore.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

No. 32.

Fort William, Financial Department,
The 11th July 1856.

Notification.—Extract from a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors addressed to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 40 of 1856, dated the 21st May :—

Para. 3. You will observe from para. 18 of our Despatch in this Department, dated 6th February 1856, No. 11, that a Civil Servant must return to his duty at the expiration of his "privilege" leave to entitle him to the advantages thereof. His allowances will therefore not be payable till he shall have rejoined his appointment.

Letter from, dated 29th November 1855, No. 161.

Forward copy of Correspondence with the Government of Bengal, and with reference thereto submit for orders the question whether a Civil Servant should be permitted to receive his Allowances during privilege leave or only upon his return to duty.

Extract from a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors addressed to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 11 of 1856, dated the 6th February :—

Para. 18. We observe that this "privilege" leave was granted to Mr. Money preparatory to his proceeding on Furlough; but "privilege" leave ought only to be allowed when it is the intention of the Servant to return to his duty at the close of it. The object of the indulgence should be kept in view, and the advantage of leave, with full salary, should be reserved for those Servants who, having been at their stations for eleven consecutive months, (or longer if the leave be accumulated) require a little relaxation, and after enjoying it return to their duty. It is the rule that if a Civil Servant, whilst absent on "privilege" leave, be granted extended leave, under Medical certificate, he shall be considered liable to the Rules applicable to leave of absence, on Medical certificate, for the whole period of his absence; and we see no reason for maintaining a different practice when a Furlough on private affairs is taken in extension of "privilege" leave. In the latter case, a moiety only of salary should be drawn up to the date of the absentee's quitting India on Furlough Allowance.

Letter from, dated 18th July 1855, No. 94.—Report Proceedings of this Department for the 4th Quarter of 1854.

(75.) Mr. R. Money, Officiating Judge of Moorshedabad, not having been absent from his post for two years, before the promulgation of the new Absentee Rules, has been granted the benefit of accumulated privilege leave under Section XIII. of the Rules, on the ground that service before, as well as after, the introduction of the new Rules reckoned towards qualifying for the privilege.

No. 33.

Notification.—Extract from a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors addressed to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 40 of 1856, dated the 21st May :—

Para. 6. With reference to the representations which have been made to you on this subject, we concur in the propriety of your having ruled that Security shall in future only be required from Civil Servants when proceeding on regular Furlough, or when resigning the Service.

Letter from, dated 29th November 1855, No. 164.

Forward Correspondence containing certain suggestions from the Government, N. W. Provinces, relative to the practice of requiring security from Civil Servants proceeding to Europe.

7. We shall not accept the resignation of any Civil Servant, during absence in this country on sick leave or special leave on private affairs, without ascertaining that there are no demands against him. A prompt reply to our reference in such cases will be essential.

8. It will be requisite that this alteration of practice should be promulgated for the information of our Civil Servants.

No. 34.

Notification.—Extract from a Despatch from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors addressed to the Government of India, in the Financial Department, No. 38 of 1856, dated the 13th May :—

Para. 43. The subject here reported upon has been decided in our Despatch in this Department dated 5th December 1855, No. 107.

Letter from, dated 10th September 1855, No. 123.—Report Proceedings in this Department for the 1st Quarter of 1855.

123 and 126.—Forward Correspondence with the Government of Fort St. George, on the question whether Uncovenanted Servants should be allowed to count as service qualifying for Pension the periods of authorized absence.

44. It appears to have been the practice at Madras to permit all absence of Uncovenanted Servants, on authorized leave, to reckon as service for pension. Although this has been put a stop to, we should not consider it just to allow those Uncovenanted Servants who may have enjoyed the advantage beyond the limit fixed by the new Rule to be now deprived of counting their past leave as service.

To the North, a line drawn across the River Hooghly from the boundary pillar on the North side of Hautkollah Ghaut to the boundary pillar on the North side of Sulkea Ghaut.

To the South, a line drawn from the boundary pillar at the South-West corner of the house on the river bank usually occupied by the Superintendent of the Botanical Gardens and known as Garden House, to the boundary pillar at the South-West corner of the public Ghaut opposite.

So much of Tolly's Nullah as lies to the West of a line drawn across the Nullah between the two boundary pillars 300 yards within Hastings' Bridge.

The limits of the said Port include to the East and West so much of the River Hooghly and of the shores thereof and so much of Tolly's Nullah and of the shores thereof as are within 50 yards of high-water mark Spring tides.

The limits of the navigable River and Channels leading to the said Port of Calcutta made subject to the said Act are as follows :—

To the North, the Port of Calcutta as above defined.

To the South, a line drawn East and West from the Lower Floating Light.

All parts of the navigable Channels called the Eastern and the Western Channels, and of the River Hooghly between the said limits and below high-water line at Spring tides are subject to the said Act.

PORT RULES.

With the sanction of the Governor General of India in Council, the following Port Rules have been made, and are hereby promulgated for general information and guidance :—

Rule 1.—No vessel, if above 200 tons, shall enter within the limits of the Port of Calcutta, or move from one place to another within the Port between sunset and sunrise, without the special permission of the Master Attendant.

Rule 2.—All vessels within the Port of Calcutta shall be bound to take up such berth as may be appointed for them by the Master Attendant, the Harbour Master, or their Assistants, and shall change their berths or remove when required by such authority.

Rule 3.—All vessels above Fort Point shall keep their Jib and Driver Booms rigged in; and all vessels within the Port of Calcutta shall, on the requisition of the Master Attendant, or the Harbour Master, rig in their Jib and Driver Booms, and shall strike their Yards and Masts if required so to do by either of those Officers.

Rule 4.—Every ship or vessel within the Port of Calcutta shall remove any anchor or spar or other substance projecting from her side when required to do so by the Master Attendant or the Harbour Master.

Rule 5.—Vessels taking in or discharging ballast or any particular kind of cargo within the Port of Calcutta shall be bound to take up such berth as the Master Attendent or the Harbour Master may direct.

Rule 6.—A free channel of 240 yards width is to be kept for ships moving up or down the River within the Port, and also free passages to Piers, Jetties, Landing Places, Wharves, Quays, Docks, and Moorings; and all vessels shall be bound to move when required to clear such channels or passages.

Rule 7.—All vessels within the Port of Calcutta shall anchor, moor, and unmoor when and where required by the Master Attendant and the Harbour Master.

Rule 8.—All vessels within the Port of Calcutta shall be moored or warped from place to place as required by the Master Attendant or Harbour Master; and no vessel shall cast off of a wharp that has been made fast to her to assist a vessel in mooring without being required so to do by the Pilot or Officer in charge of the vessel mooring.

Rule 9.—No vessel shall use any of the Government Chain Moorings, whether fixed or swinging, without permission of the Master Attendant or the Harbour Master.

Rule 10.—All vessels occupying Government Mooring, fixed or swinging, shall be liable to pay for the same according to the following scale but no more :—

FORT WILLIAM ;
Office of the Acct. to the Govt. of Bengal,
The 15th July 1856.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

R. C. BIRCH, Lieut.,
Offg. Sen. Asst. Commr.

Sen. Asst. Commr.'s Office;

Notice.

REQUIRED for the Office of the Chittagong Commissioner of Revenue and Circuit a Sheristadar, salary 100 Rupees. Candidates are recommended to make early application, and to forward, written in their own hand, an account of their qualifications and the nature and extent of their education, &c. &c., verified by such Certificates and Testimonials as they are desirous of having inspected. Candidates should bear in mind, that an inferior knowledge of Bengalee will not be considered as compensated for by an English education however superior, and that a less amount of the knowledge acquired at School and out of Books, provided the Candidate has some acquaintance with the mode of conducting business in a Revenue Office, will be preferred to higher attainments unaccompanied with experience. It should also not be lost sight of by Candidates for the appointment, that living at Chittagong is expensive, the climate is bad, and the means of getting away from the Station are only available for a few months in the year.

C. STIER,
Commissioner of Revenue and Circuit, 16th Division.

COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE ;
Chittagong,
The 20th June 1856.

Notice.

The following Engraved and Lithographed Maps of the Survey of India are available to the Public, and may be had at the following reduced prices, at Messrs. Thacker and Co., St. Andrew's Library; Messrs. Lepage and Co., British Librar y; Messrs. Newman and Co., Messrs. Hay and Co., and Messrs. D'Rozario and Co, Calcutta.

Official Authorities who may be entitled to receive Maps on the Public Service will be supplied, as usual from the Surveyor General's Office; but no Maps will be sold, except at the Libraries above mentioned; all applications for purchase should therefore be made to the several Libraries accordingly.

These Maps are likewise procurable from the Curator of Government Books at Agra, either on Service or on purchase; and Maps connected with the Punjaub are available on application to the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner at Lahore.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 23, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 19th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of October next.—

A Bill to provide for the dissolution of the Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund Society, and the distribution of the funds belonging thereto.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by Articles of agreement dated the 12th day of May 1820, a Society was established for raising a Fund called "The Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund," the interest, dividends, and proceeds of which Fund are thereby directed to be applied in making provision at certain specified rates for the widows and children of the subscribers or their nominees; and it is thereby declared that such provision shall be made solely out of the interest and dividends of the said Fund: and whereas a petition has been presented to the Legislative Council by certain directors, members, and beneficiaries of the Society, stating that the said interest, dividends, and proceeds have for many years been insufficient to make the provision intended by the Articles of agreement, and that the reduction of the pensions is so great as to amount to a disappointment of the expectations of the founders of the Fund, and virtually a failure to accomplish the object of the Fund; and praying that an Act may be passed to wind up the affairs of the said Society: and whereas no provision is made in the Deed for the dissolution of the said Society and the distribution of the Funds belonging thereto, and it is expedient to make provision for the same by law: It is enacted as follows:—

Supreme Court, on petition, may make order for dissolving the Society and winding up the affairs of the Fund, &c

I. On the petition to the Supreme Court of a majority of the Directors of the said Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund, or of any ten Members of the Society and pensionaries on the said Fund, praying for the dissolution of the said Society, and the winding up of the affairs of the said Fund, it shall be lawful for the said Supreme Court to make order for the same on the said petition, as fully as if the petitioners proceeded by information or Bill, and as if there were parties defendants, and as fully as if the Deed of the said Society provided for the winding up of the said Fund: and it shall be lawful for the said Court to make order for ascertaining and declaring the rights which attach on the said Fund, and for taking the accounts of the said Fund, and for the apportionment, division, and distribution of the said Fund; and for the ascertainment of the nature and number of the different claims on the said Fund, and of the persons having or entitled to make the said claims; and for the payment of the proper costs of the Directors of the said Society, and of all parties conducting or otherwise concerned in the matter of the said petition, and subsequent proceedings for winding up the said Fund.

Employment of accountant or actuary

II. It shall be lawful for the Court, in such way as they may think fit, to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary the better to enable the Court to determine any matter relating to the division and distribution of the Fund, and to act upon the certificate of such person or persons; and in case it shall be deemed necessary to make any reference to the Master in Equity of the said Court in the matter of such petition, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order that the Master in Equity shall be at liberty in like manner to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary.

Court may order payment to persons consenting to commute their pensions.

III. In the cases of pensioners, or persons entitled to become pensioners, who shall consent to commute their pensions, it shall be lawful for the Court to order that the amounts to be paid in commutation shall be settled, invested, or paid, in such manner as will give the several persons therein interested the full benefit thereof.

A sufficient sum to be set apart for payment of uncommuted pensions.

IV. In the cases of pensioners, or persons entitled to become pensioners, who shall refuse to commute their pensions. it shall be lawful for the Court to order a sufficient sum to be set apart out of the said Fund to provide for the due payment of such pensions, and also to sanction and give effect to any arrangement which it may deem just and sufficient for the future payment of any uncommuted pensions by any Life Insurance Company willing to undertake the payment of such pensions.

Guardians of minors.

V. The guardians of minors, pensioners on the said Fund, shall have full power and authority to consent on their behalf to commute the pensions of the minors for a fixed sum: and the said Court shall have full power and authority to give effect to such consent and to make such order as the said Court may deem just for the application of the said commuted sum for the future benefit of the infant; and if there be no guardian, the mother, during her widowhood, may act as guardian, unless the Court shall otherwise order, and, if necessary, the Court may appoint a guardian for any minor.

Application for the benefit of pensioners, of funds not awarded to members, or representatives of deceased members.

VI. In dividing and distributing the funds of the Society, every part thereof which shall not be awarded by the Court to members or representatives of deceased members, may, if the Court shall think fit, be applied for the benefit of pensioners or persons entitled to become pensioners, whether they shall consent to commute their interests or not.

Court may order payment of dividend out of probable surplus.

VII. With a view to expedite the distribution of the surplus of the said Fund, over and above what may probably be necessary to provide for the pensions, the said Court shall have full power and authority at any time to order payment of a dividend of the said probable surplus, to the persons entitled to the same, although the exact surplus and the exact amount of charges may not then be ascertained.

Proceedings for bringing in claimants.

VIII. For the purpose of winding up the said Fund, and finally closing the accounts thereof, the like proceedings shall be had for the bringing in of claimants on the said Fund, as in ordinary administration suits for bringing in creditors and other persons; and claimants being pensioners, or entitled to be pensioners, who may neglect to come in a due course, or within the time limited for that purpose, shall be deemed to have consented to commute their pensions, and a final distribution may be made of the said Fund.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 19th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of October next:—

A Bill to amend Act XII of 1844.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by Section III Act XII of 1844, it was provided that nothing in that Act contained should extend or be construed to extend to empower any Court Martial, to be constituted by virtue of that Act, to proceed to the punishment or trial of any of the offences specified in the several Articles contained in that Act, or of any offence whatsoever (other than the offences specified in the 5th, 34th, and 35th of the said Articles and Orders), which should not be committed upon the main sea or in great rivers only beneath the bridges of the said rivers nigh to the sea, or any haven, river, or creek within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, and which should not be committed by such person as, at the time of the offence committed, should be in actual service and full pay in the Indian Navy, such persons only excepted and for such offences only as were described in the 5th of the said Articles and Orders: and whereas it is expedient that every superior Officer, Captain or Commandor, or Lieutenant, belonging to the Indian Navy, should be amenable to Naval Courts Martial for the offences specified in Article 33 of the said Act, whether the same be committed on the main sea or on shore: It is enacted as follows:—

Section III Act XII. 1844 not to extend to any of the offences specified in Article 33 thereof.

I. Nothing contained in the 3rd Section of Act XII of 1844 shall extend to any of the offences specified in Article 33 of the said Act, which, after the passing of this Act, shall be committed by any superior Officer, Captain or Commander, or Lieutenant, belonging to the Indian Navy.

No. 3940.

The 22nd July 1856.

Notification.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, for the reciprocal admission of Consuls of the one Nation to the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council,

G. F. EDMONSTONE,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the Netherlands, for the reciprocal admission of Consuls of the one Party to the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other.

Signed at the Hague, March 6th 1856.

[Ratifications exchanged at the Hague, April 29th 1856.]

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, being desirous to strengthen the bonds of friendship which exist between the United Kingdom and the Kingdom of the Netherlands, and to secure the fullest possible extension to the relations of commerce happily established between the two Nations, have consented to admit Consuls of the one Kingdom to the Ports of the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other, on condition however that such concession shall form the subject of a special Convention.

For this purpose, Her Britannic Majesty, and His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, have named as their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland the Honorable Sir Ralph Abercromby, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath, Her Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, Grand Duke of Luxembourg;

And His Majesty the King of the Netherlands the Sieur Floris Adrian van Hall, Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Netherland Lion, of the Order of the Crown of Oak, of the Order of the White Falcon of Saxe Weimar, of the Order of Leopold of Belgium, of the Order of the Ernestine Branch of the House of Saxony, of the Imperial Russian Order of the White Eagle, and of the Hanoverian Guelphic Order, His Minister of State holding the Department of Foreign Affairs; and the Sieur Peter Mijer, Commander of the Order of the Netherland Lion, His Minister holding the Department of the Colonies;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of Great Britain shall be admitted in all the Ports of the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of His Majesty the King of the Netherlands, which are open to the vessels of all Nations.

In like manner Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of the Netherlands shall be admitted in all the Ports of the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of Her Britannic Majesty, which are open to the vessels of all Nations.

ARTICLE II.

The Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls shall be considered as commercial agents and as protectors of the commerce of their Nation within their respective Consular Districts.

They shall be subject as well to the Civil as to the Criminal Laws of the Colony or place where they reside, with the exceptions established in their favor by the present Convention.

ARTICLE III.

Every Consul-General or Consul of either of the two Contracting Parties, appointed to reside in a Colony or Foreign Possession of the other, shall, before being admitted to the exercise of his functions, and to the enjoyment of the immunities which are attached thereto, produce to the Government of the Country to which the Colony or Possession belongs a Commission from his own Sovereign, and shall obtain from that Government an exequatur in due form, which shall, as soon as possible, be countersigned by the Governor of the Colony. He shall then be entitled to the protection of the Government, and to the assistance of the local authorities, for the free exercise of his functions.

It is understood that, with regard to Consuls of the Netherlands appointed to reside in the Territories which are under the Government of the East India Company, their Commissions must be produced to the Government in London, and the exequatur or recognition will be granted by the Governor General of India.

The Government which grants the exequatur reserves to itself the power of withdrawing it, or of causing it to be withdrawn by the Governor of the Colony or Possession; explaining, however, to the other Government its reasons for so doing.

ARTICLE IV.

The Government of a Colony or Foreign Possession of either of the two High Contracting Parties shall afford every assistance and protection in its power for the safety of all archives and documents relative to the affairs of a Consulate of the other Party established in such Colony or Possession.

ARTICLE V.

Consuls-General and Consuls shall be authorised to place above the outer door of their house a representation of the arms of their Sovereign, with the inscription "British Consulate" or "Consulate of the Netherlands," as the case may be.

It is clearly understood, that this external sign shall never be construed as giving a right of asylum, nor as exempting the house and the persons who reside in it from the jurisdiction of the local judicial authorities.

ARTICLE VI.

Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls are not invested with any diplomatic character; but in all urgent cases of local and commercial interest, they may address themselves to the Governor of the Colony or Possession.

ARTICLE VII.

Consuls-General and Consuls shall have the right to appoint Vice-Consuls for the Ports of their Consular Districts.

Such Vice-Consuls may be selected, without distinction, from subjects of either of the Contracting Parties, or from subjects or citizens of any other Country, residing, or qualified, according to the local laws, to be admitted to reside in the Port where the Vice-Consul is to be appointed.

The nomination of such Vice-Consuls shall be submitted by the Consul for the approbation of the Governor of the Colony or Possession; and they shall be furnished with an appointment signed by the Consul, under whose orders they are to exercise their functions.

The Governor of the Colony or Possession may at any time withdraw from a Vice-Consul the approbation above-mentioned; explaining to the Consul-General or Consul of the District his reasons for so doing.

ARTICLE VIII.

Passports issued or countersigned by Consular Agents shall in no wise exempt the persons holding them from providing themselves with all the documents required by the local laws, in order to travel or to establish themselves in the Colonies or Foreign Possessions of the respective Parties.

The Governor of the Colony or Possession shall have the right to forbid the stay therein of any individual to whom a passport may have been delivered, or to order his departure.

ARTICLE IX.

If a vessel of one of the two Contracting Parties should be cast upon the Coast of a Colony or Foreign Possession of the other, and neither the owner, master, nor any person to represent him should be upon the spot, the Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul present at the place of the wreck or of the salvage shall take all the necessary measures for saving the vessel, the cargo, and all that appertains thereto, and shall take possession of the same for the benefit of the owners.

In the absence of the Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, the local authorities of the place where the vessel has been wrecked shall take the measures prescribed by the Laws of the Colony or Possession. And in this case the ship, and all parts thereof, and all furniture and appurtenances belonging thereunto, and all goods and merchandize saved therefrom, and any papers found on board of such ship, shall, on payment of the expenses incurred in the preservation of the property, and of the salvage or other expenses which would have been payable in the like case of a wreck of a national vessel, be delivered to the owners or their agents, or to the British or Netherland Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, as the case may be.

Goods and merchandize saved from wreck shall in all cases be allowed to be cleared for consumption to the same extent, and on payment of the same duties, as if they had been imported in a ship belonging to the Country in whose Colony or Foreign Possession the wreck takes place; and no goods or merchandize so saved shall be liable to any import duties unless cleared for consumption.

The provisions of this Article shall however, on both sides, be held to be subject to any now existing Colonial Laws.

ARTICLE X.

Arrangements having been already made between the Governments of Great Britain and of the Netherlands, for the mutual arrest and surrender of seamen who may desert from merchant vessels of the one Country in the Ports of the other, it is agreed that the local authorities in the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of either of the two Contracting Parties shall afford to the Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of the other, all such assistance as they may be enabled by Law to give for the arrest and surrender of seamen who may desert from the merchant vessels of their Nation while in the Ports of those Possessions and Colonies.

If the deserter shall have committed any crime or offence against the Laws of the Colony or Possession, his surrender may be deferred until the Court which has cognizance thereof shall have given its sentence, and the sentence have been carried into effect.

ARTICLE XI.

If a subject of either of the two Contracting Parties should die in a Colony or Foreign Possession of the other, without leaving any known heirs or testamentary executors, the authorities charged according to the Law of the Colony or Possession with the administration of the succession shall give notice of the death to the Consular Agent of the other Contracting Party, in order that he may transmit the requisite information to the parties interested.

ARTICLE XII.

The Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of one of the two Contracting Parties shall, in the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other, have the right, so far as may be there permitted to the Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of the most favored Nation, and as far as the Laws of their own Country may permit them, to act as judges and arbitrators in differences which may arise between the Captains and the Crews of vessels of their own Country, without the intervention of the local authorities, unless the conduct of the Crew or of the Captain should be such as to disturb the order and tranquillity of the place, or unless the Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls should require the assistance of the said authorities, in order to carry their decisions into execution, or to maintain the authority thereof.

It is however understood, that any such special decision or arbitration shall not preclude the litigating parties from the right of appealing, on their return, to the judicial authorities of their own Country.

ARTICLE XIII.

The Consuls-General, Consuls, and Vice-Consuls of one of the two Contracting Parties in the Colonies or Possessions of the other, shall enjoy the same privileges which are, or may be, there granted to agents of the same character belonging to the most favored Nation: and especially they shall, unless subjects of the Country, be exempt from all Military Service, and from Military requisitions, as well as from all pecuniary compositions in lieu of Military Service.

Exemption from taxation shall, however, not be claimed for any such Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul, who may be a subject of the Country, or engaged in any profession, occupation, or business besides his Consular duties; nor unless a corresponding exemption be enjoyed by Consular Agents of that Country of the same description in the Colonies and Foreign Possessions of the other.

ARTICLE XIV.

The present Convention shall continue in force for five years from the date of the exchange of the ratifications, which shall take place at the Hague as soon as possible within the period of two months.

In case neither of the Contracting Parties should have given notice to the other, twelve months before the expiration of the said period of five years, of its intention to put an end to the Convention, it shall continue in force a year longer, and so on from year to year, each Party being at liberty to give the year's notice at the expiration of four years, or of any subsequent year.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the present Convention, and have affixed thereto the seals of their arms.

Done at the Hague, this Sixth day of March, in the year of Our Lord One-thousand Eight-hundred and Fifty-six.

Notification.

Persons desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2*nd*. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4*th*. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 19th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of October next:—

A Bill to provide for the dissolution of the Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund Society, and the distribution of the funds belonging thereto.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by Articles of agreement dated the 12th day of May 1820, a Society was established for raising a Fund called "The Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund," the interest, dividends, and proceeds of which Fund are thereby directed to be applied in making provision at certain specified rates for the widows and children of the subscribers or their nominees; and it is thereby declared that such provision shall be made solely out of the interest and dividends of the said Fund and whereas a petition has been presented to the Legislative Council by certain directors, members, and beneficiaries of the Society, stating that the said interest, dividends, and proceeds have for many years been insufficient to make the provision intended by the Articles of agreement, and that the reduction of the pensions is so great as to amount to a disappointment of the expectations of the founders of the Fund, and virtually a failure to accomplish the object of the Fund; and praying that an Act may be passed to wind up the affairs of the said Society; and whereas no provision is made in the Deed for the dissolution of the said Society and the distribution of the Funds belonging thereto, and it is expedient to make provision for the same by law: It is enacted as follows:—

Supreme Court, on petition, may make order for dissolving the Society and winding up the affairs of the Fund, &c.

I. On the petition to the Supreme Court of a majority of the Directors of the said Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund, or of any ten Members of the Society and pensionaries on the said Fund, praying for the dissolution of the said Society, and the shall be lawful for the said Supreme Court to make order for the same on the said petition, as fully as if the petitioners proceeded by information or Bill, and as if there were parties defendants, and as fully as if the Deed of the said Society provided for the winding up of the said Fund, and it shall be lawful for the said Court to make order for ascertaining and declaring the rights which attach on the said Fund, and for taking the accounts of the said Fund, and for the apportionment, division, and distribution of the said Fund; and for the ascertainment of the nature and number of the different claims on the said Fund, and of the persons having or entitled to make the said claims; and for the payment of the proper costs of the Directors of the said Society, and of all parties conducting or otherwise concerned in the matter of the said petition, and subsequent proceedings for winding up the said Fund.

Employment of accountant or actuary.

II. It shall be lawful for the Court, in such way as they may think fit, to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary the better to enable the Court to determine any matter relating to the division and distribution of the Fund, and to act upon the certificate of such person or persons; and in case it shall be deemed necessary to make any reference to the Master in Equity of the said Court in the matter of such petition, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order that the Master in Equity shall be at liberty in like manner to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary.

Court may order payment to persons consenting to commute their pensions.

III. In the cases of pensioners, or persons entitled to become pensioners, who shall consent to commute their pensions, it shall be lawful for the Court to order that the amounts to be paid in commutation shall be settled, invested, or paid, in such manner as will give the several persons therein interested the full benefit thereof.

A sufficient sum to be set apart for payment of uncommuted pensions.

IV. In the cases of pensioners, or persons entitled to become pensioners, who shall refuse to commute their pensions, it shall be lawful for the Court to order a sufficient sum to be set apart out of the said Fund to provide for the due payment of such pensions, and also to sanction and give effect to any arrangement which it may deem just and sufficient for the future payment of any uncommuted pensions by any Life Insurance Company willing to undertake the payment of such pensions.

Guardians of minors.

V. The guardians of minors, pensioners on the said Fund, shall have full power and authority to consent on their behalf to commute the pensions of the minors for a fixed sum: and the said Court shall have full power and authority to give effect to such consent and to make such order as the said Court may deem just for the application of the said commuted sum for the future benefit of the infant; and if there be no guardian, the mother, during her widowhood, may act as guardian, unless the Court shall otherwise order, and, if necessary, the Court may appoint a guardian for any minor.

Application for the benefit of pensioners, of funds here, or representatives of deceased members.

VI. In dividing and distributing the funds of the Society, every part thereof which shall not be awarded or representatives of deceased members, may, if the Court shall think fit, be applied for the benefit of pensioners or persons entitled to become pensioners, whether they shall consent to commute their interests or not.

Court may order payment of dividend out of probable surplus.

VII. With a view to expedite the distribution of the surplus of the said Fund, over and above what may probably be necessary to provide for the pensions, the said Court shall have full power and authority at any time to order payment of a dividend of the said probable surplus, to the persons entitled to the same, although the exact surplus and the exact amount of charges may not then be ascertained.

Proceedings for bringing in claimants.

VIII. For the purpose of winding up the said Fund, and finally closing the accounts thereof, the like proceedings shall be had for the bringing in of claimants on the said Fund, as in ordinary administration suits for bringing in creditors and other persons; and claimants being pensioners, or entitled to be pensioners, who may neglect to come in a due course, or within the time limited for that purpose, shall be deemed to have consented to commute their pensions, and a final distribution may be made of the said Fund.

W. MORGAN.
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 19th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of October next:—

A Bill to amend Act XII of 1844.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by Section III Act XII of 1844, it was provided that nothing in that Act contained should extend or be construed to extend to empower any Court Martial, to be constituted by virtue of that Act, to proceed to the punishment or trial of any of the offences specified in the several Articles contained in that Act, or of any offence whatsoever (other than the offences specified in the 5th, 34th, and 35th of the said Articles and Orders), which should not be committed upon the main sea or in great rivers only beneath the bridges of the said rivers nigh to the sea, or any haven, river, or creek within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, and which should not be committed by such person as, at the time of the offence committed, should be in actual service and full pay in the Indian Navy, such persons only excepted and for such offences only as were described in the 5th of the said Articles and Orders: and whereas it is expedient that every superior Officer, Captain or Commander, or Lieutenant, belonging to the Indian Navy, should be amenable to Naval Courts Martial for the offences specified in Article 33 of the said Act, whether the same be committed on the main sea or on shore: It is enacted as follows:—

Section III Act XII. 1844 not to extend to any of the offences specified in Article 33 thereof.

I. Nothing contained in the 3rd Section of Act XII of 1844 shall extend to any of the offences specified in Article 33 of the said Act, which, after the passing of this Act, shall be committed by any superior Officer, Captain or Commander, or Lieutenant, belonging to the Indian Navy.

Notification—The 24th July 1856.—The following is published for general information, with reference to the Uncovenanted Absentee Rules of the 22nd of February last.

No. 2940.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, in the Financial Department, under date the 20th June 1856.

Read an Extract from the Proceedings of Government in the Foreign Department, No. 3047, dated the 28th ultimo, forwarding for consideration and orders a letter No. 364, dated the 19th idem, from the Secretary to the Chief Commissioner of the Punjaub, soliciting instructions on certain points connected with Section VI. of the Uncovenanted Service Leave Rules.

Resolution.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council observes, that the points on which orders are solicited by the Chief Commissioner of the Punjaub are these—

First.—Whether privilege leave can be taken in broken periods of less than one month within the year?

Second.—What is the minimum period which should intervene between the leave taken in one year, and the leave to be granted in the following year?

As neither of these points is provided for in the existing Rules, His Lordship in Council directs that the provisions made for the Covenanted Service, as published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 14th ultimo, be applied to the Uncovenanted Service, viz.:—

If the privilege leave be taken at one time, no second leave can be granted until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave, and if taken in broken periods, no second instalment can be taken until the completion of six months from the expiration of the previous instalment of leave.

General Orders by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

Fort William, 24th July 1856.

No. 1009 of 1856.—The following Notifications, from the Public Works Department, are published in General Orders:—

No. 133, dated 18*th July* 1856.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to grant to Lieutenant C. T. Hitchins, 54th Regiment Native Infantry, Executive Officer of the Dacca Division, leave of absence, on Medical certificate, to remain at Simla, for the recovery of his health, from the 31st March last to the 15th November 1856.

No. 134, dated 19*th July* 1856.—Appointment.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following appointment:—

Lieutenant S. C. Jervis, Engineers, Executive Engineer of the 2nd Division Dacca and Arracan Road, to officiate as Executive Engineer of the 6th or Allahabad Division, until further orders.

No. 1010 of 1856.—With reference to the Government General Orders noted in the margin, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to promulgate the following alterations in modification of existing Regulations, relative to Deposits of European Soldiers of Her Majesty's and the Hon'ble Company's Service in the Government Savings' Bank, consequent on the approaching abolition of the Government Agency:—

No 302, dated 23rd May 1850.
„ 974, dated 25th November 1853.
„ 587, dated 31st May 1854.
„ 810, dated 9th August 1855.

I. When the deposits of Soldiers reach the sum of Rupees (1,500) one-thousand and five-hundred, the amount shall be invested by the Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank in the usual way in a Treasury Note, and all Deposits amounting to Rupees (500) five-hundred shall also be invested in like manner when the Depositor desires it.

II. When a Treasury Note remains undelivered for three months after investment, it shall be carried to a separate account, to be opened in the name of the depositor in a Ledger to be kept for that purpose by the Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank, but interest upon Treasury Notes so transferred shall remain undrawn. Depositors however who may communicate their wishes to that effect to the Secretary to the Government Savings' Bank can have their Treasury Notes made over to the Bank of Bengal.

III. The above Rules are applicable to Military Depositors, who make their Deposits direct through Divisional Pay Offices, as well as to those who are in account with Regimental Savings' Bank.

Fort William, 25th July 1856.

No. 1011 of 1856.—The under-mentioned individual is admitted to Pension, as specified opposite to his name, under the provisions of Minutes of Council of the 11th January 1797 and General Order of the 5th February 1830, subject to the confirmation of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors:—

School Serjeant Charles Watling, of the Regiment of Artillery, ...	Thirty Rupees per month, payable in India.

No. 1012 of 1856.—Every Recruit, on enlisting into a Native Regiment, is required to take an oath that he "will never forsake nor abandon his colors," and that he "will march wherever he is ordered, whether within or beyond the Company's Territories."

It has been the practice of Government to consider this oath, when not otherwise explained at the time of enlistment, as not in itself binding the Soldier to proceed on service beyond Sea, and therefore, whenever Regiments have been raised for service beyond Sea, no man has been drafted or enlisted into them but with his own consent, and with a full and clear understanding of his engagement to serve beyond Sea when required to do so. From this practice the Government will not depart.

It is with a full and clear understanding of this engagement to serve beyond Sea when required to do so, that the Native Artillery, Horse and Foot, and six Regiments of Native Infantry, the 25th, 40th, 47th, 65th, 67th and 68th, which are the only Corps of the Bengal Army available for general service, have been recruited.

The cheerful alacrity with which these Regiments have at all times done their duty, wherever it has called them, and the distinction which they have won for themselves, are well known to the Army, and will never be forgotten by the Government of India.

Neither does the Government forget how often, when it has needed the service of its Troops in Foreign Countries, the Native Officers and Soldiers of other Regiments have come forward to form Volunteer Battalions, or to proceed as entire Corps, to serve beyond Sea.

The readiness with which they have done so is honorable to themselves, and is thankfully acknowledged by the Government.

But it has become very inconvenient to the Government, and it is hurtful to the State, that a small portion only of the Native Army of Bengal should be surely available for the service of the State beyond Sea, and this inconvenience is not much diminished by the fact that the entire Armies of Madras and Bombay are enlisted without any limitation of their place of service.

For this reason the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council will not henceforward except the services of any Native Recruit for a Regiment of Light Cavalry, of Irregular Cavalry, of Infantry of the Line, or for the Kelat-i-Ghilzie, Ferozepore and Loodianah Regiments, in the Army of Bengal, who does not at the time of his enlistment distinctly undertake to serve beyond Sea, whether within the Territories of the Company, or beyond them.

His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief will be requested to take the necessary measures to ensure the due fulfilment of this determination of the Governor General in Council, by enjoining Officers Commanding the Regiments above mentioned to be strictly careful that, from and after the 1st of September next, no Recruit shall be enlisted except for general service, and that each Recruit, on taking the prescribed oath, shall be made clearly to understand the conditions on which he is enlisted.

No. 1013 of 1856.—Lieutenant J. Sykes, of the 66th or Goorka Regiment, Second in Command of the 7th Regiment of Infantry, Oude Irregular Force, is allowed leave of absence, from the 10th July to the 1st September 1856, to visit the Presidency, preparatory to applying for leave of absence on Sick certificate to Europe, under the new Regulations.

No 1014 of 1856.—The Regimental Order issued to the 7th Regiment of Infantry, Oude Irregular Force, dated the 10th instant, appointing Ensign and Adjutant C. H. Mecham to act as Second in Command, in addition to his other duties, from that date, during the absence on leave of Lieutenant J. Sykes, or until further orders, is confirmed.

No. 1015 of 1856.—Cattle Serjeant John Renny, of Artillery, attached to the Commissariat Department, who was admitted to Pension in India, subject to the approval of the Hon'ble Court, in Government General Order No. 764, of the 22nd May last, is permitted, instead, to draw his stipend in Europe, subject to the Court's approval, at the rate of two Shillings per diem.

No. 1016 of 1856.—Major General Sir John Cheape, K. C. No. 1017 of 1856.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to direct that the following communication from the Horse Guards, dated 9th June 1856, to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief in India, which has been laid before Government by His Excellency, be published in General Orders:—

Horse Guards, 9th June 1856.

SIR,

With reference to your letter of the 8th February last, and copy of the one annexed from Lieutenant General Sir Henry Somerset, respecting the tenure of Brigade Commands in the Bombay Presidency, I am directed by the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief to state, that it is certainly intended that Commands should not be held for more than the period of five years, as fixed by the Royal Warrant, and that unless in some case where the change cannot be effected without inconvenience to the Service, the rule should be observed in Brigade Commands in the several Indian Presidencies.

The Field Marshal must therefore leave it to the General Officers in Command to make such arrangements as will give effect to the requirement of the Warrant in this respect.

I have, &c.

(Sd.) C. YORKE,

&c. &c. &c.

General the Hon'ble GEORGE ANSON.

Notification.

Persons desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2*nd*. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities. and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4*th*. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5*th*. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 30, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 25th July 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XV OF 1856.

An Act to remove all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo Widows.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is known that, by the law as administered in the Civil Courts established in the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, Hindoo widows, with certain exceptions, are held to be, by reason of their having been once married, incapable of contracting a second valid marriage, and the offspring of such widows by any second marriage are held to be illegitimate and incapable of inheriting property: and whereas many Hindoos believe that this imputed legal incapacity, although it is in accordance with established custom, is not in accordance with a true interpretation of the precepts of their religion, and desire that the Civil law administered by the Courts of justice shall no longer prevent those Hindoos who may be so minded from adopting a different custom, in accordance with the dictates of their own consciences: and whereas it is just to relieve all such Hindoos from this legal incapacity of which they complain; and the removal of all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo Widows will tend to the promotion of good morals and to the public welfare: It is enacted as follows:—

Marriage of Hindoo widows legalized.

I. No marriage contracted between Hindoos shall be invalid, and the issue of no such marriage shall be illegitimate, by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person who was dead at the time of such marriage, any custom and any interpretation of Hindoo law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Rights of widow in deceased husband's property to cease on her re-marriage.

II. All rights and interests which any widow may have in her deceased husband's property by way of maintenance, or by inheritance to her husband or to his lineal successors, or by virtue of any will or testamentary disposition conferring upon her, without express permission to re-marry, only a limited interest in such property with no power of alienating the same, shall, upon her re-marriage, cease and determine as if she had then died; and the next heirs of her deceased husband, or other persons entitled to the property on her death, shall thereupon succeed to the same.

Guardianship of children of deceased husband on the re-marriage of his widow.

III. On the re-marriage of a Hindoo widow, if neither the widow nor any other person has been expressly constituted by the will or testamentary disposition of the deceased husband, the guardian of his children, the father or paternal grandfather, or the mother or paternal grandmother, of the deceased husband, or any male relative of the deceased husband, may petition the highest Court having original jurisdiction in Civil cases in the place where the deceased husband was domiciled at the time of his death, for the appointment of some proper person to be guardian of the said children, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court, if it shall think fit, to appoint such guardian, who, when appointed, shall be entitled to have the care and custody of the said children, or of any of them, during their minority, in the place of their mother; and in making such appointment the Court shall be guided, so far as may be, by the laws and rules in force touching the guardianship of children who have neither father nor mother. Provided that, when the said children have not property of their own sufficient for their support and proper education whilst minors, no such appointment shall be made otherwise than with the consent of the mother, unless the proposed guardian shall have given security for the support and proper education of the children whilst minors.

Nothing in this Act to render any childless widow capable of inheriting.

IV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render any widow, who, at the time of the death of any person leaving any property, is a childless widow, capable of inheriting the whole or any share of such property, if, before the passing of this Act, she would have been incapable of inheriting the same by reason of her being a childless widow.

Saving of rights of widow marrying, except as provided in the three preceding Sections.

V. Except as in the three preceding Sections is provided, a widow shall not, by reason of her re-marriage, forfeit any property, or any right to which she would otherwise be entitled; and every widow who has re-married shall have the same rights of inheritance as she would have had, had such marriage been her first marriage.

Whatever ceremonies now constitute a valid marriage shall have the same effect on the marriage of a widow.

VI. Whatever words spoken, ceremonies performed, or engagements made, on the marriage of a Hindoo female who has not been previously married, are sufficient to constitute a valid marriage, shall have the same effect if spoken, performed, or made on the marriage of a Hindoo widow; and no marriage shall be declared invalid on the ground that such words, ceremonies, or engagements, are inapplicable to the case of a widow.

Consent to re-marriage of a widow who is a minor.

VII. If the widow re-marrying is a minor whose marriage has not been consummated, she shall not re-marry without the consent of her father, or if she has no father, of her paternal grandfather, or if she has no such grandfather, of her mother, or failing all these, of her elder brother, or failing also brothers, of her next male relative. All persons knowingly abetting a marriage made contrary to the provisions of this Section shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both. And all marriages made contrary to the provisions of this Section may be declared void by a Court of law. Provided that, in any question regarding the validity of a marriage made contrary to the provisions of this Section, such consent as is aforesaid shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, and that no such marriage shall be declared void after it has been consummated. In the case of a widow who is of full age, or whose marriage has been consummated, her own consent shall be sufficient consent to constitute her re-marriage lawful and valid.

Punishment for abetting marriage made contrary to this Section.

Effect of such marriage.

Proviso.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 19th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of October next:—

A Bill to provide for the dissolution of the Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund Society, and the distribution of the funds belonging thereto.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by Articles of agreement dated the 12th day of May 1820, a Society was established for raising a Fund called "The Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund," the interest, dividends, and proceeds of which Fund are thereby directed to be applied in making provision at certain specified rates for the widows and children of the subscribers or their nominees; and it is thereby declared that such provision shall be made solely out of the interest and dividends of the said Fund: and whereas a petition has been presented to the Legislative Council by certain directors, members, and beneficiaries of the Society, stating that the said interest, dividends, and proceeds have for many years been insufficient to make the provision intended by the Articles of agreement, and that the reduction of the pensions is so great as to amount to a disappointment of the expectations of the founders of the Fund, and virtually a failure to accomplish the object of the Fund; and praying that an Act may be passed to wind up the affairs of the said Society: and whereas no provision is made in the Deed for the dissolution of the said Society and the distribution of the Funds belonging thereto, and it is expedient to make provision for the same by law: It is enacted as follows:—

Supreme Court, on petition, may make order for dissolving the Society and winding up the affairs of the Fund, &c.

I. On the petition to the Supreme Court of a majority of the Directors of the said Bengal Mariners' and General Widows' Fund, or of any ten Members of the Society and pensionaries on the said Fund, praying for the dissolution of the said Society, and the winding up of the affairs of the said Fund, it shall be lawful for the said Supreme Court to make order for the same on the said petition, as fully as if the petitioners proceeded by information or Bill, and as if there were parties defendants, and as fully as if the Deed of the said Society provided for the winding up of the said Fund: and it shall be lawful for the said Court to make order for ascertaining and declaring the rights which attach on the said Fund, and for taking the accounts of the said Fund, and for the apportionment, division, and distribution of the said Fund; and for the ascertainment of the nature and number of the different claims on the said Fund, and of the persons having or entitled to make the said claims; and for the payment of the proper costs of the Directors of the said Society, and of all parties conducting or otherwise concerned in the matter of the said petition, and subsequent proceedings for winding up the said Fund.

Employment of accountant or actuary.

II. It shall be lawful for the Court, in such way as they may think fit, to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary the better to enable the Court to determine any matter relating to the division and distribution of the Fund, and to act upon the certificate of such person or persons; and in case it shall be deemed necessary to make any reference to the Master in Equity of the said Court in the matter of such petition, it shall be lawful for the said Court to order that the Master in Equity shall be at liberty in like manner to obtain the assistance of an accountant or actuary.

Court may order payment to persons consenting to commute their pensions.

III. In the cases of pensioners, or persons entitled to become pensioners, who shall consent to commute their pensions, it shall be lawful for the Court to order that the amounts to be paid in commutation shall be settled, invested, or paid, in such manner as will give the several persons therein interested the full benefit thereof.

A sufficient sum to be set apart for payment of uncommuted pensions.

IV. In the cases of pensioners, or persons entitled to become pensioners, who shall refuse to commute their pensions, it shall be lawful for the Court to order a sufficient sum to be set apart out of the said Fund to provide for the due payment of such pensions, and also to sanction and give effect to any arrangement which it may deem just and sufficient for the future payment of any uncommuted pensions by any Life Insurance Company willing to undertake the payment of such pensions.

Guardians of minors.

V. The guardians of minors, pensioners on the said Fund, shall have full power and authority to consent on their behalf to commute the pensions of the minors for a fixed sum: and the said Court shall have full power and authority to give effect to such consent and to make such order as the said Court may deem just for the application of the said commuted sum for the future benefit of the infant; and if there be no guardian, the mother, during her widowhood, may act as guardian, unless the Court shall otherwise order, and, if necessary, the Court may appoint a guardian for any minor.

Application for the benefit of pensioners, of funds not awarded to members, or representatives of deceased members.

VI. In dividing and distributing the funds of the Society, every part thereof which shall not be awarded by the Court to members or representatives of deceased members, may, if the Court shall think fit, be applied for the benefit of pensioners or persons entitled to become pensioners, whether they shall consent to commute their interests or not.

Court may order payment of dividend out of probable surplus.

VII. With a view to expedite the distribution of the surplus of the said Fund, over and above what may probably be necessary to provide for the pensions, the said Court shall have full power and authority at any time to order payment of a dividend of the said probable surplus, to the persons entitled to the same, although the exact surplus and the exact amount of charges may not then be ascertained.

Proceedings for bringing in claimants.

VIII. For the purpose of winding up the said Fund, and finally closing the accounts thereof, the like proceedings shall be had for the bringing in of claimants on the said Fund, as in ordinary administration suits for bringing in creditors and other persons; and claimants being pensioners, or entitled to be pensioners, who may neglect to come in a due course, or within the time limited for that purpose, shall be deemed to have consented to commute their pensions, and a final distribution may be made of the said Fund.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 19th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 23rd of October next:—

A Bill to amend Act XII of 1844.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by Section III Act XII of 1844, it was provided that nothing in that Act contained should extend or be construed to extend to empower any Court Martial, to be constituted by virtue of that Act, to proceed to the punishment or trial of any of the offences specified in the several Articles contained in that Act, or of any offence whatsoever (other than the offences specified in the 5th, 34th, and 35th of the said Articles and Orders), which should not be committed upon the main sea or in great rivers only beneath the bridges of the said rivers nigh to the sea, or any haven, river, or creek within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty, and which should not be committed by such person as, at the time of the offence committed, should be in actual service and full pay in the Indian Navy, such persons only excepted and for such offences only as were described in the 5th of the said Articles and Orders: and whereas it is expedient that every superior Officer, Captain or Commander, or Lieutenant, belonging to the Indian Navy, should be amenable to Naval Courts Martial for the offences specified in Article 33 of the said Act, whether the same be committed on the main sea or on shore: It is enacted as follows:—

Section III Act XII. 1844 not to extend to any of the offences specified in Article 33 thereof.

I. Nothing contained in the 3rd Section of Act XII of 1844 shall extend to any of the offences specified in Article 33 of the said Act, which, after the passing of this Act, shall be committed by any superior Officer, Captain or Commander, or Lieutenant, belonging to the Indian Navy.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of September next:—

A Bill to extend the provisions of Regulation VI. 1810 of the Bengal Code.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend, with some modifications, the provisions of Regulation VI. 1810, for defining the penalties to which zemindars and others are subject for neglecting to give due information of robberies and of the resort of robbers, and for harbouring robbers: It is enacted as follows:—

Landholders to give information to the Magistrate of the arrival at, or departure from, their lands, of persons belonging to gangs of thieves.

I. Within the territories under the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, it shall be the duty of all zemindars, talookdars, and other proprietors of land, whether malguzary or lakhiraj, and of all sudder farmers and under-renters of land of any tion, to give information to the Magistrate or the Police Darogah of the arrival at, or the departure from, any place within the limits of the estate or farm held by such zemindar or other landholder as above described, of any person or persons belonging to any gang of persons of vagrant habits associated for purposes of theft or robbery with or without violence; and any zemindar or other landholder as above described who intentionally omits to give such information, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate or other officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate, to imprisonment for six months, or to fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to both.

Penalty.

II. Whoever, being a zemindar or other such landholder as aforesaid, knowingly harbours or aids any person or persons belonging to any such gang as aforesaid, with a knowledge that such person or persons are engaged in predatory practices, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate or other officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate, to imprisonment for six months, or to fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to both; or any person so offending may, at the discretion of the said Magistrate, be committed for trial before the Sessions Judge, and, on conviction, shall be liable to imprisonment with hard labor for any period not exceeding seven years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalty for harbouring such persons.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of October next:—

A Bill to extend the provisions of the 101st Article of War for the Native Army, provided by Act XIX of 1847.

WHEREAS by the 2nd paragraph of the 101st Article of War for the Native Army, it is provided that it shall be competent to the Governor General of India in Council, by a General Order, to authorize the Native Troops of any of the Presidencies to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial, and it is expedient that that provision should be extended to all Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India Company, whether belonging to or serving in any of the Presidencies or not; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. It shall be competent to the Governor General of India in Council from time to time, by a General Order, to authorize any Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India Company, whether belonging to or serving in any of the Presidencies or not, to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial in the manner provided by the said Article; and from time to time to revoke any such General Order.

Governor General in Council may authorize any Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India Company to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial.

II. The claim, if made, and also the allowance or disallowance thereof, shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as the Governor General in Council shall by such General Order direct.

Governor General in Council may impose conditions and restrictions on the claim.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of October next:—

A Bill to amend Act XIV of 1856.

WHEREAS it is enacted by Section CXXI Act XIV of 1856 (for conservancy and improvement of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca) that certain Bye-laws made by the Municipal Commissioners shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Legislative Council as soon as conveniently may be after the confirmation thereof, and that no such Bye-law shall have effect if disallowed by order of the Legislative Council; and whereas doubts have arisen whether the Legislative Council can legally disallow any such Bye-laws by an order, or in any other manner than by a Law or Regulation, and it is expedient to avoid such doubts and to make other provision for disallowing such Bye-laws; It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Section CXXI of the said Act XIV of 1856 is hereby repealed.

Section repealed.

II. No Bye-law made under the provisions of the said Act, though confirmed by the local Government, shall continue in force after it shall have been disallowed by the local Government, except as to an act done or a breach of such Bye-law committed before the disallowance thereof.

Disallowance of Bye-laws by the local Government.

III. Every disallowance of such a Bye-law shall be published in the Government Gazette, or in one or more of the public newspapers; and all Courts and Magistrates shall take judicial notice of such disallowance.

Publication of disallowance.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 2, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 25th July 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XV OF 1856.

An Act to remove all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo Widows.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is known that, by the law as administered in the Civil Courts established in the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, Hindoo widows, with certain exceptions, are held to be, by reason of their having been once married, incapable of contracting a second valid marriage, and the offspring of such widows by any second marriage are held to be illegitimate and incapable of inheriting property: and whereas many Hindoos believe that this imputed legal incapacity, although it is in accordance with established custom, is not in accordance with a true interpretation of the precepts of their religion, and desire that the Civil law administered by the Courts of justice shall no longer prevent those Hindoos who may be so minded from adopting a different custom, in accordance with the dictates of their own consciences: and whereas it is just to relieve all such Hindoos from this legal incapacity of which they complain; and the removal of all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo Widows will tend to the promotion of good morals and to the public welfare: It is enacted as follows:—

Marriage of Hindoo widows legalized.

I. No marriage contracted between Hindoos shall be invalid, and the issue of no such marriage shall be illegitimate, by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person who was dead at the time of such marriage, any custom and any interpretation of Hindoo law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Rights of widow in deceased husband's property to cease on her re-marriage.

II. All rights and interests which any widow may have in her deceased husband's property by way of maintenance, or by inheritance to her husband or to his lineal successors, or by virtue of any will or testamentary disposition conferring upon her, without express permission to re-marry, only a limited interest in such property with no power of alienating the same, shall, upon her re-marriage, cease and determine as if she had then died; and the next heirs of her deceased husband, or other persons entitled to the property on her death, shall thereupon succeed to the same.

Guardianship of children of deceased husband on the re-marriage of his widow.

III. On the re-marriage of a Hindoo widow, if neither the widow nor any other person has been expressly constituted by the will or testamentary disposition of the deceased husband, the guardian of his children, the father or paternal grandfather, or the mother or paternal grandmother, of the deceased husband, or any male relative of the deceased husband may petition the highest Court having original jurisdiction in Civil cases in the place where the deceased husband was domiciled at the time of his death, for the appointment of some proper person to be guardian of the said children, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court, if it shall think fit, to appoint such guardian, who, when appointed, shall be entitled to have the care and custody of the said children, or of any of them, during their minority, in the place of their mother; and in making such appointment the Court shall be guided, so far as may be, by the laws and rules in force touching the guardianship of children who have neither father nor mother. Provided that, when the said children have not property of their own sufficient for their support and proper education whilst minors, no such appointment shall be made otherwise than with the consent of the mother, unless the proposed guardian shall have given security for the support and proper education of the children whilst minors.

Nothing in this Act to render any childless widow capable of inheriting.

IV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render any widow, who, at the time of the death of any person leaving any property, is a childless widow, capable of inheriting the whole or any share of such property, if, before the passing of this Act, she would have been incapable of inheriting the same by reason of her being a childless widow.

Saving of rights of widow marrying, except as provided in the three preceding Sections.

V. Except as in the three preceding Sections is provided, a widow shall not, by reason of her re-marriage, forfeit any property, or any right to which she would otherwise be entitled; and every widow who has re-married shall have the same rights of inheritance as she would have had, had such marriage been her first marriage.

Whatever ceremonies now constitute a valid marriage shall have the same effect on the marriage of a widow.

VI. Whatever words spoken, ceremonies performed, or engagements made, on the marriage of a Hindoo female who has not been previously married, are sufficient to constitute a valid marriage, shall have the same effect if spoken, performed, or made on the marriage of a Hindoo widow; and no marriage shall be declared invalid on the ground that such words, ceremonies, or engagements, are inapplicable to the case of a widow.

Consent to re-marriage of a widow who is a minor.

VII. If the widow re-marrying is a minor whose marriage has not been consummated, she shall not re-marry without the consent of her father, or if she has no father, of her paternal grandfather, or if she has no such grandfather, of her mother, or failing all these, of her elder brother, or failing also brothers, of her next male relative. All persons knowingly abetting a marriage made contrary to the provisions of this Section shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both. And all marriages made contrary to the provisions of this Section may be declared void by a Court of law. Provided that, in any question regarding the validity of a marriage made contrary to the provisions of this Section, such consent as is aforesaid shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, and that no such marriage shall be declared void after it has been consummated. In the case of a widow who is of full age, or whose marriage has been consummated, her own consent shall be sufficient consent to constitute her re-marriage lawful and valid.

Punishment for abetting marriage made contrary to this Section.

Effect of such marriage.

Proviso.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of September next:—

A Bill to extend the provisions of Regulation VI. 1810 of the Bengal Code.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend, with some modifications, the provisions of Regulation VI. 1810, for defining the penalties to which zemindars and others are subject for neglecting to give due information of robberies and of the resort of robbers, and for harbouring robbers: It is enacted as follows:—

Landholders to give information to the Magistrate of the arrival at, or departure from, their lands of persons belonging to gangs of thieves.

I. Within the territories under the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, it shall be the duty of all zemindars, talookdars, and other proprietors of land, whether malguzary or lakhiraj, and of all sudder farmers and under-renters of land of any description, to give information to the Magistrate or the Police Darogah of the arrival at, or the departure from, any place within the limits of the estate or farm held by such zemindar or other landholder as above described, of any person or persons belonging to any gang of persons of vagrant habits associated for purposes of theft or robbery with or without violence; and any zemindar or other landholder as above described, who intentionally omits to give such information, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate or other officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate, to imprisonment for six months, or to fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to both.

Penalty.

Penalty for harbouring such persons.

II. Whoever, being a zemindar or other such landholder as aforesaid, knowingly harbours or aids any person or persons belonging to any such gang as aforesaid, with a knowledge that such person or persons are engaged in predatory practices, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate or other officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate, to imprisonment for six months, or to fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to both; or any person so offending may, at the discretion of the said Magistrate, be committed for trial before the Sessions Judge, and, on conviction, shall be liable to imprisonment with hard labor for any period not exceeding seven years, or to fine, or to both.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of October next:—

A Bill to extend the provisions of the 101st Article of War for the Native Army, provided by Act XIX of 1847.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the 2nd paragraph of the 101st Article of War for the Native Army, it is provided that it shall be competent to the Governor General of India in Council, by a General Order, to authorize the Native Troops of any of the Presidencies to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial, and it is expedient that that provision should be extended to all Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India

Company, whether belonging to or serving in any of the Presidencies or not; It is enacted as follows:—

Governor General in Council may authorize any Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India Company to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial.

I. It shall be competent to the Governor General of India in Council from time to time, by a General Order, to authorize any Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India Company, whether belonging to or serving in any of the Presidencies or not, to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial in the manner provided by the said Article; and from time to time to revoke any such General Order.

Governor General in Council may impose conditions and restrictions on the claim.

II. The claim, if made, and also the allowance or disallowance thereof, shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as the Governor General in Council shall by such General Order direct.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of October next:—

A Bill to amend Act XIV of 1856.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is enacted by Section CXXI of Act XIV of 1856 (for the conservancy and improvement of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca) that certain Bye-laws made by the Municipal Commissioners shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Legislative Council as soon as conveniently may be after the confirmation thereof, and that no such Bye-law shall have effect if disallowed by order of the Legislative Council; and whereas doubts have arisen whether the Legislative Council can legally disallow any such Bye-laws by an order, or in any other manner than by a Law or Regulation, and it is expedient to avoid such doubts and to make other provision for disallowing such Bye-laws; It is enacted as follows:—

Section repealed.

I. Section CXXI of the said Act XIV of 1856 is hereby repealed.

Disallowance of Bye-laws by the local Government.

II. No Bye-law made under the provisions of the said Act, though confirmed by the local Government, shall continue in force after it shall have been disallowed by the local Government, except as to an act done or a breach of such Bye-law committed before the disallowance thereof.

Publication of disallowance

III. Every disallowance of such a Bye-law shall be published in the Government Gazette, or in one or more of the public newspapers; and all Courts and Magistrates shall take judicial notice of such disallowance.

Rules

FOR THE

RECEIPT OF BULLION SANCTIONED BY ORDER OF GOVERNMENT, UNDER DATE THE 27TH JUNE 1856.

1*st.* TENDERS of Gold or Silver Bullion will be received from individuals at the Calcutta Mint, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 3 P. M., daily, Sundays and holidays excepted, provided the parcel of Gold is of not less than 50 tolas weight, and of Silver 1,000 tolas, and provided it be of a malleable quality adapted for Coinage.

2*nd.* Bullion or Coin must be tendered by the proprietor in the following form, lithographed copies of which will be supplied by an Assistant of the Bullion Office :—

To

THE MINT MASTER,

Calcutta.

SIR,

Be pleased to receive into the Bullion Depôt. for the purpose of being melted, or cut and burned at my (our) sole risk and expense (Tolas annas) Tolas (here state the description and weight in full), and to grant your receipt for the resulting weight of ingots or cut pieces, or such portion of them as shall, agreeably to the Rules, be considered fit for coinage, entitling me (us) to receive from the Assay Office a certificate of value payable at the General Treasury.

The Bullion will be delivered to you by Mr. who is authorized to superintend its melting or cutting and burning on my (our) behalf, and who will attend for that purpose at such times as may be appointed.

Yours obediently,

Calcutta,
The 185 .

3*rd.* All Bullion or Coin tendered for coinage must, previous to delivery, be melted in the Bullion Depôt premises, under the superintendence of the Mint Melting Establishment, with the exception of clean bars of the fineness of B 16 and upwards, which may be cut and burned, or melted, at the option of the Mint Master.

4*th.* Bullion, on arrival at the Bullion Depôt adjoining the Mint premises, will be dealt with according to Regulations from time to time established by the Mint Master with the sanction of the Mint Committee, and after it has been melted or cut and burned, it must be delivered to the Head Assistant in the Bullion Office of the Mint, and registered, when the proprietor will be furnished with a receipt, agreeably to Form A. of the weight of clean malleable Silver, or Gold, as shown by the Mint Scale at the time of registry.

5*th.* No transfer of Bullion from the name of one proprietor to that of another can be permitted after it has once been tendered to the Mint. No Bullion can be withdrawn previous to registry, except sweepings and spillages of Bullion actually melted, or cut and burned, without the payment of a fee of Rupees 2 for each Pass prepared for the purpose.

6*th.* It is to be understood that, until the Bullion or Coin has been delivered, agreeably to Rule 4, at the Mint Scale, to the Head Assistant in the Bullion Office, it is in the custody, and at the sole risk of the importer, to whom every facility will be afforded for securing it in the strong room appropriated for that purpose.

7*th.* The Receipts mentioned in Rule 4 shall be changed in the Assay Office for Certificates, agreeably to Form B. payable at the General Treasury (20) twenty days after date, and showing the net value in Company's Rupees of the proprietor's treasure, with reference to its weight and assay, after making the following deductions for Seignorage, Refinage, and Premelting charges.

8*th.* The Seignorage on Gold Bullion or Coin shall be at one per cent. of the standard value. The Seignorage on Sicca Rupees shall be at one per cent. There shall be no Seignorage on short weight, Madras, Furruckabad, or Company's Rupees.

The Seignorage on all other descriptions of Silver Coins and Bullion shall be two per cent.

9*th.* The Refinage charge on Silver below 6 dwts. in assay worse than the Indian standard shall be at the rate of ·04 per cent per dwt. of worseness.

The Refinage charge on Gold shall be at the rate of one-half per cent for every five carat grains of worseness below the Indian standard.

10*th.* The Premelting charge on Gold shall be at the rate of (Rs. 3-12-0). Three Company's Rupees and twelve annas per one thousand tolas of Standard Gold, and on Silver at the rate of (Rs. 1) one Company's Rupee per one thousand standard tolas. These charges are to be deducted universally, whether the Bullion be melted, or cut and burned.

11*th.* Importers of Bullion or Coin shall be at liberty to withdraw the same after registry, within the day following the receipt of the Assay Report, but at no later period, on payment of an Assay fee of (4) four Rupees for each assay of Gold and (2) two Rupees for each assay of Silver, and the Premelting charges above mentioned.

12*th.* Should Bullion, after being premelted, prove to be brittle, and not adapted for coinage, it shall be returned to the proprietor, and passed out of the Mint under a written Pass signed by the Mint Master, and endorsed by the proprietor, who shall pay the charge for premelting the same at the prescribed rate calculated on the gross weight in tolas.

13*th.* Double melting fees will be charged for all Bullion received during holidays; and it is to be clearly understood, that when workmen cannot be procured during holidays at the Mint, tenders of Bullion made at such times will be refused.

Bengal Civil Fund.

AT a Half-yearly General Meeting of Subscribers to the Bengal Civil Fund, held at the Town Hall on the 30th July 1856 :—

Present :—Messrs W. P. Palmer, C. Allen, G. G. Mackintosh G. D. Wilkins, A. R. Young, F. J. Cockburn, E. F. Harrison, J. A. Crawford and H A. Mangles

G. D. Wilkins, Esquire, in the Chair.

Read the following Report submitted by the Managers :—

"The Managers have to report that only one admission to the benefits of the Fund is likely to become chargeable on the Accounts of the year 1855-56. This is on account of the family of the late Mr. W. A. Pringle (an Annuitant of the year 1844,) who died on the 12th December last, and the claim of whose widow, three daughters and a son is deferred for want of necessary papers."

"An application from Mr. F. A. E. Dalrymple for admission on the Fund of a son, born on 3rd May 1848, is submitted for the decision of the Meeting. Mr. Dalrymple urges that there were peculiar circumstances which led him to withhold the child's name at the proper time so as to contribute for him from 1850, and that subsequently dangerous and protracted illness intervened and prevented communication of his wishes, but trusts that the subscribers will now admit his son upon the payment of a moderate fine."

"The wife of Mr. F. J. Cockburn has been admitted by the votes of the Service to the benefits of the Fund, on payment by that Gentleman of a fine of Rs. 500, with arrears of subscription and interest; the result of the votes has been sent for publication in the Calcutta Gazette."

"At the General Meeting to be held in January next, a proposal will be brought forward on the part of the Managers to alter Article XVII. by prefixing to it a declaration that the presence of nine Members shall be necessary to form a Meeting, and that in the event of an insufficient attendance, the Secretary be empowered to fix an adjourned date for such Meeting by advertisement in the Calcutta Gazette and Calcutta papers not being later than fifteen days after the day originally appointed for the Meeting."

Resolved unanimously that Mr. F. A. E. Dalrymple's son be admitted on payment of the minimum fine of Rupees 100, and arrears of subscription from 1st January 1850, with interest.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 6, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 25th July 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XV OF 1856.

An Act to remove all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo Widows.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is known that, by the law as administered in the Civil Courts established in the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, Hindoo widows, with certain exceptions, are held to be, by reason of their having been once married, incapable of contracting a second valid marriage, and the offspring of such widows by any second marriage are held to be illegitimate and incapable of inheriting property: and whereas many Hindoos believe that this imputed legal incapacity, although it is in accordance with established custom, is not in accordance with a true interpretation of the precepts of their religion, and desire that the Civil law administered by the Courts of justice shall no longer prevent those Hindoos who may be so minded from adopting a different custom, in accordance with the dictates of their own consciences: and whereas it is just to relieve all such Hindoos from this legal incapacity of which they complain; and the removal of all legal obstacles to the marriage of Hindoo widows will tend to the promotion of good morals and to the public welfare: It is enacted as follows :—

Marriage of Hindoo widows legalised.

I. No marriage contracted between Hindoos shall be invalid, and the issue of no such marriage shall be illegitimate, by reason of the woman having been previously married or betrothed to another person who was dead at the time of such marriage, any custom and any interpretation of Hindoo law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Rights of widow in deceased husband's property to cease on her re-marriage.

II. All rights and interests which any widow may have in her deceased husband's property by way of maintenance, or by inheritance to her husband or to his lineal successors, or by virtue of any will or testamentary disposition conferring upon her, without express permission to re-marry, only a limited interest in such property with no power of alienating the same, shall, upon her re-marriage, cease and determine as if she had then died; and the next heirs of her deceased husband, or other persons entitled to the property on her death, shall thereupon succeed to the same.

Guardianship of children of deceased husband on the re-marriage of his widow.

III. On the re-marriage of a Hindoo widow, if neither the widow nor any other person has been expressly constituted by the will or testamentary disposition of the deceased husband, the guardian of his children, the father or paternal grandfather, or the mother or paternal grandmother, of the deceased husband, or any male relative of the deceased husband, may petition the highest Court having original jurisdiction in Civil cases in the place where the deceased husband was domiciled at the time of his death, for the appointment of some proper person to be guardian of the said children, and thereupon it shall be lawful for the said Court, if it shall think fit, to appoint such guardian, who, when appointed, shall be entitled to have the care and custody of the said children, or of any of them, during their minority, in the place of their mother; and in making such appointment the Court shall be guided, so far as may be, by the laws and rules in force touching the guardianship of children who have neither father nor mother. Provided that, when the said children have not property of their own sufficient for their support and proper education whilst minors, no such appointment shall be made otherwise than with the consent of the mother, unless the proposed guardian shall have given security for the support and proper education of the children whilst minors.

Nothing in this Act to render any childless widow capable of inheriting.

IV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to render any widow, who, at the time of the death of any person leaving any property, is a childless widow, capable of inheriting the whole or any share of such property, if, before the passing of this Act, she would have been incapable of inheriting the same by reason of her being a childless widow.

Saving of rights of widow marrying, except as provided in the three preceding Sections.

V. Except as in the three preceding Sections is provided, a widow shall not, by reason of her re-marriage, forfeit any property, or any right to which she would otherwise be entitled; and every widow who has re-married shall have the same rights of inheritance as she would have had, had such marriage been her first marriage.

Whatever ceremonies now constitute a valid marriage shall have the same effect on the marriage of a widow.

VI. Whatever words spoken, ceremonies performed, or engagements made, on the marriage of a Hindoo female who has not been previously married, are sufficient to constitute a valid marriage, shall have the same effect if spoken, performed, or made on the marriage of a Hindoo widow; and no marriage shall be declared invalid on the ground that such words, ceremonies, or engagements, are inapplicable to the case of a widow.

Consent to re-marriage of a widow who is a minor.

VII. If the widow re-marrying is a minor whose marriage has not been consummated, she shall not re-marry without the consent of her father, or if she has no father, of her paternal grandfather, or if she has no such grandfather, of her mother, or failing all these, of her elder brother, or failing also brothers, of her next male relative. All persons knowingly abetting a marriage made contrary to the provisions of this Section shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both. And all marriages made contrary to the provisions of this Section may be declared void by a Court of law. Provided that, in any question regarding the validity of a marriage made contrary to the provisions of this Section, such consent as is aforesaid shall be presumed until the contrary is proved, and that no such marriage shall be declared void after it has been consummated. In the case of a widow who is of full age, or whose marriage has been consummated, her own consent shall be sufficient consent to constitute her re-marriage lawful and valid.

Punishment for abetting marriage made contrary to this Section.

Effect of such marriage.

Proviso.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of September next:—

A Bill to extend the provisions of Regulation VI. 1810 of the Bengal Code.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend, with some modifications, the provisions of Regulation VI. 1810, for defining the penalties to which zemindars and others are subject for neglecting to give due information of robberies and of the resort of robbers, and for harbouring robbers: It is enacted as follows:—

Landholders to give information to the Magistrate of the arrival at, or departure from, their lands of persons belonging to gangs of thieves.

I. Within the territories under the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, it shall be the duty of all zemindars, talookdars, and other proprietors of land, whether malguzary or lakhiraj, and of all sudder farmers and under-renters of land of any description, to give information to the Magistrate or the Police Darogah of the arrival at, or the departure from, any place within the limits of the estate or farm held by such zemindar or other landholder as above described, of any person or persons belonging to any gang of persons of vagrant habits associated for purposes of theft or robbery with or without violence; and any zemindar or other landholder as above described, who intentionally omits to give such information, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate or other officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate, to imprisonment for six months, or to fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to both.

Penalty.

Penalty for harbouring such persons.

II. Whoever, being a zemindar or other such landholder as aforesaid, knowingly harbours or aids any person or persons belonging to any such gang as aforesaid, with a knowledge that such person or persons are engaged in predatory practices, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate or other officer exercising the powers of a Magistrate, to imprisonment, for six months, or to fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to both; or any person so offending may, at the discretion of the said Magistrate, be committed for trial before the Sessions Judge, and, on conviction, shall be liable to imprisonment with hard labor for any period not exceeding seven years, or to fine, or to both.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of October next:—

A Bill to extend the provisions of the 101*st Article of War for the Native Army, provided by Act XIX of* 1847.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by the 2nd paragraph of the 101st Article of War for the Native Army, it is provided that it shall be competent to the Governor General of India in Council, by a General Order, to authorize the Native Troops of any of the Presidencies to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial, and it is expedient that that provision should be extended to all Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India

Company, whether belonging to or serving in any of the Presidencies or not: It is enacted as follows:—

Governor General in Council may authorize any Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India Company to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial.

I. It shall be competent to the Governor General of India in Council from time to time, by a General Order, to authorize any Native Troops in the Military Service of the East India Company, whether belonging to or serving in any of the Presidencies or not, to claim to be tried by European Courts Martial in the manner provided by the said Article; and from time to time to revoke any such General Order.

Governor General in Council may impose conditions and restrictions on the claim.

II. The claim, if made, and also the allowance or disallowance thereof, shall be subject to such conditions and restrictions, if any, as the Governor General in Council shall by such General Order direct.

The 26th July 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 26th July 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 30th of October next:—

A Bill to amend Act XIV of 1856.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is enacted by Section CXXI of Act XIV of 1856 (for the conservancy and improvement of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the several stations of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca) that certain Bye-laws made by the Municipal Commissioners shall be transmitted to the Clerk of the Legislative Council as soon as conveniently may be after the confirmation thereof, and that no such Bye-law shall have effect if disallowed by order of the Legislative Council; and whereas doubts have arisen whether the Legislative Council can legally disallow any such Bye-laws by an order, or in any other manner than by a Law or Regulation, and it is expedient to avoid such doubts and to make other provision for disallowing such Bye-laws: It is enacted as follows:—

Section repealed.

I. Section CXXI of the said Act XIV of 1856 is hereby repealed.

Disallowance of Bye-laws by the Local Government.

II. No Bye-law made under the provisions of the said Act, though confirmed by the Local Government, shall continue in force after it shall have been disallowed by the Local Government, except as to an act done or a breach of such Bye-law committed before the disallowance thereof.

Publication of disallowance.

III. Every disallowance of such a Bye-law shall be published in the Government Gazette, or in one or more of the public newspapers; and all Courts and Magistrates shall take judicial notice of such disallowance.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 2nd August 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 2nd August 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 6th of November next:—

A Bill to prevent the over-crowding of vessels carrying Native Passengers in the Bay of Bengal.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary to prevent the over-crowding of vessels carrying native passengers across the Bay of Bengal from and to ports in the Presidency of Fort St. George, and between such ports and Ceylon: It is enacted as follows:—

Number of native passengers to be carried in unlicensed vessels.

I. No vessel shall carry native passengers from any port under the Presidency of Fort St. George to any port on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal or in the Straits of Malacca or in Ceylon, or reversely, in a proportion greater than one passenger to every four tons of the burden of such vessel, without a license.

Number of native passengers to be carried in licensed vessels.

II. No vessel, with a license, shall carry passengers as aforesaid, in a proportion greater than one passenger to every ton of burden, with a deck under hatches affording space equal to six superficial feet for each adult passenger, and not less than five feet clear between the upper and lower decks;

Exception.

except that a vessel proceeding in ballast from any part of the Coast of the Gulf of Manar or Palks' Strait to the opposite Coast of Ceylon, or reversely, may carry a number of passengers not exceeding the proportion of two and a half to every ton of her burden, provided sufficient space be kept for the accommodation of one-half of the passengers under hatches.

Penalty on Master of unlicensed vessel.

III. The Master or Tindal of any vessel which shall carry passengers as aforesaid, without a license, in a proportion exceeding that laid down in Section I, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Penalty on Master of licensed vessel.

IV. The Master or Tindal of any licensed vessel which shall carry passengers as aforesaid in a proportion exceeding that laid down in Section II, or without the allotment of space under hatches required for each adult passenger, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for each passenger in excess of that proportion, or for whom the required space under hatches is not allotted.

Government to appoint ports of embarkation for passengers.

V. Passengers shall not be shipped from the territories under the Government of Fort St. George, for Ceylon or the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal, or the Straits of Malacca, except from such ports as shall be from time to time appointed by the Government by an Order in Council published in the Fort St. George Gazette; and the Master or Tindal of any vessel, who shall take on board passengers for such voyage from any other port, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for each passenger embarked.

Grant of licenses to vessels.

VI. It shall be at the discretion of the Collectors of Sea Customs for the ports appointed for shipping native passengers to grant licenses to vessels for the carriage of such passengers under this Act. Provided that such licenses shall not be granted till the vessels have been surveyed according to such directions as shall be given from time to time by the Governor in Council. The license shall describe the vessel, her tonnage, and rig; the number of her boats, anchors, and cables, and what instruments for the purpose of navigation she is supplied with; also the name of the owner and of the Master or Tindal, and the number and composition of the crew: and shall specify the number of passengers she may carry, and the space to be assigned for their accommodation.

Passenger vessels to or from the Eastern Coast to carry provisions, &c. according to appointed scale.

VII. The Master or Tindal of any vessel carrying passengers from any port in the territories under the Government of Fort St. George to any port on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal or the Straits of Malacca, or reversely, which shall not be furnished with provisions and water according to such scale as shall be laid down from time to time by an Order of Government published in the Fort St. George Gazette, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for each passenger in excess of the number fully supplied with provisions and water according to such scale.

Penalty if Master omit to supply passengers with prescribed allowance of food and water.

VIII. The Master or Tindal of any vessel carrying passengers as aforesaid, who shall wilfully and without satisfactory excuse omit to supply to every passenger the prescribed allowance of food and water, shall be liable for such omission to a fine which may extend to twenty Rupees for every passenger who has suffered privation thereby.

Supply of provisions, &c. on board passenger ships plying to and from Ceylon.

IX. The Master or Tindal of any vessel carrying passengers from any port under the Government of Fort St. George to Ceylon, who shall neglect to furnish a supply of water and provisions for the passengers according to a scale to be fixed by the Collector of Sea Customs for such port, which shall be hung up at the Custom House of the port; and the Master or Tindal of any such vessel which has brought passengers from Ceylon to any such port, and which shall not have been supplied with water and provisions according to such scale, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

List of passengers to be signed by Master.

X. The Master or Tindal of any vessel conveying passengers as hereinbefore contemplated shall sign and deliver, in duplicate, to the principal officer of Customs at the place of embarkation, a list, according to the form annexed to this Act, of all passengers to be conveyed in such vessel or dhoney; and such officer, after satisfying himself of the correctness of the same and that the number of passengers authorized is not exceeded, shall countersign and return one such list to the Master or Tindal, to be produced to the proper officer at the port to which the vessel is bound; and should any additional passengers engage to proceed by such vessel after such list has been so countersigned, the Master or Tindal may insert their names in the original list, obtaining the signature of the controlling officer as before. The officer in charge of the Customs may withhold the port clearance till this rule is complied with.

Additional Passengers.

Penalty for obstructing entry, &c. of Customs officers.

XI. The principal officer in charge of the Customs at the port of embarkation, or any person authorized by him, shall be at liberty at all times to enter and inspect any passenger vessel, and the fittings, provisions, and stores therein; and whoever impedes such entry or inspection, or refuses to allow of the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Levy of fines.

XII. The fines authorized by this Act may be imposed by any Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or other person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by any Justice of the Peace having jurisdiction at any place in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company; and if any person sentenced to pay a fine shall not discharge the same immediately, he may be committed to prison for any term not exceeding two calendar months where the fine does not exceed fifty Rupees, or four months where the fine does not exceed one hundred Rupees, or six months where the fine does not exceed two hundred Rupees, the commitment to be determinable on payment of the fine, or the Magistrate or other officer may order the amount of the fine to be levied by distress and sale of any goods and chattels of the offender found within his jurisdiction.

Duration of Act.

XIII. This Act shall continue in force for three years.

Rules

FOR THE

RECEIPT OF BULLION SANCTIONED BY ORDER OF GOVERNMENT, UNDER DATE THE 27TH JUNE 1856.

1*st.* TENDERS of Gold or Silver Bullion will be received from individuals at the Calcutta Mint, between the hours of 10 A. M. and 3 P. M., daily, Sundays and holidays excepted, provided the parcel of Gold is of not less than 50 tolas weight, and of Silver 1,000 tolas, and provided it be of a malleable quality adapted for Coinage.

2*nd.* Bullion or Coin must be tendered by the proprietor in the following form, lithographed copies of which will be supplied by an Assistant of the Bullion Office :—

To

THE MINT MASTER,
Calcutta.

SIR,

Be pleased to receive into the Bullion Depôt, for the purpose of being melted, or cut and burned at my (our) sole risk and expense (Tolas annas) Tolas (here state the description and weight in full), and to grant your receipt for the resulting weight of ingots or cut pieces, or such portion of them as shall, agreeably to the Rules, be considered fit for coinage, entitling me (us) to receive from the Assay Office a certificate of value payable at the General Treasury.

The Bullion will be delivered to you by Mr. who is authorized to superintend its melting or cutting and burning on my (our) behalf, and who will attend for that purpose at such times as may be appointed.

Yours obediently,

Calcutta,
The 185 .

3*rd.* All Bullion or Coin tendered for coinage must, previous to delivery, be melted in the Bullion Depôt premises, under the superintendence of the Mint Melting Establishment, with the exception of clean bars of the fineness of B 16 and upwards, which may be cut and burned, or melted, at the option of the Mint Master.

4*th.* Bullion, on arrival at the Bullion Depôt adjoining the Mint premises, will be dealt with according to Regulations from time to time established by the Mint Master with the sanction of the Mint Committee, and after it has been melted or cut and burned, it must be delivered to the Head Assistant in the Bullion Office of the Mint, and registered, when the proprietor will be furnished with a receipt, agreeably to Form A. of the weight of clean malleable Silver, or Gold, as shown by the Mint Scale at the time of registry.

5*th.* No transfer of Bullion from the name of one proprietor to that of another can be permitted after it has once been tendered to the Mint. No Bullion can be withdrawn previous to registry, except sweepings and spillages of Bullion actually melted, or cut and burned, without the payment of a fee of Rupees 2 for each Pass prepared for the purpose.

6*th.* It is to be understood that, until the Bullion or Coin has been delivered, agreeably to Rule 4, at the Mint Scale, to the Head Assistant in the Bullion Office, it is in the custody, and at the sole risk of the importer, to whom every facility will be afforded for securing it in the strong room appropriated for that purpose.

7*th.* The Receipts mentioned in Rule 4 shall be changed in the Assay Office for Certificates, agreeably to Form B. payable at the General Treasury (20) twenty days after date, and showing the net value in Company's Rupees of the proprietor's treasure, with reference to its weight and assay, after making the following deductions for Seignorage, Refinage, and Premelting charges.

8*th.* The Seignorage on Gold Bullion or Coin shall be at one per cent. of the standard value. The Seignorage on Sicca Rupees shall be at one per cent. There shall be no Seignorage on short weight Madras, Furruckabad, or Company's Rupees.

The Seignorage on all other descriptions of Silver Coins and Bullion shall be two per cent.

9*th.* The Refinage charge on Silver below 6 dwts. in assay worse than the Indian standard shall be at the rate of ·04 per cent per dwt. of worseness.

The Refinage charge on Gold shall be at the rate of one-half per cent for every five carat grains of worseness below the Indian standard.

10*th.* The Premelting charge on Gold shall be at the rate of (Rs. 3-12-0) three Company's Rupees and twelve annas per one thousand tolas of Standard Gold, and on Silver at the rate of (Rs. 1) one Company's Rupee per one thousand standard tolas. These charges are to be deducted universally, whether the Bullion be melted, or cut and burned.

11*th.* Importers of Bullion or Coin shall be at liberty to withdraw the same after registry, within the day following the receipt of the Assay Report, but at no later period, on payment of an Assay fee of (4) four Rupees for each assay of Gold and (2) two Rupees for each assay of Silver, and the Premelting charges above mentioned.

12*th.* Should Bullion, after being premelted, prove to be brittle, and not adapted for coinage, it shall be returned to the proprietor, and passed out of the Mint under a written Pass signed by the Mint Master, and endorsed by the proprietor, who shall pay the charge for premelting the same at the prescribed rate calculated on the gross weight in tolas.

13*th*. Double melting fees will be charged for all Bullion received during holidays; and it is to be clearly understood, that when workmen cannot be procured during holidays at the Mint, tenders of Bullion made at such times will be refused.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2*nd*. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4*th*. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5*th*. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 23rd August 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XVII OF 1856.

An Act to provide for the execution of Criminal process in places out of the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the same.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by Act VII of 1854 certain provisions were made for the execution, in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, of warrants of arrest issued by competent officers in any other parts thereof, and whereas it is expedient that similar means should be provided for the execution as aforesaid of all other Criminal process issued as aforesaid: It is enacted as follows:—

All Criminal process may be executed in any part of India after having been endorsed by the Magistrate of the place where it is executed.

I. Any Criminal process whatever, including summonses, subpœnas, and search warrants, as well as warrants of arrest, issued by any Magistrate having jurisdiction in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, may be executed within the jurisdiction of any other Magistrate having jurisdiction in any part of the said territories, whether in the same Presidency or not, upon having a written authority under the hand and seal of the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction it may be executed, previously endorsed thereon. Provided that no summons or subpœna shall be issued by a Magistrate to compel the attendance of a defendant or witness from any place beyond the local limits of his jurisdiction, unless special grounds shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate in support of the application, which grounds shall be recorded before the summons or subpœna is issued.

Magistrate endorsing process not liable for illegality in the issuing thereof.

II. The Magistrate endorsing any process under this Act shall not be liable to any action or other proceeding in consequence of any illegality in the issuing of the process; but any Magistrate illegally or improperly issuing the same shall be liable for any act in pursuance of the endorsement, in the same manner, and to the same extent only, as if the process had been executed within his own jurisdiction.

Provisions of Act VII. 1854, and of this Act, applicable to process executed within limits of Supreme Courts.

III. The provisions of Act VII of 1854 and of this Act do and shall extend and apply to any warrant or other process of any Magistrate having jurisdiction in the territories beyond the local limits of the Supreme Courts of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, which shall be executed within those limits. Provided that, if a Magistrate having jurisdiction within those limits shall object to endorse any warrant or other process on account of any apparent defect therein, or for any other cause, he shall refer such warrant or other process to a Judge of the Supreme Court, who shall deal therewith according to the provisions of Act XXIII of 1840.

Proviso.

Interpretation.

IV. The word "Magistrate," as used in this Act, includes a Joint Magistrate, or any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, and also a Justice of the Peace.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 23rd August 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XVIII OF 1856.

An Act relating to the administration of the Public Revenues in the Town of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Collector of Calcutta should have charge of the collection of the Stamp duty within the Town of Calcutta, and that he should have power to employ any Deputy Collector subordinate to him, in the performance of any part of the duties of his office: It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations modified.

I. Such part of Section VI. Regulation XII. 1826 of the Bengal Code, and such part of Section VI. of a Rule Ordinance and Regulation for the Town of Calcutta, made and passed on the 14th day of June 1827, as prescribe that an Officer being a Civil Servant of the Honorable Company shall be specially appointed by the Governor General in Council to take charge of the collection of the Stamp duty within the City of Calcutta, are declared subject to the following modification.

Collection of Stamp duty in Calcutta to be ordinarily in charge of the Collector.

II. The collection of the Stamp duty within the Town of Calcutta shall ordinarily, and unless the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall otherwise direct, be in the charge of the Collector of Calcutta.

Collector may entrust any part of his duties to his Deputy.

III. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Calcutta to employ any Deputy Collector subordinate to him, in the performance of any part of the duties of his office under the said Regulation, or under Act XI of 1849, or Act XXIII of 1850; and all Rules, Regulations, and Acts relating to the office of Deputy Collector shall be of the same force within the Town of Calcutta as in other parts of the territories subject to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 23rd August 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 23rd August 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 27th of October next :—

A Bill for conferring Criminal jurisdiction upon Moonsiffs and Tuhseeldars in the North-Western Provinces.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to empower the Government of the North-Western Provinces to vest the Moonsiffs and Tuhseeldars in Districts subject to the control of that Government, with the ordinary powers of an Assistant Magistrate, without appointing them to be Deputy Magistrates under Act XV of 1843, under which form alone such powers can now be given to those Officers: It is enacted as follows :—

Government of N. W. P. empowered to vest any Moonsiff or Tuhseeldar with certain Criminal jurisdiction.

I. It shall be competent to the Government of the North-Western Provinces, by an Order published in the Government Gazette under the signature of the Secretary to Government, to vest any Moonsiff or Tuhseeldar with the ordinary powers of a Covenanted Assistant as described in Sections VIII and IX Regulation IX. 1793 and Sections VIII and IX Regulation VI. 1803, or Regulation III. 1821, to be exercised within such local limits as in each case may be determined, and subject to the usual appeal; and to re-call such powers, and to alter such limits, whenever it may appear proper, by an Order similarly signed and published.

Declaration required from Moonsiffs or Tuhseeldars so vested.

II. Every Moonsiff or Tuhseeldar, who may be vested with the powers described in the last preceding Section, shall, previously to entering upon the performance of his duties, make and subscribe before the Magistrate of the District in which he is employed, a declaration to the like effect as the oath prescribed in Section II Regulation IX. 1793.

Jurisdiction of such Moonsiffs and Tuhseeldars.

III. It shall be competent to the Moonsiffs and Tuhseeldars vested with the powers of an Assistant Magistrate under this Act, to receive and try, without reference by the Magistrate, all or any of such charges as they are competent to try under the provisions of this Act upon reference by the Magistrate.

Magistrates may call for any case pending before such Moonsiffs and Tuhseeldars.

IV. Magistrates or Joint Magistrates may at any time call, from any of the Moonsiffs or Tuhseeldars, for any case pending before such Moonsiff or Tuhseeldar under the provisions of this Act, which for any reason the Magistrate or Joint Magistrate may deem it proper to determine himself or to refer to another Officer.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 23rd August 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 23rd August 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 27th of November next :—

A Bill to amend the Law relating to the duties payable on Tobacco, and the retail sale and warehousing thereof in the Town of Bombay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the law relating to the duties payable on Tobacco and the retail sale and warehousing of that article in the Town of Bombay. It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Laws repealed.

I. Chapters V, VI, VII, and VIII of Regulation XXI. 1827 of the Bombay Code, and Act XXIV of 1850, are hereby repealed, but not so as to revive any other Regulation or Act thereby repealed.

Duty on Tobacco imported into Bombay. (Customs Duty.)

II. All Tobacco (except such small quantities thereof as are hereinafter mentioned) imported from any place into the Town of Bombay, shall be liable to the duty prescribed by the Acts now in force for regulating Customs, which duty is hereinafter called the Customary Duty or Duty of Custom. All Tobacco (except such small quantities thereof as are hereinafter mentioned) imported from any place into the said Town, and intended for consumption therein, shall be liable to an additional duty of seven Rupees and 8 annas per Indian maund, which duty is hereinafter called the Municipal Duty.

Additional duty on such Tobacco intended for consumption in Bombay. (Municipal Duty.)

Municipal Duty when payable.

Allowance of drawback.

III. The said Municipal Duty shall be paid at the option of the importer, either on importation, or after being warehoused as hereinafter mentioned, and no drawback of the said Municipal Duty shall be allowed, unless the Tobacco on which such drawback may be claimed has been warehoused in, and shall be re-exported from, a Bonded Warehouse; in which case a drawback of the whole of such duty shall be allowed, if claimed at the time of exportation.

Duty, if not paid on importation, to be paid on removal from Bonded Warehouse for consumption.

IV. If the said Municipal Duty is not paid on importation, the Tobacco shall be warehoused in a Bonded Warehouse, and the importer shall pay such duty on the said Tobacco on its removal from the Warehouse for consumption Powers for collection and enforcing payment of the duties.

V. The Commissioner of Customs, Salt and Opium, and Officers of Customs, shall have all the same powers and authorities for collecting and enforcing payment of the said duties, in addition to the powers and authorities specified in this Act, as they now have or shall have in respect of the duties on any other Customable articles.

Tobacco not to be imported otherwise than by sea.

Landing places to be prescribed.

VI. It shall not be lawful, without the special permission of the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other competent Officer, to bring any Tobacco or any preparation thereof into Bombay otherwise than by sea; nor to land the same at any other landing places than such as may from time to time be prescribed by proclamation by the Bombay Government.

Exemptions from duty.

VII. Sections II, III, IV, and VI of this Act shall not be applicable to Tobacco which may have already paid the duties imposed by this Act, nor to such small quantities of Tobacco (not exceeding ten Indian seers) as the Commissioner of Customs or other competent Officer may at his discretion exempt as being intended for the personal or private consumption of the importer.

Bombay to be deemed a warehousing port for Tobacco.

VIII. The port of Bombay shall, after the passing of this Act, be held to to be a warehousing port within the meaning of Act XXV of 1836, so far as regards the warehousing of Tobacco, and the said Act shall be applicable to the warehousing of Tobacco in the said Town; and the Import Duty in the said Act mentioned shall, as to Tobacco, mean the Customary and Municipal Duty leviable under this Act.

Permit necessary for removal of Tobacco.

Proviso.

IX. It shall not be lawful to remove any Tobacco from any place within the said Town to any other place, nor to carry or convey the same on any thoroughfare in the said Town, nor to carry the same in any vessel or boat of less than forty candies burthen in any of the creeks or waters adjacent to the said Town, without a Permit from the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, which Permit shall be in the form of Schedule A. to this Act annexed; any such Permit shall be in force only between sunrise and sunset of the day on which it is granted. Provided always, that it shall be lawful to remove without a Permit any Tobacco so far as may be necessary for the lawful importation thereof according to the provisions of this Act, and also small quantities of Tobacco, not exceeding in weight ten Indian seers, for personal or domestic use from the shop of a retailer licensed as hereinafter provided.

For what quantity Permit may be granted.

X. The Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, shall not grant any Permit for the removal of any Tobacco from the Custom House or from a Bonded Warehouse, unless the quantity to be so removed shall be at least one Indian maund in weight, or any such less quantity as may from time to time be fixed by the Commissioner under instructions from Government; nor shall he grant a Permit for the removal, for re-exportation, of any part of an entire bale or package of Tobacco from a Bonded Warehouse. But, if application be made to remove Tobacco from bond for consumption in Bombay, the Commissioner may permit a bale or package to be opened and the part required to be removed, and the refuse, if any, to be removed and destroyed in the presence of a Government Officer, or exported, at the option of the owner; and the Municipal Duty may be remitted on the refuse so removed and destroyed, or exported.

License for retail sale of Tobacco.

XI. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell or offer for sale by retail any Tobacco in Bombay without a license for that purpose under the hand and seal of the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer specially appointed by the Bombay Government, and the license may be in the form of Schedule (B) to this Act annexed, or to the like effect, and shall be in force for a period of twelve Calendar months from the date thereof, unless earlier withdrawn or cancelled by the licensing Officer; and for every such license, the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer, shall receive on account of Government a fee of one Rupee.

What deemed a retail sale.

XII. Any sale of Tobacco not exceeding in weight twenty-eight Indian seers, shall be deemed to be a retail sale within the meaning of this Act.

Retail sale to be only at the place mentioned in the license.

XIII. It shall not be lawful for any licensed retail dealer in Tobacco to carry on the retail sale of the same, or to warehouse or deposit any store of the same, except at such shop or other premises as may be specified in his license; and

Name of licensed dealer to be affixed to shop.

the name of every retail dealer in Tobacco, together with the number of his license, shall be written or painted in English, Guzeratti, and Maharatti, in plain and legible characters of not less than one inch in height, on a board to be affixed in a conspicuous manner in the front of the shop or pre-where the retail sale of the article aforesaid be carried on.

Monthly returns of stock to be made by retail dealers.

IV. Every retail dealer in Tobacco shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, make to the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer, a separate return for each shop or place of retail sale, of the quantity of Tobacco which he had on hand at the beginning of the preceding month, and also of the balance remaining in hand at the close of such month, and he shall in like manner and at the same time produce and give to the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer, a written statement, showing the quantity of Tobacco which he shall have received as stock during the preceding month, and the parties from whom and the dates on which such Tobacco was received; and any licensed retail dealer, who may refuse or neglect to produce such return and statement as above provided, or who may produce a false return or statement, shall be liable to be deprived of his license by the said Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer, in addition to such fine as he may incur under this Act.

Retail dealer to make entry in a book, of weight, &c. of all Tobacco received.

XV. Every retail dealer in Tobacco shall, on the same day on which he shall receive any Tobacco into any such shop or place of sale, enter in a book to be kept for that purpose, and in proper columns, the weight of such Tobacco, shewing the weight and also the day on which he shall receive the same, and the names of the person or persons from whom, and the place or places from which, he shall receive the same, Inspection of book.

and every such retail dealer shall keep such book in some public and open part of his licensed premises for the inspection of the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or any other Officer whom he may, by writing signed by him, authorize to enter the premises and inspect the same, and shall deliver such book to any such Officer on demand, and permit him to make any minute therein, or any extract therefrom, which such Officer shall think fit; and in case any retail dealer shall wilfully neglect to comply with the provisions of Sections XIV and XV of this Act, he shall for every offence forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Refusal of license.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer, at his discretion to refuse to grant or renew any license for the retail sale of Tobacco to any party applying for the same, without stating any reason for such refusal.

Search warrant for entry of houses.

XVII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer, to issue a special warrant under his hand and seal authorizing any public Officer to enter any building or place of deposit in which Tobacco may be deposited under the provisions of this Act, or in which such Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer, has been credibly informed that such Tobacco has been and is deposited contrary to the provisions of this Act; and for such purpose such public Officer shall have power, if necessary, to break open any doors, drawers, or other place or receptacle, or supposed receptacle, and to examine and weigh any Tobacco therein found, and to seize, remove, and take away from thence, any Tobacco or other articles subject to confiscation under this Act, and to detain the same until the case has been adjudicated as hereinafter provided.

Power to search boats, vehicles, &c. and to detain suspected persons.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Customs, Salt, and Opium, or other licensing Officer, or any Officer authorized by him, to enter and search with the like power as in the last Section mentioned, any vessel, boat, or vehicle suspected of containing, and to detain any person suspected of having, any contraband Tobacco, and to seize, take away, and detain the same until the case has been adjudicated as hereinafter provided.

Confiscation of Tobacco illegally imported, removed, &c.

XIX. All Tobacco imported into the said Town, or exported thence, or there warehoused, or removed from one place of deposit to another, contrary to the provisions of this Act, or found in the possession of any party in the said Town illegally, selling or offering any portion thereof for sale, shall be liable to confiscation to Government, together with every vessel in which it is contained, and every vehicle, vessel, boat, or animal employed with the consent and knowledge of the owner or his servant in conveying or containing the same. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the adjudicating Officer to mitigate the penalty of confiscation herein provided, by commuting the same to the payment of any fine not exceeding the value of the goods liable to confiscation; and every such fine may be enforced, if necessary, by the sale of the goods liable to confiscation, and shall be paid to Government.

Mitigation of penalty.

Penalty in case of persons illegally importing, removing, &c.

XX. Any person, who shall illegally import, export, remove, or sell in the said Town, any Tobacco, or who shall knowingly have in his possession, or shall conceal or smuggle, any Tobacco subject to confiscation under this Act, or who shall commit, or knowingly aid in the commission of, or abet, any breach of this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten times the value of such Tobacco; and in default of payment of such fine, such offender shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six Calendar months, unless such fine shall be sooner paid.

Adjudication of confiscation.

XXI. It shall be lawful for any Officer duly authorized to adjudicate confiscations in Customs cases in the Presidency of Bombay, to adjudicate all confiscations under this Act, subject to the same rules, liabilities, and rights of appeal as now are or hereafter may be provided by law, as applicable to cases of confiscation adjudicated in Customs cases.

Levy of fines.

XXII. All fines under this Act may be enforced and levied by any Magistrate of Police under Act XIII of 1856, and shall be paid into the Municipal Fund.

Interpretation.

XXIII. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the context repugnant to such construction.

The words "Town of Bombay" shall include all places within the Islands of Bombay and Colaba.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 30th August 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 3rd of December next :—

A Bill to make better provision for the collection of Land Customs on certain Foreign Frontiers of the Presidency of Bombay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the collection and management of Land Customs on certain Foreign Frontiers of the Presidency of Bombay: It is enacted as follows :—

Act II. 1852 repealed.

I. Act II of 1852 is hereby repealed.

Customs Duty on goods passing by land into or out of certain Foreign European Settlements.

II. Duties of Customs shall be levied on goods passing by land into or out of Foreign European Settlements situated on the line of Coast within the limits of the Presidency of Bombay, at the rates prescribed in the Schedules of Act I of 1852, at the ports of that Presidency.

Land Customs Duty on goods passing into or out of territories of Native Chiefs.

III. The Governor of the Presidency of Bombay in Council may declare, by notice to be published in the Official Gazette of that Presidency, that the territory of any Native Chief, not subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts and Civil authorities of that Presidency, shall be deemed to be Foreign Territory; and may declare goods passing into or out of such territory liable either to the duty fixed by the Schedules of Act I of 1852 for goods imported or exported at the ports of that Presidency, or to double the said duties as the Governor in Council may think fit.

Customs Stations.

IV. For the levy of Duties of Customs as above provided on goods exported by land to, or imported by land from, such Foreign Territories, Customs Stations may be established at such places as may be determined by the Governor in Council.

Appointment of Officers.

V. The Governor in Council may appoint such persons as he may deem fit for the control and supervision of the collection and management of the Customs payable under this Act as Collectors of Customs, or under such other designation as the said Governor in Council shall determine; the persons so appointed shall be subject to the authority and control of the Commissioner or Commissioners, for the time being, appointed under Act I of 1852, in such manner and to such extent as the said Governor in Council, from time to time, may direct.

Subordinate Officers.

VI. The Governor in Council may appoint all other proper persons to execute the duties of the several subordinate Offices necessary to the due management and collection of the Customs under this Act, and may require from such persons such securities for their good conduct therein as the said Governor in Council may deem necessary; and may, from time to time, transfer any part of the duties and powers of any Officer of Customs under this Act to any other Officer, in such cases and under such restrictions as the said Governor in Council may deem fit; and every Officer of Customs appointed or employed on any duty relating to the said Customs, shall hold his Office during the pleasure of the Governor of Bombay in Council; all persons holding any Office or employment in the said Customs, at the time of the passing of this Act, shall continue to be so employed therein under this Act until duly removed therefrom.

Delegation of authority by Government.

VII. The Governor of Bombay in Council may delegate the whole or any portion of the powers with which he is invested by the preceding Section to any Commissioner appointed under Act I of 1852, or to any Collector or other Officer of Customs regularly appointed under the provisions of this Act; and all subordinate Officers of Customs, who may be appointed by such Commissioner or Collector, or other Officer of Customs, by virtue of such delegated power shall be liable to be dismissed, suspended, or fined to an extent not exceeding two months' pay, by the authority by which they were respectively appointed, subject to the control of Government, or of superior authority in the Customs Department.

Government to prescribe by what roads goods may pass.

VIII. The Governor in Council may prescribe, by public notice in the Official Gazette, by what ways goods shall be allowed to pass into or out of any such Foreign territory, as is described in Sections I and II of this Act; and after such notice, goods which may be brought to any Station established on other roads or passes than those so prescribed, shall, if provided with a certificate, be sent back, and if not provided with a certificate, shall be detained, and shall be liable to confiscation by the Collector of Customs, unless the person in charge thereof shall be able to satisfy the said Collector that his carrying them by that road or pass was from ignorance or accident.

Goods not to be passed across the Frontier after sunset.

IX. Goods unlawfully passed, or attempted to be passed unlawfully, across any Frontier guarded by Stations, between sunset and sunrise, shall be seized and confiscated.

Obstruction of Officers.

X. Whoever intentionally obstructs any Officer, in the exercise of any powers given by this Act to such Officer, shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees, or both.

Offering bribes to Officers.

XI. Whoever offers a bribe to any Officer appointed under this Act, in order to induce such Officer to act in a manner inconsistent with his duty, shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or both.

Certificate.

XII. Any Officers authorized to receive money on account of the said Customs, shall grant certificates of the payment thereof; and any such certificate being delivered to an Officer at a Station established for the passing of goods, shall entitle the goods therein mentioned to cross the Frontier into or out of the East India Company's territories, provided that the goods correspond with the specification thereof contained in such certificates, and that the certificates show the entire amount of duty leviable on those goods to have been duly paid; and if, upon examination, the goods brought to any such Station be found not to correspond with the specification entered in the certificate presented with the same, the difference shall be noted on the face of the certificate, and if the payment of duty certified therein shall not cover the entire amount of duty leviable on the goods, as ascertained at such examination, the goods shall be detained until further certificate for the difference shall be produced.

Written application for certificate.

XIII. No Officer shall grant a certificate under this Act, unless a written application, according to a form to be prescribed by the Collector of Customs, shall have been made by the owner or person in charge, for permission to pass such goods; and such application shall contain a true description of the goods, with the marks, numbers, and description of the packages containing the same, and a declaration of their value. If any goods shall be passed or attempted to be passed without such an application in writing as is above described, they shall be liable to be seized and confiscated.

Mis-description of goods in application for certificate.

XIV. Goods in respect of which a certificate shall be applied for under this Act, shall be liable to confiscation if the packages in which the same may be contained shall be found not to correspond with the description of them given in the application, or if the contents thereof be found not to have been correctly described in regard to sort, quality, or quantity, or if, in or among the packages, any goods not stated in the application be found concealed or mixed up with the specified goods.

Government to fix the value of goods for the purpose of levying duty.

XV. The Governor in Council from time to time, by notice in the Official Gazette, may fix a value for any article, or number of articles, liable to duty under this Act, upon their value; and the value so fixed for such articles shall, till altered by similar notice, be taken to be the value of such articles for the purpose of levying duty on the same under this Act.

Abatement for damaged goods.

XVI. When goods liable to duty, for which a value has been fixed by such notice, or for which a fixed duty has been declared by the said Schedules, are brought to any Station where there is an Officer appointed to receive Customs Duties under this Act in a damaged state, and such damage is declared previously to the assessment of Customs on such goods, the Officer authorized to grant a certificate, or any other Officer authorized in this behalf, may make an abatement of Customs in proportion to the damage received; and, in estimating such damage, he shall be guided by such rules as the Governor of Bombay in Council may from time to time determine and notify; but, if the value of the goods be not determined more than one-fifth part thereof, no abatement of Customs shall be allowed.

Duty leviable on certain goods according to the market value.

XVII. When goods liable to duty, for which a value has not been fixed by such a notice as is above directed, or for which a fixed duty has not been declared by the said Schedules, are brought to any such Station as in the last preceding Section mentioned, the duty leviable on such goods shall be levied according to the market value of such goods.

Ascertainment of market value for assessment of duties.

XVIII. The market value for assessment of duties on the goods indicated in the preceding Section shall be that declared in the application to be made as aforesaid.

Proviso.

Provided always, that the value so declared be admitted by the Officer appointed to appraise goods; but, if the value of the whole or any part of the goods entered in the declaration shall seem to such Officer to be under-stated in such declaration, he shall have power to take the goods, or any part thereof, as purchased for the Government at the price so declared; and whenever he shall so take goods for the Government, payment thereof shall be made for the same within one month from the date of the declaration, and the Officer shall sell the goods so taken on account of Government; and, if they shall realize on sale a sum exceeding all charges incurred on them by Government, a proportion not more than one-half of the excess shall, at the discretion of the Collector, be payable to the Officer who reported the under-valuation of the goods; who shall in like manner be liable to pay one-half of the net loss that may accrue on the sale of the said goods.

Exemptions.

XIX. No goods entered in either of the said Schedules as liable to duty, shall be exempted from the payment of such duty or of any part thereof, except under special order from the Governor in Council; and every Officer at a Station established on any road by which goods may be passed into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall detain all goods subject to duty under this Act until such duty shall have been duly paid. Provided always, that such Officer may, at his discretion, pass free of duty any passenger's personal baggage in actual use; and if any person shall apply to have goods passed as such baggage, the Officer acting under the orders of Government shall determine whether they be passenger's personal baggage in actual use, or goods subject to duty under the provisions of this Act.

Certificate to be in force for thirty days.

XX. No certificate shall be received at any Station that shall bear date more than thirty days before the date when the goods arrived at such Station; but any person, who has taken out a certificate from any authorized receivor of Customs Duties, shall be entitled, at any time within the said period of thirty days, on satisfying such receiver that such certificate has not been used, and on delivering up the original, to receive a renewed certificate with a fresh date without further payment of duty.

Renewal of certificate.

Granting duplicate of lost document.

XXI. If any certificate, or other Custom-house documents, be lost by any person to whom they may have been issued by the Officer authorized to issue the same, the Collector of Customs, on being satisfied that no fraud has been committed or was intended, may grant a duplicate of such lost document upon payment of a fee of not less than one Rupee, nor exceeding ten Rupees; and further, the Collector may authorize any amendment to be made in any application made under this Act, but, if such amendment be required after such application is entered and recorded in the Custom-house books, then upon payment of a like fee for any document so entered.

Falsification of documents.

XXII. Whoever counterfeits or falsifies, or wilfully uses when counterfeited or falsified, any certificate of payment or any document for the purpose of passing, or having Customs Duties assessed on, any goods under this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees.

Power to detain goods until payment of any fine incurred.

XXIII. If any person in charge of, or owning, goods passing into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall have become liable to any fine on account of any act or omission relating to the Customs, any Officer in charge of a Station may detain such goods until the fine is discharged.

Power to detain and examine goods.

XXIV. Any Officer at a Station established on any road by which goods may be passed into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall have power to detain goods and to examine the quantities and kinds thereof, in order to ascertain that such goods are covered by a sufficient certificate.

Penalty for Station Officer permitting goods to pass without certificate, &c.

XXV. Any Station Officer who shall permit goods to pass across the Frontier, when not covered by a sufficient certificate, or who shall permit goods to pass by any road or pass other than the prescribed ways, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months and to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment for a further period of six months.

Vexatious seizure by Station Officer.

XXVI. Any Station Officer who shall needlessly and vexatiously injure goods under the pretence of examination, or in the course of his examination, or who shall wrongfully detain goods for which there is produced a sufficient certificate, shall, on conviction before any Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, and to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment for a further period of six months.

Fines.

XXVII. All fines, for the recovery of which no special provision is hereinbefore made, may be recovered on conviction of the offender before a Magistrate or other person competent to adjudicate on the offences, and payment thereof may be enforced under Act II of 1839.

Penalties.

XXVIII. All penalties under this Act, except those specified in any judicial award of the Collector or other adjudicating Officer, as provided for in Section XXX of this Act, shall be adjudged and determined by the Officiating Magistrate of the place where the offence shall have been committed; and any Collector being a Justice of the Peace, or Deputy or Assistant Collector authorized in such behalf by his superior and being a Justice of the Peace, may take informations and depositions on oath or solemn affirmation or declaration touching any matters involving a breach of any of the provisions of this Act; and, if taken in the presence of the party or parties charged with such breach, the same shall be received in evidence by such Magistrate in the like manner and to the same extent as if taken before him, and shall be deemed sufficient for him to adjudicate thereon: but nothing herein contained shall prevent such Magistrate from taking any information or deposition afresh, or from taking other and further depositions in the matter, if he think fit.

Collector may take informations.

Adjudication of confiscations, &c.

XXIX. In all cases in which, under this Act, goods are liable to confiscation, and in all cases in which, under this Act, any person being the owner or in charge of goods, is liable to a penalty, the Commissioner or Commissioners appointed under Act 1 of 1852, or a Collector of Customs appointed under this Act, may adjudicate such confiscation or such penalty, or the same may be adjudged by a Deputy or by an Assistant Collector of Customs appointed under this Act being a Justice of the Peace: Provided that the power to adjudicate confiscation shall not extend as regards a Deputy Collector to goods beyond the value of one thousand Rupees, nor as regards an Assistant Collector to goods beyond the value of one hundred Rupees, nor shall any Deputy Collector impose any fine beyond the amount of fifty Rupees, nor any Assistant Collector beyond the amount of ten Rupees; and all cases adjudicated by a Deputy or Assistant Collector shall be liable to revision by a Collector of Customs on appeal.

Restoration of forfeited goods.

XXX. In case any goods shall be seized as forfeited, or detained as undervalued, under this Act, the adjudicating Officer may order the same to be restored in such manner and on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit to direct; and if the owner of the same accepts such terms and conditions, he shall not have or maintain any action for recompense or damage on account of such seizure or detention, and the adjudicating Officer shall not proceed to condemnation.

Damages for vexatious seizure.

XXXI. Any Officer, authorized to adjudicate Customs cases, if he shall decide that a seizure of goods made under the authority of this Act was vexatious and unnecessary, may adjudge damages to be paid to the owner by the Officer who made such seizure, besides ordering the immediate release of the goods; and if the owner accepts such damages, no action shall thereafter lie against such Officer in any Court of Justice, on account of such seizure; and if such adjudicating Officer shall decide that the seizure was warranted, but shall deem that the penalty of confiscation is unduly severe, he may mitigate the same by levying on the goods so seized as aforesaid, any portion of the market value of such goods not less than one-tenth of such value; and if the said Officer adjudges confiscation, or any penalty in mitigation of confiscation, he may order that, from the sale of the goods, or from the proceeds of any penalty inflicted in mitigation of confiscation, a proportion not exceeding, in all cases of seizure except seizures of Salt or Tobacco, one-half of the sum remaining after payment of all Government demands, shall be distributed in rewards amongst such Officers as he deems entitled thereto, and in such proportion as he directs to each respectively; but in awarding rewards for the seizure of confiscated Salt or Tobacco, he may award one-half of the proceeds of sale, without making any deduction on account of Government demands.

Penalty in mitigation of confiscation.

Rewards to Customs Officers.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication; or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

Banqueting Hall,
7th February 1856.

With reference to the foregoing Notification, which the undersigned has been requested to publish in the Calcutta Gazette, he begs to state that he has been also requested to receive from the Bengal Presidency all Packages containing Contributions for the Madras Exhibition of 1857.

J. H. BELL,
Officiating Mint Master.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

Legislative Council.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 23rd August 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XVII OF 1856.

An Act to provide for the execution of Criminal process in places out of the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the same.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by Act VII of 1854 certain provisions were made for the execution, in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, of warrants of arrest issued by competent officers in any other parts thereof, and whereas it is expedient that similar means should be provided for the execution as aforesaid of all other Criminal process issued as aforesaid: It is enacted as follows:—

All Criminal process may be executed in any part of India, after having been endorsed by the Magistrate of the place where it is executed.

I. Any Criminal process whatever, including summonses, subpœnas, and search warrants, as well as warrants of arrest, issued by any Magistrate having jurisdiction in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, may be executed within the jurisdiction of any other Magistrate having jurisdiction in any part of the said territories, whether in the same Presidency or not, upon having a written authority under the hand and seal of the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction it may be executed, previously endorsed thereon. Provided that no summons or subpœna shall be issued by a Magistrate to compel the attendance of a defendant or witness from any place beyond the local limits of his jurisdiction, unless special grounds shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate in support of the application, which grounds shall be recorded before the summons or subpœna is issued.

Magistrate endorsing process not liable for illegality in the issuing thereof.

II. The Magistrate endorsing any process under this Act shall not be liable to any action or other proceeding in consequence of any illegality in the issuing of the process; but any Magistrate illegally or improperly issuing the same shall be liable for any act in pursuance of the endorsement, in the same manner, and to the same extent only, as if the process had been executed within his own jurisdiction.

Provisions of Act VII 1854, and of this Act, applicable to process executed without limits of Supreme Courts.

III. The provisions of Act VII of 1854 and of this Act do and shall extend and apply to any warrant or other process of any Magistrate having jurisdiction in the territories beyond the local limits of the Supreme Courts of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, which shall be executed within those limits. Provided that, if a Magistrate having jurisdiction within those limits shall object to endorse any warrant or other process on account of any apparent defect therein, or for any other cause, he shall refer such warrant or other process to a Judge of the Supreme Court, who shall deal therewith according to the provisions of Act XXIII of 1840.

Legislative Council.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 23rd August 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XVIII OF 1856.

An Act relating to the administration of the Public Revenues in the Town of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Collector of Calcutta should have charge of the collection of the Stamp duty within the Town of Calcutta, and that he should have power to employ any Deputy Collector subordinate to him, in the performance of any part of the duties of his office: It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations modified.

I. Such part of Section VI. Regulation XII. 1826 of the Bengal Code, and such part of Section VI. of a Rule Ordinance and Regulation for the Town of Calcutta, made and passed on the 14th day of June 1827, as prescribe that an Officer being a Civil Servant of the Honorable Company shall be specially appointed by the Governor General in Council to take charge of the collection of the Stamp duty within the City of Calcutta, are declared subject to the following modification.

Collection of Stamp duty in Calcutta to be ordinarily in charge of the Collector.

II. The collection of the Stamp duty within the Town of Calcutta shall ordinarily, and unless the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall otherwise direct, be in the charge of the Collector of Calcutta.

Collector may entrust any part of his duties to his Deputy.

III. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Calcutta to employ any Deputy Collector subordinate to him, in the performance of any part of the duties of his office under the said Regulation, or under Act XI of 1849, or Act XXIII of 1850; and all Rules, Regulations, and Acts relating to the office of Deputy Collector shall be of the same force within the Town of Calcutta as in other parts of the territories subject to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 30th August 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 3rd of December next :—

A Bill to make better provision for the collection of Land Customs on certain Foreign Frontiers of the Presidency of Bombay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the collection and management of Land Customs on certain Foreign Frontiers of the Presidency of Bombay: It is enacted as follows :—

Act II. 1852 repealed.

I. Act II of 1852 is hereby repealed.

Customs Duty on goods passing by land into or out of certain Foreign European Settlements.

II. Duties of Customs shall be levied on goods passing by land into or out of Foreign European Settlements situated on the line of Coast within the limits of the Presidency of Bombay, at the rates prescribed in the Schedules of Act I of 1852, at the ports of that Presidency.

Land Customs Duty on goods passing into or out of territories of Native Chiefs.

III. The Governor of the Presidency of Bombay in Council may declare, by notice to be published in the Official Gazette of that Presidency, that the territory of any Native Chief, not subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts and Civil authorities of that Presidency, shall be deemed to be Foreign Territory; and may declare goods passing into or out of such territory liable either to the duty fixed by the Schedules of Act I of 1852 for goods imported or exported at the ports of that Presidency, or to double the said duties as the Governor in Council may think fit.

Customs Stations.

IV. For the levy of Duties of Customs as above provided on goods exported by land to, or imported by land from, such Foreign Territories, Customs Stations may be established at such places as may be determined by the Governor in Council.

Appointment of Officers.

V. The Governor in Council may appoint such persons as he may deem fit for the control and supervision of the collection and management of the Customs payable under this Act as Collectors of Customs, or under such other designation as the said Governor in Council shall determine; the persons so appointed shall be subject to the authority and control of the Commissioner or Commissioners, for the time being, appointed under Act I of 1852, in such manner and to such extent as the said Governor in Council, from time to time, may direct.

Subordinate Officers.

VI. The Governor in Council may appoint all other proper persons to execute the duties of the several subordinate Offices necessary to the due management and collection of the Customs under this Act, and may require from such persons such securities for their good conduct therein as the said Governor in Council may deem necessary; and may, from time to time, transfer any part of the duties and powers of any Officer of Customs under this Act to any other Officer, in such cases and under such restrictions as the said Governor in Council may deem fit; and every Officer of Customs appointed or employed on any duty relating to the said Customs, shall hold his Office during the pleasure of the Governor of Bombay in Council; all persons holding any Office or employment in the said Customs, at the time of the passing of this Act, shall continue to be so employed therein under this Act until duly removed therefrom.

Delegation of authority by Government.

VII. The Governor of Bombay in Council may delegate the whole or any portion of the powers with which he is invested by the preceding Section to any Commissioner appointed under Act I of 1852, or to any Collector or other Officer of Customs regularly appointed under the provisions of this Act; and all subordinate Officers of Customs, who may be appointed by such Commissioner or Collector, or other Officer of Customs, by virtue of such delegated power shall be liable to be dismissed, suspended, or fined to an extent not exceeding two months' pay, by the authority by which they were respectively appointed, subject to the control of Government, or of superior authority in the Customs Department.

Government to prescribe by what roads goods may pass.

VIII. The Governor in Council may prescribe, by public notice in the Official Gazette, by what ways goods shall be allowed to pass into or out of any such Foreign territory, as is described in Sections I and II of this Act; and after such notice, goods which may be brought to any Station established on other roads or passes than those so prescribed, shall, if provided with a certificate, be sent back, and if not provided with a certificate, shall be detained, and shall be liable to confiscation by the Collector of Customs, unless the person in charge thereof shall be able to satisfy the said Collector that his carrying them by that road or pass was from ignorance or accident.

Goods not to be passed across the Frontier after sunset.

IX. Goods unlawfully passed, or attempted to be passed unlawfully, across any Frontier guarded by Stations, between sunset and sunrise, shall be seized and confiscated.

Obstruction of Officers.

X. Whoever intentionally obstructs any Officer, in the exercise of any powers given by this Act to such Officer, shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees, or both.

Offering bribes to Officers.

XI. Whoever offers a bribe to any Officer appointed under this Act, in order to induce such Officer to act in a manner inconsistent with his duty, shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or both.

Certificate.

XII. Any Officers authorized to receive money on account of the said Customs, shall grant certificates of the payment thereof; and any such certificate being delivered to an Officer at a Station established for the passing of goods, shall entitle the goods therein mentioned to cross the Frontier into or out of the East India Company's territories, provided that the goods correspond with the specification thereof contained in such certificates, and that the certificates show the entire amount of duty leviable on those goods to have been duly paid; and if, upon examination, the goods brought to any such Station be found not to correspond with the specification entered in the certificate presented with the same, the difference shall be noted on the face of the certificate, and if the payment of duty certified therein shall not cover the entire amount of duty leviable on the goods, as ascertained at such examination, the goods shall be detained until further certificate for the difference shall be produced.

Written application for certificate.

XIII. No Officer shall grant a certificate under this Act, unless a written application, according to a form to be prescribed by the Collector of Customs, shall have been made by the owner or person in charge, for permission to pass such goods; and such application shall contain a true description of the goods, with the marks, numbers, and description of the packages containing the same, and a declaration of their value. If any goods shall be passed or attempted to be passed without such an application in writing as is above described, they shall be liable to be seized and confiscated.

Mis-description of goods in application for certificate.

XIV. Goods in respect of which a certificate shall be applied for under this Act, shall be liable to confiscation if the packages in which the same may be contained shall be found not to correspond with the description of them given in the application, or if the contents thereof be found not to have been correctly described in regard to sort, quality, or quantity, or if, in or among the packages, any goods not stated in the application be found concealed or mixed up with the specified goods.

Government to fix the value of goods for the purpose of levying duty.

XV. The Governor in Council from time to time, by notice in the Official Gazette, may fix a value for any article, or number of articles, liable to duty under this Act, upon their value; and the value so fixed for such articles shall, till altered by similar notice, be taken to be the value of such articles for the purpose of levying duty on the same under this Act.

Abatement for damaged goods.

XVI. When goods liable to duty, for which a value has been fixed by such notice, or for which a fixed duty has been declared by the said Schedules, are brought to any Station where there is an Officer appointed to receive Customs Duties under this Act in a damaged state, and such damage is declared previously to the assessment of Customs on such goods, the Officer authorized to grant a certificate, or any other Officer authorized in this behalf, may make an abatement of Customs in proportion to the damage received; and, in estimating such damage, he shall be guided by such rules as the Governor of Bombay in Council may from time to time determine and notify; but, if the value of the goods be not determined more than one-fifth part thereof, no abatement of Customs shall be allowed.

Duty leviable on certain goods according to the market value.

XVII. When goods liable to duty, for which a value has not been fixed by such a notice as is above directed, or for which a fixed duty has not been declared by the said Schedules, are brought to any such Station as in the last preceding Section mentioned, the duty leviable on such goods shall be levied according to the market value of such goods.

Ascertainment of market value for assessment of duties.

XVIII. The market value for assessment of duties on the goods indicated in the preceding Section shall be that declared in the application to be made as aforesaid. Provided always, that the value so declared be admitted by the Officer appointed to appraise goods; but, if the value of the whole or any part of the goods entered in the declaration shall seem to such Officer to be under-stated in such declaration, he shall have power to take the goods, or any part thereof, as purchased for the Government at the price so declared; and whenever he shall so take goods for the Government, payment thereof shall be made for the same within one month from the date of the declaration, and the Officer shall sell the goods so taken on account of Government; and, if they shall realize on sale a sum exceeding

Proviso.

all charges incurred on them by Government, a proportion not more than one-half of the excess shall, at the discretion of the Collector, be payable to the Officer who reported the under-valuation of the goods; who shall in like manner be liable to pay one-half of the net loss that may accrue on the sale of the said goods.

Exemptions.

XIX. No goods entered in either of the said Schedules as liable to duty, shall be exempted from the payment of such duty or of any part thereof, except under special order from the Governor in Council; and every Officer at a Station established on any road by which goods may be passed into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall detain all goods subject to duty under this Act until such duty shall have been duly paid. Provided always, that such Officer may, at his discretion, pass free of duty any passenger's personal baggage in actual use; and if any person shall apply to have goods passed as such baggage, the Officer acting under the orders of Government shall determine whether they be passenger's personal baggage in actual use, or goods subject to duty under the provisions of this Act.

Certificate to be in force for thirty days.

Renewal of certificate.

XX. No certificate shall be received at any Station that shall bear date more than thirty days before the date when the goods arrived at such Station; but any person, who has taken out a certificate from any authorized receiver of Customs Duties, shall be entitled, at any time within the said period of thirty days, on satisfying such receiver that such certificate has not been used, and on delivering up the original, to receive a renewed certificate with a fresh date without further payment of duty.

Granting duplicate of lost document.

XXI. If any certificate, or other Custom-house documents, be lost by any person to whom they may have been issued by the Officer authorized to issue the same, the Collector of Customs, on being satisfied that no fraud has been committed or was intended, may grant a duplicate of such lost document upon payment of a fee of not less than one Rupee, nor exceeding ten Rupees; and further, the Collector may authorize any amendment to be made in any application made under this Act, but, if such amendment be required after such application is entered and recorded in the Custom-house books, then upon payment of a like fee for any document so entered.

Falsification of documents.

XXII. Whoever counterfeits or falsifies, or wilfully uses when counterfeited or falsified, any certificate of payment or any document for the purpose of passing, or having Customs Duties assessed on, any goods under this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees.

Power to detain goods until payment of any fine incurred.

XXIII. If any person in charge of, or owning, goods passing into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall have become liable to any fine on account of any act or omission relating to the Customs, any Officer in charge of a Station may detain such goods until the fine is discharged.

Power to detain and examine goods.

XXIV. Any Officer at a Station established on any road by which goods may be passed into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall have power to detain goods and to examine the quantities and kinds thereof, in order to ascertain that such goods are covered by a sufficient certificate.

Penalty for Station Officer permitting goods to pass without certificate, &c.

XXV. Any Station Officer who shall permit goods to pass across the Frontier, when not covered by a sufficient certificate, or who shall permit goods to pass by any road or pass other than the prescribed ways, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months and to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment for a further period of six months.

Vexatious seizure by Station Officer.

XXVI. Any Station Officer who shall needlessly and vexatiously injure goods under the pretence of examination, or in the course of his examination, or who shall wrongfully detain goods for which there is produced a sufficient certificate, shall, on conviction before any Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, and to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment for a further period of six months.

Fines.

XXVII. All fines, for the recovery of which no special provision is hereinbefore made, may be recovered on conviction of the offender before a Magistrate or other person competent to adjudicate on the offences, and payment thereof may be enforced under Act II of 1839.

Penalties.

XXVIII. All penalties under this Act, except those specified in any judicial award of the Collector or other adjudi[illegible] Officer, as provided for in Section XXX of this Act, shall be adjudged and determined by the Officiating Magistrate of the place where the offence shall have been committed; and any Collector being a Justice of the Peace, or Deputy or Assistant Collector authorized in such behalf by his superior and being a Justice of the Peace, may take informations and depositions on oath or solemn affirmation or declaration touching any matters involving a breach of any of the provisions of this Act; and, if taken in the presence of the party or parties charged with such breach, the same shall be received in evidence by such Magistrate in the like manner and to the same extent as if taken before him, and shall be deemed sufficient for him to adjudicate thereon: but nothing herein contained shall prevent such Magistrate from taking any information or deposition afresh, or from taking other and further depositions in the matter, if he think fit.

Collector may take informations.

Adjudication of confiscations, &c.

XXIX. In all cases in which, under this Act, goods are liable to confiscation, and in all cases in which, under this Act, any person being the owner or in charge of goods, is liable to a penalty, the Commissioner or Commissioners appointed under Act I of 1852, or a Collector of Customs appointed under this Act, may adjudicate such confiscation or such penalty, or the same may be adjudged by a Deputy or by an Assistant Collector of Customs appointed under this Act being a Justice of the Peace: Provided that the power to adjudicate confiscation shall not extend as regards a Deputy Collector to goods beyond the value of one thousand Rupees, nor as regards an Assistant Collector to goods beyond the value of one hundred Rupees, nor shall any Deputy Collector impose any fine beyond the amount of fifty Rupees, nor any Assistant Collector beyond the amount of ten Rupees; and all cases adjudicated by a Deputy or Assistant Collector shall be liable to revision by a Collector of Customs on appeal.

Restoration of forfeited goods.

XXX. In case any goods shall be seized as forfeited, or detained as undervalued, under this Act, the adjudicating Officer may order the same to be restored in such manner and on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit to direct; and if the owner of the same accepts such terms and conditions, he shall not have or maintain any action for recompense or damage on account of such seizure or detention, and the adjudicating Officer shall not proceed to condemnation.

Damages for vexatious seizure.

XXXI. Any Officer, authorized to adjudicate Customs cases, if he shall decide that a seizure of goods made under the authority of this Act was vexatious and unnecessary, may adjudge damages to be paid to the owner by the Officer who made such seizure, beside ordering the immediate release of the goods; and if the owner accepts such damages, no action shall thereafter lie against such Officer in any Court of Justice, on account of such seizure; and if such adjudicating Officer shall decide that the seizure was warranted, but shall deem that the penalty of confiscation is unduly severe, he may mitigate the same by levying on the goods so seized as aforesaid, any portion of the market value of such goods not less than one-tenth of such value; and if the said Officer adjudges confiscation, or any penalty in mitigation of confiscation, he may order that, from the sale of the goods, or from the proceeds of any penalty inflicted in mitigation of confiscation, a proportion not exceeding, in all cases of seizure except seizures of Salt or Tobacco, one-half of the sum remaining after payment of all Government demands, shall be distributed in rewards amongst such Officers as he deems entitled thereto, and in such proportion as he directs to each respectively; but in awarding rewards for the seizure of confiscated Salt or Tobacco, he may award one half of the proceeds of sale, without making any deduction on account of Government demands.

Penalty in mitigation of confiscation.

Rewards to Customs Officers.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication; or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

Banqueting Hall,
7th February 1856.

With reference to the foregoing Notification, which the undersigned has been requested to publish in the Calcutta Gazette, he begs to state that he has been also requested to receive from the Bengal Presidency all Packages containing Contributions for the Madras Exhibition of 1857.

J. H. BELL,

CECIL BEADON,
Secy. to the Govt. of India.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 23rd August 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT NO. XVII OF 1856.

An Act to provide for the execution of Criminal process in places out of the jurisdiction of the authority issuing the same.

Preamble.

WHEREAS by Act VII of 1854 certain provisions were made for the execution, in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, of warrants of arrest issued by competent officers in any other parts thereof, and whereas it is expedient that similar means should be provided for the execution as aforesaid of all other Criminal process issued as aforesaid : It is enacted as follows :—

All Criminal process may be executed in any part of India, after having been endorsed by the Magistrate of the place where it is executed.

I. Any Criminal process whatever, including summonses, subpœnas, and search warrants, as well as warrants of arrest, issued by any Magistrate having jurisdiction in any part of the territories under the Government of the East India Company, may be executed within the jurisdiction of any other Magistrate having jurisdiction in any part of the said territories, whether in the same Presidency or not, upon having a written authority under the hand and seal of the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction it may be executed, previously endorsed thereon. Provided that no summons or subpœna shall be issued by a Magistrate to compel the attendance of a defendant or witness from any place beyond the local limits of his jurisdiction, unless special grounds shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Magistrate in support of the application, which grounds shall be recorded before the summons or subpœna is issued.

Magistrate endorsing process not liable for illegality in the issuing thereof.

II. The Magistrate endorsing any process under this Act shall not be liable to any action or other proceeding in consequence of any illegality in the issuing of the process; but any Magistrate illegally or improperly issuing the same shall be liable for any act in pursuance of the endorsement, in the same manner, and to the same extent only, as if the process had been executed within his own jurisdiction.

Provisions of Act VII. 1854, and of this Act, applicable to process executed within limits of Supreme Courts.

III. The provisions of Act VII of 1854 and of this Act do and shall extend and apply to any warrant or other process of any Magistrate having jurisdiction in the territories beyond the local limits of the Supreme Courts of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay respectively, which shall be executed within those limits. Provided that, if a Magistrate having jurisdiction within those limits shall object to endorse any warrant or other process on account of any apparent defect therein, or for any other cause, he shall refer such warrant or other process to a Judge of the Supreme Court, who shall deal therewith according to the provisions of Act XXIII of 1840.

Proviso.

Interpretation.

IV. The word "Magistrate," as used in this Act, includes a Joint Magistrate, or any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, and also a Justice of the Peace.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Honorable the Governor General on the 23rd August 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XVIII OF 1856.

An Act relating to the administration of the Public Revenues in the Town of Calcutta.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Collector of Calcutta should have charge of the collection of the Stamp duty within the Town of Calcutta, and that he should have power to employ any Deputy Collector subordinate to him, in the performance of any part of the duties of his office: It is enacted as follows :—

Regulations modified.

I. Such part of Section VI. Regulation XII. 1826 of the Bengal Code, and such part of Section VI of a Rule Ordinance and Regulation for the Town of Calcutta, made and passed on the 14th day of June 1827, as prescribe that an Officer being a Civil Servant of the Honorable Company shall be specially appointed by the Governor General in Council to take charge of the collection of the Stamp duty within the City of Calcutta, are declared subject to the following modification.

Collection of Stamp duty in Calcutta to be ordinarily in charge of the Collector.

II. The collection of the Stamp duty within the Town of Calcutta shall ordinarily, and unless the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal shall otherwise direct, be in the charge of the Collector of Calcutta.

Collector may entrust any part of his duties to his Deputy.

III. It shall be lawful for the Collector of Calcutta to employ any Deputy Collector subordinate to him, in the performance of any part of the duties of his office under the said Regulation, or under Act XI of 1849, or Act XXIII of 1850; and all Rules, Regulations, and Acts relating to the office of Deputy Collector shall be of the same force within the Town of Calcutta as in other parts of the territories subject to the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 30th August 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 30th August 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 3rd of December next :—

A Bill to make better provision for the collection of Land Customs on certain Foreign Frontiers of the Presidency of Bombay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the collection and management of Land Customs on certain Foreign Frontiers of the Presidency of Bombay: It is enacted as follows :—

Act II. 1852 repealed.

I. Act II of 1852 is hereby repealed.

Customs Duty on goods passing by land into or out of certain Foreign European Settlements.

II. Duties of Customs shall be levied on goods passing by land into or out of Foreign European Settlements situated on the line of Coast within the limits of the Presidency of Bombay, at the rates prescribed in the Schedules of Act I of 1852, at the ports of that Presidency.

Land Customs Duty on goods passing into or out of territories of Native Chiefs.

III. The Governor of the Presidency of Bombay in Council may declare, by notice to be published in the Official Gazette of that Presidency, that the territory of any Native Chief, not subject to the jurisdiction of the Courts and Civil authorities of that Presidency, shall be deemed to be Foreign Territory; and may declare goods passing into or out of such territory liable either to the duty fixed by the Schedules of Act I of 1852 for goods imported or exported at the ports of that Presidency, or to double the said duties as the Governor in Council may think fit.

Customs Stations.

IV. For the levy of Duties of Customs as above provided on goods exported by land to, or imported by land from, such Foreign Territories, Customs Stations may be established at such places as may be determined by the Governor in Council.

Appointment of Officers.

V. The Governor in Council may appoint such persons as he may deem fit for the control and supervision of the collection and management of the Customs payable under this Act as Collectors of Customs, or under such other designation as the said Governor in Council shall determine; the persons so appointed shall be subject to the authority and control of the Commissioner or Commissioners, for the time being, appointed under Act I of 1852, in such manner and to such extent as the said Governor in Council, from time to time, may direct.

Subordinate Officers.

VI. The Governor in Council may appoint all other proper persons to execute the duties of the several subordinate Offices necessary to the due management and collection of the Customs under this Act, and may require from such persons such securities for their good conduct therein as the said Governor in Council may deem necessary; and may, from time to time, transfer any part of the duties and powers of any Officer of Customs under this Act to any other Officer, in such cases and under such restrictions as the said Governor in Council may deem fit; and every Officer of Customs appointed or employed on any duty relating to the said Customs, shall hold his Office during the pleasure of the Governor of Bombay in Council; all persons holding any Office or employment in the said Customs, at the time of the passing of this Act, shall continue to be so employed therein under this Act until duly removed therefrom.

Delegation of authority by Government.

VII. The Governor of Bombay in Council may delegate the whole or any portion of the powers with which he is invested by the preceding Section to any Commissioner appointed under Act I of 1852, or to any Collector or other Officer of Customs regularly appointed under the provisions of this Act; and all subordinate Officers of Customs, who may be appointed by such Commissioner or Collector, or other Officer of Customs, by virtue of such delegated power shall be liable to be dismissed, suspended, or

Government to prescribe by what roads goods may pass.

VIII. The Governor in Council may prescribe, by public notice in the Official Gazette, by what ways goods shall be allowed to pass into or out of any such Foreign territory, as is described in Sections I and II of this Act; and after such notice, goods which may be brought to any Station established on other roads or passes than those so prescribed, shall, if provided with a certificate, be sent back, and if not provided with a certificate, shall be detained, and shall be liable to confiscation by the Collector of Customs, unless the person in charge thereof shall be able to satisfy the said Collector that his carrying them by that road or pass was from ignorance or accident.

Goods not to be passed across the Frontier after sunset.

IX. Goods unlawfully passed, or attempted to be passed unlawfully, across any Frontier guarded by Stations, between sunset and sunrise, shall be seized and confiscated.

Obstruction of Officers.

X. Whoever intentionally obstructs any Officer, in the exercise of any powers given by this Act to such Officer, shall be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees, or both.

Offering bribes to Officers.

XI. Whoever offers a bribe to any Officer appointed under this Act, in order to induce such Officer to act in a manner inconsistent with his duty, shall be liable for every such offence to a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, or both.

Certificate.

XII. Any Officers authorized to receive money on account of the said Customs, shall grant certificates of the payment thereof; and any such certificate being delivered to an Officer at a Station established for the passing of goods, shall entitle the goods therein mentioned to cross the Frontier into or out of the East India Company's territories, provided that the goods correspond with the specification thereof contained in such certificates, and that the certificates show the entire amount of duty leviable on those goods to have been duly paid; and if, upon examination, the goods brought to any such Station be found not to correspond with the specification entered in the certificate presented with the same, the difference shall be noted on the face of the certificate, and if the payment of duty certified therein shall not cover the entire amount of duty leviable on the goods, as ascertained at such examination, the goods shall be detained until further certificate for the difference shall be produced.

Written application for certificate.

XIII. No Officer shall grant a certificate under this Act, unless a written application, according to a form to be prescribed by the Collector of Customs, shall have been made by the owner or person in charge, for permission to pass such goods; and such application shall contain a true description of the goods, with the marks, numbers, and description of the packages containing the same, and a declaration of their value. If any goods shall be passed or attempted to be passed without such an application in writing as is above described, they shall be liable to be seized and confiscated.

Mis-description of goods in application for certificate.

XIV. Goods in respect of which a certificate shall be applied for under this Act, shall be liable to confiscation if the packages in which the same may be contained shall be found not to correspond with the description of them given in the application, or if the contents thereof be found not to have been correctly described in regard to sort, quality, or quantity, or if, in or among the packages, any goods not stated in the application be found concealed or mixed up with the specified goods.

Government to fix the value of goods for the purpose of levying duty.

XV. The Governor in Council from time to time, by notice in the Official Gazette, may fix a value for any article, or number of articles, liable to duty under this Act, upon their value; and the value so fixed for such articles shall, till altered by similar notice, be taken to be the value of such articles for the purpose of levying duty on the same under this Act.

Abatement for damaged goods.

XVI. When goods liable to duty, for which a value has been fixed by such notice, or for which a fixed duty has been declared by the said Schedules, are brought to any Station where there is an Officer appointed to receive Customs Duties under this Act in a damaged state, and such damage is declared previously to the assessment of Customs on such goods, the Officer authorized to grant a certificate, or any other Officer authorized in this behalf, may make an abatement of Customs in proportion to the damage received; and, in estimating such damage, he shall be guided by such rules as the Governor of Bombay in Council may from time to time determine and notify; but, if the value of the goods be not determined more than one-fifth part thereof, no abatement of Customs shall be allowed.

Duty leviable on certain goods according to the market value.

XVII. When goods liable to duty, for which a value has not been fixed by such a notice as is above directed, or for which a fixed duty has not been declared by the said Schedules, are brought to any such Station as in the last preceding Section mentioned, the duty leviable on such goods shall be levied according to the market value of such goods.

Ascertainment of market value for assessment of duties.

XVIII. The market value for assessment of duties on the goods indicated in the preceding Section shall be that declared in the application to be made as aforesaid.

Proviso.

Provided always, that the value so declared be admitted by the Officer appointed to appraise goods; but, if the value of the whole or any part of the goods entered in the declaration shall seem to such Officer to be under-stated in such declaration, he shall have power to take the goods, or any part thereof, as purchased for the Government at the price so declared; and whenever he shall so take goods for the Government, payment thereof shall be made for the same within one month from the date of the declaration, and the Officer shall sell the goods so taken on account of Government; and, if they shall realize on sale a sum exceeding all charges incurred on them by Government, a proportion not more than one-half of the excess shall, at the discretion of the Collector, be payable to the Officer who reported the under-valuation of the goods; who shall in like manner be liable to pay one-half of the net loss that may accrue on the sale of the said goods.

Exemptions.

XIX. No goods entered in either of the said Schedules as liable to duty shall be exempted from the payment of such duty or of any part thereof, except under special order from the Governor in Council; and every Officer at a Station established on any road by which goods may be passed into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall detain all goods subject to duty under this Act until such duty shall have been duly paid. Provided always, that such Officer may, at his discretion, pass free of duty any passenger's personal baggage in actual use; and if any person shall apply to have goods passed as such baggage, the Officer acting under the orders of Government shall determine whether they be passenger's personal baggage in actual use, or goods subject to duty under the provisions of this Act.

Certificate to be in force for thirty days.

Renewal of certificate.

XX. No certificate shall be received at any Station that shall bear date more than thirty days before the date when the goods arrived at such Station; but any person, who has taken out a certificate from any authorized receiver of Customs Duties, shall be entitled, at any time within the said period of thirty days, on satisfying such receiver that such certificate has not been used, and on delivering up the original, to receive a renewed certificate with a fresh date without further payment of duty.

Granting duplicate of lost document.

XXI. If any certificate, or other Custom-house documents, be lost by any person to whom they may have been issued by the Officer authorized to issue the same, the Collector of Customs, on being satisfied that no fraud has been committed or was intended, may grant a duplicate of such lost document upon payment of a fee of not less than one Rupee, nor exceeding ten Rupees; and further, the Collector may authorize any amendment to be made in any application made under this Act, but, if such amendment be required after such application is entered and recorded in the Custom-house books, then upon payment of a like fee for any document so entered.

Falsification of documents.

XXII. Whoever counterfeits or falsifies, or wilfully uses when counterfeited or falsified, any certificate of payment or any document for the purpose of passing, or having Customs Duties assessed on, any goods under this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand Rupees.

Power to detain goods until payment of any fine incurred.

XXIII. If any person in charge of, or owning, goods passing into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall have become liable to any fine on account of any act or omission relating to the Customs, any Officer in charge of a Station may detain such goods until the fine is discharged.

Power to detain and examine goods.

XXIV. Any Officer at a Station established on any road by which goods may be passed into or out of any such Foreign territory, shall have power to detain goods and to examine the quantities and kinds thereof, in order to ascertain that such goods are covered by a sufficient certificate.

Penalty for Station Officer permitting goods to pass without certificate, &c.

XXV. Any Station Officer who shall permit goods to pass across the Frontier, when not covered by a sufficient certificate, or who shall permit goods to pass by any road or pass other than the prescribed ways, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months and to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment for a further period of six months.

Vexatious seizure by Station Officer.

XXVI. Any Station Officer who shall needlessly and vexatiously injure goods under the pretence of examination, or in the course of his examination, or who shall wrongfully detain goods for which there is produced a sufficient certificate, shall, on conviction before any Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months, and to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, commutable, if not paid, to imprisonment for a further period of six months.

Fines.

XXVII. All fines, for the recovery of which no special provision is hereinbefore made, may be recovered on conviction of the offender before a Magistrate or other person competent to adjudicate on the offences, and payment thereof may be enforced under Act II of 1839.

Penalties.

XXVIII. All penalties under this Act, except those specified in any judicial award of the Collector or other adjudicating Officer, as provided for in Section XXX of this Act, shall be adjudged and determined by the Officiating Magistrate of the place where the offence shall have been committed; and any Collector being a Justice of the Peace, or Deputy or Assistant Collector authorized in such behalf by his superior and being a Justice of the Peace, may take informations and depositions on oath or solemn affirmation or declaration touching any matters involving a breach of any of the provisions of this Act; and, if taken in the presence of the party or parties charged with such breach, the same shall be received in evidence by such Magistrate in the like manner and to the same extent as if taken before him, and shall be deemed sufficient for him to adjudicate thereon: but nothing herein contained shall prevent such Magistrate from taking any information or deposition afresh, or from taking other and further depositions in the matter, if he think fit.

Collector may take informations.

Adjudication of confiscations, &c.

XXIX. In all cases in which, under this Act, goods are liable to confiscation, and in all cases in which, under this Act, any person, being the owner or in charge of goods, is liable to a penalty, the Commissioner or Commissioners appointed under Act I of 1852, or a Collector of Customs appointed under this Act, may adjudicate such confiscation or such penalty, or the same may be adjudged by a Deputy or by an Assistant Collector of Customs appointed under this Act being a Justice of the Peace: Provided that the power to adjudicate confiscation shall not extend as regards a Deputy Collector to goods beyond the value of one thousand Rupees, nor as regards an Assistant Collector to goods beyond the value of one hundred Rupees, nor shall any Deputy Collector impose any fine beyond the amount of fifty Rupees, nor any Assistant Collector beyond the amount of ten Rupees; and all cases adjudicated by a Deputy or Assistant Collector shall be liable to revision by a Collector of Customs on appeal.

Restoration of forfeited goods.

XXX. In case any goods shall be seized as forfeited, or detained as undervalued, under this Act, the adjudicating Officer may order the same to be restored in such manner and on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit to direct; and if the owner of the same accepts such terms and conditions, he shall not have or maintain any action for recompense or damage on account of such seizure or detention, and the adjudicating Officer shall not proceed to condemnation.

Damages for vexatious seizure.

XXXI. Any Officer, authorized to adjudicate Customs cases, if he shall decide that a seizure of goods made under the authority of this Act was vexatious and unnecessary, may adjudge damages to be paid to the owner by the Officer who made such seizure, beside ordering the immediate release of the goods; and if the owner accepts such damages, no action shall thereafter lie against such Officer in any Court of Justice, on account of such seizure; and if such adjudicating Officer shall decide that the seizure was warranted, but shall deem that the penalty of confiscation is unduly severe, he may mitigate the same by levying on the goods so seized as aforesaid, any portion of the market value of such goods not less than one-tenth of such value; and if the said Officer adjudges confiscation, or any penalty in mitigation of confiscation, he may order that, from the sale of the goods, or from the proceeds of any penalty inflicted in mitigation of confiscation, a proportion not exceeding, in all cases of seizure except seizures of Salt or Tobacco, one-half of the sum remaining after payment of all Government demands, shall be distributed in rewards amongst such Officers as he deems entitled thereto, and in such proportion as he directs to each respectively; but in awarding rewards for the seizure of confiscated Salt or Tobacco, he may award one-half of the proceeds of sale, without making any deduction on account of Government demands.

Penalty in mitigation of confiscation.

Rewards to Customs Officers.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 6th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 6th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 10th of November next:—

A Bill to make better provision for the order and good government of the Suburbs of Calcutta and of the Station of Howrah.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Acts have been passed for regulating the Police, and for the Conservancy and improvement, of the Town of Calcutta and of the other Presidency Towns; and whereas large portions of the Suburbs of the said Town of Calcutta and of the Station of Howrah are not less populous than parts of the said Town, and it will conduce to the order and good government of the said Suburbs and Station that some of the provisions of the said Acts, with certain necessary modifications, should be extended to the said Suburbs and Station: It is enacted as follows:—

Cases under this Act, by whom to be tried.

I. Whoever is charged with having committed any of the offences mentioned in this Act within the limits of the said Suburbs or Station, as described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, may be tried for any such offence by the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence is alleged to have been committed, and on conviction, may be sentenced by such Magistrate to the punishment hereinafter prescribed for the offence.

Fraudulent possession of stolen property.

II. Clause 1.—Whoever has in his possession, or conveys in any manner, any thing which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall, if he fail to account satisfactorily how he came by the same, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Power to summon persons declared to have had possession of such property within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate.

Clause 2.—If any person, charged with having or conveying any thing stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent, or servant, to convey the same for some other person, the Magistrate may cause every such other person, and also, if necessary, every former or pretended purchaser or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed (provided that such other person shall be alleged to have had possession of the same within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate), to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses upon oath touching the same; and if it appear to such Magistrate that any person so brought before him had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Penalty if such possession fraudulent.

Apprehension and punishment of reputed thieves, &c.

III. Any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, armed with any dangerous or offensive instrument whatsoever, with intent to commit any felonious act; any reputed thief found between sun-set and sun-rise, on board any vessel or boat, or lying or loitering in any bazar, street, road, yard, thoroughfare, or other place, who shall not give a satisfactory account of himself; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, having his face covered, or otherwise disguised, with intent to commit any felony; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, in any dwelling-house or other building whatsoever, without being able satisfactorily to account for his presence therein; and any person having in his possession, without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall be on such person), any implement of house-breaking—shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding three months; and any such person may be taken into custody by any Police Officer without a warrant.

Disturbing an assembly engaged in religious worship.

IV. Whoever, without lawful excuse, intentionally causes disturbance to any assembly or procession lawfully engaged in the performance of religious worship or religious ceremonies, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six months, or to both.

Penalty for carrying arms without authority.

V. Whoever, not being a soldier or sailor in the Army or Navy of the Queen or the East India Company, or a Police Officer, goes armed with any sword, spear, gun, or other offensive weapon, in any street, thoroughfare, or public place, unless by leave of the Magistrate, shall be liable to be disarmed by any Police Officer; and the weapon so seized shall be forfeited to the Government, unless redeemed by payment of a fine, at the discretion of the Magistrate, not exceeding ten Rupees.

Magistrate may make order of maintenance for wives and children.

VI. If any person, having sufficient means, neglects or refuses to maintain his wife or any legitimate or illegitimate child unable to maintain himself, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate, upon due proof thereof, to order such person to make a monthly allowance for the maintenance of his wife or such child as aforesaid, at such rate, not exceeding fifty Rupees in the whole, as to the Magistrate shall seem reasonable; and if such person shall wilfully neglect to comply with the said order, the Magistrate may, by warrant, direct the amount due to be levied in the manner in which fines may be levied, or may order him to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month. Provided always, that any such person shall be at liberty to apply to the Magistrate, from time to time, for a reduction of such monthly allowance, on proof of an alteration in the circumstances of himself, his wife, or child, justifying such reduction.

Disorderly conduct in houses of public entertainment.

VII. Whoever, being the keeper of any house or place licensed for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, knowingly permits drunkenness or other disorderly behaviour in such house or place, or knowingly suffers any gaming whatsoever therein, or who knowingly permits prostitutes, or persons of notoriously bad character, to meet or remain therein, or who wilfully harbours or conceals any soldier, seaman, or apprentice, knowing, or having reason to believe, such soldier, seaman, or apprentice to be a deserter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Penalty for harbouring and concealing deserters from merchant vessels.

VIII. Whoever in any place wilfully harbours or conceals any seaman or apprentice belonging to a merchant vessel, knowing, or having reason to believe, such seaman or apprentice to be a deserter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Penalty for owning or keeping, or being employed in, a gaming-house, &c.

IX. Whoever, being the owner or occupier, or having the use of any house, room, or place, keeps, or uses the same for the purpose of gaming being carried on therein; and whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house or room, knowingly and wilfully permits the same to be kept or used by any other person for the purpose aforesaid; and whoever has the care or management of, or in any manner assists in conducting, the business of any house, room, or place kept or used for the purpose aforesaid; and whoever advances or furnishes money for the purpose of gaming with persons frequenting such house, room, or place—shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Penalty for being found playing in a gaming-house.

X. Whoever is found in any such house, room, or place, playing or gaming with cards, dice, counters, money, or other instruments of gaming, or is found there present for the purpose of gaming, whether playing for any money, wager, stake, or otherwise, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month; and any person found in any common gaming-house during any gaming or playing therein, shall be presumed, until the contrary be proved, to have been there for the purpose of gaming.

Magistrate may grant warrants to Police Officers to enter a gaming-house for the purpose of search and seizure.

XI. If the Magistrate, upon information on oath, and after such enquiry as he may think necessary, has reason to believe that any house, room, or place is used as a common gaming-house, he may, by his warrant, give authority to any superior Officer of Police to enter, with such assistance as may be found necessary, by night or by day, and by force if necessary, any such house, room, or other place, and to take into custody all persons whom he finds therein, whether or not then actually gaming, and to seize all instruments of gaming, and all monies, and securities for money, and articles of value, reasonably suspected to have been used or intended to be used for the purpose of gaming, which are found therein, and to search all parts of the house, room, or place which he shall have so entered, when he has reason to believe that any instruments of gaming are concealed therein, and also the persons of those whom he so takes into custody, and to seize and take possession of all instruments of gaming found upon such search.

On conviction for keeping a gaming-house, instruments of gaming to be destroyed, &c.

XII. On conviction of any person for keeping any such common gaming-house, or being present therein for the purpose of gaming, all the instruments of gaming found therein shall be destroyed by order of the Magistrate, who may also order all or any of the securities for money and other articles seized, not being instruments of gaming, to be sold and converted into money, and the proceeds thereof, with all monies seized therein, to be forfeited, or, in his discretion, may order any part thereof to be returned to the persons appearing to have been severally thereunto entitled.

Portion of fine may be paid to informer.

XIII. The Magistrate may direct any portion, not exceeding one-fourth, of any fine which shall be levied under Sections IX and X of this Act, or any part of the monies, or proceeds of articles seized, and ordered to be forfeited under Section XII, to be paid to an informer.

Gambling in the streets.

XIV. A Police Officer may apprehend without warrant any person found gaming with cards, dice, counters, money, or other instruments of gaming, in any public street, place, or thoroughfare; and such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month, and such instruments of gaming and money shall be forfeited.

Pawn-brokers and money-changers to report stolen property under a penalty for neglect.

XV. If any property, regarding which written or printed information shall be given by any Police Officer to any pawn-broker or dealer in second-hand property or money-changer, as having been stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently obtained, shall then be or thereafter come into the possession of, or be offered in pawn or for sale or change to such pawn-broker, dealer, or money-changer, he shall, without unnecessary delay, give information at the nearest Police Office, that certain property answering the description of the said property was offered to him, or is in his possession, and shall also state the name and address given by the party by whom the same was offered, or from whom the same was received, under a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees for each and every such neglect or offence; provided always that, in the case of wearing apparel or other articles which it may be difficult for such pawn-broker or dealer to trace out and identify, no fine shall be exigible in respect of not reporting such articles, unless it shall appear to the Magistrate that such articles had been knowingly concealed by such pawn-broker or dealer.

If stolen articles be altered or defaced by broker, after information of the theft, he shall be deemed a receiver of stolen goods.

XVI. If any pawn-broker or dealer in second-hand goods, or worker in gold or silver, after receiving information of the theft or the embezzling or the fraudulent disposal of any metals, goods, or articles of whatsoever description, melts, alters, defaces, or puts away the same, or causes the same to be melted, altered, defaced, or put away, without having previously received the permission of the Magistrate, and it shall be found that such metals, goods, or articles were stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently disposed of by the person from whom such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker received the same, or by any other person, then and in such case it shall be held that such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker knew that such metals, goods, or articles were stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently disposed of, and such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker shall be proceeded against according to law as a receiver of stolen goods, or as being a party to the fraud, and punished accordingly, and no other evidence of his guilt shall be necessary than evidence of such melting, altering, defacing, or putting away, after receiving information as aforesaid.

Manufacture or possession of Gunpowder.

XVII. Whoever manufactures Gunpowder or, without a license from the Magistrate, has in his possession, in any house, shop, warehouse, or other building, at any one time, a greater quantity of Gunpowder than ten pounds, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, and also to forfeit such Gunpowder so manufactured or possessed, together with the vessel or receptacle in which it may be contained.

Licenses by Magistrate for sale and deposit of Gunpowder, &c.

XVIII. The Magistrate may grant to any person a license for the sale or keeping in deposit of any quantity of Gunpowder not exceeding fifty pounds, on such conditions, and for such term, not exceeding one year, as shall be specified in the license; and any person who shall be guilty of a breach of any of such conditions, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees and to forfeit all Gunpowder so kept in deposit contrary thereto, and the vessels containing it, and also to forfeit his license.

Penalty for drunkenness, or riotous or indecent behaviour in public.

XIX. Whoever is found drunk and incapable of taking care of himself, or is guilty of any riotous or indecent behaviour in any street or thoroughfare, or in any place of public amusement or resort, and whoever is guilty of violent behaviour in any Police Office, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Penalty for destroying, &c. lamp-post, &c.

XX. Whoever destroys, injures, or disturbs any lamp-post, lamp-bracket, or lamp, or extinguishes any light therein, or abstracts or takes away any oil or other matter or thing therefrom, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or, in default thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Penalty for committing a nuisance in streets.

XXI. Whoever wilfully and indecently exposes his person, or commits a nuisance, by easing himself in or by the side of or near to any public street or thoroughfare or place, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees, or, in default thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Beggars.

XXII. Whoever in any public road, street, thoroughfare, or place, begs or applies for alms, or exposes or exhibits any sores, wounds, bodily ailment, or deformity, with the object of exciting charity or of obtaining alms; or whoever seeks for, or obtains alms, by means of any false statement or pretences, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month.

Penalty for the following offences in public streets, &c.

XXIII. Whoever, in any public street, road, thoroughfare, or place of public resort, commits any of the following offences, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees:—

Furious or negligent driving or riding.

1. Whoever drives or rides any animal, or drives any vehicle, in a manner so rash or negligent as to indicate a want of due regard for the safety of others.

Letting loose horses, ferocious dogs, &c.

2. Whoever negligently lets loose any horse, or suffers to be at large any ferocious dog without a muzzle, or sets on or urges any dog or other animal to attack, worry, or put in fear any person, horse, or other animal.

Ill-treating animals.

3. Whoever cruelly beats, abuses, or tortures any animal.

Lighting fires and discharging guns, fire-works, &c.

4. Whoever sets fire to, or burns, any straw or other matter, or lights any bonfire, or wantonly discharges any fire-arm or air-gun, or lets off, or throws any fire-work, or sends up any fire-balloon.

Indecent language.

5. Whoever uses any indecent, threatening, abusive, or insulting words, or behaves in a threatening or insulting manner, with the intent to provoke a breach of the peace, or whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned.

Depositing dirt on street, &c.

XXIV. Whoever deposits, or permits his servants to deposit, any dust, dirt, dung, ashes, garden, kitchen, or stable refuse, or filth of any kind, or any animal matter, or any broken glass or earthen-ware or other rubbish, in any street, or on any public quay, jetty, ghaut, or landing-place, except in such places and in such manner, and at such hours, as shall be fixed by the Magistrate, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees.

Allowing sewerage to flow on streets.

XXV. Whoever causes or allows the water of any sink or sewer, or any other offensive liquid matter belonging to him or being on his land, to run, drain, or be thrown or put upon any street, or causes or allows any offensive matter from any sewer or privy to run, drain, or be thrown into a surface drain in any street, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees.

Future obstructions in streets or roads.

XXVI. Whoever builds any wall, or erects or sets up any fence, rail, post, or other obstruction or encroachment, in any public street or road, or in or over any open drain, sewer, or aqueduct along the side of any such street or road after the passing of this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees; and the Magistrate shall have power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person erecting the same, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power to remove.

Taking up pavements.

XXVII. Whoever displaces, takes up, or makes any alteration in the pavement, or other materials, or in the fences or posts of any public street, without the consent in writing of the Magistrate, or without other lawful authority, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Names of streets.

XXVIII. The Magistrate may, from time to time, cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, building, wall, or place at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every street, the name by which such street is to be known; and Numbers on houses.

may, from time to time, fix a number in a conspicuous place on the outer side of any house or building, or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof fronting the street; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such name or number, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Future projections from houses to be removed.

XXIX. The Magistrate may give notice, in writing to the owner or occupier of any house or building to remove or alter any projection, encroachment, or obstruction, which after the passing of this Act shall be erected or placed against or in front of such house or building, if the same overhangs, or juts into, or in any way projects or encroaches upon, or is an obstruction to the safe and convenient passage along any public street, or obstructs or projects, or encroaches into or upon any uncovered aqueduct, drain, or sewer in such street, and such owner or occupier shall, within fourteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the Magistrate; and in default thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees; and the Magistrate in such case may remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction; and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the owner or occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Houses projecting beyond line of street when taken down to be set back.

XXX. When any house or building, any part of which projects beyond the regular line of a public street, or beyond the front of the house or building on either side thereof, has been taken down in order to be re-built or altered, the Magistrate may require the same to be set back to or towards the line of the street or the line of the adjoining houses or buildings. Provided always, that the Magistrate shall make full compensation to the owner of any such house or building for any damage he may thereby sustain; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner provided by the laws in force for the settlement of disputes respecting compensation for lands taken for public purposes.

Proviso.

Power to trim hedges and trees bordering roads.

XXXI. The Magistrate may give notice to the owner or occupier of any land, to cut and trim any hedges and trees, overhanging any public road or street, so as to obstruct the passage or to cause damage thereto; and in the event of such notice not being complied with within eight days from the date thereof, the Magistrate may cause the said hedges and trees to be cut and trimmed in the manner required; and the expense incurred by the Magistrate in respect thereof shall be paid by the owners, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Houses in a ruinous and dangerous state.

XXXII. If in any street, any house, building, or wall, or any thing affixed thereon, be deemed by the Magistrate to be in a ruinous state or likely to fall, or in any way dangerous to the inhabitants of such house or building, or to the neighbouring houses or buildings, or the occupiers thereof, or to passengers, he may cause notice in writing to be given to the owner, if he be known and resident within the limits of his jurisdiction, and may also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the said premises, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such house, building, wall, or thing affixed thereon, as the case shall require; and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure the same within three days after such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Magistrate may cause all or so much of such house, building, wall, or thing, as he shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured; and all the expenses shall be paid by the owner of the premises, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Sale of materials of ruinous houses.

XXXIII. If any such house, building, or wall, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the Magistrate may sell the materials thereof or of so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred, and shall restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of such house, building, or wall on demand. The Magistrate, although he sell such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale, as by this Act are given to him for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

Penalty on occupier of a house not removing filth.

XXXIV. Whoever, being the occupier of a house in or near any street, keeps or allows to be kept for more than twenty-four hours, or otherwise than in some proper receptacle, any dirt, dung, bones, ashes, night-soil, filth, or any noxious or offensive matter, in or upon the roof of such house, or in any out-house, yard, or ground attached to and occupied with such house, or suffers such receptacle to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom, and to cleanse and purify the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Filthy houses, &c.

XXXV. Whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house, building, or land, in or near any street, whether tenantable or otherwise, suffers the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with rank and noisome vegetation, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, and to a fine not exceeding five Rupees for every day after conviction for such offence during which the offence is continued.

Penalty for keeping sheep-pen, &c. in a filthy state.

XXXVI. Whoever, being the owner or keeper of any cattle, sheep, or pigs, suffers the stall, pen, or place in which they are kept, in or near any street, to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Licensing of public necessaries.

XXXVII. The Magistrate may license such necessaries for public accommodation as he from time to time, may think proper; and whoever keeps any public necessary without such license, or, having a license for a public necessary, suffers the same to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means for cleansing the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees; and the license may be cancelled.

Penalty for keeping private drain, &c. in improper state.

XXXVIII. Whoever, being the owner of any private drain, privy, or cesspool, neglects or refuses, after warning from the Magistrate, to keep the same in a proper state, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Fouling water by—

Bathing

Washing

Throwing rubbish, &c.

XXXIX. Whoever bathes in any public tank, the water of which shall have been declared by the Magistrate to be appropriated to the domestic use of the inhabitants; or washes or causes to be washed therein any horse, dog, or other animal, or any wool, cloth, or wearing apparel, or any utensils for cooking, or other purposes, or leather, or the skin of any animal, or other foul or offensive thing; or throws, puts, or casts, or causes to enter therein, any animal, or any gravel, stone, dust, or rubbish, or any dirt, filth, or other noisome or offensive matter or thing; or causes or suffers to run, drain, or be brought thereunto, the water of any sink, sewer, drain, engine, or boiler, or any other unwholesome or offensive liquid matter or thing belonging to him or flowing from any house or building or from any ground occupied by him; or does any thing whatsoever whereby any such water shall be in any degree fouled or corrupted —shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Allowing drains, &c. to flow.

Power to fill up unwholesome tanks on private premises.

XL. When any private tank or low marshy ground, or any waste or stagnant water, being within any private enclosure, appears to the Magistrate to be injurious to health, or to be offensive to the neighbourhood, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to require, by notice in writing, the owner of the said premises to cleanse or fill up such tank or marshy ground, or to drain off or remove such stagnant water; and if he shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requisition during eight days from the service thereof, the Magistrate, his Officers, and workmen, may enter into the said premises and do all necessary acts for all or any of the purposes aforesaid as he shall think fit; and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such premises, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power to drain off and cleanse stagnant pools in open places.

XLI. The Magistrate may, from time to time, as he shall see fit, drain off into any sewers, and cleanse and fill up, or otherwise abate, any stagnant pool, ditch, tank, pond, or other receptacle of water (the same not being within any private enclosure), which shall appear to him, to be useless or unnecessary, or likely to prove injurious to the health of the inhabitants, whether the same be the private property of any person or otherwise.

Penalty for not lighting deposits of building materials or excavations.

XLII. No person intending to build, or take down, alter, or repair any building, shall deposit any building materials, or make a hole in any street, without the permission of the Magistrate; and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed until the materials are removed, or the hole is filled up or otherwise made secure; and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night; and whoever deposits materials or makes a hole without such permission, or fails to fence or enclose and light such materials or hole, or does not remove such materials or fill up such hole when the permission has been withdrawn, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, and a further fine not exceeding fifty Rupees for every day while the offence is continued after twenty-four hours' notice from the Magistrate.

Dangerous places near streets to be repaired or enclosed.

XLIII. If any building, tank, well, or hole, or other place, be, for want of sufficient repair, protection, or enclosure, dangerous to passengers, the Magistrate shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or enclosed, so as to prevent danger therefrom; and the expenses of such repair, protection, or enclosure shall be paid by the owner of the property so repaired, protected, or enclosed, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

XLIV. No place, which is not used as a slaughter-house at the time of the passing of this Act, shall be so used without a license in writing from the Magistrate; and whoever uses as a slaughter-house any place not so used at the time of the passing of this Act, without such license, shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a fine, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the conviction for such offence, during which the said offence is continued.

Penalty for establishing a slaughter-house without license, after passing of Act.

XLV. Every owner or occupier of any slaughter-house, or of any market or shop for the sale of butcher's meat, fish, or vegetables, shall keep the same in a cleanly and proper state, and shall admit at all reasonable hours any person authorized by the Magistrate to enter and inspect the same; and the owner or occupier of any such slaughter-house, market, or shop, which shall not be kept in a cleanly and proper state, shall be liable for every default to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Penalty for keeping slaughter-house in improper state.

XLVI. Whoever keeps in any market, shop, stall, or place used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, fish, or vegetables, or exposes or allows to be exposed for sale in any other place or way, any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetable which is unfit for the food of man, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Keeping unwholesome food in market, or in shops.

XLVII. Within the limits which shall be prescribed for the purposes of this Section by the Local Government, no place shall be newly used, except under license from the Magistrate, for any of the following purposes, namely, for melting tallow—or for boiling offal or blood—or as a soap house—oil-boiling house—dyeing house—tannery—brick pottery or lime kiln—sago manufactory or other manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise—or as a yard or depôt for hay, straw, wood, or coal; and whoever, without a license, uses any such place for such purpose, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, and a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees for every day after the conviction for such offence during which the said offence is continued.

Penalty for establishing offensive and dangerous trades within certain limits.

XLVIII. No burial or burning ground, whether public or private, shall be made or formed after the passing of this Act, otherwise than by or under the authority of the Local Government, without a license from the Magistrate; and whoever shall bury or burn, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpse in any burial or burning ground, made or formed without such license, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

No burial or burning place henceforth to be constructed without leave of Magistrate.

XLIX. If, upon the evidence of competent persons, it shall appear to the Magistrate that any burial or burning ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, and also that a convenient place for interment or burning, as the case may be, exists within a convenient distance and is available, the Magistrate, with the sanction of the Local Government previously obtained, may, by notification to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the ground, appoint a time, not being less than two months, for the closing of such burial or burning ground; and whoever, after the time so appointed, buries or burns, or cause or permits to be buried or burned, any corpse therein, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Magistrate may order certain burial or burning places to be closed.

Penalty for burying or burning in such places.

L. It shall be lawful for the Magistrate, by order in writing to be affixed at the principal Police Stations, and also to be published in some public newspaper, to appoint from time to time certain periods within which any dogs found straying in the streets or beyond the enclosures of the houses of the owners of such dogs, may be destroyed.

Stray dogs to be killed at certain appointed periods.

LI. Any Police Officer may arrest, without a warrant, any person committing in his view any offence against this Act, if the name and address of such person be unknown to him.

Police Officer may arrest without warrant on view of offence.

LII. Any Police Officer may take into custody, without warrant, any person who is charged with committing an aggravated assault, in every case in which he shall have good reason to believe that such assault has been committed, although not in his view, and that, by reason of the recent commission of the offence, a warrant could not have been obtained for the apprehension of the offender.

Police Officer may take into custody, without warrant, persons charged with aggravated assault recently committed.

LIII. Every person taken into custody without a warrant by a Police Officer under this Act, shall be taken to the nearest Police Office, in order that such person may be detained until he can be brought before the Magistrate, or until he shall enter into recognizances, with or without sureties, for his appearance before the Magistrate.

Persons taken into custody by a Police Officer without warrant may be detained in Police Office until brought before a Magistrate or bailed.

LIV. Upon any information or complaint laid before the Magistrate of any offence committed against this Act, the Magistrate may summon the person charged to appear at a time to be mentioned in the summons, or if he see sufficient cause for so doing, may issue a warrant for his apprehension. The provisions of the General Regulations of the Bengal Code and Acts of the Government of India for the time being in force, relative to the issue and service of summonses and warrants, to the summons, attendance, and examination of witnesses, and generally to the trial of cases, to the recovery of fines and penalties, and to appeals against orders and sentences passed by a Magistrate, shall be applicable to all cases under this Act. Provided that, in all cases of offences not of a criminal nature, if, after due service of summons, the person charged shall not appear in pursuance thereof, the Magistrate, at his discretion, may hear and determine the case in his absence. Provided also, that the prosecution for any offence not of a criminal nature shall be commenced within three months from the commission of the offence and not otherwise.

Procedure on information or complaint laid before the Magistrate of an offence against this Act.

LV. In all cases where any costs or expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount of the same shall be ascertained and determined by the Magistrate, and the Magistrate may, for that purpose, summon the parties and examine them and the witnesses on their behalf; and such amount, together with the costs of the enquiry, shall be recoverable in the same manner as fines may be recovered.

Recovery of costs or expenses.

LVI. Any Joint Magistrate or Deputy Magistrate duly authorized to exercise the powers of a Magistrate may, in cases referred to him by the Magistrate, exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate by this Act.

Jurisdiction.

LVII. All fines imposed and levied under this Act shall be applied in aid of any fund applicable to Police and Conservancy purposes in the said Suburbs or Station, and all costs and expenses which the Magistrate is hereby authorized to incur, shall be paid from and repaid to such fund; or, if there be no such fund, all such fines as aforesaid shall be applied by the Magistrate to the cleansing or otherwise improving of the said Suburbs or Station.

Application of fines.

No. 1164 of 1856.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to direct that the following Military letter from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors to the Government of India, No. 117, dated 23rd July 1856, be published in General Orders :—

Military Department.

No. 117 of 1856.

OUR GOVERNOR GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Para. 1. Referring to the several communications received from your Government relating to the promotion to the rank of Colonel of Lieutenant-Colonels who had obtained leave of absence from India prior to the 23rd March 1855, we have now to announce to you that the sanction of the Queen has been given to the following Regulation, as concurred in by the Secretary of State-for-War and by the Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief; viz. :—

"That all Regimental Lieutenant-Colonels who "quitted India on Furlough prior to the 23rd "March 1855, but who had previously command-"ed Regiments as Majors or Lieutenant-Colonels, "or performed other equivalent Military duty in "the situations prescribed in the Royal Warrant "of 6th October 1854, for not less than two years, "shall be promoted to the rank of Colonel when "they shall have held the rank of Lieutenant-"Colonel for 3 years."

"Lieutenant-Colonels by special Brevet for distinguished conduct in the Field who quitted "India on Furlough prior to 23rd March 1855, "but who had previously done duty in that rank "for not less than two years, to be in like manner "promoted to the rank of Colonel when they "shall have held the Brevet rank of Lieutenant-"Colonel for 6 years."

"The time passed on leave of absence in India, "and which had been granted prior to 23rd March "1855, to be also allowed to reckon as service."

"In cases of leaves of absence commencing "after the 23rd March 1855, no longer period "than one month in each year, or a total of 3 "months in 3 years or 6 months in 6 years, shall "be allowed to reckon, whether the leave shall "have been spent in India or out of the Country, "except in cases of wounds or illness contracted "by service in the Field duly certified by a Medi-"cal Board, when each case will be separately con-"sidered with reference to the time to be allow-"ed."

"The above Regulation to be applicable to "Lieutenant-Colonels of Her Majesty's Troops "serving in India, as well as to those of the East "India Company's Service."

2. You will take immediate measures for carrying this Regulation into effect, so far as relates to the Service of the East India Company.

3. We now forward for your information and guidance copy of a letter and its enclosure, received this day from Major General Sir C. Yorke, K. C. B., on the subject of the claim of the Indian Army to Line Promotion under the arrangement contained in the Royal Warrant of 6th October 1854, in succession to Colonels promoted to complete the Establishment of General Officers of that Army on the 28th November 1854.

We are, &c.,

(Signed) W. H. SYKES,
And Nine other Directors.

LONDON,
23*rd July* 1856.

HORSE GUARDS,
22*nd July* 1856.

W. LEACH, ESQUIRE.

SIR,

With reference to the correspondence which has taken place on the subject of the claim of the Indian Army to Line Promotion, under the arrangement contained in the Royal Warrant of the 6th October 1854, in succession to Colonels promoted to complete the Establishment of General Officers of that Army on the 28th of November 1854, and particularly to the List of Lieutenant-Colonels of the East India Company's Army who would have been promoted to the rank of Colonel from the 28th of November 1854, had the promotion been made under that arrangement, and which List was forwarded with your letter of the 28th ultimo, I am directed by His Royal Highness the General Commanding-in-Chief to acquaint you, that his Predecessor, Field Marshal Viscount Hardinge, having observed by that List, that in point of fact there remain only three Lieutenant-Colonels to be promoted, of whom one (Lieutenant-Colonel Day) has retired from the Service, in order to carry out the arrangement, and twenty-three remaining in the Service whose appointments will be ante-dated, His Lordship communicated with Lord Panmure on the subject, expressing his opinion that on this understanding the application might be acceded to.

In this view Lord Panmure has concurred, and I am therefore to acquaint you that there will be no objection to these promotions, and those in the other ranks consequent thereon being made accordingly.

In order to prevent any misunderstanding, I enclose a List of the Colonels remaining in the Service, whose Commissions would be ante-dated under this arrangement, extracted from the List forwarded with your letter of the 28th ultimo, and of the 3 Lieutenant-Colonels to be promoted; and I am to acquaint you that His Royal Highness considers that this question will then be closed.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) C. YORKE.

Under the authority conveyed in the above letter, the following promotions are made :—

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication; or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

Banqueting Hall,
7th February 1856.

With reference to the foregoing Notification, which the undersigned has been requested to publish in the Calcutta Gazette, he begs to state that he has been also requested to receive from the Bengal Presidency all Packages containing Contributions for the Madras Exhibition of 1857.

J. H. BELL,

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 6th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 6th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 10th of November next:—

A Bill to make better provision for the order and good government of the Suburbs of Calcutta and of the Station of Howrah.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Acts have been passed for regulating the Police, and for the Conservancy and improvement, of the Town of Calcutta and of the other Presidency Towns; and whereas large portions of the Suburbs of the said Town of Calcutta and of the Station of Howrah are not less populous than parts of the said Town, and it will conduce to the order and good government of the said Suburbs and Station that some of the provisions of the said Acts, with certain necessary modifications, should be extended to the said Suburbs and Station: It is enacted as follows:—

Cases under this Act, by whom to be tried.

I. Whoever is charged with having committed any of the offences mentioned in this Act within the limits of the said Suburbs or Station, as described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, may be tried for any such offence by the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence is alleged to have been committed, and on conviction, may be sentenced by such Magistrate to the punishment hereinafter prescribed for the offence.

Fraudulent possession of stolen property.

II. Clause 1.—Whoever has in his possession, or conveys in any manner, any thing which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall, if he fail to account satisfactorily how he came by the same, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Power to summon persons declared to have had possession of such property within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate.

Clause 2.—If any person, charged with having or conveying any thing stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent, or servant, to convey the same for some other person, the Magistrate may cause every such other person, and also, if necessary, every former or pretended purchaser or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed (provided that such other person shall be alleged to have had possession of the same within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate), to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses upon oath touching the same; and if it appear to such Magistrate that any person so brought before him had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Penalty if such possession fraudulent.

Apprehension and punishment of reputed thieves, &c.

III. Any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, armed with any dangerous or offensive instrument whatsoever, with intent to commit any felonious act; any reputed thief found between sun-set and sun-rise, on board any vessel or boat, or lying or loitering in any bazar, street, road, yard, thoroughfare, or other place, who shall not give a satisfactory account of himself; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, having his face covered, or otherwise disguised, with intent to commit any felony; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, in any dwelling-house or other building whatsoever, without being able satisfactorily to account for his presence therein; and any person having in his possession, without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall be on such person), any implement of house-breaking—shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding three months; and any such person may be taken into custody by any Police Officer without a warrant.

Disturbing an assembly engaged in religious worship.

IV. Whoever, without lawful excuse, intentionally causes disturbance to any assembly or procession lawfully engaged in the performance of religious worship or religious ceremonies, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six months, or to both.

Penalty for carrying arms without authority.

V. Whoever, not being a soldier or sailor in the Army or Navy of the Queen or the East India Company, or a Police Officer, goes armed with any sword, spear, gun, or other offensive weapon, in any street, thoroughfare, or public place, unless by leave of the Magistrate, shall be liable to be disarmed by any Police Officer; and the weapon so seized shall be forfeited to the Government, unless redeemed by payment of a fine, at the discretion of the Magistrate, not exceeding ten Rupees.

Magistrate may make order of maintenance for wives and children.

VI. If any person, having sufficient means, neglects or refuses to maintain his wife or any legitimate or illegitimate child unable to maintain himself, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate, upon due proof thereof, to order such person to make a monthly allowance for the maintenance of his wife or such child as aforesaid, at such rate, not exceeding fifty Rupees in the whole, as to the Magistrate shall seem reasonable; and if such person shall wilfully neglect to comply with the said order, the Magistrate may, by warrant, direct the amount due to be levied in the manner in which fines may be levied, or may order him to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month. Provided always, that any such person shall be at liberty to apply to the Magistrate, from time to time, for a reduction of such monthly allowance, on proof of an alteration in the circumstances of himself, his wife, or child, justifying such reduction.

Disorderly conduct in houses of public entertainment.

VII. Whoever, being the keeper of any house or place licensed for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, knowingly permits drunkenness or other disorderly behaviour in such house or place, or knowingly suffers any gaming whatsoever therein, or who knowingly permits prostitutes, or persons of notoriously bad character, to meet or remain therein, or who wilfully harbours or conceals any soldier, seaman, or apprentice, knowing, or having reason to believe, such soldier, seaman, or apprentice to be a deserter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Penalty for harbouring and concealing deserters from merchant vessels.

VIII. Whoever in any place wilfully harbours or conceals any seaman or apprentice belonging to a merchant vessel, knowing, or having reason to believe, such seaman or apprentice to be a deserter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Penalty for owning or keeping, or being employed in, a gaming-house, &c.

IX. Whoever, being the owner or occupier, or having the use of any house, room, or place, keeps, or uses the same for the purpose of gaming being carried on therein; and whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house or room, knowingly and wilfully permits the same to be kept or used by any other person for the purpose aforesaid; and whoever has the care or management of, or in any manner assists in conducting, the business of any house, room, or place kept or used for the purpose aforesaid; and whoever advances or furnishes money for the purpose of gaming with persons frequenting such house, room, or place—shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Penalty for being found playing in a gaming-house.

X. Whoever is found in any such house, room, or place, playing or gaming with cards, dice, counters, money, or other instruments of gaming, or is found there present for the purpose of gaming, whether playing for any money, wager, stake, or otherwise, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month; and any person found in any common gaming-house during any gaming or playing therein, shall be presumed, until the contrary be proved, to have been there for the purpose of gaming.

Magistrate may grant warrants to Police Officers to enter a gaming-house for the purpose of search and seizure.

XI. If the Magistrate, upon information on oath, and after such enquiry as he may think necessary, has reason to believe that any house, room, or place is used as a common gaming-house, he may, by his warrant, give authority to any superior Officer of Police to enter, with such assistance as may be found necessary, by night or by day, and by force if necessary, any such house, room, or other place, and to take into custody all persons whom he finds therein, whether or not then actually gaming, and to seize all instruments of gaming, and all monies, and securities for money, and articles of value, reasonably suspected to have been used or intended to be used for the purpose of gaming, which are found therein, and to search all parts of the house, room, or place which he shall have so entered, when he has reason to believe that any instruments of gaming are concealed therein, and also the persons of those whom he so takes into custody, and to seize and take possession of all instruments of gaming found upon such search.

On conviction for keeping a gaming-house, instruments of gaming to be destroyed, &c.

XII. On conviction of any person for keeping any such common gaming-house, or being present therein for the purpose of gaming, all the instruments of gaming found therein shall be destroyed by order of the Magistrate, who may also order all or any of the securities for money and other articles seized, not being instruments of gaming, to be sold and converted into money, and the proceeds thereof, with all monies seized therein, to be forfeited, or, in his discretion, may order any part thereof to be returned to the persons appearing to have been severally thereunto entitled.

Portion of fine may be paid to informer.

XIII. The Magistrate may direct any portion, not exceeding one-fourth, of any fine which shall be levied under Sections IX and X of this Act, or any part of the monies, or proceeds of articles seized, and ordered to be forfeited under Section XII, to be paid to an informer.

Gambling in the streets.

XIV. A Police Officer may apprehend without warrant any person found gaming with cards, dice, counters, money, or other instruments of gaming, in any public street, place, or thoroughfare; and such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or to imprisonment with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month, and such instruments of gaming and money shall be forfeited.

Pawn-brokers and money-changers to report stolen property under a penalty for neglect.

XV. If any property, regarding which written or printed information shall be given by any Police Officer to any pawn-broker or dealer in second-hand property or money-changer, as having been stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently obtained, shall then be or thereafter come into the possession of, or be offered in pawn or for sale or change to such pawn-broker, dealer, or money-changer, he shall, without unnecessary delay, give information at the nearest Police Office, that certain property answering the description of the said property was offered to him, or is in his possession, and shall also state the name and address given by the party by whom the same was offered, or from whom the same was received, under a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees for each and every such neglect or offence; provided always that, in the case of wearing apparel or other articles which it may be difficult for such pawn-broker or dealer to trace out and identify, no fine shall be exigible in respect of not reporting such articles, unless it shall appear to the Magistrate that such articles had been knowingly concealed by such pawn-broker or dealer.

If stolen articles be altered or defaced by broker, after information of the theft, he shall be deemed a receiver of stolen goods.

XVI. If any pawn-broker or dealer in second-hand goods, or worker in gold or silver, after receiving information of the theft or the embezzling or the fraudulent disposal of any metals, goods, or articles of whatsoever description, melts, alters, defaces, or puts away the same, or causes the same to be melted, altered, defaced, or put away, without having previously received the permission of the Magistrate, and it shall be found that such metals, goods, or articles were stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently disposed of by the person from whom such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker received the same, or by any other person, then and in such case it shall be held that such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker knew that such metals, goods, or articles were stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently disposed of, and such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker shall be proceeded against according to law as a receiver of stolen goods, or as being a party to the fraud, and punished accordingly, and no other evidence of his guilt shall be necessary than evidence of such melting, altering, defacing, or putting away, after receiving information as aforesaid.

Manufacture or possession of Gunpowder.

XVII. Whoever manufactures Gunpowder or, without a license from the Magistrate, has in his possession, in any house, shop, warehouse, or other building, at any one time, a greater quantity of Gunpowder than ten pounds, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, and also to forfeit such Gunpowder so manufactured or possessed, together with the vessel or receptacle in which it may be contained.

Licenses by Magistrate for sale and deposit of Gunpowder, &c.

XVIII. The Magistrate may grant to any person a license for the sale or keeping in deposit of any quantity of Gunpowder not exceeding fifty pounds, on such conditions, and for such term, not exceeding one year, as shall be specified in the license; and any person who shall be guilty of a breach of any of such conditions, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees and to forfeit all Gunpowder so kept in deposit contrary thereto, and the vessels containing it, and also to forfeit his license.

Penalty for drunkenness, or riotous or indecent behaviour in public.

XIX. Whoever is found drunk and incapable of taking care of himself, or is guilty of any riotous or indecent behaviour in any street or thoroughfare, or in any place of public amusement or resort, and whoever is guilty of violent behaviour in any Police Office, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Penalty for destroying, &c. lamp-post, &c.

XX. Whoever destroys, injures, or disturbs any lamp-post, lamp-bracket, or lamp, or extinguishes any light therein, or abstracts or takes away any oil or other matter or thing therefrom, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or, in default thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Penalty for committing a nuisance in streets.

XXI. Whoever wilfully and indecently exposes his person, or commits a nuisance, by easing himself in or by the side of or near to any public street or thoroughfare or place, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees, or, in default thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Beggars.

XXII. Whoever in any public road, street, thoroughfare, or place, begs or applies for alms, or exposes or exhibits any sores, wounds, bodily ailment, or deformity, with the object of exciting charity or of obtaining alms; or whoever seeks for, or obtains alms, by means of any false statement or pretences, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month.

Penalty for the following offences in public streets, &c.

XXIII. Whoever, in any public street, road, thoroughfare, or place of public resort, commits any of the following offences, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees:—

Furious or negligent driving or riding.

1. Whoever drives or rides any animal, or drives any vehicle, in a manner so rash or negligent as to indicate a want of due regard for the safety of others.

Letting loose horses, ferocious dogs, &c.

2. Whoever negligently lets loose any horse, or suffers to be at large any ferocious dog without a muzzle, or sets on or urges any dog or other animal to attack, worry, or put in fear any person, horse, or other animal.

Ill-treating animals.

3. Whoever cruelly beats, abuses, or tortures any animal.

Lighting fires and discharging guns, fire-works, &c.

4. Whoever sets fire to, or burns, any straw or other matter, or lights any bonfire, or wantonly discharges any fire-arm or air-gun, or lets off, or throws any fire-work, or sends up any fire-balloon.

Indecent language.

5. Whoever uses any indecent, threatening, abusive, or insulting words, or behaves in a threatening or insulting manner, with the intent to provoke a breach of the peace, or whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned.

Depositing dirt on street, &c.

XXIV. Whoever deposits, or permits his servants to deposit, any dust, dirt, dung, ashes, garden, kitchen, or stable refuse, or filth of any kind, or any animal matter, or any broken glass or earthen-ware or other rubbish, in any street, or on any public quay, jetty, ghaut, or landing-place, except in such places and in such manner, and at such hours, as shall be fixed by the Magistrate, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees.

Allowing sewerage to flow on streets.

XXV. Whoever causes or allows the water of any sink or sewer, or any other offensive liquid matter belonging to him or being on his land, to run, drain, or be thrown or put upon any street, or causes or allows any offensive matter from any sewer or privy to run, drain, or be thrown into a surface drain in any street, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees.

Future obstructions in streets or roads.

XXVI. Whoever builds any wall, or erects or sets up any fence, rail, post, or other obstruction or encroachment, in any public street or road, or in or over any open drain, sewer, or aqueduct along the side of any such street or road after the passing of this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees; and

Power to remove.

the Magistrate shall have power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person erecting the same, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Taking up pavements.

XXVII. Whoever displaces, takes up, or makes any alteration in the pavement, or other materials, or in the fences or posts of any public street, without the consent in writing of the Magistrate, or without other lawful authority, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Names of streets.

XXVIII. The Magistrate may, from time to time, cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, building, wall, or place at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every street, the name by which such street is to be known; and Numbers on houses.

may, from time to time, fix a number in a conspicuous place on the outer side of any house or building, or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof fronting the street; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such name or number, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Future projections from houses to be removed.

XXIX. The Magistrate may give notice in writing to the owner or occupier of any house or building to remove or alter any projection, encroachment, or obstruction, which after the passing of this Act shall be erected or placed against or in front of such house or building, if the same overhangs, or juts into, or in any way projects or encroaches upon, or is an obstruction to the safe and convenient passage along any public street, or obstructs or projects, or encroaches into or upon any uncovered aqueduct, drain, or sewer in such street, and such owner or occupier shall, within fourteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the Magistrate; and in default thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees; and the Magistrate in such case may remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction; and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the owner or occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Houses projecting beyond line of street when taken down to be set back.

XXX. When any house or building, any part of which projects beyond the regular line of a public street, or beyond the front of the house or building on either side thereof, has been taken down in order to be re-built or altered, the Magistrate may require the same to be set back to or towards the line of the street or the line of the adjoining houses or buildings. Provided always, that the Magistrate shall make full compensation to the owner of any such house or building for any damage he may thereby sustain; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner provided by the laws in force for the settlement of disputes respecting compensation for lands taken for public purposes.

Proviso.

Power to trim hedges and trees bordering roads.

XXXI. The Magistrate may give notice to the owner or occupier of any land, to cut and trim any hedges and trees, overhanging any public road or street, so as to obstruct the passage or to cause damage thereto; and in the event of such notice not being complied with within eight days from the date thereof, the Magistrate may cause the said hedges and trees to be cut and trimmed in the manner required; and the expense incurred by the Magistrate in respect thereof shall be paid by the owners, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Houses in a ruinous and dangerous state.

XXXII. If in any street, any house, building, or wall, or any thing affixed thereon, be deemed by the Magistrate to be in a ruinous state or likely to fall, or in any way dangerous to the inhabitants of such house or building, or to the neighbouring houses or buildings, or the occupiers thereof, or to passengers, he may cause notice in writing to be given to the owner, if he be known and resident within the limits of his jurisdiction, and may also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the said premises, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such house, building, wall, or thing affixed thereon, as the case shall require, and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure the same within three days after such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Magistrate may cause all or so much of such house, building, wall, or thing, as he shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured; and all the expenses shall be paid by the owner of the premises, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Sale of materials of ruinous houses.

XXXIII. If any such house, building, or wall, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the Magistrate may sell the materials thereof or of so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred, and shall restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of such house, building, or wall on demand. The Magistrate, although he sell such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale, as by this Act are given to him for compelling the payment of the whole of he said expenses.

Penalty on occupier of a house not removing filth.

XXXIV. Whoever, being the occupier of a house in or near any street, keeps or allows to be kept for more than twenty-four hours, or otherwise than in some proper receptacle, any dirt, dung, bones, ashes, night-soil, filth, or any noxious or offensive matter, in or upon the roof of such house, or in any out-house, yard, or ground attached to and occupied with such house, or suffers such receptacle to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom, and to cleanse and purify the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Filthy houses, &c.

XXXV. Whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house, building, or land, in or near any street, whether tenantable or otherwise, suffers the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with rank and noisome vegetation, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, and to a fine not exceeding five Rupees for every day after conviction for such offence during which the offence is continued.

Penalty for keeping sheep-pen, &c. in a filthy state.

XXXVI. Whoever, being the owner or keeper of any cattle, sheep, or pigs, suffers the stall, pen, or place in which they are kept, in or near any street, to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Licensing of public necessaries.

XXXVII. The Magistrate may license such necessaries for public accommodation as he, from time to time, may think proper; and whoever keeps any public necessary without such license, or, having a license for a public necessary, suffers the same to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means for cleansing the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees; and the license may be cancelled.

Penalty for keeping private drain, &c. in improper state.

XXXVIII. Whoever, being the owner of any private drain, privy, or cesspool, neglects or refuses, after warning from the Magistrate, to keep the same in a proper state, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Fouling water by—

Bathing

Washing

Throwing rubbish, &c.

XXXIX. Whoever bathes in any public tank, the water of which shall have been declared by the Magistrate to be appropriated to the domestic use of the inhabitants; or washes or causes to be washed therein any horse, dog, or other animal, or any wool, cloth, or wearing apparel, or any utensils for cooking or other purposes, or leather, or the skin of any animal, or other foul or offensive thing; or throws, puts, or casts, or causes to enter therein, any animal, or any gravel, stone, dust, or rubbish, or any dirt, filth, or other noisome or offensive matter or thing; or causes or suffers to run, drain, or be brought thereunto, the water of any sink, sewer, drain, engine, or boiler, or any other unwholesome or offensive liquid matter or thing belonging to him or flowing from any house or building or from any ground occupied by him; or does any thing whatsoever whereby any such water shall be in any degree fouled or corrupted — shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Allowing drains, &c. to flow.

Power to fill up unwholesome tanks on private premises.

XL. When any private tank or low marshy ground, or any waste or stagnant water, being within any private enclosure, appears to the Magistrate to be injurious to health, or to be offensive to the neighbourhood, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to require, by notice in writing, the owner of the said premises to cleanse or fill up such tank or marshy ground, or to drain off or remove such stagnant water; and if he shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requisition during eight days from the service thereof, the Magistrate, his Officers, and workmen, may enter into the said premises and do all necessary acts for all or any of the purposes aforesaid as he shall think fit; and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such premises, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power to drain off and cleanse stagnant pools in open places.

XLI. The Magistrate may, from time to time, as he shall see fit, drain off into any sewers, and cleanse and fill up, or otherwise abate, any stagnant pool, ditch, tank, pond, or other receptacle of water (the same not being within any private enclosure), which shall appear to him to be useless or unnecessary, or likely to prove injurious to the health of the inhabitants, whether the same be the private property of any person or otherwise.

Penalty for not lighting deposits of building materials or excavations.

XLII. No person intending to build, or take down, alter, or repair any building, shall deposit any building materials, or make a hole in any street, without the permission of the Magistrate; and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed until the materials are removed, or the hole is filled up or otherwise made secure; and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night; and whoever deposits materials or makes a hole without such permission, or fails to fence or enclose and light such materials or hole, or does not remove such materials or fill up such hole when the permission has been withdrawn, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, and a further fine not exceeding fifty Rupees for every day while the offence is continued after twenty-four hours' notice from the Magistrate.

Dangerous places near streets to be repaired or enclosed.

XLIII. If any building, tank, well, or hole, or other place, be, for want of sufficient repair, protection, or enclosure, dangerous to passengers, the Magistrate shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or enclosed, so as to prevent danger therefrom; and the expenses of such repair, protection, or enclosure shall be paid by the owner of the property so repaired, protected, or enclosed, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

XLIV. No place, which is not used as a slaughter-house at the time of the passing of this Act, shall be so used without a license in writing from the Magistrate; and whoever uses as a slaughter-house any place not so used at the time of the passing of this Act, without such license, shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a fine, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the conviction for such offence, during which the said offence is continued.

Penalty for establishing a slaughter-house without license, after passing of Act.

XLV. Every owner or occupier of any slaughter-house, or of any market or shop for the sale of butcher's meat, fish, or vegetables, shall keep the same in a cleanly and proper state, and shall admit at all reasonable hours any person authorized by the Magistrate to enter and inspect the same; and the owner or occupier of any such slaughter-house, market, or shop, which shall not be kept in a cleanly and proper state, shall be liable for every default to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Penalty for keeping slaughter-house in improper state.

XLVI. Whoever keeps in any market, shop, stall, or place used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, fish, or vegetables, or exposes or allows to be exposed for sale in any other place or way, any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetable which is unfit for the food of man, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Keeping unwholesome food in market, or in shops.

XLVII. Within the limits which shall be prescribed for the purposes of this Section by the Local Government, no place shall be newly used, except under license from the Magistrate, for any of the following purposes, namely, for melting tallow—or for boiling offal or blood—or as a soap house—oil-boiling house—dyeing house—tannery—brick pottery or lime kiln—sago manufactory or other manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise—or as a yard or depôt for hay, straw, wood, or coal; and whoever, without a license, uses any such place for such purpose, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, and a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees for every day after the conviction for such offence during which the said offence is continued.

Penalty for establishing offensive and dangerous trades within certain limits.

XLVIII. No burial or burning ground, whether public or private, shall be made or formed after the passing of this Act, otherwise than by or under the authority of the Local Government, without a license from the Magistrate; and whoever shall bury or burn, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpse in any burial or burning ground, made or formed without such license, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

No burial or burning place hereafter to be constructed without leave of Magistrate.

XLIX. If, upon the evidence of competent persons, it shall appear to the Magistrate that any burial or burning ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, and also that a convenient place for interment or burning, as the case may be, exists within a convenient distance and is available, the Magistrate, with the sanction of the Local Government previously obtained, may, by notification to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the ground, appoint a time, not being less than two months, for the closing of such burial or burning ground; and whoever, after the time so appointed, buries or burns, or cause or permits to be buried or burned, any corpse therein, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Magistrate may order certain burial or burning places to be closed.

Penalty for burying or burning in such places.

L. It shall be lawful for the Magistrate, by order in writing to be affixed at the principal Police Stations, and also to be published in some public newspaper, to appoint from time to time certain periods within which any dogs found straying in the streets or beyond the enclosures of the houses of the owners of such dogs, may be destroyed.

Stray dogs to be killed at certain appointed periods.

LI. Any Police Officer may arrest, without a warrant, any person committing in his view any offence against this Act, if the name and address of such person be unknown to him.

Police Officer may arrest without warrant on view of offence.

LII. Any Police Officer may take into custody, without warrant, any person who is charged with committing an aggravated assault, in every case in which he shall have good reason to believe that such assault has been committed, although not in his view, and that, by reason of the recent commission of the offence, a warrant could not have been obtained for the apprehension of the offender.

Police Officer may take into custody, without warrant, persons charged with aggravated assault recently committed.

LIII. Every person taken into custody without a warrant by a Police Officer under this Act, shall be taken to the nearest Police Office, in order that such person may be detained until he can be brought before the Magistrate, or until he shall enter into recognizances, with or without sureties, for his appearance before the Magistrate.

Persons taken into custody by a Police Officer without warrant may be detained in Police Office until brought before a Magistrate or bailed.

LIV. Upon any information or complaint laid before the Magistrate of any offence committed against this Act, the Magistrate may summon the person charged to appear at a time to be mentioned in the summons, or if he see sufficient cause for so doing, may issue a warrant for his apprehension. The provisions of the General Regulations of the Bengal Code and Acts of the Government of India for the time being in force, relative to the issue and service of summonses and warrants, to the summons, attendance, and examination of witnesses, and generally to the trial of cases, to the recovery of fines and penalties, and to appeals against orders and sentences passed by a Magistrate, shall be applicable to all cases under this Act. Provided that, in all cases of offences not of a criminal nature, if, after due service of summons, the person charged shall not appear in pursuance thereof, the Magistrate, at his discretion, may hear and determine the case in his absence. Provided also, that the prosecution for any offence not of a criminal nature shall be commenced within three months from the commission of the offence and not otherwise.

Procedure on information or complaint laid before the Magistrate of an offence against this Act.

LV. In all cases where any costs or expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount of the same shall be ascertained and determined by the Magistrate, and the Magistrate may, for that purpose, summon the parties and examine them and the witnesses on their behalf; and such amount, together with the costs of the enquiry, shall be recoverable in the same manner as fines may be recovered.

Recovery of costs or expenses.

LVI. Any Joint Magistrate or Deputy Magistrate duly authorized to exercise the powers of a Magistrate may, in cases referred to him by the Magistrate, exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate by this Act.

Jurisdiction.

LVII. All fines imposed and levied under this Act shall be applied in aid of any fund applicable to Police and Conservancy purposes in the said Suburbs or Station, and all costs and expenses which the Magistrate is hereby authorized to incur, shall be paid from and repaid to such fund; or, if there be no such fund, all such fines as aforesaid shall be applied by the Magistrate to the cleansing or otherwise improving of the said Suburbs or Station.

Application of fines.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2*nd*. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4*th*. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5*th*. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication; or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

Banqueting Hall,

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 6th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 6th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 10th of November next:—

A Bill to make better provision for the order and good government of the Suburbs of Calcutta and of the Station of Howrah.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Acts have been passed for regulating the Police, and for the Conservancy and improvement, of the Town of Calcutta and of the other Presidency Towns; and whereas large portions of the Suburbs of the said Town of Calcutta and of the Station of Howrah are not less populous than parts of the said Town, and it will conduce to the order and good government of the said Suburbs and Station that some of the provisions of the said Acts, with certain necessary modifications, should be extended to the said Suburbs and Station: It is enacted as follows:—

Cases under this Act, by whom to be tried.

I. Whoever is charged with having committed any of the offences mentioned in this Act within the limits of the said Suburbs or Station, as described in the Schedule hereunto annexed, may be tried for any such offence by the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the offence is alleged to have been committed, and on conviction, may be sentenced by such Magistrate to the punishment hereinafter prescribed for the offence.

Fraudulent possession of stolen property.

II. Clause 1.—Whoever has in his possession, or conveys in any manner, any thing which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall, if he fail to account satisfactorily how he came by the same, be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Power to summon persons declared to have had possession of such property within the jurisdiction of the Magistrate.

Clause 2.—If any person, charged with having or conveying any thing stolen or fraudulently obtained, shall declare that he received the same from some other person, or that he was employed as a carrier, agent, or servant, to convey the same for some other person, the Magistrate may cause every such other person, and also, if necessary, every former or pretended purchaser or other person through whose possession the same shall have passed (provided that such other person shall be alleged to have had possession of the same within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate), to be brought before him and examined, and shall examine witnesses upon oath touching the same; and if it appear to such Magistrate that any person so brought before him had possession of such thing, and had reasonable cause to believe the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained, such person shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Penalty if such possession fraudulent.

Apprehension and punishment of reputed thieves, &c.

III. Any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, armed with any dangerous or offensive instrument whatsoever, with intent to commit any felonious act; any reputed thief found between sun-set and sun-rise, on board any vessel or boat, or lying or loitering in any bazar, street, road, yard, thoroughfare, or other place, who shall not give a satisfactory account of himself; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, having his face covered, or otherwise disguised, with intent to commit any felony; any person found between sun-set and sun-rise, in any dwelling-house or other building whatsoever, without being able satisfactorily to account for his presence therein; and any person having in his possession, without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall be on such person), any implement of house-breaking—shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding three months; and any such person may be taken into custody by any Police Officer without a warrant.

Disturbing an assembly engaged in religious worship.

IV. Whoever, without lawful excuse, intentionally causes disturbance to any assembly or procession lawfully engaged in the performance of religious worship or religious ceremonies, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six months, or to both.

Penalty for carrying arms without authority.

V. Whoever, not being a soldier or sailor in the Army or Navy of the Queen or the East India Company, or a Police Officer, goes armed with any sword, spear, gun, or other offensive weapon, in any street, thoroughfare, or public place, unless by leave of the Magistrate, shall be liable to be disarmed by any Police Officer; and the weapon so seized shall be forfeited to the Government, unless redeemed by payment of a fine, at the discretion of the Magistrate, not exceeding ten Rupees.

Magistrate may make order of maintenance for wives and children.

VI. If any person, having sufficient means, neglects or refuses to maintain his wife or any legitimate or illegitimate child unable to maintain himself, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate, upon due proof thereof, to order such person to make a monthly allowance for the maintenance of his wife or such child as aforesaid, at such rate, not exceeding fifty Rupees in the whole, as to the Magistrate shall seem reasonable; and if such person shall wilfully neglect to comply with the said order, the Magistrate may, by warrant, direct the amount due to be levied in the manner in which fines may be levied, or may order him to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month. Provided always, that any such person shall be at liberty to apply to the Magistrate, from time to time, for a reduction of such monthly allowance, on proof of an alteration in the circumstances of himself, his wife, or child, justifying such reduction.

Disorderly conduct in houses of public entertainment.

VII. Whoever, being the keeper of any house or place licensed for the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors, knowingly permits drunkenness or other disorderly behaviour in such house or place, or knowingly suffers any gaming whatsoever therein, or who knowingly permits prostitutes, or persons of notoriously bad character, to meet or remain therein, or who wilfully harbours or conceals any soldier, seaman, or apprentice, knowing, or having reason to believe, such soldier, seaman, or apprentice to be a deserter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Penalty for harbouring and concealing deserters from merchant vessels.

VIII. Whoever in any place wilfully harbours or conceals any seaman or apprentice belonging to a merchant vessel, knowing, or having reason to believe, such seaman or apprentice to be a deserter, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Penalty for owning or keeping, or being employed in, a gaming-house, &c.

IX. Whoever, being the owner or occupier, or having the use of any house, room, or place, keeps, or uses the same for the purpose of gaming being carried on therein; and whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house or room, knowingly and wilfully permits the same to be kept or used by any other person for the purpose aforesaid; and whoever has the care or management of, or in any manner assists in conducting, the business of any house, room, or place kept or used for the purpose aforesaid; and whoever advances or furnishes money for the purpose of gaming with persons frequenting such house, room, or place—shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding three months.

Penalty for being found in gaming.

X. Whoever is found in any such house, room, or place, playing or gaming with cards, dice, counters, money, or other instruments of gaming, or is found present for the purpose of gaming, whether playing for any money, wager, stake, or otherwise, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month; and any person found in any common gaming-house during any gaming or playing therein, shall be presumed, until the contrary be proved, to have been there for the purpose of gaming.

Magistrate warrants to Police to enter a house for the purpose of search and

XI. If the Magistrate, upon information on oath, and after such enquiry as he may think necessary, has reason to believe that any house, room, or place is used as a common gaming-house, he may, by his warrant, give authority to any superior Officer of Police to enter, with such assistance as may be found necessary, by night or by day, and by force if necessary, any such house, room, or other place, and to take into custody all persons whom he finds therein, whether or not then actually gaming, and to seize all instruments of gaming, and all monies, and securities for money, and articles of value, reasonably suspected to have been used or intended to be used for the purpose of gaming, which are found therein, and to search all parts of the house, room, or place which he shall have so entered, when he has reason to believe that any instruments of gaming are concealed therein, and also the persons of those whom he so takes into custody, and to seize and take possession of all instruments of gaming found upon such search.

On conviction for keeping a gaming-house, instruments of gaming to be destroyed, &c.

XII. On conviction of any person for keeping any such common gaming-house, or being present therein for the purpose of gaming, all the instruments of gaming found therein shall be destroyed by order of the Magistrate, who may also order all or any of the securities for money and other articles seized, not being instruments of gaming, to be sold and converted into money, and the proceeds thereof, with all monies seized therein, to be forfeited, or, in his discretion, may order any part thereof to be returned to the persons appearing to have been severally thereunto entitled.

Portion of fine may be paid to informer.

XIII. The Magistrate may direct any portion, not exceeding one-fourth, of any fine which shall be levied under Sections IX and X of this Act, or any part of the monies or proceeds of articles seized, and ordered to be forfeited under Section XII, to be paid to an informer.

Gambling in the streets.

XIV. A Police Officer may apprehend without warrant any person found gaming with cards, dice, counters, money, or other instruments of gaming, in any public street, place, or thoroughfare; and such person shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month, and such instruments of gaming and money shall be forfeited.

Pawn-brokers and money-changers to report stolen property under a penalty for neglect.

XV. If any property, regarding which written or printed information shall be given by any Police Officer to any pawn-broker or dealer in second-hand property or money-changer, as having been stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently obtained, shall then be or thereafter come into the possession of, or be offered in pawn or for sale or change to such pawn-broker, dealer, or money-changer, he shall, without unnecessary delay, give information at the nearest Police Office, that certain property answering the description of the said property was offered to him, or is in his possession, and shall also state the name and address given by the party by whom the same was offered, or from whom the same was received, under a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees for each and every such neglect or offence; provided always that, in the case of wearing apparel or other articles which it may be difficult for such pawn-broker or dealer to trace out and identify, no fine shall be exigible in respect of not reporting such articles, unless it shall appear to the Magistrate that such articles had been knowingly concealed by such pawn-broker or dealer.

If stolen articles be altered or defaced by broker, after information of the theft, he shall be deemed a receiver of stolen goods.

XVI. If any pawn-broker or dealer in second-hand goods, or worker in gold or silver, after receiving information of the theft or the embezzling or the fraudulent disposal of any metals, goods, or articles of whatsoever description, melts, alters, defaces, or puts away the same, or causes the same to be melted, altered, defaced, or put away, without having previously received the permission of the Magistrate, and it shall be found that such metals, goods, or articles were stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently disposed of by the person from whom such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker received the same, or by any other person, then and in such case it shall be held that such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker knew that such metals, goods, or articles were stolen, embezzled, or fraudulently disposed of, and such pawn-broker, dealer, or worker shall be proceeded against according to law as a receiver of stolen goods, or as being a party to the fraud, and punished accordingly, and no other evidence of his guilt shall be necessary than evidence of such melting, altering, defacing, or putting away, after receiving information as aforesaid.

Manufacture or possession of Gunpowder.

XVII. Whoever manufactures Gunpowder or, without a license from the Magistrate, has in his possession, in any house, shop, warehouse, or other building, at any one time, a greater quantity of Gunpowder than ten pounds, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, and also to forfeit such Gunpowder so manufactured or possessed, together with the vessel or receptacle in which it may be contained.

Licenses by Magistrate for sale and deposit of Gunpowder, &c.

XVIII. The Magistrate may grant to any person a license for the sale or keeping in deposit of any quantity of Gunpowder not exceeding fifty pounds, on such conditions, and for such term, not exceeding one year, as shall be specified in the license; and any person who shall be guilty of a breach of any of such conditions, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees and to forfeit all Gunpowder so kept in deposit contrary thereto, and the vessels containing it, and also to forfeit his license.

Penalty for drunkenness, or riotous or indecent behaviour in public.

XIX. Whoever is found drunk and incapable of taking care of himself, or is guilty of any riotous or indecent behaviour in any street or thoroughfare, or in any place of public amusement or resort, and whoever is guilty of violent behaviour in any Police Office, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Penalty for destroying, &c. lamp-post, &c.

XX. Whoever destroys, injures, or disturbs any lamp-post, lamp-bracket, or lamp, or extinguishes any light therein, or abstracts or takes away any oil or other matter or thing therefrom, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees, or, in default thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Penalty for committing a nuisance in streets.

XXI. Whoever wilfully and indecently exposes his person, or commits a nuisance, by easing himself in or by the side of or near to any public street or thoroughfare or place, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees, or, in default thereof, to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding fourteen days.

Beggars.

XXII. Whoever in any public road, street, thoroughfare, or place, begs or applies for alms, or exposes or exhibits any sores, wounds, bodily ailment, or deformity, with the object of exciting charity or of obtaining alms; or whoever seeks for, or obtains alms, by means of any false statement or pretences, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding one month.

Penalty for the following offences in public streets, &c.

XXIII. Whoever, in any public street, road, thoroughfare, or place of public resort, commits any of the following offences, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees:—

Furious or negligent driving or riding.

1. Whoever drives or rides any animal, or drives any vehicle, in a manner so rash or negligent as to indicate a want of due regard for the safety of others.

Letting loose horses, ferocious dogs, &c.

2. Whoever negligently lets loose any horse, or suffers to be at large any ferocious dog without a muzzle, or sets on or urges any dog or other animal to attack, worry, or put in fear any person, horse, or other animal.

Ill-treating animals.

3. Whoever cruelly beats, abuses, or tortures any animal.

Lighting fires and discharging guns, fire-works, &c.

4. Whoever sets fire to, or burns, any straw or other matter, or lights any bonfire, or wantonly discharges any fire-arm or air-gun, or lets off, or throws any fire-work, or sends up any fire-balloon.

Indecent language.

5. Whoever uses any indecent, threatening, abusive, or insulting words, or behaves in a threatening or insulting manner, with the intent to provoke a breach of the peace, or whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned.

Depositing dirt on street, &c.

XXIV. Whoever deposits, or permits his servants to deposit, any dust, dirt, dung, ashes, garden, kitchen, or stable refuse, or filth of any kind, or any animal matter, or any broken glass or earthen ware or other rubbish, in any street, or on any public quay, jetty, ghaut, or landing-place, except in such places and in such manner, and at such hours, as shall be fixed by the Magistrate, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees.

Allowing sewerage to flow on streets.

XXV. Whoever causes or allows the water of any sink or sewer, or any other offensive liquid matter belonging to him or being on his land, to run, drain, or be thrown or put upon any street, or causes or allows any offensive matter from any sewer or privy to run, drain, or be thrown into a surface drain in any street, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten Rupees.

Future obstructions in streets or roads.

XXVI. Whoever builds any wall, or erects or sets up any fence, rail, post, or other obstruction or encroachment, in any public street or road, or in or over any open drain, sewer, or aqueduct along the side of any such street or road after the passing of this Act, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees; and

Power to remove.

the Magistrate shall have power to remove any such obstruction or encroachment, and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the person erecting the same, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Taking up pavements.

XXVII. Whoever displaces, takes up, or makes any alteration in the pavement, or other materials, or in the fences or posts of any public street, without the consent in writing of the Magistrate, or without other lawful authority, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Names of streets.

XXVIII. The Magistrate may, from time to time, cause to be put up or painted on a conspicuous part of some house, building, wall, or place at or near each end, corner, or entrance of every street, the name by which such street is to be known; and Numbers on houses.

may, from time to time, fix a number in a conspicuous place on the outer side of any house or building, or at the entrance of the enclosure thereof fronting the street; and whoever destroys, pulls down, or defaces any such name or number, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Future projections from houses to be removed.

XXIX. The Magistrate may give notice in writing to the owner or occupier of any house or building to remove or alter any projection, encroachment, or obstruction, which after the passing of this Act shall be erected or placed against or in front of such house or building, if the same overhangs, or juts into, or in any way projects or encroaches upon, or is an obstruction to the safe and convenient passage along any public street, or obstructs or projects, or encroaches into or upon any uncovered aqueduct, drain, or sewer in such street, and such owner or occupier shall, within fourteen days after the service of such notice upon him, remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction, or alter the same in such manner as shall have been directed by the Magistrate; and in default thereof, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees; and the Magistrate in such case may remove such projection, encroachment, or obstruction; and the expense of such removal shall be paid by the owner or occupier so making default, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Houses projecting beyond line of street when taken down to be set back.

XXX. When any house or building, any part of which projects beyond the regular line of a public street, or beyond the front of the house or building on either side thereof, has been taken down in order to be re-built or altered, the Magistrate may require the same to be set back to or towards the line of the street or the line of the adjoining houses or buildings. Provided always, that the Magistrate shall make full compensation to the owner of any such house or building for any damage he may thereby sustain; and if any dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be settled in the manner provided by the laws in force for the settlement of disputes respecting compensation for lands taken for public purposes.

Proviso.

Power to trim hedges and trees bordering roads.

XXXI. The Magistrate may give notice to the owner or occupier of any land, to cut and trim any hedges and trees, overhanging any public road or street, so as to obstruct the passage or to cause damage thereto; and in the event of such notice not being complied with within eight days from the date thereof, the Magistrate may cause the said hedges and trees to be cut and trimmed in the manner required; and the expense incurred by the Magistrate in respect thereof shall be paid by the owners, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Houses in a ruinous and dangerous state.

XXXII. If in any street, any house, building, or wall, or any thing affixed thereon, be deemed by the Magistrate to be in a ruinous state or likely to fall, or in any way dangerous to the inhabitants of such house or building, or to the neighbouring houses or buildings, or the occupiers thereof, or to passengers, he may cause notice in writing to be given to the owner, if he be known and resident within the limits of his jurisdiction, and may also cause such notice to be put on the door or other conspicuous part of the said premises, or otherwise to be given to the occupier thereof (if any), requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure, or repair such house, building, wall, or thing affixed thereon, as the case shall require; and if such owner or occupier do not begin to repair, take down, or secure the same within three days after such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Magistrate may cause all or so much of such house, building, wall, or thing, as he shall think necessary, to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured; and all the expenses shall be paid by the owner of the premises, and shall be recoverable from him as hereinafter provided.

Sale of materials of ruinous houses.

XXXIII. If any such house, building, or wall, or any part of the same, be pulled down by virtue of the powers aforesaid, the Magistrate may sell the materials thereof or of so much of the same as shall be taken down, and apply the proceeds of such sale in payment of the expenses incurred, and shall restore any overplus arising from such sale to the owner of such house, building, or wall on demand. The Magistrate, although he sell such materials for the purposes aforesaid, shall have the same remedies for compelling the payment of so much of the said expenses as may remain due after the application of the proceeds of such sale, as by this Act are given to him for compelling the payment of the whole of the said expenses.

Penalty on occupier of a house not removing filth.

XXXIV. Whoever, being the occupier of a house in or near any street, keeps or allows to be kept for more than twenty-four hours, or otherwise than in some proper receptacle, any dirt, dung, bones, ashes, night-soil, filth, or any noxious or offensive matter, in or upon the roof of such house, or in any out-house, yard, or ground attached to and occupied with such house, or suffers such receptacle to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom, and to cleanse and purify the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Filthy houses, &c.

XXXV. Whoever, being the owner or occupier of any house, building, or land, in or near any street, whether tenantable or otherwise, suffers the same to be in a filthy and unwholesome state, or overgrown with rank and noisome vegetation, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, and to a fine not exceeding five Rupees for every day after conviction for such offence during which the offence is continued.

Penalty for keeping sheep pen, &c. in a filthy state.

XXXVI. Whoever, being the owner or keeper of any cattle, sheep, or pigs, suffers the stall, pen, or place in which they are kept, in or near any street, to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means to remove the filth therefrom, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Licensing of public necessaries.

XXXVII. The Magistrate may license such necessaries for public accommodation as he, from time to time, may think proper; and whoever keeps any public necessary without such license, or, having a license for a public necessary, suffers the same to be in a filthy or noxious state, or neglects to employ proper means for cleansing the same, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees; and the license may be cancelled.

Penalty for keeping private drain, &c. in improper state.

XXXVIII. Whoever, being the owner of any private drain, privy, or cesspool, neglects or refuses, after warning from the Magistrate, to keep the same in a proper state, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Fouling water by—

Bathing

Washing

Throwing rubbish, &c.

XXXIX. Whoever bathes in any public tank, the water of which shall have been declared by the Magistrate to be appropriated to the domestic use of the inhabitants; or washes or causes to be washed therein any horse, dog, or other animal, or any wool, cloth, or wearing apparel, or any utensils for cooking or other purposes, or leather, or the skin of any animal, or other foul or offensive thing; or throws, puts, or casts, or causes to enter therein, any animal, or any gravel, stone, dust, or rubbish, or any dirt, filth, or other noisome or offensive matter or thing; or causes or suffers to run, drain, or be brought thereunto, the water of any sink, sewer, drain, engine, or boiler, or any other unwholesome or offensive liquid matter or thing belonging to him or flowing from any house or building or from any ground occupied by him; or does any thing whatsoever whereby any such water shall be in any degree fouled or corrupted —shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees.

Allowing drains, &c. to flow.

Power to fill up unwholesome tanks on private premises.

XL. When any private tank or low marshy ground, or any waste or stagnant water, being within any private enclosure, appears to the Magistrate to be injurious to health or to be offensive to the neighbourhood, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate to require, by notice in writing, the owner of the said premises to cleanse or fill up such tank or marshy ground, or to drain off or remove such stagnant water; and if he shall refuse or neglect to comply with such requisition during eight days from the service thereof, the Magistrate, his Officers, and workmen, may enter into the said premises and do all necessary acts for all or any of the purposes aforesaid as he shall think fit; and the expense incurred thereby shall be paid by the owner of such premises, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

Power to drain off and cleanse stagnant pools in open places.

XLI. The Magistrate may, from time to time, as he shall see fit, drain off into any sewers, and cleanse and fill up, or otherwise abate, any stagnant pool, ditch, tank, pond, or other receptacle of water (the same not being within any private enclosure), which shall appear to him to be useless or unnecessary, or likely to prove injurious to the health of the inhabitants, whether the same be the private property of any person or otherwise.

Penalty for not lighting deposits of building materials or excavations.

XLII. No person intending to build, or take down, alter, or repair any building, shall deposit any building materials, or make a hole in any street, without the permission of the Magistrate; and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such materials or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed until the materials are removed, or the hole is filled up or otherwise made secure; and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night; and whoever deposits materials or makes a hole without such permission, or fails to fence or enclose and light such materials or hole, or does not remove such materials or fill up such hole when the permission has been withdrawn, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees, and a further fine not exceeding fifty Rupees for every day while the offence is continued after twenty-four hours' notice from the Magistrate.

Dangerous places near streets to be repaired or enclosed.

XLIII. If any building, tank, well, or hole, or other place, be, for want of sufficient repair, protection, or enclosure, dangerous to passengers, the Magistrate shall cause the same to be repaired, protected, or enclosed, so as to prevent danger therefrom; and the expenses of such repair, protection, or enclosure shall be paid by the owner of the property so repaired, protected, or enclosed, and shall be recoverable as hereinafter provided.

XLIV. No place, which is not used as a slaughter-house at the time of the passing of this Act, shall be so used without a license in writing from the Magistrate; and whoever uses as a slaughter-house any place not so used at the time of the passing of this Act, without such license, shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding one hundred Rupees, and a fine, not exceeding fifty Rupees, for every day after the conviction for such offence during which the said offence is continued.

Penalty for establishing a slaughter-house without license, after passing of Act.

XLV. Every owner or occupier of any slaughter-house, or of any market or shop for the sale of butcher's meat, fish, or vegetables, shall keep the same in a cleanly and proper state, and shall admit at all reasonable hours any person authorized by the Magistrate to enter and inspect the same; and the owner or occupier of any such slaughter-house, market, or shop, which shall not be kept in a cleanly and proper state, shall be liable for every default to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees.

Penalty for keeping slaughter-house in improper state.

XLVI. Whoever keeps in any market, shop, stall, or place used for the sale of butcher's meat, poultry, fish, or vegetables, or exposes or allows to be exposed for sale in any other place or way, any animal, carcase, meat, poultry, game, flesh, fish, or vegetable which is unfit for the food of man, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Keeping unwholesome food in market, or in shops.

XLVII. Within the limits which shall be prescribed for the purposes of this Section by the Local Government, no place shall be newly used, except under license from the Magistrate, for any of the following purposes, namely, for melting tallow—or for boiling offal or blood—or as a soap house—oil-boiling house—dyeing house—tannery—brick pottery or lime kiln—sago manufactory or other manufactory or place of business from which offensive or unwholesome smells arise—or as a yard or depôt for hay, straw, wood, or coal; and whoever, without a license, uses any such place for such purpose, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, and a fine not exceeding fifty Rupees for every day after the conviction for such offence during which the said offence is continued.

Penalty for establishing offensive and dangerous trades within certain limits.

XLVIII. No burial or burning ground, whether public or private, shall be made or formed after the passing of this Act, otherwise than by or under the authority of the Local Government, without a license from the Magistrate; and whoever shall bury or burn, or cause, permit, or suffer to be buried or burned, any corpse in any burial or burning ground, made or formed without such license, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

No burial or burning place henceforth to be constructed without leave of Magistrate.

XLIX. If, upon the evidence of competent persons, it shall appear to the Magistrate that any burial or burning ground is in such a state as to be dangerous to the health of persons living in the neighbourhood thereof, and also that a convenient place for interment or burning, as the case may be, exists within a convenient distance and is available, the Magistrate, with the sanction of the Local Government previously obtained, may, by notification to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the ground, appoint a time, not being less than two months, for the closing of such burial or burning ground; and whoever, after the time so appointed, buries or burns, or causes or permits to be buried or burned, any corpse therein, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred Rupees.

Magistrate may order certain burial or burning places to be closed.

Penalty for burying or burning in such places.

L. It shall be lawful for the Magistrate, by order in writing to be affixed at the principal Police Stations, and also to be published in some public newspaper, to appoint from time to time certain periods within which any dogs found straying in the streets or beyond the enclosures of the houses of the owners of such dogs, may be destroyed.

Stray dogs to be killed at certain appointed periods.

LI. Any Police Officer may arrest, without a warrant, any person committing in his view any offence against this Act, if the name and address of such person be unknown to him.

Police Officer may arrest without warrant on view of offence.

LII. Any Police Officer may take into custody, without warrant, any person who is charged with committing an aggravated assault, in every case in which he shall have good reason to believe that such assault has been committed, although not in his view, and that, by reason of the recent commission of the offence, a warrant could not have been obtained for the apprehension of the offender.

Police Officer may take into custody, without warrant, persons charged with aggravated assault recently committed.

LIII. Every person taken into custody without a warrant by a Police Officer under this Act, shall be taken to the nearest Police Office, in order that such person may be detained until he can be brought before the Magistrate, or until he shall enter into recognizances, with or without sureties, for his appearance before the Magistrate.

Persons taken into custody by a Police Officer without warrant may be detained in Police Office until brought before a Magistrate or bailed.

LIV. Upon any information or complaint laid before the Magistrate of any offence committed against this Act, the Magistrate may summon the person charged to appear at a time to be mentioned in the summons, or if he see sufficient cause for so doing, may issue a warrant for his apprehension. The provisions of the General Regulations of the Bengal Code and Acts of the Government of India for the time being in force, relative to the issue and service of summonses and warrants, to the summons, attendance, and examination of witnesses, and generally to the trial of cases, to the recovery of fines and penalties, and to appeals against orders and sentences passed by a Magistrate, shall be applicable to all cases under this Act. Provided that, in all cases of offences not of a criminal nature, if, after due service of summons, the person charged shall not appear in pursuance thereof, the Magistrate, at his discretion, may hear and determine the case in his absence. Provided also, that the prosecution for any offence not of a criminal nature shall be commenced within three months from the commission of the offence and not otherwise.

Procedure on information or complaint laid before the Magistrate of an offence against this Act.

Recovery of costs or expenses.

LV. In all cases where any costs or expenses are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount of the same shall be ascertained and determined by the Magistrate, and the Magistrate may, for that purpose, summon the parties and examine them and the witnesses on their behalf; and such amount, together with the costs of the enquiry, shall be recoverable in the same manner as fines may be recovered.

Jurisdiction.

LVI. Any Joint Magistrate or Deputy Magistrate duly authorized to exercise the powers of a Magistrate may, in cases referred to him by the Magistrate, exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate by this Act.

Application of fines.

LVII. All fines imposed and levied under this Act shall be applied in aid of any fund applicable to Police and Conservancy purposes in the said Suburbs or Station, and all costs and expenses which the Magistrate is hereby authorized to incur, shall be paid from and repaid to such fund; or, if there be no such fund, all such fines as aforesaid shall be applied by the Magistrate to the cleansing or otherwise improving of the said Suburbs or Station.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill relating to the imprisonment of Criminals in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca.

Preamble.

Whereas doubts have arisen whether the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca has power to sentence any person, convicted before it of an offence punishable with imprisonment, to be imprisoned in any Gaol or House of Correction wherein such person will not be in the custody of the Sheriff of the said Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, or of one of his Deputies; and whereas it is expedient that the said Court should have such power in certain cases: It is enacted and declared as follows (that is to say)—

Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labor or in solitary confinement may be imprisoned in a Gaol appointed by the Governor.

I. It shall be lawful for the said Court of Judicature, whether sitting as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol delivery, or holding General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to sentence any person, convicted before it of an offence punishable with imprisonment and hard labor, or with imprisonment and solitary confinement during any portion or portions of such imprisonment, to be imprisoned in any Gaol or House of Correction within the said Settlement which the Governor of the said Settlement shall, by writing under his hand, declare to be fit for the reception of prisoners so sentenced.

Persons now under sentence of imprisonment in any Gaol may be detained there.

II. Any person, who has heretofore been sentenced by the said Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca to be imprisoned for any term warranted by law in any Gaol or House of Correction in the said Settlement, shall be liable to be detained in such Gaol or House of Correction for so much of the said term of imprisonment as shall remain unexpired; and nothing heretofore done in conformity with any such sentence shall be called in question in any Court of Law.

Certain prisoners in the custody of the Sheriff may be removed to a Gaol appointed by the Governor.

III. It shall be lawful for the Governor of the said Settlement to order any prisoner, who is now in the custody of the Sheriff of the said Settlement and is subject, under any sentence of the said Court of Judicature, to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, or to be imprisoned and kept in solitary confinement for any portion or portions of such imprisonment, to be removed to any Gaol or House of Correction within the said Settlement, wherein he may more conveniently or effectually undergo such punishment, and to be detained therein during the remainder of the term of imprisonment to which he has been sentenced.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill for the acquisition of land for public purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the acquisition of land needed for public purposes within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, and for the determination of the amount of compensation to be made for the same: It is enacted as follows:—

Laws repealed.

I. Sections I to VII inclusive, Regulation I. 1824 of the Bengal Code; so much of Act XXVIII of 1839 as is in force; Act I of 1850; Act XVII of 1850; Act XLII of 1850; Act XX of 1852; and Act I of 1854—are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole or any part of any other Regulation or Act, and except as to suits commenced, contracts made, acts done, and liabilities incurred before the passing of this Act.

After declaration that land is needed for a public purpose, Government may take possession.

II. Whenever it shall appear to the Local Government that any land is needed for a public purpose, a declaration shall be made to that effect under the signature of a Secretary to the Government or of some duly authorized Officer, and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the land is needed is a public purpose; and after making such declaration, the Government may take any such land in the manner hereinafter provided.

After declaration, the land to be marked out and measured.

III. Whenever any land shall have been declared to be needed for a public purpose, the Government shall direct the Collector of the District or some other Officer to cause the land to be marked out and measured.

Notice to all persons interested in the land.

IV. After the land has been so marked out and measured, the Collector or other Officer shall give notice to the occupier (if any) thereof and to all persons known or believed to be interested therein, that the land is about to be taken by Government for a public purpose, and shall cause a notice to the same effect to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon the land and published by proclamation in the neighbouring bazars and villages. Such notice shall contain a citation calling on all persons interested in the land to appear at a time and place therein mentioned, such time not being less than fifteen days after the date of notice, and to state the nature of their interests in the land and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for the same.

Collector to ascertain the value of the land, and the rights of the persons interested.

V. On the day fixed the Collector or other Officer shall inquire summarily into the value of the land and the amount of compensation to be awarded and into the rights of all persons having or claiming any interest therein, and if he and all the persons whose claims appear to him to be valid, and who have attended in pursuance of the notice, agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed and the apportionment thereof, shall make an award for the same; and such award, so far as it respects the value of the land and the amount of compensation thereby awarded for the same, shall be final and conclusive.

Collector to make award, which shall be conclusive as to the value.

If Collector and persons interested are unable to agree as to the amount of compensation, the dispute shall be referred to arbitrators.

VI. If the Collector or other Officer shall be unable to agree, with the persons whose claims appear to him to be valid and who have attended in pursuance of the notice, as to the amount of compensation to be awarded, or if any dispute shall arise as to the division or apportionment of such amount, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the determination of arbitrators, to be appointed in the manner hereinafter provided.

After Collector's award or reference to arbitration, possession may be taken, and the land shall be vested absolutely in the Government.

VII. When the Collector or other Officer has made an award or directed a reference to arbitration, he may take immediate possession of the land, which shall thenceforward be vested absolutely in the Government, free from all other estates, rights, titles, and interests. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall affect the liability of any person who may receive the value of any land so taken without having a good title to the same.

Liability of person who has received compensation for land not having a right thereto.

Magistrate to enforce surrender of land.

VIII. If the Collector or other Officer is opposed or impeded in taking possession of such land, he shall apply to the Magistrate of the District, who shall enforce the surrender of the land.

Appointment of arbitrators.

IX. Clause 1.—When any case is referred to arbitration, the Collector or other Officer, and the person interested in the matter in dispute, shall, unless they concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, each appoint one arbitrator; if there be several persons having a joint interest in the matter in dispute, and they cannot agree in the appointment of an arbitrator, such disagreement shall be deemed a refusal to appoint within the meaning of the next following Section.

Clause 2.—If there be several persons having distinct and separate interests in the matter in dispute, and they cannot agree in the appointment of an arbitrator on their behalf, it shall be competent to the Collector (subject to the orders of the Commissioner or other superior Revenue Authority) either to refer each of such distinct and separate interests to a separate arbitration, or to select any one of such persons whose interest appears to him of such a description as to qualify such person to represent the others; and the person so selected shall appoint an arbitrator on behalf of all the persons interested in the matter in dispute.

In every case the appointment shall be in writing, and neither of the parties to the arbitration shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other.

In default of appointment of arbitrator by persons interested, the arbitrator appointed by the Collector shall act.

X. If the persons interested in the matter in dispute, or authorized to act in that behalf, refuse or neglect for the period of one week to appoint an arbitrator, then a single arbitrator appointed by the said Collector or Officer shall arbitrate the matter.

Appointment of umpire.

XI. When more than one arbitrator shall be appointed, the arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matter referred to them, nominate and appoint by writing a third person to act with them as arbitrator; and in case the arbitrators shall neglect to appoint such third person for a period of one week after having been required to do so, the Collector or other Officer shall appoint a third arbitrator.

Arbitrator refusing or becoming incapable to act, &c.

XII. If any person, on being appointed an arbitrator, shall refuse to act, or, after accepting the appointment, shall die or become incapable of acting, another person shall be appointed in his stead, in the same manner in which the first person was appointed.

Collector to exercise certain powers for securing completion of award.

XIII. After the arbitrators have accepted the appointment, the Collector or other Officer shall be competent to exercise towards them such powers and authority for securing their attendance and the due completion of their award, as the Collector may legally exercise towards witnesses summoned before him when acting judicially for the purpose of compelling them to attend and give evidence.

In default of award within a specified period, fresh arbitrators may be chosen.

XIV. If no award be made within a period to be fixed for that purpose by the Collector or other Officer, he may order that the matter shall be referred to another arbitrator or other arbitrators to be chosen in the same manner and subject to the same rules as the first.

Collector, &c. to furnish information to the arbitrators, and to enforce the attendance and examination of witnesses, &c.

XV. The Collector or other Officer shall furnish to the arbitrators, or so far as may be in his power procure for them, any information which his records or those of any public department may afford connected with the subject of enquiry. He shall, on the application of the arbitrators, summon any witnesses whom the arbitrators may call for and whom the parties may not be able to produce before them without such process, and require the persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds, writings, maps, and plans as they shall require. He shall also cause the proper affirmation to be made by any witness whom the arbitrators may desire to examine upon affirmation, or he may empower the arbitrators to cause such affirmation to be made before them. Any witness who shall refuse or omit to appear when duly summoned by the Collector or other Officer, or who shall appear but shall refuse to make such affirmation, or who shall refuse to give evidence, shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence before the Collector when acting judicially. Any person giving intentionally and deliberately a false deposition under an affirmation, in any case referred to arbitration, as above, shall be held to be guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for that offence by law.

Award of the arbitrators.

XVI. On the close of the enquiry, the arbitrators or a majority of them shall deliver a full and complete award in respect of the matter referred to them, and shall therein specify (as the nature of the case may require) the amount and particulars of compensation awarded by them, the persons entitled thereto, and the proportions in which they are so entitled. The proceedings of the arbitration shall be deposited in the office of the Collector or other Officer, and every person interested therein shall be entitled to a copy of the award on plain paper under the seal and signature of the Collector or other Officer, which copy shall be primâ facie evidence thereof.

Compensation to include damage done to adjoining land.

XVII. When any land is taken under the provisions of this Act, the amount of compensation to be awarded shall include any damage which may be done thereby to any adjoining land.

Proceeding where land paying revenue to Government is taken.

XVIII. When any land taken under this Act forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, the award shall specify the net rent of the land including the Government Revenue, and the computed value of such rent; and it shall be at the discretion of the Revenue Authorities, either to pay over the whole of such value to the owner of the estate on the condition of his continuing to pay the jumma thereof without abatement, or to determine what proportion of the net rent shall be allowed as a remission of revenue, in which case a deduction shall be made from the said value proportionate to the value of such remission.

Payment of compensation may in certain cases be deferred.

XIX. If there exist any ground which, in the judgment of the Collector or other Officer, renders it improper to make immediate payment of the compensation, or of any portion thereof, to any of the persons having or claiming any interest in the land or in the compensation awarded in respect thereof, the amount, or such portion of the amount as he may deem sufficient, shall be invested in Government Securities, and held in deposit until an order of Court shall be obtained for the payment thereof.

Amount to be held in deposit.

Application by petition to competent Court for the money deposited.

XX. Upon the application by petition of any person claiming the amount so deposited, or any part thereof, any Court of competent jurisdiction may, in a summary way, order such money to be or to continue invested in Government Securities, or may order the distribution thereof, or payment of the interest thereof, according to the respective rights and interests of all persons making claim to such money or any part thereof, or may make such other order as the Court shall deem fit.

Reversal or alteration of award.

XXI. No award of arbitrators made under this Act, so far as regards the amount of compensation thereby awarded, shall be liable to be reversed or altered, except by the decision of a Civil Court on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators, and in no case shall a suit to set aside an award under this Act be entertained unless it be instituted within three months from the date of the award. In case the award shall be reversed on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators, the matter shall be referred to another arbitrator or other arbitrators to be appointed in the same manner as the first.

A part of a house or building not to be taken.

XXII. The provisions of this Act shall not be put in force for the purpose of acquiring a part only of any house or other building or manufactory, if the owner desire that the whole of such house, building, or manufactory shall be taken.

When land is needed for a road, canal, &c., the general direction of the line shall be declared.

XXIII. Whenever any land is needed for a road, canal, railway, or the like, and the Local Government makes the declaration provided in Section II, it shall not be necessary to specify the extent, limits, or position of the land, but it shall be sufficient to declare the general direction of the line of the work and the average breadth of the land required for the same.

After declaration, persons authorized may enter upon the land and make a survey.

XXIV. When any declaration has been made under the provisions of Section II of this Act, any person authorized by Government in that behalf, with his servants and workmen, may enter upon the land for the purpose of making a survey thereof, and in the case of a road, canal, or railway, may set out the intended line thereof, and

Line of road may be marked out.

may mark such line by cutting a trench or placing land-marks, and where otherwise the survey cannot be completed, and the line marked, may, with the sanction of the Government or of any Officer appointed by Government for this purpose,

Land may be cleared.

cut down and clear away any part of any jungle or tope of trees in the direction of the intended line. Provided that no person shall enter upon the curtilage of any house or any enclosed garden (unless with the consent of the occupier thereof) without previously giving the said occupier twenty-four hours' notice of his intention to do so.

Account of damage done to be taken.

XXV. It shall be the duty of the Officer so appointed by the Government to take account of all necessary damage done as aforesaid, that it may be allowed for in the compensation to be awarded.

Obstruction to setting out line of works, &c.

XXVI. Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in lawfully setting out the line of any road, canal, or railway, or wilfully destroys, damages, or displaces any land-mark, or effaces or fills any trench intended to mark such line, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months, or to fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to both.

Temporary occupation of adjacent land.

XXVII. The powers of this Act shall extend, in the case of any road, canal, or railway, to authorize the temporary occupation of any land not more than one hundred yards from the centre line of the road, canal, or railway, as marked on the ground, for taking earth or other materials for making or repairing the road, canal, or railway, or for depositing thereon superfluous earth or other materials, or erecting temporary buildings and work-shops thereon, or any land which may be needed for making temporary roads, from any public road to the intended line of railway; and for the temporary occupation of any such land, and for any permanent damage done by such occupation and use of the land, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other materials taken thence, compensation shall be paid to and among all persons having an interest therein, to be ascertained, in case of disagreement, in the same manner as compensation for land permanently taken.

Government may acquire land under the powers of this Act and vest the same in any person needing it for a work of public utility.

XXVIII. When any person, with the sanction of Government, shall undertake at his own cost any work of public utility, the Local Government may declare that any land required by such person for the execution of the work is needed for a public purpose, and thereupon such land may be taken under the provisions of this Act, and the Government may vest such land in such person on his paying the compensation awarded under this Act and all other expenses incurred in the acquisition of the land.

Trustees, Committees of lunatics, &c. empowered to act.

XXIX. In any proceedings under this Act, the following persons shall be deemed persons entitled to act as and to the extent hereinafter provided (that is to say)—a trustee or trustees for other persons beneficially interested shall in all cases be deemed the person or persons entitled to act with reference to any such proceedings, and that to the same extent as the persons beneficially interested could have acted if free from disability. A married woman, in cases to which the English Law is applicable, shall be deemed the person so entitled to act, and, whether of full age or not, to the same extent as if she were unmarried and of full age. The guardians of minors and the Committees of lunatics or idiots shall be deemed respectively the persons so entitled to act to the same extent as the minors, lunatics, or idiots themselves, if free from disability, could have acted.

Interpretation.

XXX. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something either in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say)—

The words "the Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company in which the land in question is situate.

The word "land" shall extend to tenements and hereditaments of any tenure, and all houses, buildings, trees, or appurtenances thereupon, as well as land.

The expression "person interested in the land" shall include all persons interested in the land, either for life or for years, or in remainder, reversion, or succession, and all mortgagees, lease-holders, or tenants, not being tenants by the month, or at will, of such land.

The word "Collector" shall mean any Collector, Deputy Collector, or other Revenue Officer in independent charge of any District or portion of a District.

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular.

Words importing the maculine gender only shall include females.

The word "person" shall include a corporation.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next :—

A Bill for the regulation of Native Passenger Ships.

Preamble.

WHEREAS abuses have occurred in the overcrowding of Ships conveying Native Passengers from ports and places within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company to other ports and places within the said territories and elsewhere; and whereas it is expedient to prevent such abuses, and to provide for the regulation of all Ships carrying Native Passengers which shall depart from or arrive at any of the ports or places within the said territories : It is enacted as follows :—

Definition of the term "Native Passenger Ship."

I. In the construction of this Act the words "Native Passenger Ship" shall mean every description of sea-going vessel carrying, upon any voyage to which this Act extends, more than thirty passengers being natives of Asia or Africa; or carrying upon any such voyage any number whatsoever of such passengers, in case the whole number of persons on board amounts to the proportion of two persons to every three tons of the registered or estimated tonnage of the vessel.

To what voyages this Act extends.

II. This Act shall extend to every Native Passenger Ship proceeding on any voyage (other than the voyages specified in Section XXV) from a port or place within the said territories to any other place whatsoever, whether within the said territories or not, where the duration of the voyage, to be prescribed as mentioned in Section XVII, shall exceed seven days.

Native Passenger Ship to sail only from ports appointed by Government.

III. No Native Passenger Ship shall depart upon any voyage to which this Act extends from any port or place within the said territories other than such ports and places as the local Government may, from time to time, appoint; and after the departure of any Native Passenger Ship upon any such voyage from a port or place so to be appointed, no person whatsoever shall be received on board as a passenger except at some other duly appointed port or place.

Not to sail without obtaining a certificate.

IV. No Native Passenger Ship shall depart upon any such voyage from any port or place appointed under this Act, until the Master shall have obtained a certificate from an Officer authorized to grant the same; nor until a bond shall have been entered into by the Master as provided in Section XXI.

Penalty.

V. If any Native Passenger Ship departs upon a voyage from any port or place within the said territories, or if any person shall be received as a passenger on board a Native Passenger Ship in contravention of the provisions of the last two preceding Sections, the Owner or Master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees for every passenger unlawfully received on board; and the Ship, if found within two years in any place within the said territories, may be seized and detained by any Chief Officer of Customs, until the penalties incurred under this Act have been adjudicated, and the payment thereof, with all costs, have been enforced under the provisions of Section XXXIII.

Appointment of Officers.

VI. The local Government shall determine the persons who shall be authorized to exercise or perform the powers and duties conferred or imposed by this Act.

Master to give notice of day of sailing.

VII. The Master of any Native Passenger Ship sailing from any port or place appointed under this Act shall give notice to the proper Officer that the Ship is to carry native passengers, and of her destination, and of the proposed day of sailing; such notice shall be given not less than seven days before the proposed day of sailing.

Power to enter and inspect ship.

VIII. After receiving such notice, the Officer aforesaid, or any person authorized by him, shall be at liberty at all times to enter and inspect the Ship and the fittings, provisions, and stores therein; and any person impeding or refusing to allow such inspection, shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees for each offence.

Ship may be surveyed.

IX. The Officer aforesaid may, if he think fit, cause the Ship to be surveyed at the expense of the Master by a competent surveyor, who shall report whether the Ship is, in his opinion, sea-worthy and fit for her intended voyage.

Officer to be satisfied before giving certificate—

X. The Officer aforesaid shall not give his certificate unless he shall be satisfied—

That the Ship is sea-worthy,

1. That the Ship is sea-worthy and properly manned, equipped, fitted, and ventilated; and has not on board any cargo likely, from its quality, quantity, or mode of stowage, to prejudice the health or safety of the passengers.

That the space between-decks for passengers is sufficient,

2. That the space appropriated to the passengers in the between-decks contains at the least twelve superficial and seventy-two cubical feet of space for every adult passenger on board, that is to say, for every passenger above twelve years of age, and for every two passengers between the ages of one year and twelve years.

That the space on the upper deck is sufficient,

3. That a space of five superficial feet per adult is left clear on the upper deck for the use of the passengers.

That there is a due supply of provisions.

4. That provisions, fuel, and water have been placed on board, of good quality, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the passengers on board during the declared duration of the intended voyage, according to the scale hereinafter contained.

Number of passengers.

XI. No such Ship shall carry any greater number of passengers than, together with the Master and Crew, shall amount to the proportion of two persons for every three tons of the registered or estimated tonnage of the Ship.

List of passengers.

XII. The Master of any such Ship shall, before commencing his voyage, sign two lists, specifying as accurately as may be the names and ages of all the passengers, and shall deliver them to the Officer aforesaid, who shall thereupon (after having first mustered the passengers and compared the number and names of such passengers with the lists) countersign and return to the Master one of such lists. The Master shall note in writing on such last-mentioned list, and on any additional list to be made under this Act, the date and supposed cause of death of any passenger who may die on the voyage, and shall forthwith on the arrival of the ship and before any passengers are landed, produce the list, with any additions thereto made, to any Chief Officer of Customs at any port in a British Colony, or to any person lawfully exercising Consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty in any Foreign port, or to any like Officer of Customs, or to the Officer (if any) appointed under this Act, at any port or place within the said territories at which the passengers or any of them shall be landed. In case of non-compliance with any of the requirements of this Section on the part of the Master, or if such lists shall be wilfully false, the Master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees for each offence.

Ship taking additional passengers and touching at intermediate port.

XIII. If, after the Ship shall have commenced her voyage, any additional passengers are taken on board at a port or place, within the said territories, appointed under this Act for the embarkation of passengers, or if such Ship shall, upon her voyage, touch or arrive at any such port, having previously received on board additional passengers at any place out of the said territories, the Master shall obtain a fresh certificate from the Officer at such port, and also lists of all such additional passengers shall be made; and all the provisions hereinbefore contained in that behalf shall be applicable to any certificate to be granted or any list to be made under this Section.

Penalty for fraudulent alteration in Ship after certificate obtained.

XIV. If any Master of a Ship, after having obtained a certificate under Section IV or Section XIII of this Act, shall fraudulently do or suffer to be done any act or thing whereby such certificate shall become inapplicable to the altered state of the Ship, its passengers, or other matters to which such certificate relates, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two thousand Rupees.

Information to be transmitted to ports of embarkation.

XV. The Chief Officer of Customs, or the Officer (if any) appointed under this Act, at any port or place within the said territories at which the Ship shall touch or arrive, shall forthwith transmit any particulars which he may deem important respecting the Ship and the passengers conveyed thereby and the requirements of this Act, to the Officer at the port from which the Ship commenced her voyage, and also to the Officer at any other port within the said territories where the passengers or any of them embarked.

Report of Collector, Consul, &c., to be admissible in evidence.

XVI. In any proceeding under this Act or in respect of the bond hereby required, any document purporting to be a report of such particulars as are referred to in the last preceding Section, or a copy of the proceedings of any Court of Justice duly authenticated, and also any like document purporting to be made and signed by any Chief Officer of Customs at any port in a British Colony or by any person lawfully exercising Consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty in any Foreign port, shall be received in evidence, if the same appears to have been officially transmitted to any Officer at or near the place where the proceeding under this Act is had.

Length of voyage to be fixed by proclamation.

XVII. It shall be lawful for the local Government, by any proclamation to be from time to time issued for that purpose and published in the Government Gazette, (if any,) or in one of the public newspapers, to declare what shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, the duration of the voyage of any Native Passenger Ship from any port or place to any other port or place.

Quantity of provisions and water to be shipped.

XVIII. Every Native Passenger Ship at the time of departure from the port or place at which passengers shall be embarked under this Act, shall have on board good and wholesome provisions for the use and consumption of the passengers, over and above the victualling of the crew, to the amount or in the proportion following, that is to say, a supply of water to the amount of five gallons to every week of the computed voyage for every passenger on board, such water being carried in tanks or sweet casks, and a supply of rice, bread, biscuit, flour, oatmeal, or bread stuffs, to the amount of seven pounds' weight to every week of the computed voyage for every such passenger; provided always, that, when any such Ship shall be destined to call at a port or place in the course of her voyage for the purpose of filling up her water-casks, a supply of water at the rate before mentioned for every week of an average voyage to such port or place of calling shall be deemed to be a compliance with this Act. The provision of this Section regarding food shall be deemed to have been complied with in any case where it shall appear that, by the special authority of the local Government, any other articles of food were substituted for the articles above enumerated as being equivalent thereto.

Issue of provisions.

XIX. The Master of any Native Passenger Ship shall, every day during the voyage, including the time of detention at any place before the termination thereof, issue to each passenger, or to the headman of each mess (if any), for the use of all the members thereof, provisions and water of the description and according to the provisions mentioned in the last preceding Section; and in case of non-compliance with any of the requirements of this Section, the Master shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for each offence.

Contract by passengers for supply of their own provisions.

XX. The requirements of this Act respecting the issue of provisions shall not, except as to the issue of water, be applicable to any passenger who may have contracted to furnish his own provisions.

Master to give security bond.

XXI. Before the commencement of any voyage to which the provisions of this Act extend, the Master of any Native Passenger Ship, together with the owner or some other sufficient person to be approved by the Officer aforesaid, shall enter into a joint and several bond in the sum of five thousand Rupees to conform to the several requirements of this Act. The bond shall be executed in duplicate, that it may be put in suit either at the place of execution or at any other place within the said territories; and one copy thereof may be forwarded to any Chief Officer of Customs or other Officer at any port or place within the said territories, with a certificate endorsed thereon that the same has been duly executed, which certificate, purporting to be under the hand of the Officer at the place of the execution thereof, shall be sufficient proof of the due execution of the bond.

Penalty of bond when recoverable.

XXII. The said penal sum of five thousand Rupees shall be due and recoverable notwithstanding any penalty imposed by this Act, and whether such penalty shall have been sued for and recovered or not.

Penalty on Ships bringing excessive number of passengers to any Indian port.

XXIII. If any Ship, bringing passengers into any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, shall have on board a greater number of passengers or persons than in the proportion prescribed by this Act, the Master of such Ship shall, in addition to any other penalty which he may have incurred under the provisions of this Act, be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees for each person in excess of such proportion.

Issue of provisions on board of Ships bringing passengers to any Indian port.

XXIV. The Master of every Ship bringing passengers to any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, shall make, during the voyage, including any time of detention, issues of pure water and wholesome provisions in quantities not less in amount than in the proportions mentioned in Section XVIII; and in case of non-compliance, the Master shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for each offence.

Act not to apply to Coolie emigration ships.

XXV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to apply to any vessel carrying emigrant laborers from the said territories to any British or Foreign Colonies without the said territories to which they may now or hereafter lawfully be conveyed under the laws applicable thereto: nor to any vessel carrying native passengers from any port under the Presidency of Fort St. George to any port on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal, or in the Straits of Malacca, or in Ceylon, or reversely, under Act of 1856.

To Ships carrying native passengers in the Bay of Bengal.

Act not to apply to Ships-of-War.

XXVI. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to any Ship-of-War or Transport belonging to or in the Service of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, or to any Ship-of-War belonging to any Foreign Prince or State, or to any Ship under contract with the Government of any European State, or to any Sea-going Steam Vessel regularly employed in the conveyance of the public mails under a contract. And none of the foregoing provisions of this Act shall apply to any other Sea-going Steam Vessels which shall be exempted from the said provisions by a certificate to be granted under the next following Section.

To sea-going steamers conveying public mails.

Or to steamers specially exempted.

Certificates to be granted to coasting and other steamers after survey, &c.

XXVII. Sea-going Steam Vessels requiring certificates of exemption under the preceding Section, and also all Sea-going Steam Vessels plying on coasting voyages from or to any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, whatever may be the duration of the voyage, shall procure certificates, to be granted to them only as is hereinafter provided; any such certificate shall be granted at the discretion of an Officer authorized to grant the same by the local Government, and shall remain in force for the period therein specified, unless sooner revoked. The Officer so appointed shall not grant such certificate, or suffer the same to remain in force, unless he is satisfied, by inspection or survey (to be made at least twice in each year at the expense of the Master or owner, and upon payment of a fee not exceeding twenty Rupees), that such Steam Vessel is seaworthy, and that the engines and machinery are in a fit state to enable her to proceed on her voyage. The certificate shall state the limits (if any) within which the vessel is to ply, and shall also contain a statement of the number of passengers which the vessel is fit to carry; such number to be subject to such conditions and variations according to the time of year, the nature of the voyage, and the cargo carried, as the case requires.

Copy of certificate to be placed in conspicuous part of Ship.

XXVIII. The Owner or Master of any such Steam Vessel shall put up in a conspicuous part of the Ship, so as to be visible to persons on board the same, a copy of the said certificate, and shall cause it to be continued in such position so long as the certificate remains in force, and in default, such Owner or Master shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

Penalty for excess of number specified in certificate.

XXIX. If such Steam Vessel has on board thereof any number of passengers which, having regard to the time of the year and other circumstances, is greater than the number allowed by the certificate, the Owner or Master shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for every passenger over and above the number allowed by the certificate.

Grant of certificate to be subject to control of Government.

XXX. In the grant or revocation of any certificate whatsoever under this Act, the Officer granting the same shall be subject to the control of the local Government or of any intermediate authority which that Government may appoint.

Penalty on wrongfully landing passengers.

XXXI. If any native passenger in any Ship, whether a Native Passenger Ship within the meaning of this Act or not, shall be landed at any port or place other than the port or place at which he may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless such landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the Master shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Passenger's right of action preserved.

XXXII. Nothing in this Act contained shall take away or abridge any right of action which may accrue to any native passenger, or to any other person, in respect of the breach or non-performance of any contract made with the Master or Owner of the Ship or his Agent.

Adjudication of offences and recovery of penalties.

XXXIII. All offences against this Act shall be punishable in a summary manner by a Magistrate The provisions of Act XIII of 1856, relating to the adjudication of fines and penalties and the enforcing payment thereof, shall apply to penalties imposed under this Act in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca. In all other ports and places within the said territories, the penalties hereby imposed shall be recoverable under the provisions of Act II of 1839. If the person directed to pay the penalty is the Master or Owner of a Ship, and the same is not paid at the time and in the manner prescribed by the order of payment, the Magistrate may, in addition to the means prescribed by law for enforcing payment, direct by warrant the amount remaining unpaid to be levied by distress and sale of the said Ship, her tackle, furniture, and apparel.

Sum ordered to be paid leviable by distress on Ship.

Jurisdiction.

XXXIV. For the purpose of the adjudication of offences and penalties under this Act, any offence shall be deemed to have been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of the place where the offender is found.

By whom proceedings for penalties may be taken.

XXXV. The penalties to which Masters and Owners of Ships are liable by this Act, shall be enforced only by information laid at the instance of the Officers appointed to grant certificates under this Act; or at any port or place where there is no such Officer, by the Chief Officer of Customs. The bond given by the Master shall not be put in suit, unless the person suing is authorized thereunto by the Chief Civil Authority of the place where the bond shall have been entered into.

Application of penalty.

XXXVI. Any Magistrate imposing any penalty under this Act may, if he thinks fit, direct the whole or any part thereof to be applied in compensating any person for any wrong or damage which he may have sustained by the act or default in respect of which such penalty is imposed, or in or towards payment of the expenses of the proceedings.

Interpretation.

XXXVII. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include a Joint Magistrate and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate in places other than the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca; and in the places last mentioned, the word shall mean a Magistrate of Police appointed under Act XIII of 1856.

The words "Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the said territories where the port or place in question is situate.

The word "Master" shall include every person having command or charge of a Ship.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill for taking account of the population of the Town of Bombay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to take an account of the population of the Town of Bombay: It is enacted as follows:—

Account of population to be taken.

I. At the time and in the manner hereinafter directed, an account shall be taken of the number of persons who, at the time of taking such account, shall be within the Town of Bombay, and the persons employed in taking such account shall set down the several particulars respecting the same which are hereinafter prescribed.

Commissioner of Police to superintend the taking an account of the population.

II. The Commissioner of Police shall have the care of superintending the taking of such account, and shall cause to be prepared, for the use of the persons to be employed, such forms and instructions as he shall, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, deem necessary, and such forms and instructions shall be issued to the persons for whose use they are intended; and all the expenses incurred under this Act shall be defrayed out of the Municipal Fund.

Enumeration Districts.

III. Each Police division of the Town shall be formed into one or more Enumeration Districts.

Members of the Police force to be employed as enumerators.

IV. The Commissioner of Police shall select from the Members of the Police force a sufficient number of competent persons, and, should it be necessary, may employ others as Special Constables under Section XX of Act XIII of 1856, to act as enumerators; and every such enumerator, under the direction of the Commissioner of Police, shall visit every house within his District, except as hereinafter provided, and shall take an account in writing of the name, sex, age, caste, tribe, and occupation of every living person who shall abide therein on the night immediately preceding the day hereinafter appointed, and shall also take an account of the occupied houses and the houses then building and therefore uninhabited, and also of all other uninhabited houses, within his District, and in all respects conform to, and obey, the instructions which may be issued to him by the Commissioner of Police in this behalf.

Schedules.

V. The Commissioner of Police, when he may deem such a course to be advisable, may cause a Schedule, in such form as shall be sanctioned by the Governor in Council, to be delivered to any occupier of any dwelling-house who he shall have ascertained is able to write, and such occupier shall fill in all the particulars required in the form on the day to be appointed, and shall deliver the same to such persons as may be duly authorized to demand the same.

VI. Any Military or Naval Officers in command of bodies of Military or Naval men, or of Vessels of War, or any Master of a Merchant Vessel or Nacquodah or Tindal of a vessel or boat, or any person in charge of a Lunatic Asylum, Hospital, or Prison, or of any public or private charitable or scholastic institution, or any keepers of Hotels or Lodging-houses, shall, if required, act as enumerators for the purpose of taking account of persons under their command or charge, or abiding in their houses on the night previous to the day to be appointed; every person so required to act as an enumerator shall receive and conform to all instructions in writing which may be issued to him by the Commissioner of Police in that behalf.

Military and Naval Officers and others, if required, to act as enumerators.

VII. The Commissioner of Police shall obtain, by such ways and means as shall appear to him best adapted for the purpose and as shall be sanctioned by the Governor in Council, returns of the particulars required by this Act with respect to all houseless persons and all persons who, during the said night of the day to be appointed, were on out-door night duty, or for any other reason were not abiding in any house of which account is to be taken by the enumerators.

Returns of houseless persons.

VIII. On such day in the year 1857 as shall be appointed and notified in the Official Gazette by the Governor of Bombay in Council, every occupier of a dwelling-house, or of any part of a dwelling-house distinctly occupied, and every person to whom a Schedule, as hereinbefore provided, may have been delivered, shall afford such information in regard to all persons who were abiding in his house or in the place under his charge on the night immediately preceding, and in such manner as may under this Act be lawfully required of them.

Upon the appointed day occupiers of houses shall give the required information.

IX. Every occupier of a house, who wilfully gives verbally or in writing a false statement of, or neglects or refuses to give, such returns and answers as under this Act may be lawfully required of him, and every person employed or required to act as an enumerator, who makes wilful default in any of the matters required of him, shall, on summary conviction of such offence before a Magistrate of Police, be liable to a fine of five hundred Rupees or imprisonment for three months.

Penalty.

X. The following words in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

Interpretation.

The words "Town of Bombay" shall include the Islands of Bombay and Colaba and the Port of Bombay as defined under the provisions of Act XXII of 1855 (An Act for the Regulation of Ports and Port-dues.)

The words "Commissioner of Police" shall include a Deputy Commissioner of Police specially appointed to perform the duties assigned to a Commissioner by this Act.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication; or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

Banqueting Hall,
7th February 1856.

With reference to the foregoing Notification, which the undersigned has been requested to publish in the Calcutta Gazette, he begs to state that he has been also requested to receive from the Bengal Presidency all Packages containing Contributions for the Madras Exhibition of 1857.

MEMO.

THE following revised Directions for approaching the Sandheads are published for general information.

By order of the Offg. Supdt. of Marine,
FORT WILLIAM, } H. HOWE,
The 15th September 1856. } Secretary.

DIRECTIONS
FOR
APPROACHING THE SANDHEADS IN BOTH MONSOONS.

THE SOUTH-WEST MONSOON.

THE South-West Monsoon may be considered to commence on the 15th March, on which date the Pilot Vessels take up their station near the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge as described below. The South-West Monsoon is over by the end of September.

2nd. False Point Light House is in latitude 20° 19½′ North and longitude 86° 47′ East, and a Buoy is placed in 21½ fathoms on the Pilot's Ridge, in latitude 20° 49½′ North and longitude 87° 42′ East, the Buoy therefore bears from False Point Light House North 59° 49′ East, true, and distant 59½ miles.

3rd. A Vessel, therefore, after making the Light House at False Point (in passing which she ought not to go into less than 10 fathoms), should bring it to bear about West-South-West 10 or 15 miles distant, when she will be in 11 or 12 fathoms; then steer East-North-Eastward when the soundings will gradually increase to 23 fathoms on the Eastern edge of the Pilot's Ridge; she should then regulate her course so as to keep between the Ridge and 27 fathoms, when, by attention to the lead and nature of the soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to avoid making the Pilot Vessels, as their cruizing ground is immediately to the North-East of the Light Vessel stationed during the South-West Monsoon in close proximity to the Buoy on the Ridge.

4th. The soundings to seaward of the Pilot's Ridge are, in general, a greenish or olive-colored mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it; whilst those on the Ridge are of a shelly sand, or minute gravel, of a reddish or rusty brown color.

5th. Vessels approaching the Station are earnestly warned to be careful in avoiding collision when communicating with either the Light, or supplying Pilot Vessels; and, on making the former at night, they are strongly recommended to heave to, at a proper distance, till day-light, by which measure they will avoid the probability of passing the supplying Pilot Vessels in the darkness of the night.

6th. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel is in latitude 21° 04′ North and longitude 88½° 14′ East, and therefore bears from the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge, North 63° 26′ East, true; and distant 32½ miles. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel, from the 15th March to the 15th September, burns a blue light every half hour and a maroon every quarter hour during the night, commencing at 7 P. M.; and her standing light is a plain light.

7th. The Pilot's Ridge Light Vessel shows from the 15th March to the 15th of September a plain standing light, and burns a blue light every hour and a maroon at the intermediate half hours.

8th. It is important to observe the difference as to the blue lights and maroons shown by the Eastern Channel and the Ridge Light respectively, as, if this is attended to, a Vessel, out in her reckoning, or uncertain of her position, cannot possibly mistake one for the other.

THE NORTH-EAST MONSOON.

9th. This Monsoon, which constitutes the fine season in the Head of the Bay of Bengal, is considered to commence in October and end in the beginning of March. During this season the Pilot Station is about the outer Floating Light situated in the Eastern Channel as above, and Vessels coming in should make directly for that mark. The Pilot Vessels cruize in the day time spreading East and West of, sometimes a little to the Southward of the Light Vessel, and at night anchor in positions not far from her. At this season she shows a maroon or torch-light every half hour and a blue light every hour.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill relating to the imprisonment of Criminals in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca has power to sentence any person, convicted before it of an offence punishable with imprisonment, to be imprisoned in any Gaol or House of Correction wherein such person will not be in the custody of the Sheriff of the said Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, or of one of his Deputies; and whereas it is expedient that the said Court should have such power in certain cases: It is enacted and declared as follows (that is to say):—

Preamble.

I. It shall be lawful for the said Court of Judicature, whether sitting as a Court of Over and Terminer and Gaol delivery, or holding General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to sentence any person, convicted before it of an offence punishable with imprisonment and hard labor, or with imprisonment and solitary confinement during any portion or portions of such imprisonment, to be imprisoned in any Gaol or House of Correction within the said Settlement which the Governor of the said Settlement shall, by writing under his hand, declare to be fit for the reception of prisoners so sentenced.

Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labor or in solitary confinement may be imprisoned in a Gaol appointed by the Governor.

II. Any person, who has heretofore been sentenced by the said Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca to be imprisoned for any term warranted by law in any Gaol or House of Correction in the said Settlement, shall be liable to be detained in such Gaol or House of Correction for so much of the said term of imprisonment as shall remain unexpired; and nothing heretofore done in conformity with any such sentence shall be called in question in any Court of Law.

Persons now under sentence of imprisonment in any Gaol may be detained there.

III. It shall be lawful for the Governor of the said Settlement to order any prisoner, who is now in the custody of the Sheriff of the said Settlement and is subject, under any sentence of the said Court of Judicature, to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, or to be imprisoned and kept in solitary confinement for any portion or portions of such imprisonment, to be removed to any Gaol or House of Correction within the said Settlement, wherein he may more conveniently or effectually undergo such punishment, and to be detained therein during the remainder of the term of imprisonment to which he has been sentenced.

Certain prisoners in the custody of the Sheriff may be removed to a Gaol appointed by the Governor.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill for the acquisition of land for public purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the acquisition of land needed for public purposes within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, and for the determination of the amount of compensation to be made for the same: It is enacted as follows:—

Laws repealed.

I. Sections I to VII inclusive, Regulation I. 1824 of the Bengal Code; so much of Act XXVIII of 1839 as is in force; Act I of 1850; Act XVII of 1850; Act XLII of 1850; Act XX of 1852; and Act I of 1854—are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole or any part of any other Regulation or Act, and except as to suits commenced, contracts made, acts done, and liabilities incurred before the passing of this Act.

After declaration that land is needed for a public purpose, Government may take possession.

II. Whenever it shall appear to the Local Government that any land is needed for a public purpose, a declaration shall be made to that effect under the signature of a Secretary to the Government or of some duly authorized Officer, and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the land is needed is a public purpose; and after making such declaration, the Government may take any such land in the manner hereinafter provided.

After declaration, the land to be marked out and measured.

III. Whenever any land shall have been declared to be needed for a public purpose, the Government shall direct the Collector of the District or some other Officer to cause the land to be marked out and measured.

Notice to all persons interested in the land.

IV. After the land has been so marked out and measured, the Collector or other Officer shall give notice to the occupier (if any) thereof and to all persons known or believed to be interested therein, that the land is about to be taken by Government for a public purpose, and shall cause a notice to the same effect to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon the land and published by proclamation in the neighbouring bazars and villages. Such notice shall contain a citation calling on all persons interested in the land to appear at a time and place therein mentioned, such time not being less than fifteen days after the date of notice, and to state the nature of their interests in the land and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for the same.

Collector to ascertain the value of the land, and the rights of the persons interested.

V. On the day fixed, the Collector or other Officer shall inquire summarily into the value of the land and the amount of compensation to be awarded and into the rights of all persons having or claiming any interest therein; and if he and all the persons whose claims appear to him to be valid, and who have attended in pursuance of the notice, agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed and the apportionment thereof, shall make an award for the same; and such award, so far as it respects the value of the land and the amount of compensation thereby awarded for the same, shall be final and conclusive.

Collector to make award, which shall be conclusive as to the value.

If Collector and persons interested are unable to agree as to the amount of compensation, the dispute shall be referred to arbitrators.

VI. If the Collector or other Officer shall be unable to agree, with the persons whose claims appear to him to be valid and who have attended in pursuance of the notice, as to the amount of compensation to be awarded, or if any dispute shall arise as to the division or apportionment of such amount, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the determination of arbitrators, to be appointed in the manner hereinafter provided.

After Collector's award or reference to arbitration, possession may be taken, and the land shall be vested absolutely in the Government.

VII. When the Collector or other Officer has made an award or directed a reference to arbitration, he may take immediate possession of the land, which shall thenceforward be vested absolutely in the Government, free from all other estates, rights, titles, and interests. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall affect the liability of any person who may receive the value of any land so taken without having a good title to the same.

Liability of person who has received compensation for land not having a right thereto.

Magistrate to enforce surrender of land.

VIII. If the Collector or other Officer is opposed or impeded in taking possession of such land, he shall apply to the Magistrate of the District, who shall enforce the surrender of the land.

Appointment of arbitrators.

IX. Clause 1.—When any case is referred to arbitration, the Collector or other Officer, and the person interested in the matter in dispute, shall, unless they concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, each appoint one arbitrator; if there be several persons having a joint interest in the matter in dispute, and they cannot agree in the appointment of an arbitrator, such disagreement shall be deemed a refusal to appoint within the meaning of the next following Section.

Clause 2.—If there be several persons having distinct and separate interests in the matter in dispute, and they cannot agree in the appointment of an arbitrator on their behalf, it shall be competent to the Collector (subject to the orders of the Commissioner or other superior Revenue Authority) either to refer each of such distinct and separate interests to a separate arbitration, or to select any one of such persons whose interest appears to him of such a description as to qualify such person to represent the others; and the person so selected shall appoint an arbitrator on behalf of all the persons interested in the matter in dispute.

In every case the appointment shall be in writing, and neither of the parties to the arbitration shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other.

In default of appointment of arbitrator by persons interested, the arbitrator appointed by the Collector shall act.

X. If the persons interested in the matter in dispute, or authorized to act in that behalf, refuse or neglect for the period of one week to appoint an arbitrator, then a single arbitrator appointed by the said Collector or Officer shall arbitrate the matter.

Appointment of umpire.

XI. When more than one arbitrator shall be appointed, the arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matter referred to them, nominate and appoint by writing a third person to act with them as arbitrator; and in case the arbitrators shall neglect to appoint such third person for a period of one week after having been required to do so, the Collector or other Officer shall appoint a third arbitrator.

Arbitrator refusing or becoming incapable to act, &c.

XII. If any person, on being appointed an arbitrator, shall refuse to act, or, after accepting the appointment, shall die or become incapable of acting, another person shall be appointed in his stead, in the same manner in which the first person was appointed.

Collector to exercise certain powers for securing completion of award.

XIII. After the arbitrators have accepted the appointment, the Collector or other Officer shall be competent to exercise towards them such powers and authority for securing their attendance and the due completion of their award, as the Collector may legally exercise towards witnesses summoned before him when acting judicially for the purpose of compelling them to attend and give evidence.

In default of award within a specified period, fresh arbitrators may be chosen.

XIV. If no award be made within a period to be fixed for that purpose by the Collector or other Officer, he may order that the matter shall be referred to another arbitrator or other arbitrators to be chosen in the same manner and subject to the same rules as the first.

Collector, &c. to furnish information to the arbitrators, and to enforce the attendance and examination of witnesses, &c.

XV. The Collector or other Officer shall furnish to the arbitrators, or so far as may be in his power procure for them, any information which his records or those of any public department may afford connected with the subject of enquiry. He shall, on the application of the arbitrators, summon any witnesses whom the arbitrators may call for and whom the parties may not be able to produce before them without such process, and require the persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds, writings, maps, and plans as they shall require. He shall also cause the proper affirmation to be made by any witness whom the arbitrators may desire to examine upon affirmation, or he may empower the arbitrators to cause such affirmation to be made before them. Any witness who shall refuse or omit to appear when duly summoned by the Collector or other Officer, or who shall appear but shall refuse to make such affirmation, or who shall refuse to give evidence, shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence before the Collector when acting judicially. Any person giving intentionally and deliberately a false deposition under an affirmation, in any case referred to arbitration, as above, shall be held to be guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for that offence by law.

Award of the arbitrators.

XVI. On the close of the enquiry, the arbitrators or a majority of them shall deliver a full and complete award in respect of the matter referred to them, and shall therein specify (as the nature of the case may require) the amount and particulars of compensation awarded by them, the persons entitled thereto, and the proportions in which they are so entitled. The proceedings of the arbitration shall be deposited in the office of the Collector or other Officer, and every person interested therein shall be entitled to a copy of the award on plain paper under the seal and signature of the Collector or other Officer, which copy shall be primâ facie evidence thereof.

Compensation to include damage done to adjoining land.

XVII. When any land is taken under the provisions of this Act, the amount of compensation to be awarded shall include any damage which may be done thereby to any adjoining land.

Proceeding where land paying revenue to Government is taken.

XVIII. When any land taken under this Act forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, the award shall specify the net rent of the land including the Government Revenue, and the computed value of such rent; and it shall be at the discretion of the Revenue Authorities, either to pay over the whole of such value to the owner of the estate on the condition of his continuing to pay the jumma thereof without abatement, or to determine what proportion of the net rent shall be allowed as a remission of revenue, in which case a deduction shall be made from the said value proportionate to the value of such remission.

Payment of compensation may in certain cases be deferred.

XIX. If there exist any ground which, in the judgment of the Collector or other Officer, renders it improper to make immediate payment of the compensation, or of any portion thereof, to any of the persons having or claiming any interest in the land or in the compensation awarded in respect thereof, the amount, or such portion of the amount as he may deem sufficient, shall be invested in Government Securities, and held in deposit until an order of Court shall be obtained for the payment thereof.

Amount to be held in deposit.

Application by petition to competent Court for the money deposited.

XX. Upon the application by petition of any person claiming the amount so deposited, or any part thereof, any Court of competent jurisdiction may, in a summary way, order such money to be or to continue invested in Government Securities, or may order the distribution thereof, or payment of the interest thereof, according to the respective rights and interests of all persons making claim to such money or any part thereof, or may make such other order as the Court shall deem fit.

Reversal or alteration of award.

XXI. No award of arbitrators made under this Act, so far as regards the amount of compensation thereby awarded, shall be liable to be reversed or altered, except by the decision of a Civil Court, on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators, and in no case shall a suit to set aside an award under this Act be entertained unless it be instituted within three months from the date of the award. In case the award shall be reversed on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators, the matter shall be referred to another arbitrator or other arbitrators to be appointed in the same manner as the first.

A part of a house or building not to be taken.

XXII. The provisions of this Act shall not be put in force for the purpose of acquiring a part only of any house or other building or manufactory, if the owner desire that the whole of such house, building, or manufactory shall be taken.

When land is needed for a road, canal, &c., the general direction of the line shall be declared.

XXIII. Whenever any land is needed for a road, canal, railway, or the like, and the Local Government makes the declaration provided in Section II, it shall not be necessary to specify the extent, limits, or position of the land, but it shall be sufficient to declare the general direction of the line of the work and the average breadth of the land required for the same.

After declaration, persons authorized may enter upon the land and make a survey.

XXIV. When any declaration has been made under the provisions of Section II of this Act, any person authorized by Government in that behalf, with his servants and workmen, may enter upon the land for the purpose of making a survey thereof, and in the case of a road, canal, or railway, may set out the intended line thereof, and may mark such line by cutting a trench or placing land marks, and where otherwise the survey cannot be completed, and the line marked, may, with the sanction of the Government or of any Officer appointed by Government for this purpose, cut down and clear away any part of any jungle or tope of trees in the direction of the intended line. Provided that no person shall enter upon the curtilage of any house or any enclosed garden (unless with the consent of the occupier thereof) without previously giving the said occupier twenty-four hours' notice of his intention to do so.

Line of road may be marked out.

Land may be cleared.

Account of damage done to be taken.

XXV. It shall be the duty of the Officer so appointed by the Government to take account of all necessary damage done as aforesaid, that it may be allowed for in the compensation to be awarded.

Obstruction to setting out line of works, &c.

XXVI. Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in lawfully setting out the line of any road, canal, or railway, or wilfully destroys, damages, or displaces any land-mark, or effaces or fills any trench intended to mark such line, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months, or to fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to both.

Temporary occupation of adjacent land.

XXVII. The powers of this Act shall extend, in the case of any road, canal, or railway, to authorize the temporary occupation of any land not more than one hundred yards from the centre line of the road, canal, or railway, as marked on the ground, for taking earth or other materials for making or repairing the road, canal, or railway, or for depositing thereon superfluous earth or other materials, or erecting temporary buildings and work-shops thereon, or any land which may be needed for making temporary roads, from any public road to the intended line of railway; and for the temporary occupation of any such land, and for any permanent damage done by such occupation and use of the land, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other materials taken thence, compensation shall be paid to and among all persons having an interest therein, to be ascertained, in case of disagreement, in the same manner as compensation for land permanently taken.

Government may acquire land under the powers of this Act and vest the same in any person needing it for a work of public utility.

XXVIII. When any person, with the sanction of Government, shall undertake at his own cost any work of public utility, the Local Government may declare that any land required by such person for the execution of the work is needed for a public purpose, and thereupon such land may be taken under the provisions of this Act, and the Government may vest such land in such person on his paying the compensation awarded under this Act and all other expenses incurred in the acquisition of the land.

Trustees, Committees of lunatics, &c. empowered to act.

XXIX. In any proceedings under this Act, the following persons shall be deemed persons entitled to act as and to the extent hereinafter provided (that is to say)—a trustee or trustees for other persons beneficially interested shall in all cases be deemed the person or persons entitled to act with reference to any such proceedings, and that to the same extent as the persons beneficially interested could have acted if free from disability. A married woman, in cases to which the English Law is applicable, shall be deemed the person so entitled to act, and, whether of full age or not, to the same extent as if she were unmarried and of full age. The guardians of minors and the Committees of lunatics or idiots shall be deemed respectively the persons so entitled to act to the same extent as the minors, lunatics, or idiots themselves, if free from disability, could have acted.

Interpretation.

XXX. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something either in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say)—

The words "the Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company in which the land in question is situate.

The word "land" shall extend to tenements and hereditaments of any tenure, and all houses, buildings, trees, or appurtenances thereupon, as well as land.

The expression "person interested in the land" shall include all persons interested in the land, either for life or for years, or in remainder, reversion, or succession, and all mortgagees, lease-holders, or tenants, not being tenants by the month, or at will, of such land.

The word "Collector" shall mean any Collector, Deputy Collector, or other Revenue Officer in independent charge of any District or portion of a District.

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular.

Words importing the masculine gender only shall include females.

The word "person" shall include a corporation.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next :—

A Bill for the regulation of Native Passenger Ships.

Preamble.

WHEREAS abuses have occurred in the overcrowding of Ships conveying Native Passengers from ports and places within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company to other ports and places within the said territories and elsewhere; and whereas it is expedient to prevent such abuses, and to provide for the regulation of all Ships carrying Native Passengers which shall depart from or arrive at any of the ports or places within the said territories : It is enacted as follows :—

Definition of the term "Native Passenger Ship."

I. In the construction of this Act the words "Native Passenger Ship" shall mean every description of sea-going vessel carrying, upon any voyage to which this Act extends, more than thirty passengers being natives of Asia or Africa; or carrying upon any such voyage any number whatsoever of such passengers, in case the whole number of persons on board amounts to the proportion of two persons to every three tons of the registered or estimated tonnage of the vessel.

To what voyages this Act extends.

II. This Act shall extend to every Native Passenger Ship proceeding on any voyage (other than the voyages specified in Section XXV) from a port or place within the said territories to any other place whatsoever, whether within the said territories or not, where the duration of the voyage, to be prescribed as mentioned in Section XVII, shall exceed seven days.

Native Passenger Ship to sail only from ports appointed by Government.

III. No Native Passenger Ship shall depart upon any voyage to which this Act extends from any port or place within the said territories other than such ports and places as the local Government may, from time to time, appoint; and after the departure of any Native Passenger Ship upon any such voyage from a port or place so to be appointed, no person whatsoever shall be received on board as a passenger except at some other duly appointed port or place.

Not to sail without obtaining a certificate.

IV. No Native Passenger Ship shall depart upon any such voyage from any port or place appointed under this Act, until the Master shall have obtained a certificate from an Officer authorized to grant the same; nor until a bond shall have been entered into by the Master as provided in Section XXI.

Penalty.

V. If any Native Passenger Ship departs upon a voyage from any port or place within the said territories, or if any person shall be received as a passenger on board a Native Passenger Ship in contravention of the provisions of the last two preceding Sections, the Owner or Master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees for every passenger unlawfully received on board; and the Ship, if found within two years in any place within the said territories, may be seized and detained by any Chief Officer of Customs, until the penalties incurred under this Act have been adjudicated, and the payment thereof, with all costs, have been enforced under the provisions of Section XXXIII.

Appointment of Officers.

VI. The local Government shall determine the persons who shall be authorized to exercise or perform the powers and duties conferred or imposed by this Act.

Master to give notice of day of sailing.

VII. The Master of any Native Passenger Ship sailing from any port or place appointed under this Act shall give notice to the proper Officer that the Ship is to carry native passengers, and of her destination, and of the proposed day of sailing; such notice shall be given not less than seven days before the proposed day of sailing.

Power to enter and inspect ship.

VIII. After receiving such notice, the Officer aforesaid, or any person authorized by him, shall be at liberty at all times to enter and inspect the Ship and the fittings, provisions, and stores therein; and any person impeding or refusing to allow such inspection, shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees for each offence.

Ship may be surveyed.

IX. The Officer aforesaid may, if he think fit, cause the Ship to be surveyed at the expense of the Master by a competent surveyor, who shall report whether the Ship is, in his opinion, sea-worthy and fit for her intended voyage.

Officer to be satisfied before giving certificate—

X. The Officer aforesaid shall not give his certificate unless he shall be satisfied—

That the Ship is sea-worthy,

1. That the Ship is sea-worthy and properly manned, equipped, fitted, and ventilated; and has not on board any cargo likely, from its quality, quantity, or mode of stowage, to prejudice the health or safety of the passengers.

That the space between-decks for passengers is sufficient,

2. That the space appropriated to the passengers in the between-decks contains at the least twelve superficial and seventy-two cubical feet of space for every adult passenger on board, that is to say, for every passenger above twelve years of age, and for every two passengers between the ages of one year and twelve years.

That the space on the upper deck is sufficient,

3. That a space of five superficial feet per adult is left clear on the upper deck for the use of the passengers.

That there is a due supply of provisions.

4. That provisions, fuel, and water have been placed on board, of good quality, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the passengers on board during the declared duration of the intended voyage, according to the scale hereinafter contained.

Number of passengers.

XI. No such Ship shall carry any greater number of passengers than, together with the Master and Crew, shall amount to the proportion of two persons for every three tons of the registered or estimated tonnage of the Ship.

List of passengers.

XII. The Master of any such Ship shall, before commencing his voyage, sign two lists, specifying as accurately as may be the names and ages of all the passengers, and shall deliver them to the Officer aforesaid, who shall thereupon (after having first mustered the passengers and compared the number and names of such passengers with the lists) countersign and return to the Master one of such lists. The Master shall note in writing on such last-mentioned list, and on any additional list to be made under this Act, the date and supposed cause of death of any passenger who may die on the voyage, and shall forthwith on the arrival of the ship and before any passengers are landed, produce the list, with any additions thereto made, to any Chief Officer of Customs at any port in a British Colony, or to any person lawfully exercising Consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty in any Foreign port, or to any like Officer of Customs, or to the Officer (if any) appointed under this Act, at any port or place within the said territories at which the passengers or any of them shall be landed. In case of non-compliance with any of the requirements of this Section on the part of the Master, or if such lists shall be wilfully false, the Master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees for each offence.

Ship taking additional passengers and touching at intermediate port.

XIII. If, after the Ship shall have commenced her voyage, any additional passengers are taken on board at a port or place, within the said territories, appointed under this Act for the embarkation of passengers, or if such Ship shall, upon her voyage, touch or arrive at any such port, having previously received on board additional passengers at any place out of the said territories, the Master shall obtain a fresh certificate from the Officer at such port, and also lists of all such additional passengers shall be made; and all the provisions hereinbefore contained in that behalf shall be applicable to any certificate to be granted or any list to be made under this Section.

Penalty for fraudulent alteration in Ship after certificate obtained.

XIV. If any Master of a Ship, after having obtained a certificate under Section IV or Section XIII of this Act, shall fraudulently do or suffer to be done any act or thing whereby such certificate shall become inapplicable to the altered state of the Ship, its passengers, or other matters to which such certificate relates, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two thousand Rupees.

Information to be transmitted to ports of embarkation.

XV. The Chief Officer of Customs, or the Officer (if any) appointed under this Act, at any port or place within the said territories at which the Ship shall touch or arrive, shall forthwith transmit any particulars which he may deem important respecting the Ship and the passengers conveyed thereby and the requirements of this Act, to the Officer at the port from which the Ship commenced her voyage, and also to the Officer at any other port within the said territories where the passengers or any of them embarked.

Report of Collector, Consul, &c., to be admissible in evidence.

XVI. In any proceeding under this Act or in respect of the bond hereby required, any document purporting to be a report of such particulars as are referred to in the last preceding Section, or a copy of the proceedings of any Court of Justice duly authenticated, and also any like document purporting to be made and signed by any Chief Officer of Customs at any port in a British Colony or by any person lawfully exercising Consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty in any Foreign port, shall be received in evidence, if the same appears to have been officially transmitted to any Officer at or near the place where the proceeding under this Act is had.

Length of voyage to be fixed by proclamation.

XVII. It shall be lawful for the local Government, by any proclamation to be from time to time issued for that purpose and published in the Government Gazette, (if any,) or in one of the public newspapers, to declare what shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, the duration of the voyage of any Native Passenger Ship from any port or place to any other port or place.

Quantity of provisions and water to be shipped.

XVIII. Every Native Passenger Ship at the time of departure from the port or place at which passengers shall be embarked under this Act, shall have on board good and wholesome provisions for the use and consumption of the passengers, over and above the victualling of the crew, to the amount or in the proportion following, that is to say, a supply of water to the amount of five gallons to every week of the computed voyage for every passenger on board, such water being carried in tanks or sweet casks, and a supply of rice, bread, biscuit, flour, oatmeal, or bread stuffs, to the amount of seven pounds' weight to every week of the computed voyage for every such passenger; provided always, that, when any such Ship shall be destined to call at a port or place in the course of her voyage for the purpose of filling up her water-casks, a supply of water at the rate before mentioned for every week of an average voyage to such port or place of calling shall be deemed to be a compliance with this Act. The provision of this Section regarding food shall be deemed to have been complied with in any case where it shall appear that, by the special authority of the local Government, any other articles of food were substituted for the articles above enumerated as being equivalent thereto.

Issue of provisions.

XIX. The Master of any Native Passenger Ship shall, every day during the voyage, including the time of detention at any place before the termination thereof, issue to each passenger, or to the headman of each mess (if any), for the use of all the members thereof, provisions and water of the description and according to the provisions mentioned in the last preceding Section; and in case of non-compliance with any of the requirements of this Section, the Master shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for each offence.

Contract by passengers for supply of their own provisions.

XX. The requirements of this Act respecting the issue of provisions shall not, except as to the issue of water, be applicable to any passenger who may have contracted to furnish his own provisions.

Master to give security bond.

XXI. Before the commencement of any voyage to which the provisions of this Act extend, the Master of any Native Passenger Ship, together with the owner or some other sufficient person to be approved by the Officer aforesaid, shall enter into a joint and several bond in the sum of five thousand Rupees to conform to the several requirements of this Act. The bond shall be executed in duplicate, that it may be put in suit either at the place of execution or at any other place within the said territories; and one copy thereof may be forwarded to any Chief Officer of Customs or other Officer at any port or place within the said territories, with a certificate endorsed thereon that the same has been duly executed, which certificate, purporting to be under the hand of the Officer at the place of the execution thereof, shall be sufficient proof of the due execution of the bond.

Penalty of bond when recoverable.

XXII. The said penal sum of five thousand Rupees shall be due and recoverable notwithstanding any penalty imposed by this Act, and whether such penalty shall have been sued for and recovered or not.

Penalty on Ships bringing excessive number of passengers to any Indian port.

XXIII. If any Ship, bringing passengers into any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, shall have on board a greater number of passengers or persons than in the proportion prescribed by this Act, the Master of such Ship shall, in addition to any other penalty which he may have incurred under the provisions of this Act, be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees for each person in excess of such proportion.

Issue of provisions on board of Ships bringing passengers to any Indian port.

XXIV. The Master of every Ship bringing passengers to any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, shall make, during the voyage, including any time of detention, issues of pure water and wholesome provisions in quantities not less in amount than in the proportions mentioned in Section XVIII; and in case of non-compliance, the Master shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for each offence.

Act not to apply to Coolie emigration ships,

XXV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to apply to any vessel carrying emigrant laborers from the said territories to any British or Foreign Colonies without the said territories to which they may now or hereafter lawfully be conveyed under the laws applicable thereto: nor to any vessel carrying native passengers from any port under the Presidency of Fort St. George to any port on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal, or in the Straits of Malacca, or in Ceylon, or reversely, under Act of 1856.

To Ships carrying native passengers in the Bay of Bengal,

Act not to apply to Ships of War

XXVI. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to any Ship-of-War or Transport belonging to or in the Service of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, or to any Ship-of-War belonging to any Foreign Prince or State, or to any Ship under contract with the Government of any European State, or to any Sea-going Steam Vessel regularly employed in the conveyance of the public mails under a contract. And none of the foregoing provisions of this Act shall apply to any other Sea-going Steam Vessels which shall be exempted from the said provisions by a certificate to be granted under the next following Section.

To sea-going steamers conveying public mails.

Or to steamers specially exempted.

Certificates to be granted to coasting and other steamers after survey, &c.

XXVII. Sea-going Steam Vessels requiring certificates of exemption under the preceding Section, and also all Sea-going Steam Vessels plying on coasting voyages from or to any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, whatever may be the duration of the voyage, shall procure certificates, to be granted to them only as is hereinafter provided; any such certificate shall be granted at the discretion of an Officer authorized to grant the same by the local Government, and shall remain in force for the period therein specified, unless sooner revoked. The Officer so appointed shall not grant such certificate, or suffer the same to remain in force, unless he is satisfied, by inspection or survey (to be made at least twice in each year at the expense of the Master or owner, and upon payment of a fee not exceeding twenty Rupees), that such Steam Vessel is seaworthy, and that the engines and machinery are in a fit state to enable her to proceed on her voyage. The certificate shall state the limits (if any) within which the vessel is to ply, and shall also contain a statement of the number of passengers which the vessel is fit to carry; such number to be subject to such conditions and variations according to the time of year, the nature of the voyage, and the cargo carried, as the case requires.

Copy of certificate to be placed in conspicuous part of Ship.

XXVIII. The Owner or Master of any such Steam Vessel shall put up in a conspicuous part of the Ship, so as to be visible to persons on board the same, a copy of the said certificate, and shall cause it to be continued in such position so long as the certificate remains in force, and in default, such Owner or Master shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

Penalty for excess of number specified in certificate.

XXIX. If such Steam Vessel has on board thereof any number of passengers which, having regard to the time of the year and other circumstances, is greater than the number allowed by the certificate, the Owner or Master shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for every passenger over and above the number allowed by the certificate.

Grant of certificate to be subject to control of Government.

XXX. In the grant or revocation of any certificate whatsoever under this Act, the Officer granting the same shall be subject to the control of the local Government or of any intermediate authority which that Government may appoint.

Penalty on wrongfully landing passengers.

XXXI. If any native passenger in any Ship, whether a Native Passenger Ship within the meaning of this Act or not, shall be landed at any port or place other than the port or place at which he may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless such landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the Master shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Passenger's right of action preserved.

XXXII. Nothing in this Act contained shall take away or abridge any right of action which may accrue to any native passenger, or to any other person, in respect of the breach or non-performance of any contract made with the Master or Owner of the Ship or his Agent.

Adjudication of offences and recovery of penalties.

XXXIII. All offences against this Act shall be punishable in a summary manner by a Magistrate. The provisions of Act XIII of 1856, relating to the adjudication of fines and penalties and the enforcing payment thereof, shall apply to penalties imposed under this Act in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca. In all other ports and places within the said territories, the penalties hereby imposed shall be recoverable under the provisions of Act II of 1839. If the person directed to pay the penalty is the Master or Owner of a Ship, and the same is not paid at the time and in the manner prescribed by the order of payment, the Magistrate may, in addition to the means prescribed by law for enforcing payment, direct by warrant the amount remaining unpaid to be levied by distress and sale of the said Ship, her tackle, furniture, and apparel.

Sum ordered to be paid leviable by distress on Ship.

Jurisdiction.

XXXIV. For the purpose of the adjudication of offences and penalties under this Act, any offence shall be deemed to have been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of the place where the offender is found.

By whom proceedings for penalties may be taken.

XXXV. The penalties to which Masters and Owners of Ships are liable by this Act, shall be enforced only by information laid at the instance of the Officers appointed to grant certificates under this Act; or at any port or place where there is no such Officer, by the Chief Officer of Customs. The bond given by the Master shall not be put in suit, unless the person suing is authorized thereunto by the Chief Civil Authority of the place where the bond shall have been entered into.

Application of penalties.

XXXVI. Any Magistrate imposing any penalty under this Act may, if he thinks fit, direct the whole or any part thereof to be applied in compensating any person for any wrong or damage which he may have sustained by the act or default in respect of which such penalty is imposed, or in or towards payment of the expenses of the proceedings.

Interpretation.

XXXVII. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include a Joint Magistrate and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate in places other than the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca; and in the places last mentioned, the word shall mean a Magistrate of Police appointed under Act XIII of 1856.

The words "Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the said territories where the port or place in question is situate.

The word "Master" shall include every person having command or charge of a Ship.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill for taking account of the population of the Town of Bombay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to take an account of the population of the Town of Bombay: It is enacted as follows:—

Account of population to be taken.

I. At the time and in the manner hereinafter directed, an account shall be taken of the number of persons who, at the time of taking such account, shall be within the Town of Bombay, and the persons employed in taking such account shall set down the several particulars respecting the same which are hereinafter prescribed.

Commissioner of Police to superintend the taking an account of the population.

II. The Commissioner of Police shall have the care of superintending the taking of such account, and shall cause to be prepared, for the use of the persons to be employed, such forms and instructions as he shall, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, deem necessary, and such forms and instructions shall be issued to the persons for whose use they are intended; and all the expenses incurred under this Act shall be defrayed out of the Municipal Fund.

Enumeration Districts.

III. Each Police division of the Town shall be formed into one or more Enumeration Districts.

Members of the Police force to be employed as enumerators.

IV. The Commissioner of Police shall select from the Members of the Police force a sufficient number of competent persons, and, should it be necessary, may employ others as Special Constables under Section XX of Act XIII of 1856, to act as enumerators; and every such enumerator, under the direction of the Commissioner of Police, shall visit every house within his District, except as hereinafter provided, and shall take an account in writing of the name, sex, age, caste, tribe, and occupation of every living person who shall abide therein on the night immediately preceding the day hereinafter appointed, and shall also take an account of the occupied houses and the houses then building and therefore uninhabited, and also of all other uninhabited houses, within his District, and in all respects conform to, and obey, the instructions which may be issued to him by the Commissioner of Police in this behalf.

Schedules.

V. The Commissioner of Police, when he may deem such a course to be advisable, may cause a Schedule, in such form as shall be sanctioned by the Governor in Council, to be delivered to any occupier of any dwelling-house who he shall have ascertained is able to write, and such occupier shall fill in all the particulars required in the form on the day to be appointed, and shall deliver the same to such persons as may be duly authorized to demand the same.

VI. Any Military or Naval Officers in command of bodies of Military or Naval men, or of Vessels of War, or any Master of a Merchant Vessel or Nacquodah or Tindal of a vessel or boat, or any person in charge of a Lunatic Asylum, Hospital, or Prison, or of any public or private charitable or scholastic institution, or any keepers of Hotels or Lodging-houses, shall, if required, act as enumerators for the purpose of taking account of persons under their command or charge, or abiding in their houses on the night previous to the day to be appointed; every person so required to act as an enumerator shall receive and conform to all instructions in writing which may be issued to him by the Commissioner of Police in that behalf.

Military and Naval Officers and others, if required, to act as enumerators.

VII. The Commissioner of Police shall obtain, by such ways and means as shall appear to him best adapted for the purpose and as shall be sanctioned by the Governor in Council, returns of the particulars required by this Act with respect to all houseless persons and all persons who, during the said night of the day to be appointed, were on out-door night duty, or for any other reason were not abiding in any house of which account is to be taken by the enumerators.

Returns of houseless persons.

VIII. On such day in the year 1857 as shall be appointed and notified in the Official Gazette by the Governor of Bombay in Council, every occupier of a dwelling-house, or of any part of a dwelling-house distinctly occupied, and every person to whom a Schedule, as hereinbefore provided, may have been delivered, shall afford such information in regard to all persons who were abiding in his house or in the place under his charge on the night immediately preceding, and in such manner as may under this Act be lawfully required of them.

Upon the appointed day occupiers of houses shall give the required information.

IX. Every occupier of a house, who wilfully gives verbally or in writing a false statement of, or neglects or refuses to give, such returns and answers as under this Act may be lawfully required of him, and every person employed or required to act as an enumerator, who makes wilful default in any of the matters required of him, shall, on summary conviction of such offence before a Magistrate of Police, be liable to a fine of five hundred Rupees or imprisonment for three months.

Penalty.

X. The following words in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

Interpretation.

The words "Town of Bombay" shall include the Islands of Bombay and Colaba and the Port of Bombay as defined under the provisions of Act XXII of 1855 (An Act for the Regulation of Ports and Port-dues.)

The words "Commissioner of Police" shall include a Deputy Commissioner of Police specially appointed to perform the duties assigned to a Commissioner by this Act.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

General Orders by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council.

Fort William, 18th September 1856.

No. 1194 of 1856.—The following Notification, from the Foreign Department, is published in General Orders:—

No. 4762, dated 12th September 1856.—Lieutenant C. K. M. Walter, Officiating Assistant to the Agent to the Governor General for the States of Rajpootana, has obtained leave of absence, under the Military Rules, for one month, from the 1st instant, on private affairs.

No. 1195 of 1856.—The following Notification, from the Public Works Department, is published in General Orders:—

No. 166, dated 15th September 1856.—Appointment.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following appointment:—

Lieutenant E. C. S. Williams, of Engineers, Superintendent of the Topographical Survey in Pegu, to be Principal of the Civil Engineering College at the Presidency.

No. 1196 of 1856.—The Pay, Batta, and other Allowances for September 1856, of the Troops at the Presidency and at the other Stations of the Army, will be issued on or after Wednesday, the 1st proximo.

No. 1197 of 1856.—The under-mentioned Officer, having completed three years' service in the Regimental rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, is promoted to the rank of Colonel in the Army, in conformity with Government General Order No. 366, of the 23rd March 1855:—

BREVET.

Lieutenant-Colonel Francis Archibald Reid, C. B., Madras Infantry, to be Colonel in the Army from the 22nd August 1856.

Fort William, 19th September 1856.

No. 1198 of 1856.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council has had, under his consideration, a report of the circumstances connected with a violent and angry interference on the part of Captain Doris, of the 25th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, Commandant of the 4th Cavalry, Hyderabad Contingent, and Commanding the Station of Hingolee, with a large concourse of Natives engaged in the celebration of a marriage on the 8th of August last, many of them being Soldiers of the Contingent.

G. G. O. No. 132, dated 23rd January 1856.

After the painful events which occurred last year at Bolarum, the measures taken, and the Order issued thereupon by the Government of India, it might have been expected that the Officers of the Hyderabad Contingent, especially those of experience and in high Command, would have learnt the value of temper, forbearance, and caution, in any circumstances which should bring them into contact with Native ceremonies and rites.

The act of Captain Doria, as admitted by himself, was one of anger so violent as to draw blood, and it was committed upon persons and on an occasion which stamp it as deserving prompt and most severe punishment.

Making every possible allowance for the motives which dictated Captain Doria's interference, an Officer who has exhibited such lamentable want of self control, and who not only is not restrained by a sense of his duty from seeking personal collision with his inferiors, but is utterly regardless of warnings and orders which must be fresh in his recollection, cannot fitly and safely be trusted with the Command which Captain Doria holds.

Therefore, the Right Hon'ble the Governor General in Council is pleased to resolve, that Captain Doria shall be removed from the Command which he now holds in the Hyderabad Contingent; and that Officer's services are accordingly placed at the disposal of the Madras Government for Regimental duty.

No. 1199 of 1856.—The Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to make the following promotion:—

43th Regiment Native Infantry.

Ensign James Vere Hunt to be Lieutenant from the 6th September 1856, vice Lieutenant Robert Thomas Taylor, deceased.

No. 1200 of 1856.—The leave of absence to proceed to Sea and to the North of China, on Medical certificate, granted to Captain W. D. Harris, of the 2nd European Bengal Fusiliers, in Government General Order No. 1058 of the 19th October 1855, and extended in Government General Order No. 128 of the 22nd January 1856, is further extended for six months, viz., from the 21st September 1856 to the 21st March 1857, on the same account.

No. 1201 of 1856.—The under-mentioned Officers reported their departure on the dates specified opposite their respective names:—

Captain G. H. Sandham, of the 1st Regiment Light Cavalry, on leave for two years. G. G. O. No. 1070, dated the 11th August 1856, ...	Palmyra, 9th September 1856.
Lieutenant L. Munro, of the 43rd Regiment Light Infantry, on leave for two years. G. G. O. No. 1165, of the 8th September 1856, ...	Bengal, 10th September 1856.

R. J. H. Birch, Colonel,
Secy. to the Govt. of India,

Notification.

Persons desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

The Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication: or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

Banqueting Hall,
7th February 1856.

With reference to the foregoing Notification, which the undersigned has been requested to publish in the Calcutta Gazette, he begs to state that he has been also requested to receive from the Bengal Presidency all Packages containing Contributions for the Madras Exhibition of 1857.

J. H. BELL,
Officiating Mint Master.

MEMO.

THE following revised Directions for approaching the Sandheads are published for general information.

By order of the Offg. Supdt. of Marine,

FORT WILLIAM,
The 15th September 1856.

H. HOWE,
Secretary.

DIRECTIONS

FOR

APPROACHING THE SANDHEADS IN BOTH MONSOONS.

THE SOUTH-WEST MONSOON.

THE South-West Monsoon may be considered to commence on the 15th March, on which date the Pilot Vessels take up their station near the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge as described below. The South-West Monsoon is over by the end of September.

2*nd*. False Point Light House is in latitude 20° 19½′ North and longitude 86° 47′ East, and a Buoy is placed in 2½ fathoms on the Pilot's Ridge, in latitude 20° 49½′ North and longitude 87° 42′ East, the Buoy therefore bears from False Point Light House North 59° 49′ East, true, and distant 59½ miles.

3rd. A Vessel, therefore, after making the Light House at False Point (in passing which she ought not to go into less than 10 fathoms), should bring it to bear about West-South-West 10 or 15 miles distant, when she will be in 11 or 12 fathoms; then steer East-North-Eastward when the soundings will gradually increase to 23 fathoms on the Eastern edge of the Pilot's Ridge; she should then regulate her course so as to keep between the Ridge and 27 fathoms, when, by attention to the lead and nature of the soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to avoid making the Pilot Vessels, as their cruizing ground is immediately to the North-East of the Light Vessel stationed during the South-West Mousoon in close proximity to the Buoy on the Ridge.

4th. The soundings to seaward of the Pilot's Ridge are, in general, a greenish or olive-colored mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it; whilst those on the Ridge are of a shelly sand, or minute gravel, of a reddish or rusty brown color.

5th. Vessels approaching the Station are earnestly warned to be careful in avoiding collision when communicating with either the Light, or supplying Pilot Vessels; and, on making the former at night, they are strongly recommended to heave to, at a proper distance, till day-light, by which measure they will avoid the probability of passing the supplying Pilot Vessels in the darkness of the night.

6th. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel is in latitude 21° 04′ North and longitude 88½° 14′ East, and therefore bears from the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge, North 63° 26′ East, true; and distant 32½ miles. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel, from the 15th March to the 15th September, burns a blue light every half hour and a maroon every quarter hour during the night, commencing at 7 P. M.; and her standing light is a plain light.

7th. The Pilot's Ridge Light Vessel shows from the 15th March to the 15th of September a plain standing light, and burns a blue light every hour and a maroon at the intermediate half hours.

8th. It is important to observe the difference as to the blue lights and maroons shown by the Eastern Channel and the Ridge Light respectively, as, if this is attended to, a Vessel, out in her reckoning, or uncertain of her position, cannot possibly mistake one for the other.

THE NORTH-EAST MONSOON.

9th. This Monsoon, which constitutes the fine season in the Head of the Bay of Bengal, is considered to commence in October and end in the beginning of March. During this season the Pilot Station is about the outer Floating Light situated in the Eastern Channel as above, and Vessels coming in should make directly for that mark. The Pilot Vessels cruize in the day time spreading East and West of, sometimes a little to the Southward of the Light Vessel, and at night anchor in positions not far from her. At this season she shows a maroon or torch-light every half hour and a blue light every hour.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 20th September 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General on the 19th September 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XIX OF 1856.

An Act to enable the Governor General of India in Council to suspend the operation of certain Acts relating to the Emigration of Native Laborers.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by several Acts passed by the Governor General of India in Council, the emigration of Native Inhabitants of India to certain British Colonies is authorized, subject to certain regulations for the protection of such Emigrants; and whereas it is expedient that the Governor General of India in Council should have power, from time to time, to suspend any of the said Acts so far as they relate to emigration to any Colony or place in which the said Governor General in Council shall have reason to believe that proper measures have not been taken for the protection of the Emigrants immediately upon their arrival thereat or during their residence therein, or for their safe return at or near to the time at which the Government of such Colony or place was bound to find them a return passage to India: It is enacted as follows :—

Governor General in Council empowered in certain cases to prohibit by notification the emigration of Native laborers to any Colony to which emigration is allowed by law.

I. Whenever the Governor General of India in Council shall have reason to believe that, in any Colony or place to which the emigration of Natives of India is allowed, proper measures have not been taken for the protection of such Emigrants immediately upon their arrival in such Colony or place or during their residence therein, or for their safe return to India, or to provide a return passage to India for any such Emigrants at or about the time at which they are entitled to such return passage, it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, to declare that the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place shall cease and be prohibited from a certain day to be specified in the notification.

Operation of any Act permitting emigration, to be suspended from the day specified in the notification.

II. After the notification shall have been so published, the operation of any Act by which the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place is allowed, shall be suspended from the day specified in the notification, so far as such Act authorizes emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place; but such suspension shall not affect any act done, offence committed, or proceedings commenced before such suspension.

During such suspension, all the laws against emigration shall be in force as to the Colony specified in the notification.

III. During the time of such suspension, any Act in force for the time being which prohibits the emigration of Natives of India, or the aiding or abetting of such emigration, or the making of any contract for labour to be performed by any Native of India out of the territories of the East India Company, shall take effect and be in force, so far as relates to the Colony or place specified in the notification, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the Act suspended had never been

Revocation of suspension.

IV. Whenever the Governor General of India in Council shall be satisfied that, in the Colony or place specified in the notification, proper measures have been taken and will be adopted for the protection of Emigrants immediately upon their arrival thereat and during their residence therein, and for their safe return to India, and for providing return passages to India for such Emigrants at or near to the time at which they are entitled to such return passages, it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council to notify in the Calcutta Gazette that the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony shall be allowed from a day to be specified in such notification; and thereupon any Act which may have been suspended by virtue of this Act shall, from the day so specified, be revived and have the same force and effect as if it had not been suspended, except as to acts done, offences committed, and proceedings commenced during the time of such suspension.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill relating to the imprisonment of Criminals in the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen whether the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca has power to sentence any person, convicted before it of an offence punishable with imprisonment, to be imprisoned in any Gaol or House of Correction wherein such person will not be in the custody of the Sheriff of the said Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, or of one of his Deputies; and whereas it is expedient that the said Court should have such power in certain cases: It is enacted and declared as follows (that is to say)—

Convicts sentenced to imprisonment with hard labor or in solitary confinement may be imprisoned in a Gaol appointed by the Governor.

I. It shall be lawful for the said Court of Judicature, whether sitting as a Court of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol delivery, or holding General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to sentence any person, convicted before it of an offence punishable with imprisonment and hard labor, or with imprisonment and solitary confinement during any portion or portions of such imprisonment, to be imprisoned in any Gaol or House of Correction within the said Settlement which the Governor of the said Settlement shall, by writing under his hand, declare to be fit for the reception of prisoners so sentenced.

Persons now under sentence of imprisonment in any Gaol may be detained there.

II. Any person, who has heretofore been sentenced by the said Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca to be imprisoned for any term warranted by law in any Gaol or House of Correction in the said Settlement, shall be liable to be detained in such Gaol or House of Correction for so much of the said term of imprisonment as shall remain unexpired; and nothing heretofore done in conformity with any such sentence shall be called in question in any Court of Law.

Certain prisoners in the custody of the Sheriff may be removed to a Gaol appointed by the Governor.

III. It shall be lawful for the Governor of the said Settlement to order any prisoner, who is now in the custody of the Sheriff of the said Settlement and is subject, under any sentence of the said Court of Judicature, to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, or to be imprisoned and kept in solitary confinement for any portion or portions of such imprisonment, to be removed to any Gaol or House of Correction within the said Settlement, wherein he may more conveniently or effectually undergo such punishment, and to be detained therein during the remainder of the term of imprisonment to which he has been sentenced.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill for the acquisition of land for public purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to make better provision for the acquisition of land needed for public purposes within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, and for the determination of the amount of compensation to be made for the same: It is enacted as follows:—

Laws repealed.

I. Sections I to VII inclusive, Regulation I. 1824 of the Bengal Code; so much of Act XXVIII of 1839 as is in force; Act I of 1850; Act XVII of 1850; Act XLII of 1850; Act XX of 1852; and Act I of 1854—are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole or any part of any other Regulation or Act, and except as to suits commenced, contracts made, acts done, and liabilities incurred before the passing of this Act.

After declaration that land is needed for a public purpose, Government may take possession.

II. Whenever it shall appear to the Local Government that any land is needed for a public purpose, a declaration shall be made to that effect under the signature of a Secretary to the Government or of some duly authorized Officer, and such declaration shall be conclusive evidence that the purpose for which the land is needed is a public purpose; and after making such declaration, the Government may take any such land in the manner hereinafter provided.

After declaration, the land to be marked out and measured.

III. Whenever any land shall have been declared to be needed for a public purpose, the Government shall direct the Collector of the District or some other Officer to cause the land to be marked out and measured.

Notice to all persons interested in the land.

IV. After the land has been so marked out and measured, the Collector or other Officer shall give notice to the occupier (if any) thereof and to all persons known or believed to be interested therein, that the land is about to be taken by Government for a public purpose, and shall cause a notice to the same effect to be affixed in some conspicuous place upon the land and published by proclamation in the neighbouring bazars and villages. Such notice shall contain a citation calling on all persons interested in the land to appear at a time and place therein mentioned, such time not being less than fifteen days after the date of notice, and to state the nature of their interests in the land and the amount and particulars of their claims to compensation for the same.

Collector to ascertain the value of the land, and the rights of the persons interested.

V. On the day fixed, the Collector or other Officer shall inquire summarily into the value of the land and the amount of compensation to be awarded and into the rights of all persons having or claiming any interest therein; and if he and all the persons whose claims appear to him to be valid, and who have attended in pursuance of the notice, agree as to the amount of compensation to be allowed and the apportionment thereof, shall make an award for the same; and such award, so far as it respects the value of the land and the amount of compensation thereby awarded for the same, shall be final and conclusive.

Collector to make award, which shall be conclusive as to the value.

If Collector and persons interested are unable to agree as to the amount of compensation, the dispute shall be referred to arbitrators.

VI. If the Collector or other Officer shall be unable to agree, with the persons whose claims appear to him to be valid and who have attended in pursuance of the notice, as to the amount of compensation to be awarded, or if any dispute shall arise as to the division or apportionment of such amount, the matter in dispute shall be referred to the determination of arbitrators, to be appointed in the manner hereinafter provided.

After Collector's award or reference to arbitration, possession may be taken, and the land shall be vested absolutely in the Government.

Liability of person who has received compensation for land not having a right thereto.

VII. When the Collector or other Officer has made an award or directed a reference to arbitration, he may take immediate possession of the land, which shall thenceforward be vested absolutely in the Government, free from all other estates, rights, titles, and interests. Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall affect the liability of any person who may receive the value of any land so taken without having a good title to the same.

Magistrate to enforce surrender of land.

VIII. If the Collector or other Officer is opposed or impeded in taking possession of such land, he shall apply to the Magistrate of the District, who shall enforce the surrender of the land.

Appointment of arbitrators.

IX. Clause 1.—When any case is referred to arbitration, the Collector or other Officer, and the person interested in the matter in dispute, shall, unless they concur in the appointment of a single arbitrator, each appoint one arbitrator; if there be several persons having a joint interest in the matter in dispute, and they cannot agree in the appointment of an arbitrator, such disagreement shall be deemed a refusal to appoint within the meaning of the next following Section.

Clause 2.—If there be several persons having distinct and separate interests in the matter in dispute, and they cannot agree in the appointment of an arbitrator on their behalf, it shall be competent to the Collector (subject to the orders of the Commissioner or other superior Revenue Authority) either to refer each of such distinct and separate interests to a separate arbitration, or to select any one of such persons whose interest appears to him of such a description as to qualify such person to represent the others; and the person so selected shall appoint an arbitrator on behalf of all the persons interested in the matter in dispute.

In every case the appointment shall be in writing, and neither of the parties to the arbitration shall have power to revoke the same without the consent of the other.

In default of appointment of arbitrator by persons interested, the arbitrator appointed by the Collector shall act.

X. If the persons interested in the matter in dispute, or authorized to act in that behalf, refuse or neglect for the period of one week to appoint an arbitrator, then a single arbitrator appointed by the said Collector or Officer shall arbitrate the matter.

Appointment of umpire.

XI. When more than one arbitrator shall be appointed, the arbitrators shall, before they enter upon the matter referred to them, nominate and appoint by writing a third person to act with them as arbitrator; and in case the arbitrators shall neglect to appoint such third person for a period of one week after having been required to do so, the Collector or other Officer shall appoint a third arbitrator.

Arbitrator refusing or becoming incapable to act, &c.

XII. If any person, on being appointed an arbitrator, shall refuse to act, or, after accepting the appointment, shall die or become incapable of acting, another person shall be appointed in his stead, in the same manner in which the first person was appointed.

Collector to exercise certain powers for securing completion of award.

XIII. After the arbitrators have accepted the appointment, the Collector or other Officer shall be competent to exercise towards them such powers and authority for securing their attendance and the due completion of their award, as the Collector may legally exercise towards witnesses summoned before him when acting judicially for the purpose of compelling them to attend and give evidence.

In default of award within a specified period, fresh arbitrators may be chosen.

XIV. If no award be made within a period to be fixed for that purpose by the Collector or other Officer, he may order that the matter shall be referred to another arbitrator or other arbitrators to be chosen in the same manner and subject to the same rules as the first.

Collector, &c. to furnish information to the arbitrators, and to enforce the attendance and examination of witnesses, &c.

XV. The Collector or other Officer shall furnish to the arbitrators, or so far as may be in his power procure for them, any information which his records or those of any public department may afford connected with the subject of enquiry. He shall, on the application of the arbitrators, summon any witnesses whom the arbitrators may call for and whom the parties may not be able to produce before them without such process, and require the persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds, writings, maps, and plans as they shall require. He shall also cause the proper affirmation to be made by any witness whom the arbitrators may desire to examine upon affirmation, or he may empower the arbitrators to cause such affirmation to be made before them. Any witness who shall refuse or omit to appear when duly summoned by the Collector or other Officer, or who shall appear but shall refuse to make such affirmation, or who shall refuse to give evidence, shall be liable to the same punishment which would be incurred under the law by a witness refusing to appear or give evidence before the Collector when acting judicially. Any person giving intentionally and deliberately a false deposition under an affirmation, in any case referred to arbitration, as above, shall be held to be guilty of perjury, and shall be liable to the penalties prescribed for that offence by law.

Award of the arbitrators.

XVI. On the close of the enquiry, the arbitrators or a majority of them shall deliver a full and complete award in respect of the matter referred to them, and shall therein specify (as the nature of the case may require) the amount and particulars of compensation awarded by them, the persons entitled thereto, and the proportions in which they are so entitled. The proceedings of the arbitration shall be deposited in the office of the Collector or other Officer, and every person interested therein shall be entitled to a copy of the award on plain paper under the seal and signature of the Collector or other Officer, which copy shall be primâ facie evidence thereof.

Compensation to include damage done to adjoining land.

XVII. When any land is taken under the provisions of this Act, the amount of compensation to be awarded shall include any damage which may be done thereby to any adjoining land.

Proceeding where land paying revenue to Government is taken.

XVIII. When any land taken under this Act forms part of an estate paying revenue to Government, the award shall specify the net rent of the land including the Government Revenue, and the computed value of such rent; and it shall be at the discretion of the Revenue Authorities, either to pay over the whole of such value to the owner of the estate on the condition of his continuing to pay the jumma thereof without abatement, or to determine what proportion of the net rent shall be allowed as a remission of revenue, in which case a deduction shall be made from the said value proportionate to the value of such remission.

Payment of compensation may in certain cases be deferred.

XIX. If there exist any ground which, in the judgment of the Collector or other Officer, renders it improper to make immediate payment of the compensation, or of any portion thereof, to any of the persons having or claiming any interest in the land or in the compensation awarded in respect thereof, the amount, or such portion of the amount as he may deem sufficient, shall be invested in Government Securities, and held in deposit until an order of Court shall be obtained for the payment thereof.

Amount to be held in deposit.

Application by petition to competent Court for the money deposited.

XX. Upon the application by petition of any person claiming the amount so deposited, or any part thereof, any Court of competent jurisdiction may, in a summary way, order such money to be or to continue invested in Government Securities, or may order the distribution thereof, or payment of the interest thereof, according to the respective rights and interests of all persons making claim to such money or any part thereof, or may make such other order as the Court shall deem fit.

Reversal or alteration of award.

XXI. No award of arbitrators made under this Act, so far as regards the amount of compensation thereby awarded, shall be liable to be reversed or altered, except by the decision of a Civil Court on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators, and in no case shall a suit to set aside an award under this Act be entertained unless it be instituted within three months from the date of the award. In case the award shall be reversed on the ground of corruption or misconduct of the arbitrators, the matter shall be referred to another arbitrator or other arbitrators to be appointed in the same manner as the first.

A part of a house or building not to be taken.

XXII. The provisions of this Act shall not be put in force for the purpose of acquiring a part only of any house or other building or manufactory, if the owner desire that the whole of such house, building, or manufactory shall be taken.

When land is needed for a road, canal, &c., the general direction of the line shall be declared.

XXIII. Whenever any land is needed for a road, canal, railway, or the like, and the Local Government makes the declaration provided in Section II, it shall not be necessary to specify the extent, limits, or position of the land, but it shall be sufficient to declare the general direction of the line of the work and the average breadth of the land required for the same.

After declaration, persons authorized may enter upon the land and make a survey.

Line of road may be marked out.

XXIV. When any declaration has been made under the provisions of Section II of this Act, any person authorized by Government in that behalf, with his servants and workmen, may enter upon the land for the purpose of making a survey thereof, and in the case of a road, canal, or railway, may set out the intended line thereof, and may mark such line by cutting a trench or placing land-marks, and where otherwise the survey cannot be completed, and the line marked, may, with the sanction of the Government or of any Officer appointed by Government for this purpose, cut down and clear away any part of any jungle or tope of trees in the direction of the intended line. Provided that no person shall enter upon the curtilage of any house or any enclosed garden (unless with the consent of the occupier thereof) without previously giving the said occupier twenty-four hours' notice of his intention to do so.

Land may be cleared.

Account of damage done to be taken.

XXV. It shall be the duty of the Officer so appointed by the Government to take account of all necessary damage done as aforesaid, that it may be allowed for in the compensation to be awarded.

Obstruction to setting out line of works, &c.

XXVI. Whoever wilfully obstructs any person in lawfully setting out the line of any road, canal, or railway, or wilfully destroys, damages, or displaces any land-mark, or effaces or fills any trench intended to mark such line, shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months, or to fine not exceeding two hundred Rupees, or to both.

Temporary occupation of adjacent land.

XXVII. The powers of this Act shall extend, in the case of any road, canal, or railway, to authorize the temporary occupation of any land not more than one hundred yards from the centre line of the road, canal, or railway, as marked off the ground, for taking earth or other materials for making or repairing the road, canal, or railway, or for depositing thereon superfluous earth or other materials, or erecting temporary buildings and work-shops thereon, or any land which may be needed for making temporary roads, from any public road to the intended line of railway; and for the temporary occupation of any such land, and for any permanent damage done by such occupation and use of the land, including the full value of all clay, stone, gravel, sand, and other materials taken thence, compensation shall be paid to and among all persons having an interest therein, to be ascertained, in case of disagreement, in the same manner as compensation for land permanently taken.

Government may acquire land under the powers of this Act and vest the same in any person needing it for a work of public utility.

XXVIII. When any person, with the sanction of Government, shall undertake at his own cost any work of public utility, the Local Government may declare that any land required by such person for the execution of the work is needed for a public purpose, and thereupon such land may be taken under the provisions of this Act, and the Government may vest such land in such person on his paying the compensation awarded under this Act and all other expenses incurred in the acquisition of the land.

Trustees, Committees of lunatics, &c. empowered to act.

XXIX. In any proceedings under this Act, the following persons shall be deemed persons entitled to act as and to the extent hereinafter provided (that is to say)—a trustee or trustees for other persons beneficially interested shall in all cases be deemed the person or persons entitled to act with reference to any such proceedings, and that to the same extent as the persons beneficially interested could have acted if free from disability. A married woman, in cases to which the English Law is applicable, shall be deemed the person so entitled to act, and, whether of full age or not, to the same extent as if she were unmarried and of full age. The guardians of minors and the Committees of lunatics or idiots shall be deemed respectively the persons so entitled to act to the same extent as the minors, lunatics, or idiots themselves, if free from disability, could have acted.

Interpretation.

XXX. The following words and expressions in this Act shall have the several meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something either in the subject or context repugnant to such construction (that is to say)—

The words "the Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company in which the land in question is situate.

The word "land" shall extend to tenements and hereditaments of any tenure, and all houses, buildings, trees, or appurtenances thereupon, as well as land.

The expression "person interested in the land" shall include all persons interested in the land, either for life or for years, or in remainder, reversion, or succession, and all mortgagees, lease-holders, or tenants, not being tenants by the month, or at will, of such land.

The word "Collector" shall mean any Collector, Deputy Collector, or other Revenue Officer in independent charge of any District or portion of a District.

Words importing the singular number only shall include the plural, and words importing the plural number only shall include the singular.

Words importing the masculine gender only shall include females.

The word "person" shall include a corporation.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next :—

A Bill for the regulation of Native Passenger Ships.

Preamble.

WHEREAS abuses have occurred in the overcrowding of Ships conveying Native Passengers from ports and places within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company to other ports and places within the said territories and elsewhere; and whereas it is expedient to prevent such abuses, and to provide for the regulation of all Ships carrying Native Passengers which shall depart from or arrive at any of the ports or places within the said territories: It is enacted as follows :—

Definition of the term "Native Passenger Ship."

I. In the construction of this Act the words "Native Passenger Ship" shall mean every description of seagoing vessel carrying, upon any voyage to which this Act extends, more than thirty passengers being natives of Asia or Africa; or carrying upon any such voyage any number whatsoever of such passengers, in case the whole number of persons on board amounts to the proportion of two persons to every three tons of the registered or estimated tonnage of the vessel.

To what voyages this Act extends.

II. This Act shall extend to every Native Passenger Ship proceeding on any voyage (other than the voyages specified in Section XXV) from a port or place within the said territories to any other place whatsoever, whether within the said territories or not, where the duration of the voyage, to be prescribed as mentioned in Section XVII, shall exceed seven days.

Native Passenger Ship to sail only from ports appointed by Government.

III. No Native Passenger Ship shall depart upon any voyage to which this Act extends from any port or place within the said territories other than such ports and places as the local Government may, from time to time, appoint; and after the departure of any Native Passenger Ship upon any such voyage from a port or place so to be appointed, no person whatsoever shall be received on board as a passenger except at some other duly appointed port or place.

Not to sail without obtaining a certificate.

IV. No Native Passenger Ship shall depart upon any such voyage from any port or place appointed under this Act, until the Master shall have obtained a certificate from an Officer authorized to grant the same; nor until a bond shall have been entered into by the Master as provided in Section XXI.

Penalty.

V. If any Native Passenger Ship departs upon a voyage from any port or within the said territories, or if any person shall be received as a passenger on board a Native Passenger Ship in contravention of the provisions of the last two preceding Sections, the Owner or Master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred Rupees for every passenger unlawfully received on board; and the Ship, if found within two years in any place within the said territories, may be seized and detained by any Chief Officer of Customs, until the penalties incurred under this Act have been adjudicated, and the payment thereof, with all costs, have been enforced under the provisions of Section XXXIII.

Appointment of Officers.

VI. The local Government shall determine the persons who shall be authorized to exercise or perform the powers and duties conferred or imposed by this Act.

Master to give notice of day of sailing

VII. The Master of any Native Passenger Ship sailing from any port or place appointed under this Act shall give notice to the proper Officer that the Ship is to carry native passengers, and of her destination, and of the proposed day of sailing; such notice shall be given not less than seven days before the proposed day of sailing.

Power to enter and inspect ship.

VIII. After receiving such notice, the Officer aforesaid, or any person authorized by him, shall be at liberty at all times to enter and inspect the Ship and the fittings, provisions, and stores therein; and any person impeding or refusing to allow such inspection, shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees for each offence.

Ship may be surveyed.

IX. The Officer aforesaid may, if he think fit, cause the Ship to be surveyed at the expense of the Master by a competent surveyor, who shall report whether the Ship is, in his opinion, sea-worthy and fit for her intended voyage.

Officer to be satisfied before giving certificate—

X. The Officer aforesaid shall not give his certificate unless he shall be satisfied—

That the Ship is sea-worthy,

1. That the Ship is sea-worthy and properly manned, equipped, fitted, and ventilated; and has not on board any cargo likely, from its quality, quantity, or mode of stowage, to prejudice the health or safety of the passengers.

That the space between-decks for passengers is sufficient,

2. That the space appropriated to the passengers in the between-decks contains at the least twelve superficial and seventy-two cubical feet of space for every adult passenger on board, that is to say, for every passenger above twelve years of age, and for every two passengers between the ages of one year and twelve years.

That the space on the upper deck is sufficient,

3. That a space of five superficial feet per adult is left clear on the upper deck for the use of the passengers.

That there is a due supply of provisions.

4. That provisions, fuel, and water have been placed on board, of good quality, properly packed, and sufficient to supply the passengers on board during the declared duration of the intended voyage, according to the scale hereinafter contained.

Number of passengers.

XI. No such Ship shall carry any greater number of passengers than, together with the Master and Crew, shall amount to the proportion of two persons for every three tons of the registered or estimated tonnage of the Ship.

List of passengers.

XII. The Master of any such Ship shall, before commencing his voyage, sign two lists, specifying as accurately as may be the names and ages of all the passengers, and shall deliver them to the Officer aforesaid, who shall thereupon (after having first mustered the passengers and compared the number and names of such passengers with the lists) countersign and return to the Master one of such lists. The Master shall note in writing on such last-mentioned list, and on any additional list to be made under this Act, the date and supposed cause of death of any passenger who may die on the voyage, and shall forthwith on the arrival of the ship and before any passengers are landed, produce the list, with any additions thereto made, to any Chief Officer of Customs at any port in a British Colony, or to any person lawfully exercising Consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty in any Foreign port, or to any like Officer of Customs, or to the Officer (if any) appointed under this Act, at any port or place within the said territories at which the passengers or any of them shall be landed. In case of non-compliance with any of the requirements of this Section on the part of the Master, or if such lists shall be wilfully false, the Master shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five hundred Rupees for each offence.

Ship taking additional passengers and touching at intermediate port.

XIII. If, after the Ship shall have commenced her voyage, any additional passengers are taken on board at a port or place, within the said territories, appointed under this Act for the embarkation of passengers, or if such Ship shall, upon her voyage, touch or arrive at any such port, having previously received on board additional passengers at any place out of the said territories, the Master shall obtain a fresh certificate from the Officer at such port, and also lists of all such additional passengers shall be made: and all the provisions hereinbefore contained in that behalf shall be applicable to any certificate to be granted or any list to be made under this Section.

Penalty for fraudulent alteration in Ship after certificate obtained.

XIV. If any Master of a Ship, after having obtained a certificate under Section IV or Section XIII of this Act, shall fraudulently do or suffer to be done any act or thing whereby such certificate shall become inapplicable to the altered state of the Ship, its passengers, or other matters to which such certificate relates, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two thousand Rupees.

Information to be transmitted to ports of embarkation.

XV. The Chief Officer of Customs, or the Officer (if any) appointed under this Act, at any port or place within the said territories at which the Ship shall touch or arrive, shall forthwith transmit any particulars which he may deem important respecting the Ship and the passengers conveyed thereby and the requirements of this Act, to the Officer at the port from which the Ship commenced her voyage, and also to the Officer at any other port within the said territories where the passengers or any of them embarked.

Report of Collector, Consul, &c., to be admissible in evidence.

XVI. In any proceeding under this Act or in respect of the bond hereby required, any document purporting to be a report of such particulars as are referred to in the last preceding Section, or a copy of the proceedings of any Court of Justice duly authenticated, and also any like document purporting to be made and signed by any Chief Officer of Customs at any port in a British Colony or by any person lawfully exercising Consular authority on behalf of Her Majesty in any Foreign port, shall be received in evidence, if the same appears to have been officially transmitted to any Officer at or near the place where the proceeding under this Act is had.

Length of voyage to be fixed by proclamation.

XVII. It shall be lawful for the local Government, by any proclamation to be from time to time issued for that purpose and published in the Government Gazette, (if any,) or in one of the public newspapers, to declare what shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, the duration of the voyage of any Native Passenger Ship from any port or place to any other port or place.

Quantity of provisions and water to be shipped.

XVIII. Every Native Passenger Ship at the time of departure from the port or place at which passengers shall be embarked under this Act, shall have on board good and wholesome provisions for the use and consumption of the passengers, over and above the victualling of the crew, to the amount or in the proportion following, that is to say, a supply of water to the amount of five gallons to every week of the computed voyage for every passenger on board, such water being carried in tanks or sweet casks, and a supply of rice, bread, biscuit, flour, oatmeal, or bread stuffs, to the amount of seven pounds' weight to every week of the computed voyage for every such passenger; provided always, that, when any such Ship shall be destined to call at a port or place in the course of her voyage for the purpose of filling up her water-casks, a supply of water at the rate before mentioned for every week of an average voyage to such port or place of calling shall be deemed to be a compliance with this Act. The provision of this Section regarding food shall be deemed to have been complied with in any case where it shall appear that, by the special authority of the local Government, any other articles of food were substituted for the articles above enumerated as being equivalent thereto.

Issue of provisions.

XIX. The Master of any Native Passenger Ship shall, every day during the voyage, including the time of detention at any place before the termination thereof, issue to each passenger, or to the headman of each mess (if any), for the use of all the members thereof, provisions and water of the description and according to the provisions mentioned in the last preceding Section; and in case of non-compliance with any of the requirements of this Section, the Master shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for each offence.

Contract by passengers for supply of their own provisions.

XX. The requirements of this Act respecting the issue of provisions shall not, except as to the issue of water, be applicable to any passenger who may have contracted to furnish his own provisions.

Master to give security bond.

XXI. Before the commencement of any voyage to which the provisions of this Act extend, the Master of any Native Passenger Ship, together with the owner or some other sufficient person to be approved by the Officer aforesaid, shall enter into a joint and several bond in the sum of five thousand Rupees to conform to the several requirements of this Act. The bond shall be executed in duplicate, that it may be put in suit either at the place of execution or at any other place within the said territories; and one copy thereof may be forwarded to any Chief Officer of Customs or other Officer at any port or place within the said territories, with a certificate endorsed thereon that the same has been duly executed, which certificate, purporting to be under the hand of the Officer at the place of the execution thereof, shall be sufficient proof of the due execution of the bond.

Penalty of bond when recoverable.

XXII. The said penal sum of five thousand Rupees shall be due and recoverable notwithstanding any penalty imposed by this Act, and whether such penalty shall have been sued for and recovered or not.

Penalty on Ships bringing excessive number of passengers to any Indian port.

XXIII. If any Ship, bringing passengers into any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, shall have on board a greater number of passengers or persons than in the proportion prescribed by this Act, the Master of such Ship shall, in addition to any other penalty which he may have incurred under the provisions of this Act, be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding fifty Rupees for each person in excess of such proportion.

Issue of provisions on board of Ships bringing passengers to any Indian port.

XXIV. The Master of every Ship bringing passengers to any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, shall make, during the voyage, including any time of detention, issues of pure water and wholesome provisions in quantities not less in amount than in the proportions mentioned in Section XVIII; and in case of non-compliance, the Master shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten Rupees for each offence.

Act not to apply to Coolie emigration ships,

XXV. Nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to apply to any vessel carrying emigrant laborers from the said territories to any British or Foreign Colonies without the said territories to which they may now or hereafter lawfully be conveyed under the laws applicable thereto: nor to any vessel carrying native passengers from any port under the Presidency of Fort St. George to any port on the Eastern Coast of the Bay of Bengal, or in the Straits of Malacca, or in Ceylon, or reversely, under Act of 1856.

To Ships carrying native passengers in the Bay of Bengal,

Act not to apply to Ships-of-War

XXVI. Nothing in this Act contained shall apply to any Ship-of-War or Transport belonging to or in the Service of Her Majesty or of the East India Company, or to any Ship-of-War belonging to any Foreign Prince or State, or to any Ship under contract with the Government of any European State, or to any Sea-going Steam Vessel regularly employed in the conveyance of the public mails under a contract. And none of the foregoing provisions of this Act shall apply to any other Sea-going Steam Vessels which shall be exempted from the said provisions by a certificate to be granted under the next following Section.

To sea-going steamers conveying public mails.

Or to steamers specially exempted.

Certificates to be granted to coasting and other steamers after survey, &c.

XXVII. Sea-going Steam Vessels requiring certificates of exemption under the preceding Section, and also all Sea-going Steam Vessels plying on coasting voyages from or to any port or place whatsoever within the said territories, whatever may be the duration of the voyage, shall procure certificates, to be granted to them only as is hereinafter provided; any such certificate shall be granted at the discretion of an Officer authorized to grant the same by the local Government, and shall remain in force for the period therein specified, unless sooner revoked. The Officer so appointed shall not grant such certificate, or suffer the same to remain in force, unless he is satisfied, by inspection or survey (to be made at least twice in each year at the expense of the Master or owner, and upon payment of a fee not exceeding twenty Rupees), that such Steam Vessel is sea-worthy, and that the engines and machinery are in a fit state to enable her to proceed on her voyage. The certificate shall state the limits (if any) within which the vessel is to ply, and shall also contain a statement of the number of passengers which the vessel is fit to carry; such number to be subject to such conditions and variations according to the time of year, the nature of the voyage, and the cargo carried, as the case requires.

Copy of certificate to be placed in conspicuous part of Ship.

XXVIII. The Owner or Master of any such Steam Vessel shall put up in a conspicuous part of the Ship, so as to be visible to persons on board the same, a copy of the said certificate, and shall cause it to be continued in such position so long as the certificate remains in force, and in default, such Owner or Master shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees.

Penalty for excess of number specified in certificate.

XXIX. If such Steam Vessel has on board thereof any number of passengers which, having regard to the time of the year and other circumstances, is greater than the number allowed by the certificate, the Owner or Master shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty Rupees for every passenger over and above the number allowed by the certificate.

Grant of certificate to be subject to control of Government.

XXX. In the grant or revocation of any certificate whatsoever under this Act, the Officer granting the same shall be subject to the control of the local Government or of any intermediate authority which that Government may appoint.

Penalty on wrongfully landing passengers.

XXXI. If any native passenger in any Ship, whether a Native Passenger Ship within the meaning of this Act or not, shall be landed at any port or place other than the port or place at which he may have contracted to land, unless with his previous consent, or unless such landing is made necessary by perils of the sea or other unavoidable accident, the Master shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred Rupees.

Passenger's right of action preserved.

XXXII. Nothing in this Act contained shall take away or abridge any right of action which may accrue to any native passenger, or to any other person, in respect of the breach or non-performance of any contract made with the Master or Owner of the Ship or his Agent.

Adjudication of offences and recovery of penalties.

XXXIII. All offences against this Act shall be punishable in a summary manner by a Magistrate. The provisions of Act XIII of 1856, relating to the adjudication of fines and penalties and the enforcing payment thereof, shall apply to penalties imposed under this Act in the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca. In all other ports and places within the said territories, the penalties hereby imposed shall be recoverable under the provisions of Act II of 1839. If the person directed to pay the penalty is the Master or Owner of a Ship, and the same is not paid at the time and in the manner prescribed by the order of payment, the Magistrate may, in addition to the means prescribed by law for enforcing payment, direct by warrant the amount remaining unpaid to be levied by distress and sale of the said Ship, her tackle, furniture, and apparel.

Sum ordered to be paid leviable by distress on Ship.

Jurisdiction.

XXXIV. For the purpose of the adjudication of offences and penalties under this Act, any offence shall be deemed to have been committed within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate of the place where the offender is found.

By whom proceedings for penalties may be taken.

XXXV. The penalties to which Masters and Owners of Ships are liable by this Act, shall be enforced only by information laid at the instance of the Officers appointed to grant certificates under this Act; or at any port or place where there is no such Officer, by the Chief Officer of Customs. The bond given by the Master shall not be put in suit, unless the person suing is authorized thereunto by the Chief Civil Authority of the place where the bond shall have been entered into.

Application of penalties.

XXXVI. Any Magistrate imposing any penalty under this Act may, if he thinks fit, direct the whole or any part thereof to be applied in compensating any person for any wrong or damage which he may have sustained by the act or default in respect of which such penalty is imposed, or in or towards payment of the expenses of the proceedings.

Interpretation.

XXXVII. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include a Joint Magistrate and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate in places other than the Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, and the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca; and in the places last mentioned, the word shall mean a Magistrate of Police appointed under Act XIII of 1856.

The words "Local Government" shall mean the person or persons for the time being immediately administering the Executive Government of that portion of the said territories where the part or place in question is situate.

The word "Master" shall include every person having command or charge of a Ship.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 13th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 13th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 17th of December next:—

A Bill for taking account of the population of the Town of Bombay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to take an account of the population of the Town of Bombay: It is enacted as follows:—

Account of population to be taken.

I. At the time and in the manner hereinafter directed, an account shall be taken of the number of persons who, at the time of taking such account, shall be within the Town of Bombay, and the persons employed in taking such account shall set down the several particulars respecting the same which are hereinafter prescribed.

Commissioner of Police to superintend the taking an account of the population.

II. The Commissioner of Police shall have the care of superintending the taking of such account, and shall cause to be prepared, for the use of the persons to be employed, such forms and instructions as he shall, with the sanction of the Governor in Council, deem necessary, and such forms and instructions shall be issued to the persons for whose use they are intended; and all the expenses incurred under this Act shall be defrayed out of the Municipal Fund.

Enumeration Districts.

III. Each Police division of the Town shall be formed into one or more Enumeration Districts.

Members of the Police force to be employed as enumerators.

IV. The Commissioner of Police shall select from the Members of the Police force a sufficient number of competent persons, and, should it be necessary, may employ others as Special Constables under Section XX of Act XIII of 1856, to act as enumerators; and every such enumerator, under the direction of the Commissioner of Police, shall visit every house within his District, except as hereinafter provided, and shall take an account in writing of the name, sex, age, caste, tribe, and occupation of every living person who shall abide therein on the night immediately preceding the day hereinafter appointed, and shall also take an account of the occupied houses and the houses then building and therefore uninhabited, and also of all other uninhabited houses, within his District, and in all respects conform to, and obey, the instructions which may be issued to him by the Commissioner of Police in this behalf.

Schedules.

V. The Commissioner of Police, when he may deem such a course to be advisable, may cause a Schedule, in such form as shall be sanctioned by the Governor in Council, to be delivered to any occupier of any dwelling house who he shall have ascertained is able to write, and such occupier shall fill in all the particulars required in the form on the day to be appointed, and shall deliver the same to such persons as may be duly authorized to demand the same.

VI. Any Military or Naval Officers in command of bodies of Military or Naval men, or of Vessels of War, or any Master of a Merchant Vessel or Nacquodah or Tindal of a vessel or boat, or any person in charge of a Lunatic Asylum, Hospital, or Prison, or of any public or private charitable or scholastic institution, or any keepers of Hotels or Lodging-houses, shall, if required, act as enumerators for the purpose of taking account of persons under their command or charge, or abiding in their houses on the night previous to the day to be appointed; every person so required to act as an enumerator shall receive and conform to all instructions in writing which may be issued to him by the Commissioner of Police in that behalf.

Military and Naval Officers and others, if required, to act as enumerators.

VII. The Commissioner of Police shall obtain, by such ways and means as shall appear to him best adapted for the purpose and as shall be sanctioned by the Governor in Council, returns of the particulars required by this Act with respect to all houseless persons and all persons who, during the said night of the day to be appointed, were on out-door night duty, or for any other reason were not abiding in any house of which account is to be taken by the enumerators.

Returns of houseless persons.

VIII. On such day in the year 1857 as shall be appointed and notified in the Official Gazette by the Governor of Bombay in Council, every occupier of a dwelling-house, or of any part of a dwelling-house distinctly occupied, and every person to whom a Schedule, as hereinbefore provided, may have been delivered, shall afford such information in regard to all persons who were abiding in his house or in the place under his charge on the night immediately preceding, and in such manner as may under this Act be lawfully required of them.

Upon the appointed day occupiers of houses shall give the required information.

IX. Every occupier of a house, who wilfully gives verbally or in writing a false statement of, or neglects or refuses to give, such returns and answers as under this Act may be lawfully required of him, and every person employed or required to act as an enumerator, who makes wilful default in any of the matters required of him, shall, on summary conviction of such offence before a Magistrate of Police, be liable to a fine of five hundred Rupees or imprisonment for three months.

Penalty.

X. The following words in this Act shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

Interpretation.

The words "Town of Bombay" shall include the Islands of Bombay and Colaba and the Port of Bombay as defined under the provisions of Act XXII of 1855 (An Act for the Regulation of Ports and Port-dues.)

The words "Commissioner of Police", shall include a Deputy Commissioner of Police specially appointed to perform the duties assigned to a Commissioner by this Act.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural number, and words importing the plural number shall include the singular number.

Words importing the masculine gender shall include females.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 20th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 20th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of December next:—

A Bill to authorize the arrest and detention, within the Ports of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, of Junks or Native Vessels suspected to be piratical.

WHEREAS there is reason to believe that certain Junks periodically visit the Ports of the said Settlement, ostensibly for the purposes of trade, but in reality to equip, arm, and fit themselves out for the purpose of making piratical attacks on peaceful trading Vessels, in the vicinity of the Straits of Malacca, and elsewhere: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. The Chief Resident Civil Authority of any Station of the said Settlement may, by an order in writing signed by him, at any time and as often as he shall deem it expedient, direct any public Officer to proceed on board any Junk or other Native Vessel being in any Port or place within the limits of the said Station, and to search such vessel, and to take an account of the armament thereof, and to make such further and other enquiry and investigation into the objects, pursuits, and movements of the Master or person in charge of such Junk or Vessel as the said Chief Civil Authority shall think fit; and any person who shall hinder, obstruct, or in any wise prevent such search, investigation, or enquiry, or shall obstruct such public Officer, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, in the discharge of his duty—shall, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six calendar months, or to both.

Penalty for obstructing search or enquiry ordered by the Chief Resident Civil Authority in respect of any Junk or Native Vessel.

II. Whenever it shall be proved, by oath or affirmation, to the satisfaction of the Chief Resident Civil Authority of any of the said Stations, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any Junk or Vessel in any Port or place within the limits of the said Station is a piratical Vessel, or belongs to pirates, or is intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates, he may, by an order in writing signed by him, cause such Junk or Vessel, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, arms, stores, and ammunition, and the goods and merchandize laden therein, or any portion thereof, to be seized and detained.

Seizure and detention of any Junk or Native Vessel suspected to be piratical.

III. Whenever any such Junk or Vessel, furniture, arms, stores, ammunition, goods, or merchandize, shall be seized and detained under the provisions of this Act, the Chief Resident Civil Authority shall report the circumstance, as soon as possible, to the Governor of the said Settlement, who shall give orders as to the detention or release of such Junk or Vessel or other things so seized or detained.

Report of seizure and detention to the Governor.

Penalty for Master or Crew refusing or neglecting to attend as witnesses, or giving false evidence.

IV. The Chief Resident Civil Authority at any of the said Stations may, by order in writing signed by him, summon the Master, or person in charge, and any of the Crew, of any such Junk or Vessel which he may have reasonable cause to suspect as aforesaid, or any other person, to attend before him, and to produce any document in his possession, and may examine such persons upon oath or affirmation to be administered by him, touching any matter which may appear to be material for the purpose of ascertaining whether the said Vessel is a piratical Vessel or belongs to pirates, or is intended to be used as aforesaid. Every person so summoned, who refuses or neglects to attend or make answer, or to produce any document in his possession, concerning the matters hereby authorized to be inquired into, or who wilfully gives false evidence or otherwise misbehaves in giving or refusing to give evidence, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six calendar months, or to both.

No Vessel or property to be detained beyond six months, unless proceedings have been commenced within that time.

V. No Vessel or other thing seized or detained in pursuance of the provisions herein contained, and no property on board thereof, shall be detained for a longer period than six months, unless within that time proceedings shall have been commenced for the condemnation thereof.

Suspected vessels not to leave Port with increased armament, &c.

VI. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Chief Resident Civil Authority of any of the said Stations, that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that any Junk or Native Vessel is about to proceed to Sea from any Port or place within the said Station so manned, armed, equipped, furnished, or fitted out, as to afford reasonable ground to suspect that the said Vessel is intended for piratical purposes, it shall be lawful for the said Chief Civil Authority to take such measures as may be necessary or proper to prevent such Vessel from proceeding to Sea from such Port or place, so long as the same is manned, armed, equipped, furnished, or fitted out beyond what he may deem sufficient for the due navigation and protection thereof as a Trading Vessel.

No damages to be recovered for seizure on reasonable grounds of suspicion.

VII. No damages shall be recovered for the seizure or detention of any Vessel or other thing in pursuance of this Act, if it shall appear that there were reasonable grounds to suspect that the Vessel or other thing so seized or detained was piratical, or belonged to any pirate or pirates, or was intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates; but whenever any Vessel or other thing shall be seized or detained under the provisions of this Act, proceedings may be taken in any Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty Court having jurisdiction over the place where the seizure was made, or in any division of such Court, for the condemnation or for the restitution of such Vessel or other thing; and if, in such proceeding, it shall appear to the Court that such Vessel or other thing was piratical, or belonged to pirates, or was intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates, the same shall be forfeited and condemned without a previous conviction of the owner or of any other person of the crime of piracy.

Condemnation or restitution of Vessel.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must [illegible] pore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication; or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

MEMO.

THE following revised Directions for approaching the Sandheads are published for general information.

By order of the Offg. Sundt. of M[illegible]

FORT WILLIAM,
The 15th September 1856.

H. HOWE,
Secretary.

DIRECTIONS
FOR
APPROACHING THE SANDHEADS IN BOTH MONSOONS.

THE SOUTH-WEST MONSOON.

THE South-West Monsoon may be considered to commence on the 15th March, on which date the Pilot Vessels take up their station near the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge as described below. The South-West Monsoon is over by the end of September.

2nd. False Point Light House is in latitude 20° 19½' North and longitude 86° 47' East, and a Buoy is placed in 21½ fathoms on the Pilot's Ridge, in latitude 20° 49½' North and longitude 87° 42' East, the Buoy therefore bears from False Point Light House North 59° 49' East, true, and distant 59½ miles.

3rd. A Vessel, therefore, after making the Light House at False Point (in passing which she ought not to go into less than 10 fathoms), should bring it to bear about West-South-West 10 or 15 miles distant, when she will be in 11 or 12 fathoms; then steer East-North-Eastward when the soundings will gradually increase to 23 fathoms on the Eastern edge of the Pilot's Ridge; she should then regulate her course so as to keep between the Ridge and 27 fathoms, when, by attention to the lead and nature of the soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to avoid making the Pilot Vessels, as their cruizing ground is immediately to the North-East of the Light Vessel stationed during the South-West Monsoon in close proximity to the Buoy on the Ridge.

4th. The soundings to seaward of the Pilot's Ridge are, in general, a greenish or olive-colored mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it; whilst those on the Ridge are of a shelly sand, or minute gravel, of a reddish or rusty brown color.

5th. Vessels approaching the Station are earnestly warned to be careful in avoiding collision when communicating with either the Light, or supplying Pilot Vessels; and, on making the former at night, they are strongly recommended to heave to, at a proper distance, till day-light, by which measure they will avoid the probability of passing the supplying Pilot Vessels in the darkness of the night.

6th. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel is in latitude 21° 04′ North and longitude 88½° 14′ East, and therefore bears from the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge, North 63° 26′ East, true; and distant 32½ miles. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel, from the 15th March to the 15th September, burns a blue light every half hour and a maroon every quarter hour during the night, commencing at 7 P. M.; and her standing light is a plain light.

7th. The Pilot's Ridge Light Vessel shows from the 15th March to the 15th of September a plain standing light, and burns a blue light every hour and a maroon at the intermediate half hours.

8th. It is important to observe the difference as to the blue lights and maroons shown by the Eastern Channel and the Ridge Light respectively, [illegible] to a Vessel out in her reckoning, or uncertain of her position, cannot possibly mistake one for the other.

THE NORTH-EAST MONSOON.

9th. This Monsoon, which constitutes the fine season in the Head of the Bay of Bengal, is considered to commence in October and end in the beginning of March. During this season the Pilot Station is about the outer Floating Light situated in the Eastern Channel as above, and Vessels coming in should make directly for that mark. The Pilot Vessels cruize in the day time spreading East and West of, sometimes a little to the Southward of the Light Vessel, and at night anchor in positions not far from her. At this season she shows a maroon or torch-light every half hour and a blue light every hour.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 20th September 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General on the 19th September 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XIX of 1856.

An Act to enable the Governor General of India in Council to suspend the operation of certain Acts relating to the Emigration of Native Laborers.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by several Acts passed by the Governor General of India in Council, the emigration of Native Inhabitants of India to certain British Colonies is authorized, subject to certain regulations for the protection of such Emigrants; and whereas it is expedient that the Governor General of India in Council should have power, from time to time, to suspend any of the said Acts so far as they relate to emigration to any Colony or place in which the said Governor General in Council shall have reason to believe that proper measures have not been taken for the protection of the Emigrants immediately upon their arrival therein or during their residence therein, or for their safe return at or near to the time at which the Government of such Colony or place was bound to find them a return passage to India: It is enacted as follows:—

Governor General in Council empowered in certain cases to prohibit by notification the emigration of Native laborers to any Colony to which emigration is allowed by law.

I. Whenever the Governor General of India in Council shall have reason to believe that, in any Colony or place to which the emigration of Natives of India is allowed, proper measures have not been taken for the protection of such Emigrants immediately upon their arrival in such Colony or place or during their residence therein, or for their safe return to India, or to provide a return passage to India for any such Emigrants at or about the time at which they are entitled to such return passage, it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, to declare that the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place shall cease and be prohibited from a certain day to be specified in such notification.

Operation of any Act authorizing emigration, to be suspended from the day specified in the notification.

II. After the notification shall have been published, the operation of any Act by which the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place is allowed, shall be suspended from the day specified in the notification, so far as such Act authorizes emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place; but such suspension shall not affect any act done, offence committed, or proceedings commenced before such suspension.

During such suspension, all the laws called emigration shall be in force as to the Colony specified in the notification.

III. During the time of such suspension, any Act in force for the time being which prohibits the emigration of Natives of India, or the aiding or abetting of such emigration, or the making of any contract for labour to be performed by any Native of India out of the territories of the East India Company, shall take effect and be in force, so far as relates to the Colony or place specified in the notification, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the Act suspended had never been passed.

Revocation of suspension.

IV. Whenever the Governor General of India in Council shall be satisfied that, in the Colony or place specified in the notification, proper measures have been taken and will be adopted for the protection of Emigrants immediately upon their arrival thereat and during their residence therein, and for their safe return to India, and for providing return passages to India for such Emigrants at or near to the time at which they are entitled to such return passages, it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council to notify in the Calcutta Gazette that the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony shall be allowed from a day to be specified in such notification; and thereupon any Act which may have been suspended by virtue of this Act shall, from the day so specified, be revived and have the same force and effect as if it had not been suspended, except as to acts done, offences committed, and proceedings commenced during the time of such suspension.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 20th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 20th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of December next :—

A Bill to authorize the arrest and detention, within the Ports of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, of Junks or Native Vessels suspected to be piratical.

Preamble.

WHEREAS there is reason to believe that certain Junks periodically visit the Ports of the said Settlement, ostensibly for the purposes of trade, but in reality to equip, arm, and fit themselves out for the purpose of making piratical attacks on peaceful trading Vessels, in the vicinity of the Straits of Malacca, and elsewhere: It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Penalty for obstructing search or enquiry ordered by the Chief Resident Civil Authority in respect of any Junk or Native Vessel.

I. The Chief Resident Civil Authority of any Station of the said Settlement may, by an order in writing signed by him, at any time and as often as he shall deem it expedient, direct any public Officer to proceed on board any Junk or other Native Vessel being in any Port or place within the limits of the said Station, and to search such vessel, and to take an account of the armament thereof, and to make such further and other enquiry and investigation into the objects, pursuits, and movements of the Master or person in charge of such Junk or Vessel as the said Chief Civil Authority shall think fit; and any person who shall hinder, obstruct, or in any wise prevent such search, investigation, or enquiry, or shall obstruct such public Officer, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, in the discharge of his duty—shall, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six calendar months, or to both.

Seizure and detention of any Junk or Native Vessel suspected to be piratical.

II. Whenever it shall be proved, by oath or affirmation, to the satisfaction of the Chief Resident Civil Authority of any of the said Stations, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any Junk or Vessel in any Port or place within the limits of the said Station is a piratical Vessel, or belongs to pirates, or is intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates, he may, by an order in writing signed by him, cause such Junk or Vessel, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, arms, stores, and ammunition, and the goods and merchandize laden therein, or any portion thereof, to be seized and detained.

Report of seizure and detention to the Governor.

III. Whenever any such Junk or Vessel, furniture, arms, stores, ammunition, goods, or merchandize, shall be seized and detained under the provisions of this Act, the Chief Resident Civil Authority shall report the circumstance, as soon as possible, to the Governor of the said Settlement, who shall give orders as to the detention or release of such Junk or Vessel or other things so seized or detained.

Penalty for Master or Crew refusing or neglecting to attend as witnesses, or giving false evidence.

IV. The Chief Resident Civil Authority at any of the said Stations may, by order in writing signed by him, summon the Master, or person in charge, and any of the Crew, of any such Junk or Vessel which he may have reasonable cause to suspect as aforesaid, or any other person, to attend before him, and to produce any document in his possession, and may examine such persons upon oath or affirmation to be administered by him, touching any matter which may appear to be material for the purpose of ascertaining whether the said Vessel is a piratical Vessel or belongs to pirates, or is intended to be used as aforesaid. Every person so summoned, who refuses or neglects to attend or make answer, or to produce any document in his possession, concerning the matters hereby authorized to be inquired into, or who wilfully gives false evidence, or otherwise misbehaves in giving or refusing to give evidence, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six calendar months, or to both.

No Vessel or property to be detained beyond six months, unless proceedings have been commenced within that time.

V. No Vessel or other thing seized or detained in pursuance of the provisions herein contained, and no property on board thereof, shall be detained for a longer period than six months, unless within that time proceedings shall have been commenced for the condemnation thereof.

Suspected vessels not to leave Port with increased armament, &c.

VI. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Chief Resident Civil Authority of any of the said Stations, that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that any Junk or Native Vessel is about to proceed to Sea from any Port or place within the said Station so manned, armed, equipped, furnished, or fitted out, as to afford reasonable ground to suspect that the said Vessel is intended for piratical purposes, it shall be lawful for the said Chief Civil Authority to take such measures as may be necessary or proper to prevent such Vessel from proceeding to Sea from such Port or place, so long as the same is manned, armed, equipped, furnished, or fitted out beyond what he may deem sufficient for the due navigation and protection thereof as a Trading Vessel.

No damages to be recovered for seizure on reasonable grounds of suspicion.

VII. No damages shall be recovered for the seizure or detention of any Vessel or other thing in pursuance of this Act, if it shall appear that there were reasonable grounds to suspect that the Vessel or other thing so seized or detained was piratical, or belonged to any pirate or pirates, or was intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates; but whenever any Vessel or other thing shall be seized or detained under the provisions of this Act, proceedings may be taken in any Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty Court having jurisdiction over the place where the seizure was made, or in any division of such Court, for the condemnation or for the restitution of such Vessel or other thing; and if, in such proceeding, it shall appear to the Court that such Vessel or other thing was piratical, or belonged to pirates, or was intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates, the same shall be forfeited and condemned without a previous conviction of the owner or of any other person of the crime of piracy.

Condemnation or restitution of Vessel.

Clerk of the Council.

FORT WILLIAM, FOREIGN DEPARTMENT,
THE 19TH SEPTEMBER 1856.

The Governor General in Council is pleased to publish for general information the following Rules and revised Tariff of Transit Duties leviable within the Rewah State:—

The following Rules and Tariff of Transit Duties, (Zakat,) leviable within the Rewah State, have been fixed, as arranged by Lieutenant Helbert, Officiating Political Assistant in Bundelcund and Rewah, and the Government of His Highness the Maha Rajah Righo Raj Sing Jodeo Bahadoor, Chief of Rewah, and are not to be deviated from in any particular, but under the sanction and approval of the Agent Governor General for Central India:

Article I.—Four Chowkees will be established, one on the Allahabad Road, another on the Mirzapore Road, a third at Rewah Khas, and the fourth on the Jubbulpore Road.

Article II.—Any trader or merchant proceeding from Allahabad or Mirzapore towards Jubbulpore, or vice versâ, will be stopped only at two places at the Frontier and at Rewah Khas for the payment of Duties. As for instance, a trader going from Mirzapore to Jubbulpore, will have to pay Duties at Hanooman and at Rewah, while only a Pass will have to be shown at the third Chowkee.

Article III.—Any trader entering the line at any intermediate point will have to pay the Duties fixed for the two Chowkees. As for instance, a merchant coming from Raipore to Rewah with goods will have to pay the Duty payable between Hanooman and Rewah.

Article IV.—Any trader, desirous of paying at the first Chowkee the amount of Duty due for the whole line from the Hanooman to the Jurnah Nullah Chowkees, will be at liberty so to do; the Daroga of such a Chowkee will give him a Receipt for the whole amount and a Pass which the trader will have to show at the other Chowkees.

Article V.—Traders willing to pay separately at each Chowkee will be at liberty so to do; in that case the Jemadar of each Chowkee will give a Receipt and a Pass on payment of the Duty.

Article VI.—A copy of the Tariff will be put up in Oordoo and Hindee at each Chowkee.

Article VII.—Officials of the Rewah Government will be stationed at the four Chowkees to collect Duties according to the Tariff.

Article VIII.—Any party attempting to smuggle dutiable articles will, on conviction, be liable to such punishment as the Chief of Rewah will adjudge, information of the same being given to the Agent; the property thus detected being kept under sequestration, or released on security, till a reply from the Agent be received.

Article IX.—Any party aiding and abetting in the act of smuggling, or making an effort thereto, will also, on conviction, be liable to punishment.

Article X.—Any Official of the Customs Department (Purmut) in Rewah, taking more than the fixed amount of Duties, or charging any article not in the Tariff with Duty, will, on the trader's complaining and conviction, be liable to a fine of 200 Rupees and imprisonment with labor for six months.

Article XI.—Any Officials of the Customs Department (Zakat) in Rewah, maltreating or subjecting to violence, in the way of extortion not authorized by the Tariff, any merchant-traveller, will, on conviction, be liable to a fine of 500 Rupees and imprisonment with labor for two years; all such cases being disposed of by the Rewah Government, and reported to the Agent Governor General and the Political Assistant.

Article XII.—His Highness the Maha Rajah will appoint a (Moontazim) Superintendent for the management of the Customs Department and all business belonging thereto.

Article XIII.—Any Zemindar, Jagheerdar, or other individual under the Government of Rewah, levying Duties on goods, but for the Rewah Government, or in any way offering violence to traders, will be liable to a fine of 1,000 Rupees and three years' imprisonment.

Article XIV.—Any merchant or trader having to bring forward complaints relating to overcharge, &c., will have to prefer them in the Court of the Manager of the State, "Moontazim Kasut," who will forthwith dispose of the case brought to his notice.

Article XV.—Any complaints as to excesses in merchants and traders being subjected to an over-charge of Duties beyond the prescribed rates, preferred against the Rewah Officials, not being enquired into and provided for by the Chief, and the collection of the Customs falling into mismanagement, will leave the British Government the power of making proper arrangements for the said collections; the surplus, after an account of the expenses incurred in the collections is made, being, at the end of each year, or every six months, payable to the Rewah Government.

Notification.

Persons desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication; or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

Banqueting Hall,
7th February 1856.

With reference to the foregoing Notification, which the undersigned has been requested to publish in the Calcutta Gazette, he begs to state that he has been also requested to receive from the Bengal Presidency all Packages containing Contributions for the Madras Exhibition of 1857.

J. H. BELL,
Officiating Mint Master.

MEMO.

THE following revised Directions for approaching the Sandheads are published for general information.

By order of the Offg. Supdt of Marine,

FORT WILLIAM, The 15th September 1856. } H. HOWE, Secretary.

DIRECTIONS FOR APPROACHING THE SANDHEADS IN BOTH MONSOONS.

THE SOUTH-WEST MONSOON.

THE South-West Monsoon may be considered to commence on the 15th March, on which date the Pilot Vessels take up their station near the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge as described below. The South-West Monsoon is over by the end of September.

2nd. False Point Light House is in latitude 20° 19½′ North and longitude 86° 47′ East, and a Buoy is placed in 21½ fathoms on the Pilot's Ridge, in latitude 20° 49½′ North and longitude 87° 42′ East, the Buoy therefore bears from False Point Light House North 59° 49′ East, true, and distant 59½ miles.

3rd. A Vessel, therefore, after making the Light House at False Point (in passing which she ought not to go into less than 10 fathoms), should bring it to bear about West-South-West 10 or 15 miles distant, when she will be in 11 or 12 fathoms; then steer East-North-Eastward when the soundings will gradually increase to 23 fathoms on the Eastern edge of the Pilot's Ridge; she should then regulate her course so as to keep between the Ridge and 27 fathoms, when, by attention to the lead and nature of the soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to avoid making the Pilot Vessels, as their cruizing ground is immediately to the North-East of the Light Vessel stationed during the South-West Monsoon in close proximity to the Buoy on the Ridge.

4th. The soundings to seaward of the Pilot's Ridge are, in general, a greenish or olive-colored mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it; whilst those on the Ridge are of a shelly sand, or minute gravel, of a reddish or rusty brown color.

5th. Vessels approaching the Station are earnestly warned to be careful in avoiding collision when communicating with either the Light, or supplying Pilot Vessels; and, on making the former at night, they are strongly recommended to heave to, at a proper distance, till day-light, by which measure they will avoid the probability of passing the supplying Pilot Vessels in the darkness of the night.

6th. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel is in latitude 21° 04′ North and longitude 88½° 14′ East, and therefore bears from the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge, North 63° 26′ East, true; and distant 32¼ miles. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel, from the 15th March to the 15th September, burns a blue light every half hour and a maroon every quarter hour during the night, commencing at 7 P. M.; and her standing light is a plain light.

7th. The Pilot's Ridge Light Vessel shows from the 15th March to the 15th of September a plain standing light, and burns a blue light every hour and a maroon at the intermediate half hours.

8th. It is important to observe the difference as to the blue lights and maroons shown by the Eastern Channel and the Ridge Light respectively, as, if this is attended to, a Vessel, out in her reckoning, or uncertain of her position, cannot possibly mistake one for the other.

THE NORTH-EAST MONSOON.

9th. This Monsoon, which constitutes the fine season in the Head of the Bay of Bengal, is considered to commence in October and end in the beginning of March. During this season the Pilot Station is about the outer Floating Light situated in the Eastern Channel as above, and Vessels coming in should make directly for that mark. The Pilot Vessels cruize in the day time spreading East and West of, sometimes a little to the Southward of the Light Vessel, and at night anchor in positions not far from her. At this season she shows a maroon or torch-light every half hour and a blue light every hour.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1856.

Legislative Council.

The 20th September 1856.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Right Hon'ble the Governor General on the 19th September 1856, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

ACT No. XIX OF 1856.

An Act to enable the Governor General of India in Council to suspend the operation of certain Acts relating to the Emigration of Native Laborers.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by several Acts passed by the Governor General of India in Council, the emigration of Native Inhabitants of India to certain British Colonies is authorized, subject to certain regulations for the protection of such Emigrants; and whereas it is expedient that the Governor General of India in Council should have power, from time to time, to suspend any of the said Acts so far as they relate to emigration to any Colony or place in which the said Governor General in Council shall have reason to believe that proper measures have not been taken for the protection of the Emigrants immediately upon their arrival thereat or during their residence therein, or for their safe return at or near to the time at which the Government of such Colony or place was bound to find them a return passage to India: It is enacted as follows:—

Governor General in Council empowered in certain cases to prohibit by notification the emigration of Native laborers to any Colony to which emigration is allowed by law.

I. Whenever the Governor General of India in Council shall have reason to believe that, in any Colony or place to which the emigration of Natives of India is allowed, proper measures have not been taken for the protection of such Emigrants immediately upon their arrival in such Colony or place or during their residence therein, or for their safe return to India, or to provide a return passage to India for any such Emigrants at or about the time at which they are entitled to such return passage, it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council, by notification in the Calcutta Gazette, to declare that the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place shall cease and be prohibited from a certain day to be specified in the notification.

Operation of any Act, permitting emigration, to be suspended from the day specified in the notification.

II. After the notification shall have been so published, the operation of any Act by which the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place is allowed, shall be suspended from the day specified in the notification, so far as such Act authorizes emigration of Natives of India to such Colony or place; but such suspension shall not affect any act done, offence committed, or proceedings commenced before such suspension.

During such suspension, all the laws called emigration shall be in force as to the Colony specified in the notification.

III. During the time of such suspension, any Act in force for the time being which prohibits the emigration of Natives of India, or the aiding or abetting of such emigration, or the making of any contract for labour to be performed by any Native of India out of the territories of the East India Company, shall take effect and be in force, so far as relates to the Colony or place specified in the notification, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the Act suspended had never been passed.

Revocation of suspension.

IV. Whenever the Governor General of India in Council shall be satisfied that, in the Colony or place specified in the notification, proper measures have been taken and will be adopted for the protection of Emigrants immediately upon their arrival thereat and during their residence therein, and for their safe return to India, and for providing return passages to India for such Emigrants at or near to the time at which they are entitled to such return passages, it shall be lawful for the said Governor General in Council to notify in the Calcutta Gazette that the emigration of Natives of India to such Colony shall be allowed from a day to be specified in such notification; and thereupon any Act which may have been suspended by virtue of this Act shall, from the day so specified, be revived and have the same force and effect as if it had not been suspended, except as to acts done, offences committed, and proceedings commenced during the time of such suspension.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

The 20th September 1856.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 20th September 1856, and was referred to a Select Committee who are to report thereon after the 24th of December next:—

A Bill to authorize the arrest and detention, within the Ports of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore, and Malacca, of Junks or Native Vessels suspected to be piratical.

Preamble.

WHEREAS there is reason to believe that certain Junks periodically visit the Ports of the said Settlement, ostensibly for the purposes of trade, but in reality to equip, arm, and fit themselves out for the purpose of making piratical attacks on peaceful trading Vessels, in the vicinity of the Straits of Malacca, and elsewhere: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Penalty for obstructing search or enquiry ordered by the Chief Resident Civil Authority in respect of any Junk or Native Vessel.

I. The Chief Resident Civil Authority of any Station of the said Settlement may, by an order in writing signed by him, at any time and as often as he shall deem it expedient, direct any public Officer to proceed on board any Junk or other Native Vessel being in any Port or place within the limits of the said Station, and to search such vessel, and to take an account of the armament thereof, and to make such further and other enquiry and investigation into the objects, pursuits, and movements of the Master or person in charge of such Junk or Vessel as the said Chief Civil Authority shall think fit; and any person who shall hinder, obstruct, or in any wise prevent such search, investigation, or enquiry, or shall obstruct such public Officer, or any person acting in his aid or assistance, in the discharge of his duty—shall, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six calendar months, or to both.

Seizure and detention of any Junk or Native Vessel suspected to be piratical.

II. Whenever it shall be proved, by oath or affirmation, to the satisfaction of the Chief Resident Civil Authority of any of the said Stations, that there is reasonable cause to suspect that any Junk or Vessel in any Port or place within the limits of the said Station is a piratical Vessel, or belongs to pirates, or is intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates, he may, by an order in writing signed by him, cause such Junk or Vessel, together with her tackle, apparel, and furniture, arms, stores, and ammunition, and the goods and merchandize laden therein, or any portion thereof, to be seized and detained.

Report of seizure and detention to the Governor.

III. Whenever any such Junk or Vessel, furniture, arms, stores, ammunition, goods, or merchandize, shall be seized and detained under the provisions of this Act, the Chief Resident Civil Authority shall report the circumstance, as soon as possible, to the Governor of the said Settlement, who shall give orders as to the detention or release of such Junk or Vessel or other things so seized or detained.

Penalty for Master or Crew refusing or neglecting to attend as witnesses, or giving false evidence.

IV. The Chief Resident Civil Authority at any of the said Stations may, by order in writing signed by him, summon the Master, or person in charge, and any of the Crew, of any such Junk or Vessel which he may have reasonable cause to suspect as aforesaid, or any other person, to attend before him, and to produce any document in his possession, and may examine such persons upon oath or affirmation to be administered by him, touching any matter which may appear to be material for the purpose of ascertaining whether the said Vessel is a piratical Vessel or belongs to pirates, or is intended to be used as aforesaid. Every person so summoned, who refuses or neglects to attend or make answer, or to produce any document in his possession, concerning the matters hereby authorized to be inquired into, or who wilfully gives false evidence or otherwise misbehaves in giving or refusing to give evidence, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding five hundred Rupees, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding six calendar months, or to both.

No Vessel or property to be detained beyond six months, unless proceedings have been commenced within that time.

V. No Vessel or other thing seized or detained in pursuance of the provisions herein contained, and no property on board thereof, shall be detained for a longer period than six months, unless within that time proceedings shall have been commenced for the condemnation thereof.

Suspected vessels not to leave Port with increased armament, &c.

VI. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Chief Resident Civil Authority of any of the said Stations, that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that any Junk or Native Vessel is about to proceed to Sea from any Port or place within the said Station so manned, armed, equipped, furnished, or fitted out, as to afford reasonable ground to suspect that the said Vessel is intended for piratical purposes, it shall be lawful for the said Chief Civil Authority to take such measures as may be necessary or proper to prevent such Vessel from proceeding to Sea from such Port or place, so long as the same is manned, armed, equipped, furnished, or fitted out beyond what he may deem sufficient for the due navigation and protection thereof as a Trading Vessel.

VII. No damages shall be recovered for the seizure or detention of any Vessel or other thing in pursuance of this Act, if it shall appear that there were reasonable grounds to suspect that the Vessel or other thing so seized or detained was piratical, or belonged to any pirate or pirates, or was intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates; but whenever any Vessel or other thing shall be seized or detained under the provisions of this Act, proceedings may be taken in any Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty Court having jurisdiction over the place where the seizure was made, or in any division of such Court, for the condemnation or for the restitution of such Vessel or other thing; and if, in such proceeding, it shall appear to the Court that such Vessel or other thing was piratical, or belonged to pirates, or was intended to be used for piratical purposes or for the purpose of trading with or supplying pirates, the same shall be forfeited and condemned without a previous conviction of the owner or of any other person of the crime of piracy.

No damages to be recovered for seizure on reasonable grounds of suspicion.

Condemnation or restitution of Vessel.

Clerk of the Council.

We have permitted the Reverend F. W. Vaux to return to his duty on the Bengal Establishment by the Ship Prince of Wales, which is appointed to sail in September next, with the grant of such short extension of his leave as will admit of his returning to India.

No. 1441.

With reference to Notification No. 757, dated the 6th May last, the following Order by Her Majesty in Council, dated the 28th July 1856, is published for general information:—

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July 1856:

Present.

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

Whereas by the Foreign Deserters' Act 1852, it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty, that due facilities are, or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the Territories of any Foreign Power; Her Majesty may, by order in Council, stating that such facilities are, or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to a subject of such power, when within Her Majesty's dominions or the Territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective Ships, and may limit the operation of such order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty, that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the Territories belonging to the Republic of Chili.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Foreign Deserters' Act 1852, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to citizens of the Republic of Chili within Her Majesty's dominions or the Territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective Ships. Provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions, or in the Territories of the East India Company, he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court and his Sentence (if any) has been fully carried into effect.

And Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said Foreign Deserters' Act 1852, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is further pleased to order and declare, that upon and after the publication hereof, in the London Gazette, the Order in Council relating to seamen who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to citizens of the Republic of Chili, made by virtue of the said Act on the twenty-fifth day of February 1856, and which was published in the London Gazette on the 7th day of March 1856, shall be revoked, and the same is hereby revoked accordingly.

And the Right Hon'ble the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

(Signed) W. L. BATHURST.

Notification.

PERSONS desirous of working the valuable Diamond Mines of the Maha Nuddee are hereby informed, that after the 1st of January 1857, the privilege will be leased to any one who shall be considered to have made the most eligible offer for the same.

2nd. Besides Precious Stones, Gold is to be met with in considerable quantities, and the party who may rent the privilege of working the Diamond Mines will be entitled to appropriate all Diamonds, Precious Stones and Gold that he may find in the bed of that river within the limits of the Sumbulpore Division during the period of his lease.

4th. Parties proposing to rent the Mines must be prepared to lodge in the Treasury at Sumbulpore one year's rent in advance as security for the fulfilment of the terms of the lease taken up by them, and the rent will be demanded in three instalments yearly. If at any time during the lease, the period of one year, calculated from the date of payment of the last instalment, be allowed to elapse without the payment of an instalment, the security money shall be forfeited and the lease considered to have expired.

5th. Further particulars may be learnt on applying to the Officiating Senior Assistant Commissioner at Sumbulpore.

Madras Exhibition of 1857.

NOTIFICATION.

THE Right Honorable the President and Members of the Committee for the Madras Exhibition of 1857 have the honor to announce, that Articles from all Countries will be admitted to the Madras Exhibition, to be held in the beginning of 1857, and be allowed to compete for Prizes; but, with a view to promote the good of this Country, it is hereby notified that Money Prizes, Medals, &c. will only be given for Articles capable of being applied in the Arts and Manufactures of India, or calculated to be of use to its people.

It will be necessary that each Local Committee attend to the following points:—Each Article sent for Exhibition must be (1) distinctly labelled, and the label must (2) set forth the district or locality from which the Article is sent; (3) the name of the Exhibitor; and (4) the price of the Article. Each Local Committee will also state in their Invoice List, how each article they send is to be disposed of at the close of the Exhibition, in the event of its not having been sold for the price put upon it by the Exhibitor.

The several Local Committees will consider themselves at liberty to add to their numbers such influential Natives of their District as they may consider likely to aid them in promoting the objects in view.

It would greatly facilitate the accurate performance of the duties of the General Committee if the Local Committees and the Exhibitors when addressing communications on the subject of the Exhibition would adhere to the official form of communication; or, in case of the non-official or private form being adopted, if they would so mark the letter, or such portions of it, in case of the letter being of a mixed nature, as may be intended to be private or non-official.

EDWARD BALFOUR,
Secretary, Madras Exhibition.

Banqueting Hall,
7th February 1856.

With reference to the foregoing Notification, which the undersigned has been requested to publish in the Calcutta Gazette, he begs to state that he has been also requested to receive from the Bengal Presidency all Packages containing Contributions for the Madras Exhibition of 1857.

Marine Court.

AT a Marine Court assembled on Wednesday, the Twentieth day of August, One-thousand Eight-hundred and Fifty-six, under Act XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Mate Pilot C. G. Smyth was tried on the following Charge:—

CHARGE.

Mr. Mate Pilot C. G. Smyth placed under arrest on the following Charge:—

For breach of duty in the following instance:

That he, having received orders to go on board the Hon'ble Company's Steamer Sesostris, (then off Kidderpore,) on the morning of the 10th instant, and proceed by her to relieve the Sandheads Cruizing Station, then in great want of Pilots for Ships detained outside, did, without any reasonable cause, and in wilful disobedience of those orders, and in gross neglect of duty, quit that Vessel immediately after he had repaired on board, and returned to Calcutta, without orders or permission to do so from the Master Attendant.

By order, &c.,

(Signed) H. HOWE,
Secretary.

FORT WILLIAM,
The 15th August 1856.

FINDING.

The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, together with that adduced on the defence, is of opinion that the defendant, Mr. C. G. Smyth, Mate Pilot, is Guilty of the Charge preferred against him, with exception of the words "without any reasonable cause."

SENTENCE.

The Court having found Mr. C. G. Smyth Guilty as above specified, do adjudge that Mr. C. G. Smyth, Mate Pilot, do lose one step in rank, and that his name do stand in the list of Mate Pilots below that of Mr. B. Bensley and above that of Mr. G. Lord.

(Signed) H. PIDDINGTON,
President.

(Signed) THOMAS H[illegible],
Judge Advocate.

FORT WILLIAM;
Master Attendant's Office,
The 26th August 1856.

REMARKS BY THE COURT.

The Court beg to remark in awarding the above Sentence, which, it is informed, is the most lenient that the offence admits of, that it would recommend the case to the consideration of Government as one deserving of mitigation, inasmuch as the proceedings show that the conduct of the defendant was actuated by an opinion prevalent in the Service (founded on a letter from a former Master Attendant to an individual member of the Service which was not admitted in evidence,) that a Pilot could not leave a Ship in the absence of proper accommodation, an impression which the Court considers should be removed without loss of time.

The Court would further beg to remark in this case, that there seems by the evidence to have been but little disposition shown to carry out the orders of the Marine Department to make the Pilots as comfortable as circumstances would admit of whilst on board the Sesostris; the recommendation, as shown by the evidence, was certainly not attended to, and the Court would respectfully submit that an enquiry should be instituted into it.

And in conclusion the Court would suggest that the accommodation to be granted to Pilots proceeding down to the Sandheads hereafter should be more clearly defined.

(Signed) H. PIDDINGTON,
President.

2. The proceedings having been submitted to Government, the Hon'ble the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal has been pleased to confirm the Sentence of the Court, accompanied by the following remarks on the case:—

No. 538.

FROM

THE JUNIOR SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL,

TO

THE OFFG. SUPDT. OF MARINE.

Dated Fort William, the 23rd Sept. 1856.

MARINE.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 5172, dated the 2nd instant, submitting the proceedings in the trial of Mr. Mate Pilot C. G. Smyth, charged with disobedience of orders and neglect of duty, in that having received orders to proceed from Calcutta on the Steamer Scoastris to the Sandheads to supply the want of Pilots at the Cruizing Station, he, without any reasonable cause, left the Steamer immediately after he had repaired on board, without orders or permission to do so.

2nd. The Court have found Mr. Smyth guilty of the charge, with the exception of the words "without any reasonable cause," and have sentenced him to lose one step in rank, adding their recommendation that the case is one deserving of mitigation, to which representation you are unable to give your support.

3rd. I am directed to inform you that the Lieutenant-Governor confirms the Sentence which the Court has passed on Mr. Smyth, viz., the loss of one step in rank in the list of Pilots.

4th. In forwarding the proceedings of the Court, you have offered the following remarks :—

"I cannot but regard Mr. Smyth's excuse as "frivolous in the extreme, and his conduct in "leaving the Steamer, after he had been ordered "to proceed on her on duty, as utterly inexcu-"sable.

"For a nautical man, when ordered on duty, to "make objections to that accommodation which is "used by passengers of every class at all seasons "of the year, and preferred by parties having "cabins even in gales of wind, as is familiar to "every one who has gone down to Moulmein on "our vessels, is I consider a disgraceful pretext for "evading duty."

5th. In the above opinion, the Lieutenant Governor entirely concurs.

6th. The remarks of the President of the Court on the grossly contemptuous and insubordinate tone of the replies of Mr. Branch Pilot Porter, when examined as a witness by the Court, will be duly noticed hereafter.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) C. T. BUCKLAND,

Junior Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

In conformity with the above decision, the Officiating Master Attendant has been desired to release Mr. Mate Pilot C. G. Smyth from arrest, and to allow him to return to his duty, and to place his name in the list of Mate Pilots below that of Mr. B. Bensley and above that of Mr. G. Lord.

By order of the Officiating Superintendent of of Marine,

H. HOWE,
Secretary.

FORT WILLIAM,

No. 5802.

Marine Court.

AT a Marine Court assembled on Friday, the Twelfth day of September, One-thousand Eight-hundred and Fifty-six, under Act XXIV. of 1845, Mr. Branch Pilot John Peter Trevor Porter was tried on the following Charges :—

CHARGES.

For breach of duty in the following instances :—

First.—For highly improper and insubordinate conduct at Calcutta on the 8th of July last, in having then sent to the Officiating Master Attendant a written refusal to comply with an established Rule of the Pilot Service, according to which it was his duty to provide a suitable mess for the Running Officers who might repair on board the Pilot Vessel he was in command of.

Second.—That he having been allowed the option of withdrawing his letter of the 8th of July, did, on the 9th idem, refuse to do so in a disrespectful and insubordinate manner.

Third.—That he having, under orders from Government, been directed by the Officiating Master Attendant to take command of the Pilot Vessel Coleroon, and prepare her in all respects for her cruize, including the provision of a suitable mess for the Officers, did, on the 21st August last, in wilful disobedience of those orders, refuse to do so, the wording of such refusal being in the highest degree insubordinate and disrespectful.

Such conduct in a Senior Officer, tending to the subversion of discipline, being calculated by its pernicious example to give rise to a spirit of contumacious insubordination amongst the members of the Pilot Service.

By order of the Officiating Superintendent of Marine,

(Signed) H. HOWE,
Secretary.

FORT WILLIAM,
The 6th September 1856.

FINDING.

The Court having maturely weighed and considered the evidence brought forward in support of the prosecution, together with that adduced upon the defence, is of opinion that Mr. Branch Pilot John Peter Trevor Porter is

Guilty of the first instance of the Charge,
Guilty of the second instance of the Charge, with exception of the word "disrespectful," and Guilty of the third instance of the Charge.

(Signed) H. PIDDINGTON,
President.

SENTENCE.

The Court having found the defendant Guilty as above specified, do adjudge him, Mr. Branch Pilot John Peter Trevor Porter, to lose one step in rank, and his name do stand below that of Mr. William Laing and above that of Mr. Thomas Smart in the list of Branch Pilots.

(Signed) H. PIDDINGTON,
President.

(Signed) THOMAS HILL,
Judge Advocate.

2. The proceedings having been submitted to Government, the subjoined letter, from the Junior Secretary to the Government of Bengal, conveys the decision of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor on the case :—

No. 537.

FROM

THE JUNIOR SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL,

TO

THE OFFG. SUPDT. OF MARINE.

Dated Fort William, the 26th Sept. 1856.

MARINE.

SIR,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 5528, dated the 17th instant, submitting, with your remarks, the proceedings on the trial of Mr. Branch Pilot Porter, held before a Marine Court on the following Charges:—

First.—For highly improper and insubordinate conduct at Calcutta on the 8th July last, in having then sent to the Officiating Master Attendant a written refusal to comply with an established Rule of the Pilot Service, according to which it was his duty to provide a suitable mess for the Running Officers who might repair on board the Pilot Vessel he was in command of.

Second.—That he having been allowed the option of withdrawing his letter of the 8th July, did, on the 9th idem, refuse to do so in a disrespectful and insubordinate manner.

Third.—That he having, under orders from Government, been directed by the Officiating Master Attendant to take command of the Pilot Vessel Coleroon, and prepare her in all respects for her cruize, including the provision of a suitable mess for the Officers, did, on the 21st August last, in wilful disobedience of those orders, refuse to do so, the wording of such refusal being in the highest degree insubordinate and disrespectful; such conduct in a Senior Officer tending to the subversion of discipline, being calculated by its pernicious example to give rise to a spirit of contumacious insubordination amongst the members of the Pilot Service.

2*nd.* The Court have found Mr. Porter guilty of the First Charge, guilty of the Second Charge, with the exception of the word "disrespectful," and guilty of the Third Charge, and they have sentenced him to the loss of one step in rank.

3*rd.* You observe that "this sentence reduces "Mr. Porter to the rank of an Acting Branch "Pilot, as he had only just received his promo- "tion before his offence was committed, for which "he was brought to trial, and as Mr. Branch Pilot "Strevens has officially intimated his intention of "retiring from the Service at the end of this "month, should he carry his intention into execu- "tion, Mr. Porter will be immediately placed in "the same position as he was before the trial, with "the exception of being Junior on the list of "Branch Pilots to one who previously stood be- "low him; but there is nothing superior in the "position of a man once on the list of Branch "Pilots, whether he stands at the top or at the bot- "tom of the list, so that the interests of Justice "have not been in the slightest degree vindicated "by this Sentence, although the Finding has been "for the guilt of the accused."

4*th.* As the Sentence passed upon Mr. Porter appears to the Lieutenant-Governor, under the circumstances represented by you, to be practically a nullity, His Honor is unable to approve or confirm it under Section XVIII. Act XXIV. of 1845. The case will be immediately submitted for the orders of the Hon'ble Court of Directors, and in the meantime Mr. Porter will remain under suspension as he is at present.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) C. T. BUCKLAND,
Junior Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

3. The Officiating Master Attendant has accordingly been directed to give effect to the order regarding Mr. Porter's suspension.

By order of the Officiating Superintendent of Marine,

Secretary.

By order of the Offg. Supdt. of Marine,

FORT WILLIAM, }
The 15th September 1856. }

Secretary.

DIRECTIONS
FOR
APPROACHING THE SANDHEADS IN BOTH MONSOONS.

THE SOUTH-WEST MONSOON.

THE South-West Monsoon may be considered to commence on the 15th March, on which date the Pilot Vessels take up their station near the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge as described below. The South-West Monsoon is over by the end of September.

2*nd.* False Point Light House is in latitude 20° 19¼′ North and longitude 86° 47′ East, and a Buoy is placed in 21½ fathoms on the Pilot's Ridge, in latitude 20° 49¼′ North and longitude 87° 42′ East, the Buoy therefore bears from False Point Light House North 59° 49′ East, true, and distant 59½ miles.

3*rd.* A Vessel, therefore, after making the Light House at False Point (in passing which she ought not to go into less than 10 fathoms), should bring it to bear about West-South-West 10 or 15 miles distant, when she will be in 11 or 12 fathoms; then steer East-North-Eastward when the soundings will gradually increase to 23 fathoms on the Eastern edge of the Pilot's Ridge; she should then regulate her course so as to keep between the Ridge and 27 fathoms, when, by attention to the lead and nature of the soundings, course and distance run from the Light House, it is almost impossible to avoid making the Pilot Vessels, as their cruizing ground is immediately to the North-East of the Light Vessel stationed during the South-West Monsoon in close proximity to the Buoy on the Ridge.

4*th.* The soundings to seaward of the Pilot's Ridge are, in general, a greenish or olive-colored mud, with occasionally a few bits of broken shells mixed with it; whilst those on the Ridge are of a shelly sand, or minute gravel, of a reddish or rusty brown color.

5*th.* Vessels approaching the Station are earnestly warned to be careful in avoiding collision when communicating with either the Light, or supplying Pilot Vessels; and, on making the former at night, they are strongly recommended to heave to, at a proper distance, till day-light, by which measure they will avoid the probability of passing the supplying Pilot Vessels in the darkness of the night.

6*th.* The Eastern Channel Light Vessel is in latitude 21° 04′ North and longitude 88½° 14′ East, and therefore bears from the Buoy on the Pilot's Ridge, North 63° 26′ East, true; and distant 32⅛ miles. The Eastern Channel Light Vessel, from the 15th March to the 15th September, burns a blue light every half hour and a maroon every quarter hour during the night, commencing at 7 P. M.; and her standing light is a plain light.

7th. The Pilot's Ridge Light Vessel shows from the 15th March to the 15th of September a plain standing light, and burns a blue light every hour and a maroon at the intermediate half hours.

8th It is important to observe the difference as to the blue lights and maroons shown by the Eastern Channel and the Ridge Light respectively, as, if this is attended to, a Vessel, out in her reckoning, or uncertain of her position, cannot possibly mistake one for the other.

THE NORTH-EAST MONSOON.

9th. This Monsoon, which constitutes the fine season in the Head of the Bay of Bengal, is considered to commence in October and end in the beginning of March. During this season the Pilot Station is about the outer Floating Light situated in the Eastern Channel as above, and Vessels coming in should make directly for that mark. The Pilot Vessels cruize in the day time spreading East and West of, sometimes a little to the Southward of the Light Vessel, and at night anchor in positions not far from her. At this season she shows a maroon or torch-light every half hour and a blue light every hour.
